Setting The Scene

With four teams bidding for the top seed and regular season title in the Southland Conference, UTSA concludes its conference schedule with a key three-game series against I-35 rival Texas State Bobcats Thursday-Saturday, May 18-20, with first place implication. Game one set for 3 p.m. at Roadrunner Field, while games two and three shift to Bobcat Field May 19-20 with a 6:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. start.

All-Time Series

The Bobcats lead the series 33-21 over the Roadrunners. Last season, UTSA and Texas State met four times with the Runners winning three of the four games, including a 8-7 decision at the SLC Tournament on May 25, in Natchitoches, La.

Last Outing

Freshman Michael Rockett hit his fifth home run of the season, but was not enough as Texas-Pan American used a three-run inning to score the 5-4 win Tuesday evening. Rockett drove in two of UTSA's four runs, while junior Michael McKennon and senior Lee Todesco collected two hits apiece. Junior Ryan Saltzgaber collected his 21st RBI of the season via a sacrifice fly. UTPA's closer Tim Haines came close the door for the Broncs, as he picked up his 10th save of the year. Haines went one and two-third innings with four strike outs.

Head Coach
Sherman Corbett
Sixth Season 173 Career Wins
UTSA's Winningest Coach

With more than 20 years of playing and coaching experience, Sherman Corbett now enters his sixth year at the helm of the UTSA baseball program.

With 173 career victories, Corbett became the all-time winningest baseball coach in UTSA history last season (173-166). He also guided the Roadrunners to their second Southland Conference (SLC) Tournament Championship and NCAA Regionals in 2005.

Three of Corbett's players went on to play professionally in 2005. Shortstop Ryan Crew, who was selected to the 2005 All-SLC third team and SLC Tournament MVP, was drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers, while pitcher Jason Vecchio was selected in the 16th round by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2005 draft. Sean Danielson was the third Runner to sign a big league contract when he signed with the St. Louis Cardinals.

In his first season in 2001, he guided the Roadrunners to their first 30-win season since 1995. The same year he coached four players to all-SLC honors including the 2001 SLC Pitcher of the Year in Jared Howton. In 2002, five players were selected to the all-conference squad under Corbett's tutelage along with Mark Schramek being the SLC Player and Hitter of the Year. Schramek went on to become UTSA's first-ever baseball all-American and the highest major league draft pick in UTSA history (first round, 40th overall by the Cincinnati Reds).

Corbett produced again in 2003 with Crew being named the 2003 SLC Freshman of the Year and a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American. In 2004, the Roadrunners led the SLC in home runs.

A San Antonio native, Corbett garnered all-city honors during his prep days at Samuel Clemens High School before beginning his collegiate career at Texas A&M.

Over three seasons as an Aggie, Corbett posted a career record of 14-11. Corbett was then drafted in the third round of the 1984 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the California Angels.

In his inaugural season with the Angels, the southpaw appeared in 34 games, posting a 2-1 record with one save and a 4.14 ERA. He made his major league debut against the Baltimore Orioles, then picked up his first major league victory against the Chicago White Sox at Old Comiskey Park.

He remained in the California organization for seven seasons. After his time with the Angels, Corbett spent one season with the Detroit Tigers organization and a final season with the Chicago Cubs organization before retiring in 1993.

Corbett comes from a highly respected baseball family in the San Antonio area, with his father, Raymond, Sr., serving as an administrator in the Schertz-Cibolo-Universal City Independent School District for 23 years. He also was an associate scout for the Cincinnati Reds and assisted with numerous camps and all-star games in the San Antonio area.

Corbett's brother, Raymond, Jr., who was a high school all-American and all-State catcher at Clemens High School, played over seven seasons in the Cincinnati organization. He is currently an area scout for the New York Mets.

In 2001 all three Corbetts were inducted into the Schertz-Cibolo-Universal City Independent School District Sports Hall of Honor.

Corbett graduated Cum Laude from Texas A&M with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1991. In 1995 he remained in College Station to earn a master of business administration degree.

After completing his master's degree, Corbett coached and taught at A&M Consolidated High School and was an instructor at Texas A&M baseball camps. In addition to his coaching and playing experience, Corbett also served as the NCAA Regional Baseball Tournament field coordinator for the 1993, 1998 and 1999 Regional and Super Regional games played at Texas A&M.

Corbett is the third baseball coach in UTSA history, following Jimmy Shankle (1992-95) and Mickey Lashley (1996-2000).

Corbett and his wife, Julie, have a seven-year old son, Mason.

Scouting Texas State

Texas State enters this weekend series tied for third place with Lamar in the SLC standing. The Bobcats are two-games back of first-place McNeese State. Texas State took two of three versus Texas-Arlington last weekend at Bobcat Field. TSU dropped the first game, but then won the next two games. Senior Luke Cannon leads the team in four offensive categories, batting average (.325), triples (4), home runs (14) and RBI (51). Senior Scott Moore ranks first with 106 strike outs in 91.0 innings tossed and is second with a 3.16 earn run average.

