ANDY KENNEDY

ALMA MATER: UAB '91

EXPERIENCE: 2nd season at UAB

Andy Kennedy was named the seventh head coach of the University of Alabama at Birmingham men's basketball program, Director of Athletics Mark Ingram announced on March 20, 2020.

Kennedy returned to his alma mater where he is the second leading scorer in program history. A two-time SEC Coach of the Year and winningest coach in the University of Mississippi history, Kennedy coached at Ole Miss from 2006-2018, before spending two years as a commentator for ESPN and the SEC Network.

On April 9, 2021, Kennedy signed a six-year contract extension which goes through the 2026-27 season.

In his first season at the helm of his alma mater, Kennedy recorded 22 victories, which was the most for a coach at a new program in 2020-21. He recorded his 20th win in 26 games, the fastest in his head coaching career. The Blazers had 13 Conference USA wins, which was most in the league.

The 2020-21 Blazers were the first squad in program history to begin the season 7-0. The record-setting sixth victory came on Dec. 12 when UAB defeated ETSU 65-61 on the road. The Blazers had one of its best conference starts since the formation of C-USA in 1995-96 as they started off 9-1 for only the second time in league history.

As a team, the Blazers had their highest KenPom ranking to finish the regular season since 2010-11 and highest NET rating in program history (48 on 1/15/21). UAB received votes in AP Poll for the first time since March 7, 2016 and in the Coaches Poll since November 21, 2017.

Individually, Tavin Lovan was named to NABC District 11 Second Team as well as the Conference USA Second Team. Quan Jackson and Trey Jemison were named to the C-USA All-Defensive Team, which was the first time in program history UAB had two members of the All-Defensive Team.

The Blazers' defense was one of the best in the nation. UAB was fourth in the country in scoring defense (60.3 ppg) and turnover margin (5.4).

Kennedy experienced unprecedented success with the Rebels during his tenure in Oxford, securing a school record 245 career victories. Ole Miss captured the SEC Tournament title in 2013 with a 27-9 record, and Kennedy led the Rebels to two NCAA Tournament appearances in 2013 and 2015. Kennedy's teams advanced in both tournament appearances, knocking off fifth-seeded Wisconsin 57-46 in 2013 before rallying from a 17-point halftime deficit in 2015 to defeat BYU 94-90 in the First Four in 2015.

The former Ole Miss coach won SEC Coach of the Year honors twice during his tenure (2007 and 2013). Kennedy also captured two SEC West Division titles and led the Rebels to eight postseason appearances and 11 postseason wins during his time in Oxford. He coached 16 players who earned All-SEC honors as the head coach of the Rebels.

In 12 seasons at Ole Miss, Kennedy guided the Rebels to 20 or more wins nine times and ranks top 20 in SEC history for career wins.

Kennedy's first head coaching duties were at Cincinnati for the 2006 season. Named interim head coach on August 26, 2005, Kennedy took over the reins from his mentor Bob Huggins who resigned two days earlier.

In a season where the Big East Conference was stacked from top to bottom, Kennedy led the Bearcats a 13-2 start with road wins over Vanderbilt, Marquette, Dayton and LSU, who made the Final Four. While playing only eight scholarship players, Cincinnati cracked the AP Top-25 ranking, and Kennedy was named Mid-Season National Coach of the Year by CBS Sportsline.

The winning continued when Big East Conference play began. The Bearcats stunned Jim Boeheim's Syracuse Orangemen in the Carrier Dome 82-65, knocked off Rick Pitino's Louisville Cardinals 74-68 and upset 14th-ranked West Virginia 78-75 led by John Beilein.

In his only year as UC's head coach, Kennedy had led the Bearcats to a 21-13 record, defeated 12 foes ranked in the top 100 of the RPI and played a schedule rated fifth toughest in college hoops. The New York Post labeled him the Big East Coach of the Year.

Prior to Cincinnati, Kennedy was an assistant coach at UAB from 1996 to 2001.

