Alma Mater: Illinois State '98
Record at ISU: 163-140 (10th season)
Career Record: Same
Muller vs. UTSA: 1-0

ROADRUNNERS

Head Coach: Steve Henson
Alma Mater: Kansas State '90
Record at UTSA: 85-84 (6th season)
Career Record: Same
Henson vs. ISU: 1-0

QUICK HITTERS

• Illinois State's 6.6 blocked shot per game average puts them eighth in the country in the category.

• The Redbirds have won their last two games without trailing at any point, the 10th time since 1996-97 that ISU has had back-to-back games without trailing. In the 'Birds' last 100 game play minutes, the team has trailed for just 15 seconds.

• Since making the move to a reserve role, ISU guard Josiah Strong has scored 20 or more points three times. His three games of 20+ points are the fourth-most in the country this season.

• Antonio Reeves ranks 12th in NCAA Division I in scoring, averaging 20.8 points per game, and has spent nearly the entire season inside of the top-25 in the country in scoring.

• Reeves is one of just four players in the country to rank inside of the top-25 in both three-point makes per game (he ranks 25th) and three-point percentage (he ranks 21st).

• With his 26 points off the bench against Chicago State, ISU guard Josiah Strong is tied for the 10th most points in a game by a non-starter in program history.

• Reeves has scored 782 career points, which puts him 68th in school history.

• Reeves has scored in double figures in all 12 games this season, which is the 15th-longest such streak to open a season in program history.

• Illinois State has had five different players score at least 20 points in a single game this season, which is the highest such total in the MVC this season.

• In his 10th year as head coach, Dan Muller has the third-most wins and third-best win percentage of any NCAA Division I school in Illinois.

• Illinois State head basketball coach Dan Muller is one of 44 head coaches in the country this season to be the head coach at their alma mater. His 163 coaching wins at Illinois State is the sixth-most among that group of 44 coaches.

• The Redbirds' three overtime games are tied for the third-most in the country this season.

• Of the 11 top scoring individual efforts in the MVC this season, four have come from Redbird student athletes.

SCOUTING THE ROADRUNNERS

UTSA comes into the game having split its last four games with wins over St. Mary's (Texas) and Sam Houston, and losses to Grand Canyon and UTRGV.

In the team's most recent game, an 18-point loss to UTRGV, Jacob Germany scored a team-high 16 points, while Cedrick Alley Jr. scored 15 points off of the bench. Germany added a team-best nine rebounds, while Dhieu Deing had eight boards and Alley seven. Erik Czumbel led the Roadrunners with four assists, while Deing and Alley each had two steals.

For the season the Roadrunners have four players averaging in double-figures, led by Deing's 16.6 point per game average, with Jordan Ivy-Curry averaging 14.1. Germany averages 13.7 points per game, while Alley averages 10.1. Those four have combined to score 586 of the team's 752 points this season, 78 percent in all.

Alley's 7.7 rebound per game average is the top mark on the team, as Ivy-Curry has dished out a team-best 26 assists. Alley Jr. and Deing are tied for the team lead with 15 steals each, while Germany's 12 blocked shots pace the squad.

SENDING AWAY

This season through 12 games, the Illinois State Redbirds rank 8th in the NCAA in blocked shots per game, averaging 6.6 per contest. The Illinois State school record for blocked shots in a season is 171 (5.2 per game)

WIRE-TO-WIRE WINS

Over the last two games, Illinois State has not trailed at any point in the games. Since the 1996-97 season, ISU has had 10 pairs of games, back-to-back, where the Redbirds have not trailed. The last time Illinois State has had three consecutive such games was during the 1996-97 season against Northwestern (Dec. 18), Green Bay (Dec. 21), and UIC (Dec. 23).

MULTIPLE 20-POINTS OFF OF THE BENCH

Since making the move to a reserve role, Illinois State guard Josiah Strong has found his rhythm, and his shooting stroke. In six games, he has scored 20 or more points three times, while averaging 15.5 points per game in those six games. His three games of 20+ points are the fourth-most by a reserve in the country this season, trailing only the four games of reaching the scoring plateau from Matt Balanc (Quinnipiac), Tari Eason (Louisiana State), and Trevion Williams (Purdue). Since 2010-11, the most 20+ point scoring games in a reserve role is 12, held by two different student-athletes.

