Media Policy

All interviews with student-athletes and coaches must be arranged at least 24 hours in advance by contacting the UTSA Athletics Communications Office. Telephone interviews are available on a "call-back" basis only at a time that is convenient for the student-athlete or coach. Telephone numbers will not be given out to members of the media under any conditions. Postgame interviews will be conducted courtside following a 10-minute "cooling off" period. The UTSA locker room is closed to the media. Most practices are open to the media and public. We request media members contact Assistant Athletics Communications Director Jordan Korphage at least 24 hours in advance for practice times/dates and interview requests. In most cases, student-athletes and coaches will be made available after practice.

Scouting UTEP: Now in his fifth season at UTEP, head coach Tim Floyd welcomed back four starters and eight letterwinners from last year's team that went 23-11 overall and 12-4 in Conference USA play. Preseason all-conference picks Vince Hunter and Julian Washburn lead the squad, which was selected by the league's head coaches to finish second. Hunter is the circuit's only player averaging a double-double with 16.5 points (4th in C-USA) and 10.2 rebounds (1st in C-USA), while Cedrick Lang is the only other player averaging in double figures at 10.0 ppg. Earvin Morris has mostly come off the bench this season to contribute 9.9 ppg and Julian Washburn has chipped in 9.4 ppg. The Miners, who have won 11 of their last 12 C-USA road games, lead the circuit with a .474 field goal percentage, which is buoyed by a conference-best .376 percentage from behind the arc.

UTSA's only win against the Miners came in the 2011-12 season opener, 73-64, at the Don Haskins Center in El Paso. Jeromie Hill is the only Roadrunner that remains from that game, while five current Miners played in the contest. Prior to last season's 61-51 win, UTEP's last game in San Antonio was a slim 52-50 victory on Jan. 10, 1983.

Last Meeting: C.J. Cooper scored a game-high 20 points as UTEP withstood a 13-0 second-half run to top UTSA, 61-51, in the regular-season finale for both squads on March 6, 2014, at the Convocation Center. Devon Agusi scored 14 points, while Jordan Sims tied a career-high with 11 rebounds for UTSA, which grabbed a season-high 23 offensive rebounds and held a 42-39 edge on the glass. The Birds were limited to 31.8 percent shooting for the game and attempted a season-low 10 free throws. The Miners stretched a 28-16 halftime lead to 17, 47-30, with 10:30 to play before the Roadrunners went on their 13-0 spurt. George Matthews helped fuel the rally with a 3-pointer before a steal and an assist on Hyjii Thomas' dunk to pull the home squad within four, 47-43, with 7:24 left. However, Cooper scored seven points down the stretch to help seal the win.

Last Time Out: Jeromie Hill scored a game-high 18 points and UTSA opened the second half on a 19-5 run to blow open the game en route to a 68-43 victory at Texas-Pan American on Monday night at UTPA Fieldhouse. Hill led the Roadrunners, who shot 54.8 percent in the second half and 46.6 percent for the game, went 8-of-17 from the floor, including a pair of 3-pointers, for his 18 points to go along with seven rebounds. Ryan Bowie tied a season-high with five triples on his way to 15 points, while Kaj-Björn Sherman added 14 points and nine boards and Keon Lewis chipped in 12 points. UTSA recorded a season-best 20 assists and scored 26 points off of 18 forced turnovers. Meanwhile, Dam Kimasa paced the Broncs, who finished with a season-low 43 points on its worst shooting night of the campaign, with 13 points and 11 rebounds. With a 29-23 halftime lead, Hill got the Roadrunners started in the final 20 minutes with back-to-back baskets to help jump start the 19-5 run. The UTSA advantage grew to as much as 29 points and it cruised to the 68-43 final.

Milestones In Sight: Now in its 34th season of play, UTSA reached one milestone against Southern Miss (Jan. 8) and it has a chance to reach another later this season. The Roadrunners picked up the 500th win in program history with its 77-57 win over the Golden Eagles and now has an all-time record of 501-474 (.514). In addition, four more home triumphs would give the Roadrunners 300 victories in the Convocation Center.

UTSA Men's Basketball Game Notes

Road Swings: The Roadrunners' 68-43 win at Texas-Pan American (Jan. 12) gave the team their fourth win on the road this season and it was their largest margin of victory away from home since a 75-45 triumph at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi on Dec. 21, 2012. UTSA continues to improve its play away from the Convocation Center, after winning just once on the road last season. The Roadrunners' 71-61 triumph at North Texas (Jan. 4) was the squad's first Conference USA win away from home after losses in their first nine league road tilts. In addition, UTSA's win against the Mean Green was their first victory in Denton since March 4, 1995, when both teams were members of the Southland Conference.