Kennedy played at UAB from 1988-91 and holds multiple school records. In just three seasons, he scored 1,787 points - the second most in school history - and also holds the school record for career 3-point field goals made (318) and attempted (728), 3-point field goal percentage (.437), free throw percentage (.872) and highest single-season scoring average (21.8 ppg in 1990-91).

Additionally, he holds UAB's record for most points scored by a sophomore (603) and by a senior (676), most career 20+ point games (43), most career 30+ point games (7) along with the most points scored in a single game (41 vs. Saint Louis on Jan. 13, 1991).

Kennedy was named First Team All-Sun Belt as a senior in 1990-91, as well as Second Team All-Sun Belt as a junior in 1989-90.

Kennedy immediately put his stamp on the program weeks into his tenure by signing a pair of Top 50 graduate transfers in Michael Ertel and Quan Jackson. Additionally, he inked the No. 3 ranked high school player in Tony Toney from Mae Jemison in Huntsville. In May, he added Birmingham native and Clemson transfer Trey Jemison to the roster.

In Kennedy's UAB's debut, the Blazers defeated Alcorn State 99-50. The 49-point victory in the season-opener was the Blazers' largest margin of victory over a Division-I school since Coach Bartow's final season. The 99 points was the most points scored for a UAB head coach in their debut contest.

UAB got off to its best start in program history by winning its first seven games. The Blazers' 61-37 win over Charlotte on Jan. 15 improved the team to 10-1 on the season. This marked the seventh time in the program's 43-year history the Blazers begun the season with nine wins in the first 10 games. The 37 points allowed tied the third best defensive effort on program history and was the least amount of points allowed in a C-USA game in 19 years.

Kennedy had the program off to a 16-2 start, which was only the fourth time in program history this has occurred. UAB did it two times under Coach Bartow: 1985-86 and 1993-94 and once more in 2009-10. Additionally, UAB had its best conference start at 9-1 since the formation of C-USA in 1995-96.

The Blazers finished with the most C-USA victories of any UAB team with 13 in 2020-21 and was the only program to play all 18 scheduled games. UAB earned the No. 2 seed in the West and advanced to the semifinals at the Conference USA Championship.

For the first time since Jan. 25, 2016, UAB has received votes in both the Associated Press Poll and Coaches Poll. Additionally, the Blazers have been in Ken Pom's Top 100 for two straight months for the first time since 2009-10.

Three Blazers earned All-Conference recognition. Tavin Lovan was named Second Team All-Conference while Jackson and Jemison were voted to the All-Defensive team. This marked the first time in program history that a pair of Blazers were named to the squad.

As a team, Kennedy's team had one of the best defenses in the country. The Blazers allowed 60.3 points per game, which was the second-best mark in program history and fourth in the nation. UAB also took care of the ball with a turnover margin of 5.4 which was the third best in the NCAA. The Blazers 231 steals was ninth in the NCAA, led by Jackson's 53 which was 17th in the country.

UAB OPENS FINAL ROAD SWING AT UTSA ON THURSDAY

After splitting a pair of games in Bartow Arena this past week, UAB will open its final road swing of the 2021-22 regular season at UTSA on Thursday. Despite their loss to North Texas on Saturday, the Blazers remain locked in to the No. 2 seed in Conference USA's West Division. With four C-USA regular season matchups left to play, UAB controls its own destiny for the No. 2 seed in the West and a bye in the Conference USA Tournament. Louisiana Tech (10-4 C-USA) and UTEP (9-6 C-USA) trail shortly behind the Blazers in the C-USA West Division standings. The Blazers hold a 9-5 overall record against UTSA, posting a 28-point victory over the Roadrunners in Birmingham this season with an 87-59 win on New Year's Day.

UAB LATELY

UAB (20-7, 10-4 C-USA) dropped its first game in Bartow Arena this season in a heartbreaking 58-57 loss to league-leader North Texas on Saturday. Mean Green guard Tylor Perry drilled a game-winning 3-pointer for UNT with less than five seconds remaining, turning a late 57-55 deficit into a 58-57 win for the visitors. Jordan Walker (17) and Tavin Lovan (12) paced the Blazers in scoring in the setback, while Quan Jackson continued his strong run attacking the glass with a team-high 10 rebounds. Jackson and fellow graduate guard Michael Ertel also collected three steals apiece in Saturday's game in front a season-high crowd of 4,721. The Blazers are a perfect 6-0 following a loss this season and 11-1 overall since Andy Kennedy took over at his alma mater in March 2020.

