LAYUP LINES

- Saturday's contest between Charlotte and UTSA will be the ninth all-time meeting between the programs with all nine meetings coming after Charlotte rejoined Conference USA in the Fall of 2013.
- Following COVID-19 postponing its first three Conference USA tilts, this weekends games against UTEP and UTSA will be just the second time CLT has begun league action against the pair of west Texas foes since rejoining C-USA in 2013. The only other time the Green & White have started C-USA action against the Miners and Roadrunners, came in the program's return to the league in 2013-14.
- Due to COVID-19 protocols on campus, Charlotte's conference lid-lifting contest will be played without fans and CLT will play its first pair of conference bouts at home without a full capacity of fans. Friends and families of participating student-athletes and coaches will be welcome to attend, similar to what occurred for the 2020-21 campaign.
- Charlotte junior Jahmir Young currently ranks 25th on Charlotte's all-time scoring list and is just 19 points shy of passing Charlotte alums De'Angelo Alexander and Braxton Ogbueze for 23rd in Charlotte's scoring history. Young currently leads CLT and Conference USA in scoring with 19.8 points per game and has scored 20 or more points nine time this season.
- A win would give Charlotte four consecutive victories, marking its longest win streak of the season and longest overall win streak since opening Conference USA play with four straight wins in 2019-20. It would also give Charlotte its fifth consecutive victory at home and a 7-1 record inside Halton this season.

SCOUTING THE ROADRUNNERS

- UTSA arrives in Charlotte in the midst of a rough stretch to begin Conference USA play, having dropped its first four league bouts to UAB, Southern Miss, Louisiana Tech and Old Dominion.
- On the stat sheet, the Roadrunners have been led by sophomore guard Jordan Ivy-Curry who leads the squad in scoring with 15.1 points and has scored in double-figures in 10 of his 14 appearances this season, finishing with 23 and 22 points respectively last week in UTSA's home contests with Southern Miss and Louisiana Tech.
- On the glass, UTSA is led by senior forward Cedrick Alley Jr. who's pulling in a team-high 6.8 boards per contest, which also ranks eighth in Conference USA, while playing in 15 of the Roadrunners 16 contests.
- Behind the bench, UTSA is led by sixth-year head coach Steve Henson, who made UTSA his first collegiate head coaching gig, following 13 years as a college assistant with stops at South Florida, UNLV and most recently, Oklahoma. The 2017-18 C-USA Coach of the Year led UTSA to its most wins since 2010-11 in that season, when it finished the year, 20-15 and earned a birth into the CIT postseason tournament.

SERIES HISTORY

- The last time UTSA and CLT met, was in the 2nd round of last year's Conference USA Tournament, with the Roadrunners earning a 72-62 victory to advance to the quarterfinals to take on Western Kentucky.
- The last time the sides met in Halton, Charlotte downed UTSA in a high-scoring affair, 91-84. The Niners saw double-digit scoring outputs from Jordan Shepherd, Malik Martin, Jahmir Young and Drew Edwards, with Shepherd pouring in a team-high 26 points on 8-of-13 shooting from the field.
- A win in Saturday's contest would give Charlotte a 3-1 record over UTSA when the series is played in CLT.

BALANCED EFFORT LEADS CLT PAST UTEP

- Five double-figure scorers and a pair of double-double performances led Charlotte to a balanced, 66-53, victory over UTEP on Thursday night inside Halton Arena.
 - Senior Austin Butler and junior Jahmir Young each tallied double-doubles on the evening. Young finished with 17 points and a career-high 11 rebounds, while dishing out five assists to add to his stat-sheet stuffing night. Butler concluded proceedings with 12 points and 10 of his own rebounds. Both double-doubles were the second double-doubles of the season respectively for Butler and Young
 - Sophomore Jackson Threadgill stepped up in the absence of senior Clyde Trapp, scoring a career-high 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting, while scoring 10 of his points in the first half to help give CLT the lead at the break.
 - Juniors Musa Jallow and Robert Braswell IV also added in 10 points apiece to give Charlotte five double-figure scorers for the first time since downing South Carolina State in December of 2020.

NINERS OPEN C-USA PLAY WITH NO FANS

- Per the latest campus mandate, this week's games against UTEP and UTSA will be played without fans inside Halton Arena. Only a small number of friends and family of participating student-athletes and coaches will be allowed inside the confines of Halton for the Niners first three league bouts.
 - Wins in all both contests would up CLT's record to 7-1 at home and give Charlotte its second 2-0 start to C-USA play in the last three seasons, after opening 2019-20, 4-0, in conference action.

