HEAD COACH JASON MARSHALL
FIRST SEASON (13TH OVERALL AT UTSA)

After serving as an assistant and associate head coach at UTSA for 12 years, Jason Marshall was named the fourth head coach in Roadrunners baseball history on June 18.

"We are thrilled to promote Jason to lead our baseball program," Athletics Director Lynn Hickey said when she announced his hiring. "He has shown his commitment to the program over the last 12 years and has established himself as one of the top coaches in the country. He is a great communicator and teacher of the game and I am excited for what he will bring to the future of UTSA baseball."

"First and foremost, I want to thank Sherman Corbett for his leadership of the program for the past 12 years," Marshall said. "It has been an honor to share the dugout with one of the great character men in college baseball. Also, I want to thank Athletics Director Lynn Hickey and Senior Associate Athletics Director Ross Cobb for giving me this opportunity at such a pivotal juncture in the program's history."

"It has been an honor to influence the lives of so many young men over the last several years and it is humbling to be asked to lead the Roadrunners baseball team. I can't thank enough of the people who have invested in my life at some point along the way. This is a huge honor for me and I carry them with me daily in this job. I am looking forward to leading this program back to championship caliber."

Marshall has spent 12 years on the Roadrunners' coaching staff, including the last nine as the associate head coach, under Corbett.

The Abilene native was hired at UTSA prior to the 2001 season and spent three campaigns as an assistant before being promoted to associate head coach. He has served as both the infielders coach and recruiting coordinator while running the Roadrunners' camps.

His efforts on the recruiting trails have resulted in a pair of All-Americans, five Freshman All-Americans, 55 Southland Conference performers (including 11 first teamers), the 2007 and '08 Southland regular season championships and 2005 Southland Tournament title.

Meanwhile, 26 UTSA players have gone on to play professionally, including 16 who have been selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. In 2002, Mark Schramek became the first player in school history to be selected in the first round when he was the 40th overall selection by the Cincinnati Reds and Matt Crocker became the third-highest pick in program history in June 2010 when he was taken by the Colorado Rockies in the 12th round.

A standout performer at Texas A&M from 1989-92, he was named the Aggies' Most Valuable Player after leading the team in games played (61), hits (66), runs scored (35) and RBIs (40) as a senior.

Following his collegiate career, he was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 13th round of the 1992 MLB Draft. Marshall went on to play four seasons in the Royals organization before finishing his professional career in 1995.

He then entered the coaching ranks as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1996 and was a member of Texas A&M's staff for two seasons. In summer 1997, Marshall coached with the Cotuit Kettleers in the prestigious Cape Cod League.

The following fall, he was hired as the assistant in charge of defense and recruiting at McMurry University. Marshall helped lead the Indians to postseason play in two of his three seasons and, in 1998, McMurry won the American Southwest Conference regular season and tournament championships.

Marshall, who earned a bachelor of science degree in kinesiology from Texas A&M in 1996, and his wife, Ashleigh, have two sons, Cooper and Jackson, and a daughter, Kate.

SCOUTING TEXAS A&M-CORPUS CHRISTI

Texas A&M-Corpus Christi is off to a 3-1 start this season after a season-opening series against Texas-Pan American. The Islanders, who were picked to finish seventh in the 2013 Preseason Southland Conference Coaches Poll, lost their season opener last Friday, but rebounded to win the final three contests in the series. Texas A&M-Corpus Christi is led at the plate by Brad Porras, who batted .467 (7-of-15) with three doubles and two RBIs in the series with the Broncs. Meanwhile, Wednesday's probable starting pitcher, Tyler Schnuriger, is 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA and four strikeouts in 4.0 innings. Schnuriger started the season opener against Texas-Pan American.

UTSA AGAINST THE ISLANDERS ALL-TIME

UTSA and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi will meet for the 47th time on Wednesday night with the Roadrunners holding a 25-21 advantage in the all-time series. The Islanders have won three of the last four meetings and took two of three from the Birds last season in Corpus Christi.

SCOUTING LOUISIANA-LAFAYETTE

The Ragin' Cajuns took three out of four games from Central Michigan in the season-opening weekend. Louisiana-Lafayette, which was selected to finish eighth in the 2013 Preseason Sun Belt Conference Coaches Poll, dropped the series finale to the Chippewas last Sunday. Ryan Leonards leads the Ragin' Cajuns offensively with a .333 batting average, four RBIs and a pair of stolen bases. Kody Smith has posted four scoreless innings in relief to lead the bullpen, while Austin Robichaux owns a 1.80 ERA to pace the starting rotation.

UTSA AGAINST THE RAGIN' CAJUNS ALL-TIME

UTSA and Louisiana-Lafayette open a three-game series on Friday night. It will mark the 12th meeting between the two clubs with the Ragin' Cajuns holding an 8-3 all-time series lead. The Roadrunners have won the last two matchups, including a 5-2 decision last season at the UTSA Classic.