Scoring More: Heading into Saturday's game, UTSA ranks fourth in Conference USA in scoring by averaging 72.7 ppg. The Roadrunners feature three of the league's top 13 scorers and have four players averaging in double figures. The group is led by senior Jeromie Hill, who ranks fifth in the league at 15.9 ppg and he is joined by Keon Lewis (9th/14.6 ppg) and Ryan Bowie (13th/13.9 ppg) among the league's best. In addition, senior Kaj-Björn Sherman is averaging 10.5 ppg and freshman Christian Wilson has chipped in 6.8 ppg off the bench. Bowie and Lewis have produced two of the highest individual scoring outputs among conference players this season with 29 points in the Roadrunners' loss to Southern Utah (Nov. 30) and 28 points in the win over Huston-Tillotson (Nov. 14), respectively. The Roadrunners have had a player score at least 20 points 10 times, led by three such games each from Bowie, Hill and Lewis. UTSA's 75.1 ppg in the 2008-09 season is the best mark under head coach Brooks Thompson.

Climbing the Charts: Senior Jeromie Hill continues to climb up UTSA's career charts. The 6-8 forward ranks second in school history with 107 starts, third with 550 field goals, fourth with 705 rebounds, fifth with 1,433 points, tied for eighth with a 6.6 career rebounding average and ninth with 134 3-pointers. Hill became just the sixth player in program history to top 1,000 points and 500 rebounds with a 12-point, nine-rebound performance against Utah State (Dec. 29, 2012) and he is one of three Roadrunners to rank in the school's top five for both points and rebounds. Additionally, Hill could become just the second Roadrunner (joining Devin Brown, 1,922 points/751 rebounds) to reach both the 1,500-point and 700-rebound plateaus with 67 points the rest of the way. He is the only player in program history and the only current C-USA player to appear in at least 100 games and start all of them.

Lewis Leading the Way: Senior Keon Lewis picked his offense up right where he left off last season. After leading the Roadrunners with 12.6 points per game in 2013-14, he currently is second on the team and ranks ninth in C-USA at 14.6 ppg. The Seattle native scored 31 points in UTSA's exhibition win over Southeastern Oklahoma State (Nov. 6) before he dropped 28 points in the season opening victory over Huston-Tillotson (Nov. 14). His 28-point outing was the best individual scoring performance in an opener under Brooks Thompson and it was the most points scored by any C-USA player during the season's opening weekend. He has scored at least 10 points in 34 of his 42 games at UTSA, while he has topped 20 points in seven contests. Along with his scoring, Lewis ranks third among C-USA players with 3.93 assists per game, fourth with 1.43 steals per game and sixth with a 1.90 assist-to-turnover ratio, an .809 free-throw percentage and 32.60 minutes per outing.

Baba Bowie: Junior Ryan Bowie already has proven to be one of the best all-around players in Conference USA. The transfer from Iowa Western ranks among the league's best in six different statistical categories including minutes (3rd/33.67 mpg), 3-point field goals made per game (5th/2.33 3pg), 3-point field goal percentage (8th/.427), steals (12th/1.27 spg), points (13th/13.9 ppg) and offensive rebounds per game (t-15th/2.00). A native of Lewisville, Bowie scored a season-high 29 points in the loss to Southern Utah, which is the most points scored by a UTSA player this season. He went 10-of-18 from the floor with a pair of 3-pointers and seven free throws in the losing effort. Bowie also topped the 20-point mark against Washington State (22 points/Dec. 6) and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (20 points/Dec. 15). He has hit at least one three pointer in 14 of 15 games this season.

Seeing Double: Jeromie Hill produced back-to-back double-doubles (Nov. 17 & 21) for just the second time in his career and the first time since his freshman season. The senior, who now has 13 double-doubles in his career and three this season, scored 16 points and added 10 rebounds in UTSA's loss to Texas-Pan American (Nov. 17) before a 16-point, 11-rebound performance in the Roadrunners' win over Texas State (Nov. 22). It was the first time that he had strung together a pair of double-doubles since the first two games of his career when he had 16 points and 10 rebounds in his collegiate debut against Huston-Tillotson (Nov. 12, 2010) and a career-high 27 points and 12 boards at Evansville (Nov. 17, 2010). In addition, Hill has scored in double figures in 22 of his last 23 games dating back to the 2012-13 season and he has finished with at least 15 points in 14 of those 22 contests.

