SETTING THE SCENE

Fresh off a 49-34 road victory over Temple, UTSA will return home for the first time in a month to host UAB in a nationally televised American Athletic Conference contest on ESPNU. Kickoff for the Roadrunners' first-ever home AAC game is set for 7 p.m. at the Alamodome. Saturday also will mark UTSA's annual Hispanic Heritage Game. UTSA improved to 2-3 overall and 1-0 in the league following the win in Philadelphia, while the Blazers ran their records to 2-4 and 1-1 with a 56-35 home victory over South Florida. This will mark the eighth meeting between the two programs on the gridiron with UAB holding a slight 4-3 edge in the all-time series. The Roadrunners have won the last two meetings in dramatic fashion, pulling out a 44-38 double-overtime win in Birmingham last season and a 34-31 thriller on a last-second touchdown pass in 2021 at the Alamodome.

TUNING IN

Saturday's game will be televised nationally on ESPNU and it will be available online at WatchESPN and via the ESPN mobile app. Jay Alter (play-by-play) and Rene Ingoglia (analyst) will call the action. The game will air live in the San Antonio area on Ticket 760, online at Ticket760.com, via the free iHeartRadio app and on SiriusXM 388. Andy Everett (play-by-play), Jay Riley (analyst) and Pat Evans (reporter) have the call. There will be a two-hour pregame and 45-minute postgame show.

BACK AT HOME

The Roadrunners will return home to the Alamodome for the first time since Friday, Sept. 15. UTSA played back-to-back home games against Texas State and Army before a pair of road contests sandwiched around the lone idle week of the season over the past month. In fact, UTSA is one of only six FBS teams to play only three home games through the first eight weeks of the season, joining Bowling Green, Fresno State, Nevada, South Carolina and Virginia.

SATURDAY SOLAR ECLIPSE

San Antonio will be in the path of an annular solar eclipse on Saturday prior to the home matchup with UAB. Per NASA, partial eclipse of the sun will begin at 10:23 a.m., annularity will start at 11:52 and end at 11:56 a.m., with the partial eclipse set to conclude at 1:33 p.m.

HOME SWEET DOME

UTSA has been tough to beat at the Alamodome during the Jeff Traylor era. The Roadrunners have won 17 of their last 19 home contests and are 19-3 (.864) at the facility since his arrival prior to the 2020 season. UTSA reeled off a school-record 10-game win streak at home that started with a 27-26 victory over Louisiana Tech on Oct. 24, 2020, and ran through the 49-41 win against WKU in the 2021 Conference USA Championship Game before it was snapped in triple overtime against No. 24 Houston in the 2022 season opener. The Roadrunners have won seven of the last eight at home and are 45-30 all-time in the Alamodome.

PACKING THE DOME

UTSA fans have packed the Alamodome over the past two-plus seasons, as five of the program's nine-largest home crowds have been recorded during that span. Two of the past three home games now rank second and fourth on the all-time chart, as 49,342 fans watched UTSA beat Texas State in the 2023 home opener to mark the second-largest crowd in program history. In the final home contest last season, the Roadrunners raced past North Texas, 48-27, to capture their second straight Conference USA Championship in front of 41,412 fans, which now ranks fourth on the list of largest home crowds. That figure edged the 41,148 fans who watched UTSA outlast WKU, 49-41, in the 2021 C-USA Championship Game, now the fifth-largest home attendance. The 2022 season opener against 24th-ranked Houston drew 37,526 fans, which ranks eighth all-time, just ahead of the 34-31 thriller against UAB in front 35,147 fans in 2021. The UTSA/Texas State crowd is the second-largest in the American Athletic Conference this season behind South Florida's home game versus Alabama that drew 65,138. UTSA ranks third in The American, sixth among state of Texas FBS schools and 60th nationally in average home attendance (38,240). UTSA led C-USA in average home attendance in each of the past two seasons, averaging 28,917 per game last fall and 26,643 in 2021. A total of 465,400 fans have filed into the Alamodome to watch the Roadrunners since the return from COVID-19 protocols for the 2021 season. UTSA set NCAA modern startup program records in its first season by drawing 56,743 fans to the inaugural game against Northeastern State on Sept. 3, 2011, and by averaging 35,521 fans for six home contests.

SCOUTING UAB

The Blazers moved to 2-4 overall and 1-1 in American Athletic Conference play with a 56-35 home triumph over South Florida on Saturday. UAB's other win was a 35-6 decision against North Carolina A&T in the season opener. The Blazers are averaging 31.8 points and 451.5 yards of offense per game while allowing 35.8 points and 439.8 yards per contest. Jacob Zeno, a product of San Antonio Jay High School, guides the offense, as the quarterback has thrown for 1,795 yards and 12 touchdowns on 176-of-233 passing and rushed for 101 yards and three scores on 48 attempts to give him 316.0 yards of total offense per game, good for second in The American and 14th nationally. Jermaine Brown Jr. is the top rusher with 270 yards and seven TDs on 58 carries, Tejhaun Palmer has a team-high 350 receiving yards and three touchdowns on 22 catches. Defensively, Keondre Swoopes paces the unit with 38 tackles, while Desmond Little has 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Head coach Trent Dilfer, a former NFL quarterback who won a Super Bowl with the Baltimore Ravens in 2000, is in his first season at the helm.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday will mark the eighth meeting on the gridiron between UTSA and UAB. The Blazers hold a slight 4-3 edge in the all-time series, but the Roadrunners have won the last two matchups, both in dramatic fashion. Last November, UTSA outlasted UAB, 44-38, in double overtime in Birmingham, while Oscar Cardenas' memorable touchdown catch in the final seconds secured a 34-31 home triumph in 2021. The series is tied at 2-2 in games played at the Alamodome.