UTSA LATELY

UTSA (9-19, 2-13 C-USA) earned its first Conference USA victory since Jan. 27's win over FIU with a bizarre 98-79 overtime victory at Southern Miss on Thursday. With the score tied at 76-76 after the first 40 minutes, the Roadrunners exploded for 22 points in overtime, outscoring Southern Miss 22-3 in the additional five minutes. UTSA concludes its Conference USA schedule at home in San Antonio, beginning its closing three-game home stand against UAB before hosting in-state foes North Texas and Rice in the Convocation Center. Starting center Jacob Germany leads the Roadrunners with 14.8 points and 7.2 rebounds per game. Fellow Roadrunners Dhieu Deing (14.3) and Jordan Ivy-Curry (13.9) have also averaged double figures in scoring this season. The Roadrunners rank first in Conference USA and seventh nationally in offensive rebounds per game, pulling down 13.6 boards off the offensive glass per contest. UTSA, however, ranks last in the C-USA in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.92) and 3-point field-goal percentage (28.9).

COMMON OPPONENTS – UTSA

The Blazers and Roadrunners shared no common nonconference opponents.

NOTHING BUT "NET"

UAB's victory at North Texas on Jan. 6 marked its second NET (NCAA Evaluation Tool) Quadrant I victory of the 2021-22 season, both of which have come on the road in back-to-back games away from Birmingham. UAB then notched its first Quadrant II victory of the year on Saturday, Jan. 22, at LA Tech to move back inside the top 40. The Blazers checked in at No. 35 in the first NET rankings on Dec. 6, which was then a program high. The Blazers' previous high in the ranking system came in Andy Kennedy's first season back in Birmingham when UAB reached No. 48 in the NET ratings. UAB has reached as high as No. 28 in the ranking system this season and currently sits at No. 51 in the most recent ratings after Saturday's heartbreaking loss to North Texas in Bartow Arena. North Texas (No. 39) leads Conference USA in the ranking system.

WELCOME TO THE 1K CLUB

With a dunk in the first half of this past Thursday's win over Rice, KJ Buffen became the sixth current Blazer to join the 1,000-point club. Buffen, Jordan Walker and Justin Brown have all three surpassed 1,000 points in their college careers with the Blazers this season. Buffen (1,022), Walker (1,069) and Brown (1,028) are joined by fellow Blazers Mike Ertel (1,998), Quan Jackson (1,734) and Tavin Lovan (1,215) to have scored more than 1,000 points in their college basketball careers. UAB is the only known program in Division I with six 1,000-point scorers. Notre Dame and Florida each both have five 1,000-point scorers on their rosters.

WHAT A RUN FOR JORDAN "JELLY" WALKER

After becoming the first UAB player in program history to earn Conference USA Player of the Week honors three times in one season on Monday, Feb. 7, Jordan "Jelly" Walker continues his campaign for Conference USA Player of the Year. Walker has now scored 20 or more points in nine of his past 11 games, breaking a UAB single-game scoring record with 42 points in a win over Middle Tennessee on Feb. 5. The Port Washington, New York native has been lights out from behind the 3-point line and at the free throw line since the turn of the new year, knocking down 54 3-pointers and going 52-of-59 from the free throw line since UAB's game against UTSA. So far, Walker is the only Conference USA player this season to earn Player of the Week honors three times. His career performance on Saturday, Feb. 5, also helped him garner national attention with ESPN college basketball analyst Jay Bilas naming Walker one of his two National Players of the Week.

EXPECTATIONS WELCOMED

In October, the league's coaches selected UAB as the favorite to win the Conference USA regular season championship. The Blazers, who won a league-best 13 C-USA games this past season, earned eight of the 14 first-place votes.