BIG NUMBERS

A dozen games into the 2021-22 season, Illinois State's Antonio Reeves ranks 12th in NCAA Division I in points per game, averaging 20.8 per contest.

CALLING FOWL IN THE NON-CONFERENCE

During the 2021-22 season, in 13 non-conference games, Illinois State will face off against five schools with bird mascots, and no two doubling up. So far, ISU has faced a Seahawk (UNCW), Eagle (Eastern Michigan), and Hawk (Quincy), with Ball State (Cardinal) and UTSA (Roadrunner) ahead on the schedule. The Redbirds also face off against three jungle cats (Pride of Purdue Northwest, Tigers of Jackson State, and Cougars of Chicago State), three forms of cattle (Racers of Murray State, Bison of Bucknell and Bulls of Buffalo) a Badger (Wisconsin) and whatever the heck a Billiken (Saint Louis) is.

HIGH MAKES AND PERCENTAGE

Illinois State junior guard Antonio Reeves is one of just eight student-athletes across NCAA Division I to rank inside of the top 25 in both three point field goals made per game and three-point field goal percentage.

BIG SCORING OFF THE BENCH

Against Chicago State on December 11, Illinois State guard Josiah Strong came off the bench to score a career-high 26 points, including making 6-of-8 three-point shots in the contest. Strong's point total is tied for the 10th-most points in a reserve role for Illinois State since 1976-77. He is also one of 20 student-athletes in the country this season to have scored at least 26 points as a non-starter - led by Elon's Torrence Watson who scored 34 points off of the bench against High Point on December 4.

COACHING THE ALMA MATER

There are currently 44 NCAA Division I head coaches that are leading their alma maters - up from 35 a season ago - including Illinois State's Dan Muller. Muller stands sixth of those coaches in total wins with 163 in his 10th season with the program. Of that group, Jim Boeheim leads the select fraternity with 987 victories - and there are an eye popping 12 new coaches leading their alma maters for the 2021-22 season. (as of games on December 12, 2021)

Illinois State is also one of just five schools in the country this season to have two players make at least six three-pointers in the same game. The Redbirds are joined by Colgate, Dartmouth, Illinois, and Wyoming.

HIGH GAME TOTALS

Illinois State is one of just 18 schools in NCAA Division I this season to have two different student-athletes that have scored at least 30 points in a game. With Antonio Reeves and Mark Freeman each having reached the 30-point plateau, the Redbirds join Colorado State, Davidson, DePaul, Evansville, Furman, Illinois, Iowa State, Jacksonville State, Loyola (Md.), Murray State, NC State, Northern Colorado, UNLV, Utah Valley, Winthrop, Wyoming, Xavier as the only schools in the country this season with two different players with 30+ points in a single game. ISU is one of just six schools (Davidson, DePaul, Murray State, UNLV, and Wyoming) with two different student-athletes have games of at least 32 points in a single game.

NOT FROM AROUND HERE

The first Redbird student-athlete to come from outside of the United States was Roy Herald, a native of Finland, that played for Illinois State from 1977 through 1981. Since then 17 foreign-native student-athletes have played for the Redbirds. This season's team has four foreign-born student-athletes, tied for the most on a single team in program history. Last season ISU also had four players from outside of the United States, and the previous high mark for foreign players was three, set three times, the first in 1996-97, along with 2012-13 and 2013-14.

LOTS OF SCORERS

This season Illinois State has had five different players: Sy Chatman, Mark Freeman, Kendall Lewis, Antonio Reeves, and Josiah Strong score 20+ points in a game this season. That number is the most in the MVC this season.