LAST MEETING

Joshua Cephus caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from Frank Harris and the defense forced an incomplection on fourth down in the second overtime, as UTSA outlasted UAB, 44-38, on Nov. 5, 2022, at Protective Stadium. Playing their program-record third overtime game of the season, the Roadrunners won for the first time in Birmingham. UTSA held a 14-point lead in the fourth quarter but the Blazers rallied to tie things up in the final minutes. Trailing 31-24 with 1:15 left to play, UAB put together an eight-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Jacob Zeno to Trea Shropshire with 15 seconds remaining. Matt Quinn's extra point knotted the score to force overtime. UAB took a 38-31 lead in the first extra period on an 11-yard TD catch by Tejhaun Palmer, but UTSA answered with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Harris to Tykee Ogle-Kellogg to send the contest into a second OT. The Roadrunners took a 44-38 advantage after Cephus' TD catch on a wheel route down the right sideline, and the defense then held strong, as Nick Booker-Brown made a key sack on third down and Corey Mayfield Jr. and Clifford Chatman provided coverage on a long pass attempt on fourth down to secure the victory.

« RADIO BROADCAST INFO »

Through the UTSA Sports Media Network, all UTSA football games will be carried live in the San Antonio area on Ticket 760 AM, online at Ticket760.com and via the free iHeartRadio app.

WHO'S COUNTING

Now in their 13th season of play, the Roadrunners will play the 152nd game in program history on Saturday when they host UAB. UTSA is 77-74 all-time and 45-30 at home. The 100th game and 50th home contest in UTSA history occurred against UAB on Oct. 12, 2019, at the Alamodome.

LAST TIME OUT

Frank Harris returned to the lineup to throw for 338 yards and three touchdowns to help lead UTSA to a 49-34 victory over Temple in the Roadrunners' inaugural American Athletic Conference game last Saturday at Lincoln Financial Field. Harris completed 25 of 33 passes to help the Roadrunners pile up season highs of 49 points and 495 yards of offense to improve to 2-3 on the season and a perfect 3-0 in conference debuts. UTSA also ran its record to 8-4 all-time in league openers and 21-3 in regular season conference games under fourth-year head coach Jeff Traylor. Harris, who topped 10,000 career passing yards, tossed passes to six different receivers paced by Joshua Cephus' seven catches for 81 yards and a touchdown. Devin McCuin hauled in six passes for 94 yards and a TD, Oscar Cardenas caught five balls for 51 yards and Tykee Ogle-Kellogg had three receptions for 83 yards and a score. On the ground, Robert Henry rushed for 78 yards and two TDs on only 11 carries, while Kevorian Barnes added 62 yards and a score on 11 totes. Defensively, Martavius French led the way with 10 tackles, while Avery Morris logged a career-high nine stops. Ken Robinson made seven tackles, while Kam Alexander and Jimmori Robinson recorded six stops apiece to help UTSA limit the Owls to 70 rushing yards.

UTSA PICKED SECOND IN AAC PRESEASON POLL

The Roadrunners have been picked to finish second in the American Athletic Conference Preseason Media Poll. UTSA received 440 total points and nine first-place votes ahead of its debut campaign in the AAC, good for second behind defending champion Tulane, which garnered 457 points and 20 first-place votes. SMU was projected to finish third, followed by Memphis, Florida Atlantic, East Carolina, North Texas, UAB, Navy, Temple, Tulsa, Rice, South Florida and Charlotte in the 14-team league.

ROADRUNNERS RACING THROUGH CONFERENCE COMPETITION

The Roadrunners have won their last 11 games against conference opponents. The streak began with the 49-41 victory over Western Kentucky in the 2021 Conference USA Championship and continued with a perfect 8-0 regular season league slate in 2022 before extending the stretch to 10 with a 48-27 triumph over North Texas in the 2022 C-USA Championship Game. UTSA made its American Athletic Conference debut a successful one, racing past Temple, 49-34, last Saturday to push the streak to 11. The Roadrunners have won 21 of their last 22 contests against conference competition dating back to a three-game win streak that closed out the 2020 C-USA schedule in Jeff Traylor's first season. In fact, UTSA boasts a 21-3 (.875) record in regular season conference games and a 23-3 (.885) mark against league foes in the Traylor era.

UTSA IMPROVES IN CONFERENCE OPENERS

UTSA improved to 8-4 all-time in conference openers, including a perfect 4-0 under head coach Jeff Traylor, with the 49-34 road triumph over Temple last Saturday. The Roadrunners beat Middle Tennessee in each of the previous three league lid-lifters, scoring a 45-30 triumph last year in Murfreesboro after back-to-back home victories in 2020 (37-35) and 2021 (27-13). UTSA now has won each of its three league debuts, beating New Mexico State 35-14 in the Western Athletic Conference opener on Sept. 29, 2012, in Las Cruces, and defeating UTEP 32-13, in its first Conference USA game on Sept. 21, 2013, in El Paso.

ROADRUNNERS REEL IN PRESEASON HONORS

A total of 13 Roadrunners have landed on preseason watch lists this year. Senior quarterback Frank Harris leads the way with nine nods, while wide receiver De'Corian Clark has six.

ALLEN, MOORE COLLECT AAC WEEKLY AWARDS

UTSA place-kicker Chase Allen and outside linebacker Trey Moore were named American Athletic Conference Players of the Week on Sept. 11 for their performances in the 20-13 victory over Texas State. Allen picked up the special teams award after he turned in a perfect outing in his UTSA debut, splitting the uprights from 46 and 43 yards and making both extra-point attempts. Moore was honored as the defensive player of the week for recording seven tackles, including three sacks, which contributed to a school-record total of seven for the game. His three sacks are a career high and tied for the second-most recorded by a Roadrunner in a game.