Race For The Title

The four teams of in the league will be battle it out this weekend for first-place in the conference. UTSA is one game back of first-place McNeese State., while Lamar and Texas State trail McNeese by two games.

Broncs Pitching Silence Birds Bats

UTPA used four pitchers to keep UTSA's hitters off-balance. Kelly Casares recorded a game high five strike outs. The Broncs got out jams twice with runners in scoring position. They posted 13 K's throughout the game.

Going, Going, Gone

Michael McKennon and Michael Rockett have combined for 15 of the 34 home runs hits this season. McKennon leads the team with 10, while Rockett has belted six home runs. McKennon has ended two games this season with walk-off homers. The first one came against Northwestern State (3/24), repeated once more against McNeese State (4/1). Rockett's smacked two home runs against the Cow-boys on April 1.

New Mark Set For UTSA

The Roadrunners set a new school record with most wins in conference play. Saturday's win over the Bearkats gave the Runners their 18th SLC victory, which surpassed the previous mark of 17 wins set twice in 1996 and 1999 season.

Shutdown Mode

Josh Ruffin and Blake Brannon threw complete games shutouts back-to-back against SHSU on Friday and Saturday. It was the third time the Roadrunners had two consecutive shutouts in a season. The last time this was accomplish was during the 1994 season when UTSA blanked Prairie View A&M on Feb. 26 and Texas Southern on Feb. 27, 1994.

Power Dominance

The Runners offense pounded SHSU pitching staff over the weekend. The Roadrunners scored 28 runs on 36 hits, batted .375 and slugged .500. Meanwhile, UTSA's pitching staff clamped down on the Bearkats allowing one run in 23 innings, including 16 scoreless frames and combining for a 0.36 ERA. Ruffin, Brannon and Barton held Sam Houston to a .156 batting average.

Another stellar Performance

Blake Brannon has pitched his way back into the rotation Since returning to the rotation, he is 3-0 with a 1.82 ERA and an .186 opponent batting average. He has allowed five runs in 24-plus innings and on May 13, Brannon collected his first complete-game shutout.

No Place Like Home

UTSA is an impressive 23-4 at home, including an 8-2 mark at Wolff Stadium this season. The 24 wins at home is the most ever victories.

How They Rank In The SLC

Lee Todesco stands third in the league with a .371 batting average, while Michael Rockett is fourth with a .366 average. Michael McKennon's .357 average is ninth-best, but is fourth with 75 hits. Todesco stands in sixth with 46 runs batted in. Josh Ruffin leads the SLC with 103.0 innings pitched, five complete games and four shutouts. His seven wins rank fourth in the league. Noah Tritz tops the conference with eight saves and is second with eight wins.

30 Something Accomplished

The Roadrunners secured its fourth ever 30-win season with a sweep of Texas A&M-Corpus Christi on May 2. The last time UTSA accomplished this feat was during the 2001 season, when the Runners finished 30-29. Coach Corbett is the second coach in UTSA's baseball history to have two 30-win seasons.

Looking For The Best Finish

This year's team has them on pace of having its best season ever in both wins and winning percentage. With 5 games remaining, the Roadrunners on pace for its first ever 40-win season. The 1994 squad fell one win shy of 40, however, they managed to finish the season 39-18 (.684).

Birds Add A Couple Of Games

UTSA has added single games with Texas-Pan American and Dallas Baptist to the schedule as make-ups for games lost earlier this season. UTSA will travel to Edinburg, Texas, for a game at Texas-Pan American on Tuesday, May 16, at 6 p.m. The Roadrunners end their regular season against Dallas Baptist on Monday, May 22, at 3 p.m. at Roadrunner Field.

Todesco's Belts Islanders

Senior Lee Todesco smacked two home runs against TAMUCC. His first homer was a solo in the fifth inning. Todesco's hammered a three-run shot over the left wall in the sixth inning. He also collected a career-high six RBI.

Plunk Record

Junior Michael McKennon became the hit-by-pitch leader with 32 beams. He is two shy of the tying the school record of 19, set by Matt McIntyre in 2001. He also ranks 17th in the nation averaging 0.37 hit by pitch per game.

Offensive Explosion

Against Stephen F. Austin, the Roadrunners punished SFA's pitching staff with 14 runs off a season-high 18 hits. Junior Ryan Saltzgaber paced the Runners offense with four hits, including a solo blast and drove in three Runners. Also going yard was freshman Michael Rockett.

Nothing New For The Birds

The Roadrunners played in their seventh extra inning ball game this season. Three of the seven games have gone into the 12th inning, with UTSA winning them all.