EXTRA TIME

This season across NCAA Division I basketball there have been 97 games that have needed at least one extra period. Illinois State has taken part in three of those games, tied the third-most in the country this season (behind only Utah Valley' and High Point's four overtime games). With its double-overtime game against Eastern Michigan, ISU has played in four overtime periods, which is tied for the fourth-most this season, along with Fordham, Furman, Nebraska, Troy, and Utah Valley, and behind Eastern Michigan (6), FIU (5), and NC State (5) for most overtime periods played this season (as of games played on December 18).

CONSECUTIVE DOUBLE-FIGURE GAMES

This season, Illinois State guard Antonio Reeves has scored in double figures in all 12 games of the season. That has him with the 15th-longest single-season streak in program history, tied with Lou Stefanovic. One additional double-figure game will give him 13 consecutive double-figure games to open the year, tied with Phil Fayne for 14th-longest season-opening streak. The all-time record is 30, held by Derrick Mayes for the full 1978-79 season. Seven times a Redbird student-athlete has scored in double-figures for an entire season, including all three seasons of Doug Collins' career.

FREE OF FOULING

Against Purdue Northwest, Illinois State was whistled for just seven personal fouls in the game, which ties a program record, previously set against Green Bay on Nov. 29, 1986. ISU has 14 games - including the game on November 27th against the Pride - which ISU committed fewer than 10 fouls in a game.

BIG SCORING GAMES

Of the 11 highest scoring individual games in the MVC this season, four have been completed by Illinois State players. Mark Freeman's 34 points against Bucknell and Antonio Reeves' 32 points against Eastern Michigan are the second- and third- highest scoring games, while Reeves' 29 against UNCW and Sy Chatman's 29 against Eastern Michigan are tied for the ninth-highest scoring game in the conference this season.

MULTIPLE 20'S

This season Antonio Reeves has scored 20 or more points five times, while Sy Chatman and Josiah Strong have reached the 20-point plateau three times each. The Redbirds are one of five schools, along with Fordham, Hofstra, North Carolina, and Purdue, to have three players with three or more 20+-point games.

SPECIAL GAME

With his game of 34 points, seven rebounds, and seven assists against Bucknell on Nov. 20, Illinois State junior guard Mark Freeman is one of just 39 players since 2010-11 to put up similar numbers, and just one of 28 to do it while committing four or fewer turnovers in the same game. Among the notable other student-athletes to accomplish the feat include Buddy Hield, Trae Young, Ben Simmons, and Ja Morant.

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK

Or do call it a comeback, we're just taking the advice of LL Cool J. In the opening game of the season on November 9, the Redbirds found themselves trailing by 15 points with 5:06 to play in the first half; however, the 'Birds closed the gap to nine by halftime, and over the first four minutes of the second half re-took the lead. Recovering from the 15-point deficit gave ISU its 11th-largest margin overcome in program history.

TALL TEAM

With the team having seven players standing 6-8 or taller, this Illinois State squad has the fifth-biggest average height of any team in program history with an average height of nearly 6-6, this years' team trails the tallest two teams (1976-77 and 1987-88) by just over 1/10 of an inch per player. Below are the top-10 tallest and shortest Illinois State teams since 1962-63.

ILLINOIS STATE VS CONFERENCE USA

Of the 14 schools currently in this iteration of Conference USA, Illinois State has a 19-9 all-time record, including a 6-0 mark against Marshall and 4-1 against Louisiana Tech. The league will undergo a seismic shift in the near future, with a handful of schools - including UTSA, UAB, Florida Atlantic, Charlotte, North Texas, and Rice (to the American Athletic Conference) - leaving for other conferences.

UNUSUAL COMBINATION

With his opening-night game with 29 points, five three-point baskets, and three blocked shots, Illinois State junior guard Antonio Reeves became just the 38th player in NCAA Division I since the 2010-11 season to record those numbers in a single game, and the only one to do it on opening night.