TRAYLOR TAKING ROADRUNNERS TO NEW HEIGHTS

Head coach Jeff Traylor has taken UTSA to new heights since taking over the program prior to the 2020 campaign. The Gilmer, Texas, native has turned around the program by instilling his 210 Triangle of Toughness culture, producing results on and off the field. Taking over a team that won a combined seven games in the two seasons prior to his arrival, he has led the Roadrunners to a 32-13 record, the most wins all-time and best winning percentage (.711) by a UTSA head football coach. Additionally, the Roadrunners own a 21-3 (.875) record in regular season conference games and are 23-3 (.885) against league competition when including the two Conference USA Championship Games in the Traylor era. Under Traylor's direction, UTSA has won back-to-back conference championships, been nationally ranked in all three major polls in 2021 and 2022 and made three straight bowl appearances. The two-time conference coach of the year has coached six All-Americans, three national award finalists, 12 national award semifinalists, six conference superlative award recipients, 67 all-conference selections, two academic All-Americans and a pair of NFL Draft picks during his UTSA tenure. He was the 2021 AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year and he has been a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year twice in addition to being a finalist for the 2022 Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards Coach of the Year, 2021 AFCA National Coach of the Year and the 2021 George Munger College Coach of the Year.

DOWN TO THE WIRE

UTSA is no stranger to close contests in the Jeff Traylor era, as 29 of the 45 have been one-score ballgames in the fourth quarter. The Roadrunners own a 20-9 record in those games. Dating back to the 2021 campaign, UTSA has seen 16 of the last 24 contests decided in the fourth quarter or later. Additionally, the Roadrunners are 12-4 in games decided by eight points or less since 2021.

WORKING OVERTIME

The Roadrunners were working overtime in 2022, with a program-record three contests needing extra periods to determine the outcome. UTSA played the first back-to-back overtime games in program history to open the campaign. The Roadrunners dropped a 37-35 decision to No. 24 Houston in triple overtime in the opener. One week later, UTSA rallied from a 14-point, second-half deficit to score a 41-38 road triumph over Army West Point in one extra period. On Nov. 5 in Birmingham, the Roadrunners outlasted UAB 44-38 in double overtime to improve to 2-1 last season and 5-3 overall in overtime games. UTSA played overtime, double-overtime and triple-overtime games last season and joined Houston, Navy and Texas Tech as the only FBS teams to have played three overtime contests last year.

SEASON 13

One of the newest FBS programs and now in its first year as a member of the American Athletic Conference, UTSA is playing its 13th season of football in 2023. The Roadrunners started their program from scratch and, following a practice year in 2010, played their first season as an FCS Independent in 2011 before joining the Western Athletic Conference for the 2012 campaign. UTSA moved into Conference USA in 2013 and became a full-fledged FBS member starting with the 2014 season. The Roadrunners set NCAA modern startup program records in 2011 by drawing 56,743 fans to their inaugural game against Northeastern State and by averaging 35,521 fans for their six home contests that season. UTSA made its first postseason appearance at the 2016 New Mexico Bowl in its sixth season of play and registered its first win against a team from the Big 12 Conference the following season with a 17-10 victory over Baylor. The Roadrunners made history in 2021, opening the fall with a road win against Illinois of the Big Ten Conference, capturing their first conference championship with a 49-42 decision against WKU and capping a 12-2 ledger with their third bowl game. They repeated as league champions with a 48-27 win over North Texas in 2022 and made their third straight and fourth overall bowl appearance, ending the year with an 11-3 mark. UTSA has posted at least six wins in seven of the 12 complete seasons in program history and it has reached the seven-win plateau five times, including in each of the first three years of the Jeff Traylor era. The Roadrunners reached double-digit wins in back-to-back seasons (2021-22), joining Baylor and TCU as the only Texas-based FBS teams since 2012 to notch at least 10 wins in consecutive years.

HIGH-SCORING ROADRUNNERS

UTSA has emerged as one of the top scoring offenses in the FBS under head coach Jeff Traylor. In his second season at the helm in 2021, the Roadrunners set school records for scoring, tallying 516 total points in 14 contests for a program-record 36.9 points per game to rank 11th nationally. Last year, the Roadrunners came up just shy of the school record with 515 points in 14 games for an average of 36.8 per game, good for 14th in the FBS. UTSA scored 30-plus points in 12 of the 14 contests, and they topped the 40-point barrier seven times and the 50-point plateau twice. UTSA has scored 20-plus points in 34 of the last 37 games dating back to the 2020 campaign. The Roadrunners have tallied 1,496 points in 45 games under head coach Jeff Traylor, good for an average of 33.2 points per game.

HARRIS ON HISTORIC RIDE

Frank Harris is on a historic ride as UTSA's starting quarterback. The Schertz Clemens High School product owns 38 school records, including 14 career marks, and he recently eclipsed 10,000 passing yards as a Roadrunner. The 2022 Conference USA Most Valuable Player and first-team all-conference performer owns a 33-12 record as UTSA's starting QB, and despite missing two games in September, he still ranks fourth among active signal-callers with 45 starts behind only Oregon's Bo Nix (52), Notre Dame's Sam Hartman (52) and LSU's Jayden Daniels (49). The left-hander appears on nine different preseason watch lists this year, including the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, of which he was a finalist for in 2022, and the Davey O'Brien Award, which he has been a semifinalist for in each of the last two seasons. Harris is coming off a record-setting 2022 that saw him complete 328 of 471 passes (69.6%) for 4,063 yards and 32 TDs and a 160.7 passing efficiency — all school records — to help lead UTSA to an 11-3 record and a second straight league crown. He logged seven 300-yard passing games, including a UTSA record 414 in the 45-30 win at Middle Tennessee, and he totaled 400-plus yards of offense three times, highlighted by a school record 423 in the same contest. Harris added 602 rushing yards — the program standard for a QB — and nine scores on the ground. He opened the 2023 campaign by throwing for 209 yards and a TD and rushing for 45 yards against Houston, and he followed that by completing 26 of 37 passes for 214 yards and a score in the 20-13 victory over Texas State before missing his first start and game since 2020 to snap a streak of 36 consecutive starts. He returned to the lineup in the 49-34 win at Temple and threw for 338 yards and three touchdowns on 25-of-33 passing, earning a spot on the Davey O'Brien Award Great 8, Manning Award Stars of the Week list and AAC Weekly Honor Roll for his performance. For his career, Harris has thrown for 10,117 yards and 79 touchdowns on 885-of-1,317 passing to go with 1,890 rushing yards and 25 scores on 398 carries to give him UTSA's total offense record with 12,007 yards, which ranks sixth among active FBS quarterbacks. Additionally, he stands fifth in touchdowns responsible for (105), sixth in completion percentage (.672), eighth in touchdown passes (79), 10th in passing yards (10,117) and 16th in passing efficiency (147.6) among active signal-callers.