Man in the Middle: Senior Kaj-Björn Sherman is putting together a career season and he has helped push UTSA's offense into a higher gear. The Mercer Island, Wash., native is averaging 10.5 points and 7.1 rebounds per game (t-4th in C-USA), while shooting 57.5 percent from the field (5th in C-USA) and 81.4 percent from the free-throw line (4th in C-USA). He has been particularly effective in his last three games, where he has averaged 14.3 points and 8.3 rebounds, while going 17-of-22 (77.3 percent) from the field and 9-of-12 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe. Sherman put together his best game at UTSA when he picked up his first double-double with career highs of 21 points and 17 rebounds against Cameron (Dec. 30). Sherman's 17 rebounds were the most by a UTSA player since John Millsap matched that effort against Sam Houston State on Feb. 3, 2005, and it is the third-highest total from a C-USA player this season.

Walk-on at the Wheel: Freshman walk-on Gino Littles moved from scout team to starter earlier this season and the Phoenix native continues to make the UTSA offense go. After totaling 15 minutes in the season's first seven games, the point guard has started each of the last eight contests and he has played at least 17 minutes in each. The son of former NBA coach Gene Littles (Cleveland Cavaliers, 1985-86; Charlotte Hornets, 1990-91; Denver Nuggets, 1994-95), he has turned the ball over just seven times in 213 minutes of action (once every 30.4 minutes) and has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.1. Littles is coming off his best performance distributing the basketball with a season-high six assists and no turnovers in the win at Texas-Pan American (Jan. 12), where the Roadrunners registered a season-best 20 assists on their 26 baskets.

Rivalry Comeback: UTSA's 80-67 win over Texas State on Nov. 22 produced the largest comeback win in Brooks Thompson's eight-plus seasons. The Bobcats went on a 16-2 run in the first half to claim a 27-11 lead before the Roadrunners began to chip away and eventually run away with a late 17-3 spurt of their own. Prior to Saturday, the best comeback under Thompson came in a 78-77 win over Oral Roberts on Nov. 15, 2011, in Stillwater, Okla., as part of the NIT Season Tip-Off. The Golden Eagles hit a 3-pointer at the first half buzzer to grab a 46-31 lead only to watch as the Roadrunners completed the comeback on Sei Paye's running, one-handed triple from 25 feet out at the final horn. UTSA's win against Texas State also saw five Roadrunners reach double figures. The Roadrunners have had at least five players score in double digits three times this season, after doing so four times in 2013-14, and had six players with at least 10 points in the win at Northern Arizona (Dec. 3).

New to the Scene: Seven of UTSA's eight newcomers made their regular season debuts for the team in the season-opening win over Huston-Tillotson. The group totaled 41 of the team's 92 points, shot 51.9 percent (14-of-27) from the floor and was led by 11 points apiece from junior college transfer Ryan Bowie, who also tied for the team lead with seven rebounds, and redshirt freshman Larry Lewis Jr. Bowie helped fuel an early 11-2 run with seven straight points and the Lewisville native hit his first four shots, including the team's first 3-pointer of the campaign, en route to a 5-of-8 shooting performance. Meanwhile, Lewis Jr. scored nine of his 11 points in the second half and totaled three assists and a pair of steals in 25 minutes. Fellow newcomers Austin Karrer (7 points), Gino Littles (2 points), Edwin Olympio (4 points) and James Ringholt (6 points) added to the group's impressive debut. UTSA's final newcomer, Christian Wilson, made his debut with 15 points, including 10 in the second half, against Texas State (Nov. 22).

Rare Air: UTSA head coach Brooks Thompson is in exclusive company among his coaching counterparts. Thompson is one of just nine Division I head coaches that are former NBA first round draft selections (Johnny Dawkins, Stanford; Bryce Drew, Valparaiso; Bobby Hurley, Buffalo; Dan Marjerle, Grand Canyon; Danny Manning, Wake Forest; Scott Padgett, Samford; Reggie Theus, Cal State Northridge; Rex Walters, San Francisco are the others) and one of 24 leading men that have played in the association. Thompson, who is in his ninth season at UTSA, was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 1994 NBA draft and also played for the Utah Jazz, Denver Nuggets, Phoenix Suns and New York Knicks. Michael Curry (Florida Atlantic) is the only other C-USA head coach that has played in the NBA.