NEAR THE TOP OF THE STATE

During current head coach Dan Muller's tenure, the Redbirds have experienced a level of success that is nearly unrivaled among the other 13 Division I schools within the state. ISU is 163-140 over the last nine-plus seasons - a winning percentage of .538, which is the third-highest win total and winning percentage total in the state. CONSECUTIVE 10+ REBOUND GAMES TO OPEN SEASON

Similar to the scoring numbers put up by Antonio Reeves, ISU forward Sy Chatman has reached double-figure rebounds in each of the team's first two games, becoming one of just five players in school history to accomplish the feat, which has happened a total of six times (Ron deVries did it to start two different seasons). Chatman's streak came to an end with six rebounds at home against Murray State on November 16.

NON-STATE, STATE SCHOOLS

There are 358 NCAA Division I schools (including the transitional schools) playing basketball this season. Of those schools, 67 have "State" in its name. Of that 67, 31 are direct state schools (ie, Illinois State), while five others have the state in their name, but with a descriptor (Central Connecticut, East Tennessee, Southeast Missouri). The remainder of the schools - 31 total - have no direct state reference in its name (Boise State, Wichita State, etc.) but use State in the name. Of that group, Illinois State will face off against four such schools in the non-conference season: Murray, Jackson, Chicago, and Ball.

CONSECUTIVE 20+ POINT GAMES TO OPEN SEASON

Antonio Reeves became one of just 11 student-athletes in program history to open a season with two consecutive 20+ scoring games, and those 11 have done it a total of 13 times. The school record for 20+ point scoring games to start a season is 10 by Doug Collins, as he also has the second-longest stretch with 7. Reeves' streak came to an end with 19 points at home against Murray State on November 16.

LOW JERSEY NUMBERS

Opening the 2021-22 season against UNCW, Illinois State used a starting lineup combination whose jersey numbers added to 37, which is tied for the eighth-lowest starting lineup jersey combination in head coach Dan Muller's tenure at ISU. The low total came during the 2019-20 season when the team started jersey numbers 0, 2, 3, 5, and 13.

BIG MILESTONES

Last season in Illinois State's win over Greenville, the program set numerous school, conference, and arena records. Among the school records set include: Points in a game, points in the first half, points in the second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, and assists. The MVC records set include: Points in a game, combined points, field goals made, field goal percentage in a game, and assists, while the Redbird Arena records that were erased include points (previous mark was 105), points in first half, points in second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, rebound margin, assists, and the second-most field goals attempted and rebounds.

BIG NUMBERS

With Illinois State's bit 177-108 win over Greenville on December 2 of last season, the Redbirds edged their way into a number of NCAA Division I all-time top-10 stat totals, including new NCAA records in assists (57) and field goal percentage (84.3%), and top-ten standings in total points (177), combined points for both teams (285), and scoring in a half (94).

ILLINOIS STATE HEAD COACH DAN MULLER

Dan Muller, the 2017 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, has proven his ability to win an MVC championship. Now in his eighth season as head coach of the program, Muller has led the Redbirds to a share of the MVC regular-season title (2017), which was the program's first since he helped ISU win the Valley championship as a player in 1998, three MVC Tournament Championship Game appearances, and three postseason appearances.

Muller was named the 19th men's basketball coach in school history May 8, 2012, and led Illinois State to a better MVC record and higher conference finish during each of his first five seasons. In 2016-17, Muller guided the Redbirds to program bests in MVC wins (17-1, en route to the Valley title), regular-season victories (25) and overall triumphs (28).

Now in his 10th season, Muller has amassed a 163-140 record and coached the Redbirds to four victories over Top-25 programs, three postseason appearances (2017 National Invitation Tournament, 2015 NIT and 2014 College Basketball Invitational), four postseason wins, and victories against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and the American Athletic Conference. Muller is the first coach in Illinois State basketball history to beat four Top-25 teams in his first four seasons, and his four Top-25 victories are also tied for the most ever recorded by a Redbird head coach.

Muller has guided ISU student-athletes to 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections (four first team, eight second team and three honorable mention), six MVC All-Defensive accolades, five MVC All-Newcomer honors and one MVC All-Freshman accolade.

