About the Mean Green
UNT features the Preseason Conference USA POY in junior Quincy Noble and a talented bench littered with transfers and veteran leadership. Noble plays alongside one of the best point guards in C-USA, Aly Gamez. Not to mention in the C-USA Preseason Coaches Poll, North Texas was voted to finish third, the highest projection under Mitchell. Mitchell is in her seventh year with the program.

About the Roadrunners
UTSA welcomes North Texas after snapping its six game losing streak and having its game against Rice postponed due to weather. They feature four scorers averaging better than eight points per game. They are led by Karen Aston who is in her first year with progam. Aston is a familiar name as she has coached at Texas, UNT, and Charlotte. UTSA was voted last in the conference in the Preseason Coaches' Poll.

Jalie Mitchell

Head Coach

Seventh Year
(North Texas '02)

Jalie Mitchell has vastly improved Mean Green women's basketball since her return to Denton in 2015 when she was chosen to lead her alma mater. The team has improved upon the program's previous record nearly every year under Mitchell while setting several school records and program firsts.

North Texas is coming off a record-breaking season in 2020-21 that included the best conference start in program history (5-0), the highest Conference USA win total ever (10), the greatest winning percentage in 15 seasons (65.0), the top scoring average in 19 years (69.3) and a double-digit league win tally for the sixth time in 38 years. She also was able to help Quincy Noble recieve First Team C-USA honors. Noble is the second to ever do so at UNT.

The 2019-20 season may have been cut short, but North Texas women's basketball was still able to put up some impressive numbers and execute notable performances. The Mean Green consistently ranked in top 25 nationally in total rebounds, rebounds per game and offensive rebounds per game and had the only duo (Anisha George and Charlene Shepherd) in the nation to collect at least 23 rebounds in a single contest.

The 114 points scored against Texas A&M-Texarkana were the highest total recorded by a Conference USA team and 13th most points scored in Division I, while the 46 field goals were fifth best in DI and the 63 rebounds were 11th. The team put up 2,033 total points for the ninth-best performance in program history and concluded the season ranking second in C-USA in offensive rebounds (14.3), third in steals (8.7) and fourth in scoring defense (62.7). George was selected Second Team All-Conference by leading C-USA in field goal accuracy and was fifth in the nation at shooting over 64 percent.

North Texas women's basketball made history in 2018-19 during Mitchell's fourth season with several program firsts, including the program's only nonconference postseason win in a 56-42 victory over UTRGV during the opening round of the Women's Basketball Invitational. The Mean Green had advanced past the conference tournament in three seasons previously, 1985-86, 2000-01, and 2001-02, but had never pulled out a win until the defeat of UTRGV March 20.

Under Mitchell's guidance, Terriell Bradley is the only Mean Green player to receive C-USA First Team honors (2017-18 and 2018-19) after finishing last season with averages of 15.8 points, 4.1 rebounds and 1.8 assists. Bradley finished her career as the fifth-leading scorer in program history with 1,467 points and is number one in the charts in free throws with 417 and fifth in 3-pointers with 138.

George was also recognized by the league as an All-Defensive Team selection after pulling an average of 6.9 rebounds per contest and tallying 29 blocks on the season.

In 2017-18, Mitchell led North Texas to its most wins in 12 years and best finish in a conference tournament in 16 years.

The Mean Green owned one of the nation's top defenses, holding opponents to an average of just 56.2 points per game, the 15th-best mark in the country and the greatest in program history. They finished with a 17-14 record to achieve their first winning season in 12 years. In the Conference USA Tournament, UNT reached the semifinals for the first time since Mitchell's senior season in Denton in 2001-02.

The Mean Green defeated Charlotte twice, a program they had never beaten previously, and in the C-USA quarterfinals they defeated Louisiana Tech for the first time in school history.

In her third season, Mitchell guided Bradley to an all-conference first-team honor, the program's first in nine years and just its third in 15 seasons. In addition, freshman Lauren Holmes was named to the conference's all-freshman team.

North Texas posted a program-best 3.33 grade-point average, and recruited two NJCAA All-Americans, one more than it had recruited in its 41-year history.

In 2016-17, the Mean Green improved on their overall record by a game. They won eight Conference USA games, the most since they joined the conference in 2013-14, and defeated UTEP in El Paso for the first time in program history. UNT reached the quarterfinals of the C-USA Tournament for the first time.

In May of 2015, Mitchell became the Mean Green's eighth head coach and took what she described as her "dream job."

Mitchell took over a program that won five games the previous season. For her first career win as a head coach, the Mean Green beat the No. 17 ranked Oklahoma Sooners in Oklahoma.

It was the first time a Mean Green team had defeated a ranked opponent.

North Texas had a noticeable increase in offense in her first season as the Mean Green improved their field goal percentage by 7.23% — the largest improvement in the country. It was also the sixth-highest shooting percentage in North Texas history.