Conference USA Year Two: UTSA is in its second season as a member of Conference USA. This will mark the first time that the Roadrunners have been in the same conference for consecutive seasons since their final two as a member of the Southland Conference (2010-11 & 2011-12). UTSA spent the 2012-13 campaign in the Western Athletic Conference before its first season in C-USA a year ago. East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa all left the circuit on July 1, 2014, and were replaced by Western Kentucky to form a 14-team league. While last season's C-USA Tournament took all 16 members, the 2015 field will feature the circuit's top 12 teams.

UTSA Men's Basketball Game Notes

Roadrunners Ink Allen, Cockrell to NLI: UTSA inked Nick Allen (Surprise, Ariz./Willow Canyon HS) and A.J. Cockrell (Tulsa, Okla./Memorial HS) during the early signing period. Allen, a 6-7 forward, averaged 15 points and 4.3 rebounds as a junior and was ranked as the No. 23 prospect from the class of 2015 in Arizona by The Arizona Republic. Meanwhile, A.J. Cockrell is a two-time state champion and is ranked among the top 15 prospects in Oklahoma by OKhoops.com. The 6-8 forward averaged 10.9 points and 8.7 rebounds a season ago and was a Tulsa World honorable mention all-state and all-metro selection. The pair will join the Roadrunners for the 2015-16 season.

Thompson's Tenure: Now in his ninth season at UTSA, head coach Brooks Thompson is the second-longest tenured coach in program history. The former NBA first-round pick has guided the Roadrunners to 122 wins, including just the sixth 20-win season in school annals with a 20-14 mark in 2010-11. That squad won the Southland Conference Tournament by defeating the field's top three seeds in a four-day stretch before besting Alabama State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, which was the first NCAA Tournament victory for UTSA in any sport.

International Connection: During head coach Brooks Thompson's first four seasons at the helm, UTSA had just one international player on campus in the form of Oldendorf, Germany, native Richie Frohlich (2008-10). This season, four foreign players dot the Roadrunners roster. Senior Jeromie Hill was born and raised in Cairns, Australia, while sophomore Phillip Jones (Freeport) hails from the Bahamas. In addition, freshmen Edwin Olympio (Marseille, France) and James Ringholt (Brisbane, Australia) join the squad. All totaled, Thompson has had nine foreign players during his nine years in the Alamo City.

Up Next: UTSA will take to the road for a pair of Conference USA games next week, starting with a 6 p.m. contest on Thursday, Jan. 22 at Marshall. The Roadrunners then will head to Bowling Green, Ky., for a matchup at Western Kentucky two days later.

Former NBA First Round draft pick and Oklahoma State star Brooks Thompson is in his ninth season as head coach of the UTSA men's basketball program. Introduced as the Roadrunners' fifth head coach on April 18, 2006, Thompson has assembled a talented and hard-working staff with more than 40 combined years of collegiate coaching experience and the result has been a turnaround both on and off the court.

In his eight years in the Alamo City, UTSA has registered the school's first-ever NCAA postseason victory in any sport, captured one league championship, made two conference tournament title game appearances and recorded the most successful four-year stretch (76 wins) in two decades. More than 20 school records have fallen under his watch, while nine players have earned all-conference honors and three have been tabbed league freshman of the year (Devin Gibson, 2008; Melvin Johnson III, 2010; Jeromie Hill, 2011).

The Roadrunners also have taken care of business in the classroom. UTSA has collected eight league all-academic certificates under Thompson, including Southland Conference Student-Athlete of the Year honorees in Gibson (2010, '11) and Hill (2012). Kurt Attaway garnered Academic All-District accolades in 2007. Additionally, the program's Academic Progress Rate (APR) has improved significantly since Thompson's arrival, jumping from an 818 for the season prior to his arrival to a 949 in the last report. Thompson also has placed a strong emphasis on graduating players, as more than 80 percent of his student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility at UTSA have earned their undergraduate degree.

Last season, Thompson led the Roadrunners in their first season as a member of Conference USA. Despite losing its top three scorers from the 2012-13 campaign, UTSA averaged nearly five more points per game and opened its inaugural season in C-USA with a pair of home victories.

In 2012-13, UTSA won five of its last eight games for a strong finish in its first and only season in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The ninth-seeded Roadrunners ran past No. 8 San Jose State (67-49) in the opening round of the WAC Tournament before pulling off the biggest upset by seed in the tournament history by ousting top-seed and regular season co-champion Louisiana Tech, 73-67, in the quarterfinal round. UTSA made the program's third conference tournament semifinal appearance in the past five seasons, where it fell to UT Arlington. UTSA defeated Holy Cross and Old Dominion on the season-opening weekend en route to capturing the Liberty Tax Classic crown. Michael Hale III earned third-team All-WAC honors and Hill was named to the WAC All-Academic Team.