The 2018-19 season saw the Redbirds never dip below .500 during the season despite playing one of its most challenging home schedules in recent memory with Florida Gulf Coast, BYU, San Diego State, and Ole Miss all making trips to Redbird Arena during the season. For their efforts Phil Fayne (first team) and Malik Yarbrough (second team) were named to the All-Conference and All-Region squads.

In 2017-18 the Redbirds battled injuries all season and had just one player appear in every game. The team's 18-15 record was deceiving; however, as it included wins over the SEC's South Carolina and Ole Miss, and the American Athletic Conference's Tulsa (twice). Muller helped coach junior guard/forward to MVC Newcomer of the Year honors and a spot on the All-Conference First Team, as the team battled its way to the championship game of the MVC Tournament.

The 2016-17 Illinois State men's basketball program teamed up to win a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship while setting program records in total victories (28), regular-season wins (25) and MVC triumphs (17). After finishing second at the State Farm MVC Tournament, ISU earned a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Redbirds won their NIT first-round matchup before bowing out in the second round.

As a fourth-year coach (2015-16), Muller and the Redbirds faced one of the toughest non-conference schedules in program history, ranked No. 7 in the nation at the end of the regular season, according to the Collegiate Basketball News Report. The Redbirds finished the 2015-16 campaign with an 18-14 overall record and tied for second place with a 12-6 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, signifying ISU's highest league finish and most conference wins since 2007-08. Illinois State's upset victory over No. 21 Wichita State (Feb. 6) on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena marked Muller's fourth Top-25 win in as many seasons.

Illinois State's individual accolades in 2015-16 included: DeV Vaughn Akoon-Purcell: All-MVC Second Team; Paris Lee: MVC Honorable Mention Team, All-Defensive Team; MiKyle McIntosh: MVC Honorable Mention Team, Most-Improved Team (team captain); Nick Banyard: All-Bench Team; Justin McCloud: MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team.

In his third season with the Redbirds (2014-15), Muller guided ISU to a 22-13 overall record, marking ISU's most victories since 2009-10. Illinois State tied for third place in the Missouri Valley Conference with an 11-7 mark. As the MVC Tournament's fourth seed, the Redbirds upset No. 8 Wichita State in the semifinals, marking a Redbird win over ISU's highest ranked opponent since 1978. Illinois State also became just the second MVC team to beat Wichita State in more than two years.

After falling to No. 11 Northern Iowa in the tournament championship game, the Redbirds earned an at-large bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) for the 13th time in program history. Fourth-seeded ISU advanced to the NIT second round by beating fifth-seeded Green Bay at home (March 18).

Along with Illinois State's team success, ISU earned seven individual MVC honors under Muller's guidance: Akoon-Purcell: Newcomer of the Year, All-Newcomer Team; Daishon Knight: All-MVC Second Team; Reggie Lynch: All-MVC Second Team, All-Defensive Team; Lee: All-Defensive Team; Bobby Hunter: All-Bench Team. Knight and Lynch were additionally named to the MVC All-Tournament Team. The Redbirds also excelled in the classroom, establishing a team grade-point average record in the fall of 2014 with a 2.99 GPA, breaking the previous mark by 0.13 points.

During his second season as Illinois State's head coach (2013-14), Muller was charged with leading the most inexperienced team in NCAA Division I basketball. With just two-and-a-half years of returning experience, Muller guided ISU to another 18-win season, including marquee victories over a Top-25 program (vs. No. 25 Dayton, Dec. 7), a Big Ten team (at Northwestern, Nov. 17), a BIG EAST opponent (vs. DePaul, Dec. 22) and an SEC foe (vs. Texas A&M, March 24). ISU had never before earned wins against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST and the SEC in the same season.

The Redbirds also tied for fourth place in the final Missouri Valley Conference standings, with a 9-9 record. Illinois State played particularly well on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena, where the Redbirds went 14-3 with a dominant 8-1 record against Valley foes. ISU advanced to the postseason by earning a spot in the 16-team College Basketball Invitational (CBI) field. Muller led the Redbirds to two victories in the CBI which tied for the most-ever postseason wins by an ISU team.