EXPERIENCE UP FRONT

UTSA once again boasts one of the most experienced offensive lines in the FBS this fall. The Roadrunners own more than 200 combined games played within the unit, a total that ranks in the top 25 nationally. Additionally, UTSA's returning starters of Terrell Haynes (32), Makai Hart (22), Ernesto Almaraz (8), Walker Baty (7) and Venly Tatafu (7) had combined for 76 starts entering the season, the 14th-best tally in the FBS. Almaraz and Tatafu have started five contests in 2023, while Haynes and Hart have upped their career starts tally to 36 and 24, respectively.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

The Roadrunners boast a three-headed monster in the backfield this season. Running backs Kevorian Barnes, Rocko Griffin and Robert Henry have combined to rush for 660 yards and six touchdowns on 134 attempts. Barnes, a redshirt sophomore from San Augustine, Texas, paces the unit with 337 yards on 75 carries, while Henry, a junior transfer from Lumberton, Mississippi, has tallied 207 yards and a team-best three touchdowns on 34 totes, an average of 6.1 yards per attempt. Griffin, a sophomore transfer from Vanderbilt, has rushed 25 times for 116 yards and a score. The trio is responsible for 90.2% of the Roadrunners' rushing yards and 86% of their rushing TDs this fall.

BARNES BACK AFTER BREAKOUT CAMPAIGN

Kevorian Barnes enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2022 that saw him collect Conference USA Freshman of the Year honors after rushing for 845 yards and six touchdowns on 135 carries. The San Augustine, Texas, native had just six rushes for 20 yards through the first five contests last fall before his breakout game of 128 yards and two touchdowns on 20 rushes in the 30-10 victory at FIU on Oct. 14. In fact, 825 of his yards were accumulated over the final eight contests. He topped the 100-yard mark on the ground five times and averaged 6.3 yards per rush, capping the year with a 132-yard output against No. 23 Troy in the Cure Bowl. Barnes' 2022 rushing total ranks sixth on UTSA's single-season list. The Doak Walker Award Watch List member opened his redshirt sophomore season with another 100-yard contest, piling up 103 yards and a TD on 16 carries against Houston. He matched that with 103 yards on 26 totes in the 20-13 win over Texas State to also eclipse the 1,000-yard plateau for his career. Barnes has rushed for 131 yards combined over the last three contests and now has 337 yards this season and 1,198 in 20 career contests.

SURE-HANDED CEPHUS

Joshua Cephus has built a reputation as a wide receiver who does not drop anything thrown his way. The senior from Houston has been tagged with only nine drops in 362 targets during his career for a drop rate of 3.3% according to Pro Football Focus. A graduate of Dekaney High School, he caught 87 passes for 985 yards and six touchdowns en route to second-team all-conference accolades in 2022. Cephus opened his final campaign with a career night, catching nine balls for a career-best 123 yards and a touchdown against Houston, and he was named to the American Athletic Conference Weekly Honor Roll for his performance. He caught seven balls for 40 yards in the 20-13 win over Texas State and added 84 receiving yards and a TD on eight grabs versus Army before hauling in seven passes for 58 yards and a score at No. 20 Tennessee. In his last outing, he was on the receiving end of seven passes for 81 yards and a touchdown in the 49-34 win at Temple to tie Zakhari Franklin's program record for career receptions with 262. He leads UTSA with 38 catches, 386 receiving yards and four receiving TDs this season and currently stands second in the American Athletic Conference and eighth nationally in receptions per game (7.6) and sixth in the league and 48th in the FBS in receiving yards per game (77.2). He also ranks among the nation's best when it comes to consecutive games with a reception. A member of the Paul Hornung Award and Reese's Senior Bowl Watch Lists, he has caught a pass in 44 straight contests, the fourth-longest active stretch in the nation behind only Jacob Cowing of Arizona (50), Sam Pinckney of Coastal Carolina (50) and Franklin (48), who is now at Ole Miss. Among active FBS players, he currently ranks fourth in career receptions (262), fifth in receiving yards (2,874) and eighth in receiving TDs (22).