JACKSON ANSWERS THE BELL

- With senior Clyde Trapp out of Charlotte's lineup on Thursday due to health and safety protocols, sophomore Jackson Threadgill entered the starting lineup for the first time since the November 30th contest against Davidson.
 - Threadgill opened the night connecting on each of his first three attempts from the field and scoring Charlotte's first six points of the evening, before going on to knock down a career-high six field goals and tally a career-high 15 points.
 - 10 of the Concord, North Carolina native's 15 points came in the nights opening half to help spearhead Charlotte's early attack and help the 49ers enter the halftime break with a slim 32-29 advantage. Charlotte is now 8-0 when leading at halftime and 0-5 when trailing at the break.

MIR CONTINUES TO BE MIR

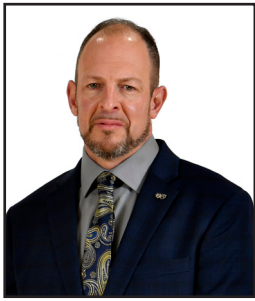

- After averaging 20.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists against Maryland Eastern Shore and Western Carolina last week, Jahmir Young earned his fourth career C-USA Player of the Week Award.
 - The Upper Marlboro, Maryland native scored 20 points in each game to lead Charlotte to a pair of wins and has now scored 20-plus points nine different times this season. Young leads the Niners and Conference USA in scoring with 19.8 points per game through 13 games.
 - His numbers have also been eye-popping everywhere else, as he's the team's third-leading rebounder with 6.2 boards per game and the squads leading assister, averaging 4.3 assists per game, with a solid assist/turnover ratio of 1.96.
 - Young has also made scoring in double-figures the equivalent to breathing as he has scored 10 or more points in 27 consecutive games dating to last season's, 70-55 win, over UAB on Jan. 16.

CLT BENEFITS FROM ITS THREE-HEADED MONSTER

- Charlotte's three-headed back court monster of Jahmir Young, Clyde Trpp and Austin Butler shows that the Niners are at their best when those three are scoring the ball at will. CLT has seen all three score in double figures four times and reach 15 or more twice.
 - The Niners are now 3-1 when those three reach double-digits with the lone loss coming in a hard-fought loss to Toledo in the Bahamas that saw CLT put together one of its most efficient offensive performances since the arrival of Coach Sanchez. In those four games, the Niners have scored their highest, second-highest, second-highest and fourth-highest scoring outputs of the year.
 - Butler, Trapp and Young are CLT's three leading scorers and rebounders, averaging 12.4 points and 6.8 rebounds, 11.0 points and 6.8 rebounds and 19.8 points and 6.2 rebounds per game respectively. Young is also one of just seven players in Conference USA to have reached double-digits in EVERY game this season.

NINER NUGGETS

- When the Niners open up a lead of 10 or more points at any point in a game, they are 8-0 on the year. All five of CLT's losses have come when they've failed to take a double-digit lead at any point in a game.
- Freshman Aly Khalifa up to this point in the season leads all Centers in Division I in assist/turnover ratio with 2.1 assists for every turnover. Khalifa ranks second on the Niners with 3.4 assists per game (41 total) and 12th in Conference USA.
- Jahmir Young has once again established himself as the do-it-all guy for the 49ers, leading the team in scoring (19.8 ppg), assists (4.2 apg) and minutes (36.4 mpg), while ranking third on the team in rebounding (6.2 rpg) and 3-point percentage (.382).
- A win would even Charlotte's record against UTSA to 2-2 under current head man, Ron Sanchez and give CLT back-to-back victories over the Roadrunners when the series is contested inside the friendly confines of Halton Arena.
- A win would also give Charlotte its fifth consecutive win at home inside Halton Arena and a 7-1 record when playing inside its friendly confines on campus.
- Founded in rather recently in 1969, the University of Texas San Antonio has experienced rather rapid growth, holding an enrollment of over 34,000 students across four campuses, making UTSA the largest university in San Antonio and the eighth-largest by enrollment in the state of Texas.
- Notable alumni of UTSA include eight-time Grammy Award Nominee and Billboard Music Award Winner, Travis Scott. Scott is known recently for his hit albums, Birds in the Trap and Astroworld
- Charlotte concluded its non-conference campaign with a record of 7-5 and a win percentage of .583, giving the program its highest non-conference win percentage since 2013-14 and its highest under head coach Ron Sanchez.