Under Muller's guidance, newcomers Knight and Lynch both earned All-MVC accolades, as Knight was named to the All-MVC Honorable Mention Team and the All-Newcomer Team, while Lynch was placed on the All-Newcomer Team and the All-Freshman Team. Nick Zeisloft was also named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team in 2013-14.

In his first year at Illinois State (2012-13), Muller led the Redbirds to an 18-win season, with at least one victory against eight of the Missouri Valley Conference's nine opponents. Muller also guided ISU to the Valley Tournament semifinals.

During the regular season, Illinois State earned a marquee win at No. 16 Creighton, 75-72, in front of a sellout crowd of 18,494 at CenturyLink Center Omaha. The Bluejays went on to win the Valley regular-season and tournament titles. The victory was ISU's first over a nationally ranked team on the road since topping No. 17 Tulsa in 1985.

Under Muller's tutelage, ISU was awarded two All-Missouri Valley Conference selections for the first time since 2010, as senior forward Jackie Carmichael received All-MVC First Team recognition, and senior guard Tyler Brown garnered All-MVC Second Team accolades. Additionally, Carmichael earned All-MVC Tournament and All-Defensive Team honors, and he was named to the 2013 Lou Henson (mid-major) All-America Team. Muller also helped sophomore guard Johnny Hill land a spot on the MVC Most-Improved Team.

For Muller's first-year efforts, he was named one of 10 national finalists for the 2013 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

Before becoming Illinois State's leader, Muller spent 12 years as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. Under former Illinois State head coach Kevin Stallings, Muller was regarded as one of the top assistant coaches in the country. As Vanderbilt's recruiting coordinator, Muller spearheaded the program's recruiting efforts beginning in 2006, which were the highest-rated recruiting classes in the history of the program.

Since 2006, the Vanderbilt men's basketball program signed six four-star recruits and Rivals 150 Prospects, in addition to five-star recruit John Jenkins in 2009, the nation's leading high school scorer and a PARADE and Reebok All-American.

During Muller's tenure, Vanderbilt had 18 players named to the All-Southeastern Conference First and Second teams and a player named to the All-SEC Defensive Team three consecutive years (2010, 2011 and 2012).

Once Muller joined the Vanderbilt staff in 2000, the staff and team accomplished seven 20-win seasons. Starting in 2003, Vanderbilt was recognized nationally as a Top-25 team in the Associated Press Poll for a total of 51 weeks. In 2007-08, Vanderbilt was ranked in the AP Top-25 for the most consecutive weeks in school history.

Muller's efforts, both on and off the court, helped propel the Commodores to the 2012 SEC Tournament Championship, the Commodores' first league tournament title since 1951. In addition, Vanderbilt appeared in six NCAA Tournaments, including five in the last six seasons, and posted two Sweet 16 appearances during Muller's tenure.

Along with his recruiting, scouting and on-court responsibilities, Muller directed the student-athletes' academic progress. During that time, Vanderbilt collected a 100 percent senior graduation rate and one of the highest APR's in NCAA Division I college basketball.

As a player, Muller guided Illinois State to two regular-season and Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championships and four postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons (1997 and 1998).

Muller ranks 11th in career scoring with 1,445 points, while leading the Redbirds to a 91-37 overall record, and he still owns the school record with 128-consecutive starts (every game of his career). Muller was also a two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year and was named the MVP of the Valley Tournament as a senior. In 2009, he was inducted into the Illinois State Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame.

Off the court, Muller was just as successful. He was a two-time GTE Academic All-American and a recipient of the NCAA's Post-Graduate Scholarship. He also was named a Bone Scholar, the highest academic honor at ISU, and he is the only men's basketball student-athlete to earn the award.

After playing for the Redbirds, the Lafayette, Indiana, native spent two years playing professionally, including a stint with the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies.

Muller is a 1998 graduate of Illinois State and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership. He later earned his master's in business administration from Florida in 2003. He is married to Melissa Muller and has one stepson, Sib.
