ROADRUNNERS FEATURE

A Legacy of Football and Family

by Amber Sutherland, UTSA Athletics Communications

Makai Hart, a standout offensive lineman for UTSA's football team, comes from a long line of athletes. His passion for football is deeply rooted in his family's love for the sport.

"My dad played. My brother played. It was just obvious as soon as I could play football, I just started," he explained.

The influence of his sports-loving family was undeniable, setting the stage for his remarkable journey in the world of football.

Choosing UTSA was an easy decision for Hart. He credits the coaching staff's genuine care for him as a person, not just a player, as the deciding factor.

"It wasn't just all about the X's and O's with football; they were about me as a person and who I would become," he said.

This strong connection with the coaching staff and the cultural pillars of integrity, passion, mental and physical toughness, selflessness and perfect effort at UTSA have had a profound impact on Hart's life.

As Hart approaches his final year at UTSA, he reflects on what lies ahead.

"I'm looking forward to just getting started in my life, outside of college," he said. "I'm excited to pursue my dreams and provide even more for my family."

This season is particularly significant for Hart, as he didn't get to play much last year due to injuries. He approaches each practice and game with a sense of gratitude and a focus on having fun with his teammates while competing.

Being one of the older players on the team, Hart embraces the role of a mentor and leader. He draws from his wealth of experience, both on and off the field, to guide and support the younger players.

"I've been through so much stuff in my career — football, academically, just mentally and physically," he said.

Hart takes his role seriously, helping the younger players mature and navigate the challenges of collegiate football.

For aspiring athletes, Hart offers valuable advice. He emphasizes the importance of academic dedication, resilience in the face of unforeseen challenges and mental fortitude.

"Things aren't going to go how you predict your career to go," he warned, but he encourages young athletes to persevere, knowing that things will eventually improve.

Hart has earned his degree in multidisciplinary studies, and he plans to leverage it into a coaching career. Even as a player, he has begun studying the game from a coaching perspective, diving into coverages and strategies. His goal is to start coaching at the high school level and then transition to college football when the time is right.

Hart is a proud father who hopes to inspire his children with his work ethic and dedication.

"My kids, they are who I do it all for. I just want to give them everything I can," he said, emphasizing the importance of providing for his family while instilling the values of hard work and perseverance.

As Hart continues his journey in football and prepares for life beyond the field, his unwavering commitment to his family and his passion for the sport continue to drive his success. With his dedication and leadership, he is poised to make a significant impact, not only in the world of football, but also in the lives of those he touches along the way.

GAME CENTER

OPENING DRIVE

- UTSA will host Texas State in the home opener this Saturday at the Alamodome.
- The game is UTSA's annual Let's Go 210/Blue Out.
- UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor coached Texas State head coach G.J. Kinne during his senior year (2006) at Gilmer High School.
- The Roadrunners lead the all-time series, 4-0, including a 2-0 mark in San Antonio.
- UTSA won the last meeting, 51-48, in two overtimes in what was Jeff Traylor's debut as head coach on Sept. 12, 2020, in San Marcos.
- The Roadrunners are 7-5 all-time in home openers.
- UTSA has won six straight and 16 of its last 17 home games.
- The Roadrunners are 30-11 under Jeff Traylor, including a 23-6 mark dating back to the 2021 season, tied with Cincinnati and Ohio State for the fourth-best win total among FBS teams during that span behind only Georgia (30), Michigan (26) and Alabama (25).
- UTSA is 32-20 overall and 12-4 under Jeff Traylor versus teams from the state of Texas.

SETTING THE SCENE

UTSA will host Texas State in the home opener on Saturday, Sept. 9, for the annual Let's Go 210/Blue Out Game. Kickoff is set for 2:30 p.m. at the Alamodome and the game will air on ESPN+ and KTKR-AM Ticket 760. The Roadrunners and the Bobcats will meet for the fifth time in a series that has seen UTSA win each of the four previous matchups. UTSA is coming off a 17-14 setback at Houston, while Texas State scored a 42-31 road upset of Baylor last Saturday. The Roadrunners have won six straight and 16 of their last 17 home games. UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor coached Texas State head coach G.J. Kinne during his senior year at Gilmer High School in 2006.

TUNING IN

Saturday's game will air on ESPN+. Lincoln Rose (play-by-play), Stanford Routt (analyst) and Morgan Uber (reporter) will call the action. The game also will air live in the San Antonio area on Ticket 760, online at Ticket760.com and via the free iHeartRadio app. Andy Everett (play-by-play), Jay Riley (analyst) and Pat Evans (reporter) have the call. There will be a two-hour pregame and 45-minute postgame show.