EXPECTATIONS WELCOMED PART II

Nationally, UAB was ranked No. 50 in Sports Illustrated's annual preseason rankings of all 358 Division I teams. The Blazers also earned accolades in Jon Rothstein's "68 reasons to look forward to the 21-22 college basketball season," where Rothstein said "No one worked the transfer portal harder during the offseason than Kennedy, who completely restocked UAB's roster with power conference talent. Anything less than an appearance in the NCAA Tournament will be a disappointment in Birmingham."

LIVING UP TO ITS EXPECTATIONS

UAB was predicted as the preseason favorite to win the Conference USA regular season championship, and the Blazers have met those expectations so far this season. Jan. 6's C-USA victory at North Texas marked back-to-back 3-0 starts in league play for UAB for the first time since 2014-15 and 2015-16. UAB made the NCAA Tournament in 2014-15, which is when the Blazers upset third-seeded Iowa State in the opening round.

QUITE THE START

UAB not only led Conference USA with 10 nonconference victories, but the Blazers' 10 triumphs in regular season nonconference play marks the first time since 2015-16 where UAB has tallied 10 or more nonconference wins during the regular season. UAB also recorded a 10-3 start in Jerod Haase's final year with the program, going 16-2 in C-USA play to win the C-USA Regular Season Championship.

AK'S REVIVAL

Head coach Andy Kennedy often talks about re-establishing the "Bartow Standard" in Birmingham by competing for and winning championships year after year. On Nov. 14, he accomplished yet another first in the history of UAB men's basketball, becoming the first head coach to start both his first and second seasons 3-0. His record of 31-9 through his first 40 games as UAB's head coach also marks a program best. A win on Sunday, Dec. 12, made Kennedy the first UAB head coach to start both his first and second seasons with at least an 8-2 record through the first 10 games of each of his first two campaigns. Kennedy added another UAB head coaching milestone to his resume at WKU, moving to 39-11 through his first 50 games as UAB's head coach, another UAB men's basketball coaching record.

AK'S REVIVAL PART II

In AK's first two seasons back in Birmingham, the Blazers have started 12-3 or better in their first 15 games. The last time UAB posted back-to-back seasons with at least 12 wins in their first 15 games was in 2004-05 and 2005-06. UAB made the NCAA Tournament in both 2004-05 and 2005-06. Now at 17-5, the Blazers made it 17-5 starts in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history.

IN ELITE COMPANY

With this past Thursday's 24-point win over Rice, Andy Kennedy became just one of six active head coaches with 20+ wins in 12 of their first 15 seasons. The five other coaches on the list comprise John Calipari, Mark Few, Jim Boeheim, Jamie Dixon and Bob Huggins.

PICKING POCKETS

With 23 steals in Nov. 14's win over Rhodes College, the Blazers tied a school record for steals in a single game. UAB tallied 15 of its 23 steals in the first half, helping the Blazers tie their single-game steals record for the first time since 2005. UAB has recorded double-digit steal tallies in 14 of its 27 games so far this season, posting 12 or more nine times. The Blazers rank seventh nationally with 10.2 steals per game and fifth nationally with 275 total steals.

EFFICIENCY IS KEY

In 2020-21, the UAB defense led the Blazers to a 22-7 record and a league-best 13 C-USA victories. So far this season, both the offense and defense have fueled UAB's success, ranking third in the nation in turnover margin (6.1) while ranking 11th nationally with 80.5 points per game on offense. The Blazers also rank 11th nationally with 456 total turnovers forced this season.

STACKING UP NICELY IN THE LEAGUE

UAB ranked first among Conference USA programs in a number of different team statistical categories entering C-USA play on Dec. 30, including scoring offense (82.2 points per game), scoring margin (21.2), steals per game (12.4) and turnover margin (8.6). Entering Thursday's slate of league games, UAB ranks first in the league in field-goal percentage defense (40.9%), scoring margin (15.6), scoring offense (80.5), steals per game (10.2), total steals (275), turnover margin (6.1), turnovers forced per game (16.89) and fewest turnovers committed per game (10.8).