CLARK ON THE COMEBACK

De'Corian Clark was enjoying arguably the best year of his UTSA career before he suffered a season-ending injury in the 44-38 double-overtime win at UAB on Nov. 5, 2022. The senior wide receiver still managed to pile up 741 yards and eight touchdowns on 51 receptions in nine games, earning second-team all-conference honors. The Fort Worth O.D. Wyatt High School product — whose nickname is "JT" for his middle name, John Thomas — averaged 82.3 receiving yards per game and 14.5 yards per catch last fall. He set the program record for single-game receiving yards with 217 and matched his own single-game touchdown standard with three in the 52-24 win over Texas Southern. Clark, who is on preseason watch lists for the Biletnikoff and Comeback Player of the Year Awards, as well as the Reese's Senior Bowl, entered his final campaign with 112 receptions for 1,559 yards and 16 touchdowns for his career, marks that rank in the program's all-time top five. He got on the field for one snap in the 20-13 win over Texas State and three plays in the 49-34 road triumph over Temple in his only action so far this year. Also heavily involved in community service, he is a candidate for the Wuerffel Trophy and Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

CARDENAS IS CLUTCH

UTSA tight end Oscar Cardenas has built a reputation for making clutch catches in key moments of games during his career. The San Antonio Brandeis High School product played a role in one of the iconic moments in program history, hauling in the game-winning TD reception after a tipped pass with three seconds left in the 34-31 victory over UAB in 2021. He also had a 28-yard catch on that game-winning drive versus the Blazers to help the Roadrunners clinch the Conference USA West Division title. Last year, Cardenas caught two balls in the opener against No. 24 Houston, including a key 25-yard reception that set up the game-tying field goal as time expired. He also made a one-handed grab and then hurdled a defender for a 35-yard play on the final drive of the 31-27 victory over North Texas last October to set up the game-winning touchdown pass on the following play. A member of the John Mackey Award Watch List for the second straight season, he caught 31 passes for 438 yards — both career highs — and two TDs en route to honorable mention all-conference accolades in 2022. He had four receptions for 31 yards versus No. 20 Tennessee and added five grabs for 51 yards in the 49-34 win at Temple to give him 13 catches for 116 yards this season and 63 receptions for 833 yards as a Roadrunner.

SACK ATTACK

UTSA has spent much time in the opposing backfield through five games this season. The Roadrunners have registered 33 tackles for loss and 13 sacks in 2023, including a school-record seven sacks in the 20-13 victory over Texas State. UTSA ranks in the top 40 nationally in both sacks (2.60) and tackles for loss (6.6) per game.

MOORE EMERGES ON THE EDGE

UTSA redshirt sophomore Trey Moore has emerged as one of the top young edge defenders in the nation following a breakout 2022 campaign. The Smithson Valley High School product posted 59 total tackles, 30 solo stops, 18 tackles for loss, eight sacks, six pass breakups, five quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery en route to being named a Freshman All-American by three different organizations. A Conference USA All-Freshman Team and honorable mention all-conference selection, he broke 2018 NFL First Round draft pick Marcus Davenport's school single-season record for tackles for loss in his first full season as a starter. A member of the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Moore has picked up where he left off so far this season with 21 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and four sacks through five contests. He posted seven stops, including three sacks, in the 20-13 win over Texas State. His three sacks are tied for the second-best total by a Roadrunner in a game and he is one of only 12 FBS defenders to record at least three sacks in a game this year. Moore leads the American Athletic Conference and ranks 21st nationally with 0.8 sacks per game and he stands second in the league and 28th in the FBS with 1.3 tackles for loss per contest.

D-LINE DEPTH KEEPS ROADRUNNERS FRESH

UTSA utilizes a deep rotation on the defensive line to keep players fresh throughout the course of a game. The Roadrunners played as many as 10 d-linemen in a game in 2022, and they have opened 2023 by rotating at least nine in each of the first five contests. UTSA's front features first-team all-conference performer Brandon Brown, honorable mention all-conference selections in Nick Booker-Brown, Joe Evans and Brandon Matterson, Conference USA All-Freshman Team picks in Christian Clayton and Tai Leonard, to go along with Asyrus Simon, Ronald Triplette and Trumane Bell II, who is tied for third in school history with 12.5 career sacks.

LINEBACKER LEADER

Jamal Ligon is back for his fourth season as one of UTSA's two starting inside linebackers. The Tyler, Texas, native earned second-team all-conference honors in 2022 after recording a team-high 90 total tackles, 43 solo stops, six tackles for loss, one sack, four quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles, one pass breakup and a fumble recovery. A member of the Shrine Bowl 1,000, he has tallied 17 stops, two quarterback hurries, one TFL and a PBU through five games this year. Ligon set the program's single-game standard with 19 tackles as a true freshman in the 37-35 win over Middle Tennessee in 2020 and he currently ranks sixth in school history with 240 career stops, just two shy of the top five.

WISDOM IN THE SECONDARY

Rashad Wisdom is back for his fifth and final season in a UTSA uniform as one of the most productive defensive backs in program history. The Converse Judson High School product started six games last fall but suffered a season-ending injury and shut it down after the road win over FIU on Oct. 14. A two-time first-team all-conference safety, he opened his final campaign with five total tackles, including four unassisted, versus Houston before posting three stops in the 20-13 win over Texas State. After turning in five solo and seven total stops against Army, four tackles plus a pair of PBUs at No. 20 Tennessee and five unassisted tackles in the 49-34 win at Temple, he owns a school-record 198 career solo tackles, third among active FBS players, Wisdom has his eyes on UTSA's career tackles mark of 293 set by Triston Wade (2011-14), as he has made 278 total stops, good for 18th on the active FBS list. The Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List member also has five interceptions, 10 pass breakups, 11 tackles for loss, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a pair of sacks in 49 games as a Roadrunner.

PUNTER FROM DOWN UNDER

Lucas Dean is back for his fifth season as one of the best to ever punt for UTSA. A product of Prokick Australia and the first Roadrunner from Down Under, he has used an Australian Rules Football background to help provide UTSA with a weapon in the kicking game since his arrival on campus in 2019. The three-time all-conference performer owns the program standard for career punting average with a 43.7 mark, which places him 13th among active FBS players. This season, he is averaging 41.1 yards on 22 punts with four inside the 20-yard line and pair that have gone 50-plus yards. Dean has registered the top three marks on the school's single-season chart with a 45.98 average in 2020, 45.23 in 2021 and 45.05 last fall. He also boasts seven of the eight longest punts in UTSA annals, headlined by his school-record 76-yard kick against Texas Southern in 2022. The 2020 Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year was a second-team All-American by the Sporting News and a fourth-team selection by Phil Steele that season. Also an excellent student who has been named Academic All-District twice and to the 2021 Conference USA All-Academic Team, Dean appears on the preseason watch list for the Ray Guy Award this year.