Mitchell had two stints as an assistant coach at UNT, including one-year under current Texas head coach Karen Aston. She was instrumental in the recruiting of eventual top-10 WNBA draft pick

In her three seasons at Texas, the team combined for a 60-41 record. The Longhorns made the NCAA Tournament the last two seasons, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2015, their first since 2008.

Mitchell began her collegiate coaching career in 2008 as an assistant with the Mean Green under Shanice Stephens. Mitchell spent two seasons at North Texas with Stephens before taking on the same position at UNC-Wilmington for the 2010-11 season. Mitchell helped the Seahawks finish with a 24-9 record and reach the second round of the WNIT, both program bests.

Mitchell played at North Texas from 1998-2002 and was a four-time all-conference selection and the 2002 Sun Belt Player of the Year after averaging 19.4 points per game. She is the program's leading scorer with 1,764 points and her number 44 was retired on her senior night.

She is part of the winningest senior class in North Texas history, putting together a 77-39 record, including 42-4 at home. The Mean Green made back-to-back appearances to the WNIT in 2001 and 2002.

In 2007, Mitchell was inducted into the North Texas Athletic Hall of Fame along with teammate Rosalyn Reades.

In addition to the North Texas Athletics Hall of Fame, Mitchell was inducted into the Duncanville ISD Athletic Hall of Honor in October of 2015.

Ciara Carl

Assoc. Head Coach

First Year
(Point Loma Nazarene '05)

Carl comes to Denton from San Diego State where she was an assistant coach for the Aztec women's basketball team the past eight seasons. Carl directed the Aztecs' scouting efforts, worked with the team's guards and recruited. Since Carl began serving on SDSU's coaching staff, the Aztecs have garnered at least one Mountain West honoree each season.

This past season the Aztecs earned the eighth seed in the Mountain West Tournament and tied for fifth in the league in 2019-20. In 2018-19, the team won 14 games and advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Carl assisted in the signing of back-to-back top-75 recruiting classes in 2017 and 2018. Prior to that, SDSU did not have a nationally ranked recruiting class since 2010-11.

Carl helped McKynzie Fort (2014-18) climb the scoring charts to become the Aztecs' third-leading scorer (1,708 points) in program history. Fort was a four-time all-Mountain West honoree and was named to the conference's all-defensive team twice. Carl was also instrumental in the development of Geena Gomez, who finished her career with a three-point field-goal percentage of .361 (115-319), the third best in school history.

During her one season at Metro State, Carl helped coach the Roadrunners to 21 victories and a spot in the NCAA Division II tournament, where they advanced to the second round. Under her tutelage, five Metro State players garnered All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference accolades, including Kristin Valencia, who was named the league's defensive player of the year. As a team, the Roadrunners led the RMAC in scoring defense (51.2 ppg) and limited opponents to a league-worst .350 field-goal percentage.

Carl also witnessed success during her tenure at Cal Poly Pomona from 2010-12, as the Broncos compiled a two-year mark of 47-14 (.770) and made a pair of NCAA DII tournament appearances, including a berth in the Elite Eight in 2011. During that season, Carl assisted in the development of senior guard Reyana Colson, who earned All-America honors after capturing the California Collegiate Athletic Association's Most Valuable Player award.

In 2019 Carl launched Unchained, a non-profit aimed to serve and inspire young people through love and passion while helping them visualize and realize the futures they desire. The organization uses basketball as a tool to teach leadership and character lessons while providing real life examples of people who have triumphed over challenging circumstances they faced as a young person.

As a collegian, Carl starred at point guard for Point Loma Nazarene, helping the Sea Lions compile an 83-27 overall record in her final three seasons. During that stretch, PLNU made three consecutive trips to the NAIA tournament, capped by a Final Four appearance in 2005. She still holds the school's career record with 647 assists and ranks second with 277 steals.

Carl received her undergraduate degree in exercise science from PLNU in 2005 and earned her Master of Science degree from California University (Pa.) in 2006 with an emphasis in performance enhancement and injury prevention. She later completed an internship at North Carolina State, working with the Wolfpack's strength and conditioning program.

A native of Los Angeles, Carl was raised in Cary, N.C., before graduating from Saint Mary's School in 2000. In addition to earning all-state honors in basketball as a senior, Carl also lettered in volleyball and golf during her prep career.

Durmon Jennings

Assistant Coach

Second Year
(Indianapolis '13)

Jennings came to Denton in 2020 following three seasons as the women's basketball associate head coach at Eastern New Mexico. Spearheaded by his player development and recruiting, Jennings helped guide the Greyhounds to the second most wins in program history with an overall record of 22-9. ENMU advanced to the NCAA Division II South Central Region Championship Tournament for the third time ever and also posted a victory over No. 1 ranked and defending national champions Lubbock Christian during the regular season.

The Hounds compiled a 19-11 record during the 2018-19 season to secure a spot in the South Central Regional. ENMU went 14-6 in Lone Star Conference play to finish tied for third in the league while also setting the best home record in program history with a 12-1 mark inside Greyhound Arena.