HOME SWEET DOME

UTSA has been tough to beat at the Alamodome during the Jeff Traylor era. The Roadrunners have won 16 of their last 17 home contests and are 18-2 at the facility since his arrival prior to the 2020 season. UTSA reeled off a school-record 10-game win streak at home that started with a 27-26 victory over Louisiana Tech on Oct. 24, 2020, and ran through the 49-41 win against WKU in the 2021 Conference USA Championship Game before it was snapped in triple overtime against No. 24 Houston in the 2022 season opener. The Roadrunners have won their last six at home and are 44-29 all-time in the Alamodome.

HOME DEBUTS

UTSA is 7-5 all-time in home openers, including 2-1 under fourth-year head coach Jeff Traylor. UTSA has won five of its last seven home debuts.

SCOUTING TEXAS STATE

The Bobcats upset Baylor, 42-31, last Saturday night in Waco. Texas State gained 441 yards and outlasted the Bears despite giving up 524 yards, including 416 through the air. Transfer quarterback TJ Finley completed 22 of 30 passes for 298 yards and three touchdowns. His favorite target was Joey Hobert, who caught six passes for 105 yards and a TD. Ismail Mahdi rushed for 83 yards and a score on just six carries. Defensively, Brian Holloway registered eight total tackles and Tavian Coleman posted two tackles for loss including a sack, while Kaleb Culp came up with Texas State's first interception of the season.

FAMILIAR FACE

UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor will see a familiar face across the field on Saturday at the Alamodome. Texas State head coach G.J. Kinne played quarterback under Traylor as a senior at Gilmer High School in 2006, helping lead the Buckeyes to a 10-0 record and the district title. The two also worked together on the same staffs in 2017 at SMU and in 2018 at Arkansas.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday will mark the fifth meeting between UTSA and Texas State on the gridiron. The Roadrunners have won all four previous matchups, including both played in San Antonio. UTSA outlasted Texas State on the road, 51-48, in two overtimes on Sept. 12, 2020, in the last meeting in what was Jeff Traylor's debut as head coach. The Roadrunners registered a 38-31 home triumph on Nov. 24, 2012, a 44-14 road victory on Sept. 23, 2017, and a 25-21 win on Sept. 22, 2018, at the Alamodome. Three of the four meetings have been decided by one score.

UTSA/Texas State All-Time Series (4-0)

Date	Result	Location
11/24/12	UTSA 38, Texas State 31	San Antonio
9/23/17	UTSA 44, Texas State 14	San Marcos

9/12/20	UTSA 51, Texas State 48 (2OT)	San Marcos

LAST MEETING

Sincere McCormick rushed for 197 yards and Hunter Duplessis drilled a 29-yard field goal in the second overtime to lift UTSA to a 51-48 road win over Texas State in Jeff Traylor's debut as head coach on Sept. 12, 2020, at Bobcat Stadium. Duplessis split the uprights on his third kick of the day to help the Roadrunners put an end to a wild contest in the fourth meeting on the gridiron between the I-35 rivals. UTSA built a 24-7 halftime lead only to see the Bobcats claw back to knot the score on a 91-yard punt return by Jeremiah Haydel with 1:16 left to play in regulation. Texas State had a chance to grab the lead but Alan Orona's extra point sailed wide. Pinned deep in its own territory following the ensuing kickoff, UTSA chose to run out the clock and send the game to overtime. The Roadrunners scored on their first possession when Joshua Cephus made a diving one-handed grab in the end zone with a defender draped all over him. Duplessis' extra point put the visitors up 48-41. The Bobcats answered on a 4-yard TD pass from Tyler Vitt to Marcell Barbee and Orona's PAT knotted the score once again. Texas State had the ball first in the second overtime, but Orona's 20-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. UTSA took advantage of the miss, as three straight rushes by McCormick set up Duplessis for the game-winning kick.

WHO'S COUNTING

Now in their 13th season of play, UTSA will play its 148th game on Saturday. UTSA is 75-72 all-time and 44-29 at the Alamodome. By comparison, Texas State has been playing football since 1904 with a record of 557-517-33.

UTSA PICKED SECOND IN AAC PRESEASON POLL

The Roadrunners have been picked to finish second in the American Athletic Conference Preseason Media Poll. UTSA received 440 total points and nine first-place votes ahead of its debut campaign in the AAC, good for second behind defending champion Tulane, which garnered 457 points and 20 first-place votes. SMU was projected to finish third, followed by Memphis, Florida Atlantic, East Carolina, North Texas, UAB, Navy, Temple, Tulsa, Rice, South Florida and Charlotte in the 14-team league.