TV BIRDS

Saturday's game will air on ESPNU, marking 130 straight televised/streamed appearances for the Roadrunners. The last UTSA game that was not broadcast was the 2012 season finale against Texas State.

A FOCUS ON RECRUITING TEXAS

UTSA's 113-man roster features 88 players — 78% — who hail from the state of Texas. Georgia and Louisiana stand second with four players apiece, while there are three from Mississippi and two each from Florida

« KEEPING THEM HOME »

UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor and his staff have placed an emphasis on recruiting the city of San Antonio and surrounding area. This year's roster includes 20 players from the San Antonio area.

Chris Bryson (Brandeis)	Brandon Matterson (Brandeis)
Oscar Cardenas (Brandeis)	Trey Moore (Smithson Valley)
Cade Collenback (O'Connor)	Jalen Rainey (Brandeis)
Darius Govan (Sam Houston)	Jaren Randle (Johnson)
Frank Harris (Schertz Clemens)	Robert Rigsby (Converse Judson)
Timothy Huff Jr. (East Central)	Ben Rios (Central Catholic)
Ethan Laing (Boerne Champion)	Justin Rodriguez (Johnson)
Ronald Link-Milam Jr. (Reagan)	Kamron Scott (Converse Judson)
Deandre Marshall (Central Catholic)	Xavier Spencer (Converse Judson)
Frankie Martinez (East Central)	Rashad Wisdom (Converse Judson)

and Tennessee. Alabama, California, Hawai'i, Iowa, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Virginia each have produced one current Roadrunner. Lucas Dean is the lone UTSA player from Australia and Cory Godinet is the first Roadrunner from American Samoa.

UTSA'S 210 TRIANGLE OF TOUGHNESS

Since his arrival in December 2019 head coach Jeff Traylor has instilled into the program his 210 Triangle Of Toughness — run the football, be physical on defense and be sound on special teams — and its Culture Pillars: Integrity, Passion, Mental & Physical Toughness, Selfless and Perfect Effort. As part of that culture, the players voted during fall camp on who would earn single-digit jersey numbers, a reward for representing mental and physical toughness on and off the field. The numbers 2, 1 and 0 — San Antonio's area code — were chosen for the players voted to represent the 210 Triangle of Toughness brand. Below are the single-digit jersey numbers as voted by their teammates:

- 0 — Frank Harris, Rashad Wisdom
- 1 — De'Corian Clark, Trey Moore
- 2 — Brandon Brown, Joshua Cephus
- 3 — Brandon Matterson
- 4 — Kevorian Barnes, Nicktroy Fortune
- 5 — Lucas Dean, Joe Evans
- 6 — Kelechi Nwachuku
- 7 — Donyai Taylor
- 8 — Jamal Ligon
- 9 — Oscar Cardenas

Offensive linemen Ernesto Almaraz (64), Makai Hart (77) and Terrell Haynes (58) also received the necessary votes but cannot change to a single-digit number due to their position.

PRO 'RUNNERS

UTSA currently has five players on NFL active rosters and a pair on practice squads. Marcus Davenport became the first Roadrunner to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft when the Saints picked him 14th overall in 2018. The sixth-year veteran defensive end is in his first season as a starting outside linebacker for the Vikings. Tariq Woolen was selected by the Seahawks in the fifth round of the 2022 NFL Draft. Now in his second year as a starter at cornerback, he led the league with six interceptions and was a Pro Bowl selection as a rookie. Spencer Burford was a fourth-round pick by the 49ers in 2022 and is in his second year as a starter at offensive guard in San Francisco. Kevin Strong Jr. is in his fifth year in the NFL and first season as a starting defensive lineman for the Arizona Cardinals. Defensive lineman Eric Banks was just moved up from the practice squad to the Cardinals' active roster on Sept. 30. Additionally, Sincere McCormick (Raiders) and Leroy Watson (49ers) are on practice squads.

UP NEXT

The Roadrunners will head to the Sunshine State to face Florida Atlantic on Saturday, Oct. 21 Kickoff is set for 5 p.m. CT in Boca Raton and the game will air on ESPN+ and Ticket 760.

« UTSA FOOTBALL MEDIA POLICY »

The UTSA Athletics Communications Office assists members of the media with their coverage of all 17 Roadrunners sports by coordinating interviews and providing feature ideas, notes, statistics and any other information needed to cover the athletics department. Media members may check the UTSA Athletic's official website — goUTSA.com — for the latest information on all Roadrunners sports.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All interviews with UTSA student-athletes and coaches must be arranged at least 24 hours in advance by contacting the Athletics Communications Office. Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis ONLY and at a time that is convenient for the interviewee. Contact information (i.e., cell phone numbers) for student-athletes and coaches WILL NOT be provided to the media.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

During the season, UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor will be available during a Monday media roundtable session. Coach Traylor and student-athletes will be available post-practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. All interview requests for the week should be made by 5 p.m. on Mondays.

PRACTICE POLICIES

UTSA football practices take place at the practice fields on the Main Campus. Practices are closed during the season. Questions pertaining to practice schedules and specific media information regarding coverage for all other sports may be directed to Kyle Stephens.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Following a brief cooling-off period, UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor and requested student-athletes will be made available for interviews.

CREDENTIALS

Media members may request credentials to cover UTSA's six home football games by visiting goUTSA.com/fbcredentials.

Head Coach
Fourth Season
(Stephen F. Austin '90)
@CoachTraylor

Named UTSA's third head coach on Dec. 9, 2019, Jeff Traylor has had an immediate impact on the program, university and city of San Antonio in a short period of time.