SECOND-HALF SURGE

The Blazers have outscored opponents by double digits in the second half 12 times this season, including a +37 margin against Millsaps, a +35 margin against Alabama A&M and a +30 margin against Mississippi Valley State. The Blazers dominated FIU in the second half of UAB's win on Jan. 13, outscoring the Panthers 46-22 in the final 20 minutes. UAB also outscored Saint Louis 36-24 in the second half of its big road win over the Billikens. The Blazers have posted double-digit positive scoring margins in the second half of games played in Bartow Arena three of their last four tries, outscoring Middle Tennessee by 13, Southern Miss by 21 and Rice by 10 in the trio of dominant victories.

ATTACK THE GLASS

UAB has dominated on the offensive glass in 2021-22, ranking first in Conference USA and 33rd nationally in team offensive rebounding percentage at 31.9%. The Blazers have posted 13 or more offensive boards in 16 of their 27 games this season, posting 15 or more offensive rebounds nine times.

ON A RUN

UAB has done a stellar job at putting a team on its heels with quick scoring runs. The Blazers are just one of 12 teams nationally to have tallied 23 or more 10-0 scoring runs this season, averaging just under one per game (0.92). The Blazers have also allowed only five 10-0 scoring runs all season, posting over four times the number of 10-0 runs than ones conceded.

ONIONS!

Clutch. That's exactly what Justin Brown and Jordan Walker were for the Blazers in the closing seconds of UAB's victory at WKU on Jan. 27. Brown, who played only 2:23 in the win, drilled the biggest shot of his UAB career to push the Blazers back in front at 65-63 with a 3-pointer off the bench just moments after WKU took its first lead of the game at 63-62 behind three free throws from the Hilltoppers' Camron Justice. A dunk from WKU's Jamarion Sharp tied the game with 22 seconds remaining, but after an ensuing UAB timeout, Walker pulled up from well beyond the 3-point line to bury the game-winner with five seconds left. The clutch shot garnered attention on Twitter from a variety of college basketball's biggest names, including Jon Rothstein, Seth Davis and Kevin Connors.

THE "JELLY" AND "QJACKS" SHOW

When the Blazers needed it most, their top two leading scorers put in career-high scoring performances to keep the Blazers perfect in Bartow Arena on Jan. 15. Jackson (29) and Walker (27) combined to tally 56 of UAB's 76 points in the victory, accounting for 73.7% of the Blazers scoring in the 11-point win. Jackson's offensive explosion marked his first performance with more than 15 points since UAB's 85-71 win over Morehead State on Nov. 12.

A NOSE FOR THE BASKETBALL

After earning Conference USA All-Defensive Team honors this past season, graduate guard Quan Jackson is once again showing off his defensive prowess in 2021-22. Jackson ranks ninth nationally with 2.41 steals per game and fifth nationally with 65 total steals. Jackson also surpassed 300 steals for his career in UAB's win at WKU on Jan. 27, collecting steals No. 300 and 301 in the second half of UAB's 68-65 win.

GETTING BUFF

KJ Buffen posted a dominant performance in UAB's win over ETSU on Dec. 1, scoring a season-high 20 points to go along with a career-high 16 rebounds. The Ole Miss transfer's 16 rebounds not only marked a career-high, but they also marked the most boards by a Blazer since William "HaHa" Lee pulled down 17 rebounds in a win over Marshall on Jan. 14, 2017. Buffen also played a then season-high 32 minutes and shot 10-of-17 (58.8%) from the field. Since Dec. 1, Buffen has averaged 11.8 points per game and 8.0 rebounds per game. His seven double-doubles leads the Blazers this season, posting back-to-back double-double efforts for the first time in his career against Old Dominion and Rice. Buffen has led the Blazers in rebounding in 10 of UAB's past 20 games.