The 2010-11 campaign arguably was the most successful in 20 years. Thompson guided UTSA to the Southland Tournament Championship for the first time since 2004 and to the program's fourth NCAA Tournament appearance, where it registered the first NCAA postseason victory in any sport in the department's 30-year history with a 70-61 first-round victory over Alabama State during the First Four on March 16 in Dayton, Ohio. That outcome gave UTSA its first 20-win season in 19 years. He led the Roadrunners to their second consecutive 4-1 start — a school record — and their fourth straight 4-0 start at home. UTSA tied for third in the Southland West Division and fifth overall to qualify for its fourth straight Southland Tournament, where it upset the top three seeds en route to the crown. Top-ranked Ohio State ended the Roadrunners' season at 20-14 with a 75-46 setback in the NCAA Second Round in Cleveland. Six school records were broken in 2010-11, as Gibson has eclipsed the career assists, steals, free throws, games played and starts standards and the single-season free throws mark. Gibson earned first-team NABC All-District 23 and first-team All-Southland honors and was named Southland Tournament MVP and Southland Student-Athlete of the Year for the second straight season. Hill was tabbed a Mid-Major Freshman All-American by CollegenInsider.com and Southland Freshmen of the Year and he earned honorable mention all-league accolades along with Johnson III and all-tournament honors along with Gibson.

Thompson came to UTSA from Arizona State, where he served as an assistant coach for two seasons. He helped the Sun Devils post eight wins against teams that qualified for the postseason and one of his players — Ike Diogu — was the Pac-10 Player of the Year, a second-team All-American and the ninth overall pick in the 2005 NBA Draft (Golden State Warriors). The Sun Devils qualified for the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) in 2005.

Prior to his stint at Arizona State, Thompson was head coach at Yavapai College in Prescott, Ariz., for two seasons (2002-04) where he compiled a 55-14 record and a .797 winning percentage, the highest in school history. He was named NJCAA Region I Coach of the Year both seasons and Arizona Community College Athletic Conference (ACCAC) Coach of the Year in 2002-03. Thompson led the Roughriders to back-to-back ACCAC regular season titles — the first two conference titles in school history — and to two consecutive Region I Tournament Championships.

Thompson guided Yavapai to a 28-7 record in 2002-03, qualifying for the NJCAA Tournament and finishing with a final national ranking of No. 11. In 2003-04, Yavapai was ranked as high as No. 8 and finished the season with a 27-7 mark, a No. 17 ranking and a second straight NJCAA Tournament berth — Yavapai had previously qualified just once in 1980. The Roughriders scored 91.1 points per game (14th in the nation) and ranked 13th in the country in both field goal percentage (55.0) and 3-point field goal percentage (38.0).

He began his coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at Oklahoma State in 1998-99 and served as head coach at Metro Christian Academy in Tulsa, Okla., in 1999-2000. He then was an assistant coach for one season at Southeastern Louisiana in 2000-01.

Thompson returned to his alma mater for one season as director of basketball operations in 2001-02, helping the Cowboys reach the NCAA Tournament.

In all, Thompson has coached 17 players who have gone on to professional careers, including five current or former NBA players.

That list includes Diogu, former Oklahoma State stars Maurice Baker, Desmond Mason and Melvin Sanders and former Yavapai standout Larry Owens.

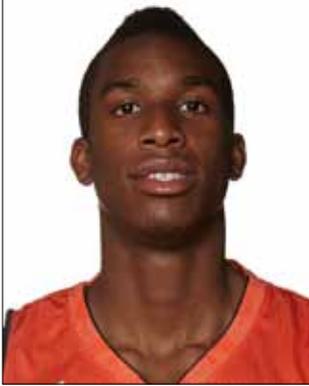

Also a standout player, he was the 1989 Colorado Prep Player of the Year after guiding Littleton High School to a 24-0 record and the Class 4A State Championship.

Thompson played two seasons at Texas A&M in 1989-91 where he earned second-team All-Southwest Conference honors after his sophomore campaign. He then transferred to Oklahoma State where he was a second-team All-Big Eight selection in 1992-93 and a first-team all-conference performer in 1993-94. He led the Cowboys in assists both seasons and averaged 16.9 points per game as a senior. He tallied 1,675 career points during his four collegiate seasons.

The Orlando Magic selected Thompson in the first round of the 1994 NBA Draft. He played in the NBA Finals in 1995 for the Magic and set the franchise record for most points in a quarter (21).