Traylor has turned around the UTSA football program by instilling his 210 Triangle of Toughness culture, which has led to positive results on and off the field. The Gilmer, Texas, native took over a team that won a combined seven games in the two seasons prior to his arrival and has led the Roadrunners to a 30-10 record in his first three years at the helm, already the most wins and best winning percentage (.750) by a coach in program history.

In 2022, Traylor guided UTSA to an 11-3 record, a second straight Conference USA title after defeating North Texas 48-27, a top-25 ranking in all three major polls for the second consecutive season and the third bowl appearance in a row with the Cure Bowl matchup against Troy. He repeated as C-USA Coach of the Year and was chosen as a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards Coach of the Year, as well as a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award.

Under Traylor's guidance, UTSA collected a school-record 30 C-USA postseason honors, as 27 made the 2022 all-conference teams—including six first-team and five second-team selections—while 16 received honorable mention and three landed on the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Frank Harris was voted the league's MVP and Kevorian Barnes was tabbed C-USA Freshman of the Year. Harris (4) and Jared Sackett (5) combined to earn nine C-USA Player of the Week accolades that season.

Also in 2022, wide receiver Zakhari Franklin was named an honorable mention All-American by Phil Steele, the sixth Roadrunner to receive All-America accolades in the Traylor era. Additionally, Harris was named a finalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.

Under Traylor's tutelage, UTSA enjoyed a record-setting campaign in 2021. The Roadrunners won their first 11 games, were nationally ranked (as high as No. 15) for the first time in school history and captured the program's first league title by winning the C-USA Championship with a 49-41 victory over Western Kentucky. UTSA capped the season with its second straight and third overall bowl appearance against San Diego State in the Frisco Bowl.

Traylor was honored as the 2021 C-USA Coach of the Year, the AFCA FBS Regional Coach of the Year for Region 4 and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award, AFCA National Coach of the Year and George Munger College Coach of the Year Award. A member of the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards Coach of the Year watch list, he was chosen as the 2021 San Antonio Express-News Sportsman of the Year.

A total of 23 Roadrunners received recognition on the all-conference and C-USA All-Freshman teams in 2021 with Sincere McCormick earning C-USA Offensive Player of the Year accolades for the second straight season.

McCormick garnered All-America accolades from three different organizations in 2021, while Spencer Burford and Clarence Hicks were tabbed honorable mention All-Americans by Phil Steele. McCormick also was an Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award finalist and a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award for the second straight year. Harris landed on semifinalist lists for the Davey O'Brien and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Awards, while Hunter Duplessis was a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy for the second year in a row. Harris and McCormick each collected Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award National Player of the Week honors, while Harris also was a Manning Award Quarterback of the Week. Additionally, UTSA collected nine C-USA weekly awards during the 2021 season.

Traylor guided the Roadrunners to a 7-5 overall record, a runner-up finish in Conference USA's West Division with a 5-2 mark and an appearance in the 2020 First Responder Bowl in his first season at the helm. The Roadrunners received votes in a national poll (AP Top 25) for the first time in program history after a 3-0 start and the seven wins mark the most by a first-year UTSA head coach.

Lucas Dean, Duplessis and McCormick received All-America accolades, while McCormick also was a finalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. Additionally, Duplessis (Campbell Trophy, Lou Groza) and McCormick (Doak Walker) were national award semifinalists, while Harris made the Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2020. Dean was tabbed C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year and McCormick was named C-USA Offensive Player of the Year, while a total of 23 Roadrunners were recognized by the league's head coaches, including 19 as all-conference and four on the all-freshman team. The Roadrunners collected a program-record 11 C-USA Player of the Week certificates and a trio of national player of the week accolades in McCormick (Earl Campbell Tyler Rose National Player of the Week), Dean (Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week) and Rashad Wisdom (Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week).

Traylor has overseen the development of several Roadrunners who have moved on to the professional ranks. In April 2022, UTSA doubled the number of NFL draft picks on one afternoon, as the 49ers selected Spencer Burford in the fourth round while the Seahawks picked Tariq Woolen one round later. Burford has earned the starting spot at right guard and Woolen has picked off half a dozen passes in his rookie campaign en route to being selected to the Pro Bowl. Additionally, Clarence Hicks (Bengals), Sincere McCormick (Raiders), Charles Wiley (Ravens, Giants) and Leroy Watson (49ers) all signed free-agent deals in 2022.

UTSA student-athletes have been honored for their work in the classroom under Traylor, as well. Ahofitu Maka became the third Roadrunner to be named a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy and the second to be selected as a College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-American when he landed on the first team in 2022. He also earned spots on the CSC Academic All-District Team for a third time and the C-USA All-Academic Team for the second straight season. Duplessis was a two-time C-USA Football Scholar Athlete of the Year, a 2021 CSC Academic All-American, a two-time C-USA All-Academic Team selection and a two-time CSC Academic All-District pick. Dean earned 2021 C-USA All-Academic Team recognition and CSC Academic All-District Team accolades in 2021 and 2022.

Traylor has more than 30 years of coaching experience including a highly successful 15-year career as head coach at Gilmer High School, where he led teams to three state championships and two state runner-up finishes and won more than 87% of his games, a winning percentage that ranks 10th all-time in Texas high school history.

Prior to coming to the Alamo City, the Gilmer native served as associate head coach and running backs coach for two seasons at Arkansas, where he helped sign the school's first top-20 recruiting class. Prior to that, he served in the same role at SMU for the 2017 season. He began his collegiate coaching career as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Texas in 2015 before becoming the Longhorns' associate head coach for offense and wide receivers coach the following year.