"JELLY" TIME

Transfer point guard Jordan "Jelly" Walker opened his UAB career with a bang in UAB's season-opening victory over UNC Asheville, pouring in 19 points to go along with a team-high five assists. Walker then topped his opening-night performance with 23 points, seven assists and a steal in UAB's victory over Morehead State. Since UAB's opening week, Walker has continued to lead the Blazers in scoring with 19.2 points per game and assists with 5.0 assists per game. He has reached double figures for UAB in 25 of his 26 games played this season and has scored 20 points or more 12 times in 2021-22. Walker has scored 17 or more points in 12 of his past 13 games and is averaging 22.0 points per game (first in C-USA) and 5.2 assists per game (3rd in C-USA) in conference play. Nationally, Walker ranks 12th in 3-pointers made per game (3.35), 34th in free throw percentage (87.2%), 40th in points per game (19.2), and 39th in 3-point field goal percentage (40.1%).

MAGIC MIKE

Graduate guard Mike Ertel, who leads the UAB roster with 1,998 career points, posted his best scoring performance of the season in UAB's 75-62 win over UTEP on Dec. 30. Ertel poured in a season-high 25 points, scoring 20 or more points for the 26th time in his collegiate career. Ertel tallied 14 of his 25 points in the first half and finished the game by shooting 52.6% (10-of-19) from the field and 40% (4-of-10) from behind the 3-point line. Ertel has now reached double figures in scoring in five of UAB's 14 C-USA games.

"TALL T" GOING HARD IN THE PAINT

Center Trey Jemison played a critical role for the Blazers to close out nonconference play, grabbing 88 boards while also chipping in with 82 points over UAB's final 10 nonconference tilts. Jemison recorded three double-doubles during that stretch, including one in UAB's win over New Mexico, pulling down 12 rebounds to go along with 11 points. Jemison's 22 total points and 19 total rebounds in the Las Vegas Invitational helped him earn All-Tournament Team honors. In UAB's win at North Texas on Jan. 6, Jemison scored a season-high 14 points on an efficient 7-of-8 shooting from the field. Jemison's 14 points also matched a career high, chipping in with six rebounds in the victory. The big man has led the Blazers in rebounding in 11 of the 26 games he's played in for UAB in 2021-22.

1,500...1,600...1,700 IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Graduate guard Quan Jackson reached another milestone in his accomplished collegiate basketball career against ETSU on Dec. 1, surpassing 1,500 career points. Jackson needed just two points to join the 1,500-point club as the graduate guard poured in 13 points to go along with five rebounds, three steals and two blocks. He now has 1,734 points for his career between Georgia Southern and UAB.

LOVIN' IT FOR LOVAN

Tavin Lovan, a Second Team All-Conference USA honoree in 2020-21, was named a 2021-22 Preseason All-C-USA honoree in October. Lovan averaged 12.2 points per game and topped the Blazers with 66 assists this past season. In 2021-22, he has averaged 8.2 points, 3.1 rebounds, 1.5 assists and

1.2 steals per game in 25 games (19 starts) this season. Lovan's offensive production has picked up so far in conference play, averaging 8.8 points per game and 3.6 rebounds per game.

300 IN THE RECORD BOOKS

After posting his 11th 20-win season in 2020-21, Andy Kennedy earned win No. 300 of his career when the Blazers opened 2022 with an 87-59 victory over UTSA in Bartow Arena. Kennedy joins UAB Athletics founder Gene Bartow as only the second Blazer head coach to notch career victory No. 300 while coaching the Green and Gold.

DEFENSIVE DOMINATION

In UAB's 74-point win over Millsaps, the Blazers posted an uncommon, dominant statistic. UAB forced more turnovers (31) than it allowed points (29) in the win over the Majors, marking the first time since an 84-54 win over Tulsa on Jan. 11, 2006, that UAB had forced more than 30 turnovers in a game.

SHARING IS CARING

The Blazers did an excellent job of sharing the basketball in nonconference play. Twelve different Blazers have reached double figures in scoring before C-USA play began – Jordan Walker, Quan Jackson, Tavin Lovan, KJ Buffen, Mike Ertel, Tyreke Locure, Trey Jemison, Tony Toney, Elijah Tate, Jamal Johnson, Justin Brown and Josh LeBlanc, Sr.

BLOCK PARTY

UAB's 12 blocks in a 79-61 victory over Grambling State on Dec. 14 not only marked the most blocked shots for the Blazers under second-year head coach Andy Kennedy, but it also marked UAB's most blocks in a single game since the Green and Gold parried away 15 shots against Hiwassee on Dec. 22, 2015.