UTSA SWEEPS AIR FORCE

UTSA opened the 2013 season in grand fashion with a four-game sweep of Air Force last weekend at Roadrunner Field. The Roadrunners batted .417 and scored 40 runs in the series. It marked UTSA's first four-game series sweep since completing the task against Sacred Heart nearly five years ago (Feb. 29-March 2, 2008).

ROCKETT NAMED WAC HITTER OF THE WEEK

Senior outfielder Daniel Rockett was named the Western Athletic Conference Hitter of the Week on Feb. 18 after leading the Roadrunners to a four-game sweep of Air Force. During the series, Rockett batted .733 (11-of-15) with two doubles, a homer, four RBIs and scored six runs. His 16 total bases translated to 1.067 slugging percentage and he reached base at a .762 clip.

COX TABBED WAC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Junior reliever Wesley Cox was tabbed the Western Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 18. Cox, a native of Rockwall, Texas, appeared in both ends of UTSA's doubleheader last Saturday against Air Force. In the opener, he picked up the win in relief and posted a save in the nightcap. For the week, Cox was 1-0 with a save, a 1.50 ERA and six strikeouts in 6.0 innings of work.

MARSHALL COLLECTS FIRST VICTORY

First-year head coach Jason Marshall picked up his first win last Friday as the Roadrunners topped Air Force, 9-2, in the season opener. Marshall, who is in his 13th season as a member of the Birds' coaching staff, became the first head coach in program history to win his debut. The three previous head coaches did not pick up their first win until at least the third game of their careers (Jimmy Shankle [3]/Mickey Lashley [5]/Sherman Corbett [5]).

CALL TO THE PEN

UTSA relied heavily on its bullpen in last weekend's season-opening series against Air Force. Seven pitchers combined for a 4-0 record with one save, a 1.89 ERA and 34 strikeouts in 19.0 innings. The bullpen gave up only four runs and walked three batters. Four of the seven pitchers did not give up a run, while two of those did not yield a hit.

CLOSING TIME

Since 2007, UTSA is 133-7 when leading after the eighth inning. The Roadrunners were 16-0 when entering the ninth with a lead last season.

ROADRUNNERS TABBED 8TH IN WAC POLL

In its first and only season in the Western Athletic Conference, UTSA was picked to finish eighth in the 10-team league. Dallas Baptist earned eight first-place votes and was selected to win the league by the circuit's coaches.

ON TAP THIS SEASON

The Roadrunners' 2013 schedule features 55 games, including 30 at home. Additionally, the Birds will play 10 teams that finished in the RPI top 80 a year ago and seven that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. UTSA also will face eight teams for the first time in program history, including four (CSU Bakersfield, Sacramento State, San Jose State and Seattle) in Western Athletic Conference action.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

Thirty-one of UTSA's 33 players call Texas home, including three from San Antonio. The two Roadrunners who hail from outside the Lone Star State are junior utilityman Tony Ramirez (Ferndale, Mich.) and senior infielder Jake Wood (Noblesville, Ind.).

A NEW LEAGUE

UTSA officially joined the WAC on July 1, 2012, after accepting an invitation on Nov. 11, 2010. The Roadrunners are part of a 10-team baseball league that includes CSU Bakersfield, Dallas Baptist, Louisiana Tech, New Mexico State, Sacramento State, San Jose State, Seattle and former Southland Conference rivals Texas State and UT Arlington.

UTSA TO JOIN CONFERENCE USA IN 2013

UTSA will be on the move once again in 2013, as it accepted an invitation from Conference USA (C-USA) last May. The Roadrunners will join the 16-team league on July 1, 2013. The "new" C-USA lineup will feature Charlotte, East Carolina, Florida Atlantic, FIU (Florida International), Louisiana Tech, Marshall, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Mississippi, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB and UTEP in addition to UTSA. East Carolina will move football and Tulane will move all sports to the Big East in July 2014.

SHUTTING THE DOOR

Junior right-hander Matt Sims returns after saving seven games for the Roadrunners a year ago. The Cypress, Texas, native posted a 4.91 ERA and struck out 32 batters in 25.2 innings of work. His seven saves are tied with Jason Vecchio (2005) for the fourth-most in program history.

UTSA INKS SEVEN TO LETTERS OF INTENT

UTSA signed seven players for the 2014 season. The players who signed are Jeremy Filipek (Langley, British Columbia/Walnut Grove Secondary School/Midland JC), Matt Hilston (Bulverde, Texas/Smithson Valley HS/McLennan CC), Logan Kinder (Round Rock, Texas/Rouse HS), Mitch Matulia (Kingwood, Texas/Park HS), Boone Mokry (Pleasanton, Texas/Pleasanton HS/McLennan CC), CJ Pickering (Houston, Texas/Westside HS) and Andres Vieyra (Valley Center, Kan./Valley Center HS/Barton CC).