Jennings joined ENMU's women's basketball program prior to the start of the 2017-18 campaign as the team compiled a record of 16-12 and a 12-8 mark in the LSC to finish in a tie for fourth in conference play.

Jennings previously served as the graduate assistant coach of the ENMU men's basketball program during the 2015-16 season and the fall semester of the 2016-17 season before becoming the volunteer assistant coach in January 2017.

Before coming to Eastern, Jennings served as a boys varsity and junior varsity coach at Durango High School in Las Vegas, Nevada, for two seasons. Jennings also served as a 17U coach for the Elite Youth Basketball League in the summer of 2015 and as a 15U coach for the Under Armour Association during the summer of 2014.

In 2013, Jennings served as an intern for the NBA Summer League as well as served as an intern for the Athletic Administration at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas (UNLV) for one year. Before moving to Las Vegas, the Indianapolis native coached back home as a high school girls basketball and track and field coach at Warren Central High School from 2011 to 2013. Jennings got his start in coaching at Manual High School in Indianapolis where he coached the varsity girls' basketball team during the 2010-11 season.

Jennings earned his bachelor's degree in Sports Management at the University of Indianapolis in 2013 after he transferred from Geneva College where he played on the men's basketball team during the 2007-08 season. Jennings earned his master's degree in Sports Administration from Eastern New Mexico University in 2016.

Kelby Jones

Assistant Coach

Second Year
(North Texas '16)

Jones returned to Denton in 2020 after spending the past four seasons as a member of the Texas women's basketball staff, most recently serving as the program's basketball analyst coordinator. His responsibilities focused on assisting with basketball philosophy development, game preparation and scouting, skill development and special-situation offensive study.

Before working with the Longhorns, Jones spent four years as Director of Managerial Operations as an undergraduate at UNT, beginning in 2012. He was the team's head manager and was promoted to the program's interim basketball operations director his senior year. Jones was responsible for film exchange, team travel, practice schedules, the scout team, equipment and assisted with on-campus recruiting. In 2015, he was nominated for the "Hardest Working Employee" award at the University of North Texas.

During the past four seasons as a member of the Texas staff, the Longhorns compiled a record of 95-37 (.720) for an average of 24 wins per season and earned three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a pair of NCAA Sweet 16 showings. Texas ranked within the top-25 nationally in rebounding margin in each of his four years, including three top-six national rankings in that category. Jones' contributions to Texas recruiting efforts resulted in two top-three national classes, according to espnW Hoop Gurlz and six McDonald's All-Americans.

In 2018-19, Jones served as the program's video coordinator where he oversaw video exchange and the breakdown of opponent and individual video scouting, along with on-campus recruiting and other duties. In his first two seasons, Jones was the program's graduate assistant. In that role, he managed the team's day-to-day equipment needs, coordinated scheduling for managers and practice players, assisted with game and opponent scouting, and was heavily involved in on-campus recruiting.

Jones earned his master's degree in physical education-teacher education from the University of Texas in May 2018. A native of Pottsboro, Texas, and a 2012 graduate of Pottsboro High School, Jones earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UNT in May 2016.

Brinee' Dancer

Director of Ops

Third Year
(Southern Polytechnic St., 15)

Dancer came to Denton in August 2019 after two years at Tennessee State as the director of operations for women's basketball where she handled all operational functions for the program.

Before TSU, Dancer served as a graduate assistant coach on the women's basketball staff at Mississippi Valley State where she coordinated travel, assisted with the budget, conducted video sessions and monitored study hall. She also helped with the development of All-SWAC First Team selection Ashley Beals.

Dancer worked with Lady Eagles Sports in Dallas for a year as the coordinator where she served as an advisor, organized travel and monitored the team. Dancer also spent time with the Summer Basketball Organization in Fort Worth as a DFW Elite Basketball Grassroots assistant coach.

Dancer was a member of the women's basketball team at Johnson C. Smith for two seasons before graduating from Southern Polytechnic State with a bachelor of science in business administration. She earned a master's degree in sports administration from Mississippi Valley State in August 2018.

Matt Holt

Strength & Conditioning

First Year
(Carroll '11)

Matt Holt joins North Texas as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach to work with Mean Green women's basketball.

Holt comes to Denton from Milwaukee Athletics where he was the Director of Strength and Conditioning since 2017. He worked with men's basketball, volleyball, women's soccer, men's soccer, tennis and cross country.

Holt joined Milwaukee Athletics in 2014 as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Prior to that, he was at Marquette University as an intern from 2013-2014. Holt also served as an intern with Milwaukee Athletics from 2011-2013, during which time he completed his master's degree in Kinesiology.

Holt has additional experience working as an intern for the Milwaukee Bucks and as a Strength and Conditioning Assistant with Carroll University Baseball. Additionally, Holt was the Head Wrestling Coach at Waukesha West High School and an assistant at New Berlin West/Eisenhower High Schools.

Holt graduated from Carroll University in 2011 with a degree in exercise science and currently holds his SCCC and CSCS certifications.