THE RACE TO TRIPLE DIGITS

The 2021-22 UAB men's basketball team surpassed 100 points in its season-opening exhibition on Nov. 1, getting fans in Bartow on their feet for a new era of offensive prowess under second-year head coach Andy Kennedy. On Tuesday, Nov. 9, the Blazers did it "for real" with 102 points against UNC Asheville, exploding for 58 points in the second half. UAB's 102 points on Tuesday marked only the third time the Blazers have eclipsed 100 points in a regular-season opener and the only time they've done it against a Division I opponent.

RISING IN KENPOM

UAB's highest rank this season of 36th in the KenPom ratings is the Blazers' best in program history, which the Blazers achieved on Wednesday, Feb. 9, a few days after their win over Middle Tennessee. UAB currently sits at No. 47 in the ranking system with North Texas (No. 40) leading Conference USA in the ranking system.

WELCOME TO THE 205

Head coach Andy Kennedy's philosophy over the offseason was to target the transfer portal and hit it hard. He succeeded. The Blazers added eight new players over the offseason, all of which were transfers. UAB added three SEC transfers to its 2021-22 roster – KJ Buffen (Ole Miss), Josh LeBlanc, Sr. (LSU) and Jamal Johnson (Auburn). The Blazers also added Division I transfers Jordan "Jelly" Walker (Tulane), Tyreke Locure (South Alabama) and Justin Brown (USF) to round out their six Division I transfers. UAB also added Odessa Junior College teammates AD Diedhiou and Elijah Tate to its roster for the upcoming season.

BUILT IN BIRMINGHAM

With the transfer additions of Justin Brown and Jamal Johnson, the Blazers now have three players on their roster who played high school basketball in Birmingham. Trey Jemison (Hoover High School) along with Spain Park High School teammates Justin Brown and Jamal Johnson all starred in the Birmingham area. UAB also has Alabama natives Tony Toney (Huntsville) and Rongie Gordon (Montgomery) on the 2021-22 roster.

NOTCHED A THANKSGIVING FIRST

Entering their MTE tournament in Las Vegas, the Blazers were 0-2 all-time on Thanksgiving Day. UAB rewrote the narrative on Turkey Day, defeating New Mexico 86-73 to earn the program's first-ever Thanksgiving Day win. The Green and Gold were 0-2 in Thanksgiving Day contests, dropping tournament matchups to Florida in 2014 and Florida State in 2018. UAB fell 56-47 to No. 16 Florida in the 2014 Battle 4 Atlantis before dropping its Advocare Invitational opener to No. 13 Florida State in 2018. A win over New Mexico on Thursday also avenged a narrow defeat to the Lobos from the 2013 Charleston Classic.

HOME SWEET HOME

Throughout its history, the UAB men's basketball program has seen incredible success in Birmingham, holding a 418-104 record in Bartow Arena since the Blazers' on-campus home opened back in 1988. That success has continued with Andy Kennedy returning to his alma mater as the second-year UAB head coach holds a 30-4 record at home (Bartow and Legacy Arena) since taking over the program.

AK IN SEASON OPENERS

Kennedy is now 14-1 in his season-opening contests, almost doubling up Alcorn State 99-50 to open the 2020-21 season and then surpassing the century mark in a 102-77 win over UNC Asheville. The second-year head coach now has his squads averaging 100.5 points per game in regular season openers as UAB's head coach.

UAB SHINES ONCE AGAIN IN A SEASON OPENER

Nov. 9 marked the beginning of the Blazers' 44th season. UAB's 102-77 victory moved the Green and Gold to 30-14 in season openers, extending their winning streak in season openers to six in-a-row.

UAB TO THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

On Oct. 21, American Athletic Conference officials announced that Charlotte, Florida Atlantic, North Texas, Rice and UTSA will join UAB as new members in the AAC and compete against current AAC members East Carolina, Memphis, Navy, USF, SMU, Temple, Tulane, Tulsa and Wichita State.