Traylor's impact on the offense was felt immediately in his first season at Arkansas, as his running backs corps racked up 1,721 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2018. The unit was led by Rakeem Boyd, who rushed for more than 100 yards in three different SEC games, including a season-best 113 against Vanderbilt. The Houston Stratford High School product took over the starting tailback role in the fifth game of the season and his most impressive stretch of the season came during a four-game stretch against Alabama, Ole Miss, Tulsa and Vanderbilt, as he topped the century mark three times and totaled 423 yards. His 102 yards against Alabama made him the first Arkansas running back to eclipse 100 yards against the Crimson Tide since Darren McFadden in 2007.

In Traylor's second season coaching the Arkansas running backs, Boyd rushed for 1,133 yards and eight touchdowns on 184 carries (6.2 avg.) to spearhead a ground game that accumulated 1,766 yards. Boyd topped 100 yards in five contests, including a season-best 185 and two scores on just eight attempts against Western Kentucky. He also rushed for 100-plus against Portland State (114), Colorado State (122), Kentucky (134) and Mississippi (114).

Prior to his time at Arkansas, Traylor spent the 2017 season as associate head coach and running backs coach at SMU under Chad Morris. He also served as the Mustangs' interim coach before joining Morris' staff at Arkansas.

During his one year at SMU, Traylor's running backs piled up 2,223 yards on the ground. Three players rushed for 500-plus yards, with Xavier Jones leading the group at 1,075. The Mustangs topped the 200-yard mark on the ground six times, including a season-best 311 in a win against Arkansas State. SMU ranked in the top 20 nationally in several offensive categories, including 12th in scoring offense and 15th in total offense.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Traylor spent two seasons at Texas. He was the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator in 2015 and then the associate head coach for offense and wide receivers coach in 2016, when the Longhorns boasted the nation's No. 16-ranked offense that averaged 491.3 yards per game. During his time as the lead recruiter, he helped the Longhorns sign the No. 7-ranked recruiting class in the country in back-to-back years and was named Scout.com's Big 12 Recruiter of the Year. He recruited punter Michael Dickson, who went on to earn multiple All-America honors, win Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player of the Year in 2016 and 2017 as well as the 2017 Ray Guy Award, and currently punts for the Seattle Seahawks.

Traylor built his hometown program into a prep powerhouse during his 15-year tenure leading the Buckeyes.

A four-time Texas High School Coach of the Year, he posted a 175-26 record (.871 winning percentage) and led Gilmer to five state championship game appearances, three state titles (2004, '09, '14) and 12 district crowns. The Buckeyes turned in a pair of perfect 16-0 seasons, won 10-or-more games 11 times and registered seven 13-win seasons and three 15-win campaigns during his career.

In 2014, his undefeated Class 4A Division II state championship team boasted one of the most prolific offenses in Texas prep history. Gilmer scored 950 points, the second-most in state history, averaging 59.4 points and 536.1 yards over the 16-game season. The Buckeyes topped 60 points nine times, including two 80-point performances. Gilmer also averaged 536.1 total yards per game (8,577 yards) behind a balanced 293.9 passing yards and 242.1 rushing yards per contest. The defense was equally dominant, allowing only 276 points (17.3) with five single-digit efforts and two shutouts, while recording 23 interceptions and forcing 17 fumbles. Gilmer closed out the season with a win over West Orange-Stark and had eight different players earn 4A All-State honors from either the Associated Press or Texas Sports Writers Association.

Gilmer's two other state titles under Traylor both came in Class 3A in 2004 (Division II) and 2009 (Division I), before the change in class structure in Texas high school football moved the school into 4A. After 15 years on its sidelines, Gilmer renamed Buckeye Stadium to Jeff Traylor Stadium to honor his successful career.

Inducted into the East Texas Coaches Association Hall of Honor in 2019, Traylor has received numerous coaching honors, including being named Coach of the Decade (2000s) by the Tyler Morning Telegraph. He is a 12-time District Coach of the Year, four-time East Texas Coach of the Year and a four-time Ted Jeffries Award winner. He has received the Carl Padilla Coach of the Year, KYKX Coach of the Year and Old Coach Network Coach of the Year awards twice each.

Traylor began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Big Sandy High School in 1990-93 before a seven-year stint (1994-2000) at Jacksonville High School where he served as passing coordinator, defensive backs coach, receivers coach and special teams coordinator. There, he helped coach future NFL quarterbacks Josh McCown and Luke McCown and former Texas A&M standout signal-caller Randy McCown.

A 1986 graduate of Gilmer High School, Traylor earned both undergraduate (1990) and graduate (2002) degrees in education from Stephen F. Austin while playing football as a walk-on.

He and his wife, Cari, have three children: Jordan, Jacob and Jaci.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 2 HOUSTON 17, UTSA 14 HOUSTON (TDECU STADIUM)

SAN ANTONIO — Kevorian Barnes posted his sixth career 100-yard rushing game, Joshua Cephus had a career-high 123 receiving yards and Trey Moore and Donyai Taylor combined for five tackles for loss, but it was not enough as UTSA dropped a 17-14 decision at Houston in the season opener on Saturday night at TDECU Stadium.

Playing in their first game as a member of the American Athletic Conference, the Roadrunners displayed a balanced offense with 208 rushing yards and 209 passing yards against the Cougars, who were making their Big 12 Conference debut. Barnes rushed for 103 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries, averaging 6.4 yards per tote. Dating back to last season, it marked the third straight 100-yard output for the redshirt sophomore from San Augustine, Texas.

Cephus caught nine passes in registering his top receiving yardage total and fifth 100-yard game as a Roadrunner. The senior from nearby Dekaney High School hauled in a pass over the middle late in the contest, juked a defender and found the end zone to help pull UTSA within 17-14 with 5:42 left to play.

Taylor, a senior from Shiner, Texas, recorded five total tackles with three behind the line, including one of three sacks turned in by the visitors. Moore, a sophomore out of Smithson Valley High, also made five stops with two TFLs and one sack.

Kam Alexander paced the defense with six tackles along with a pass breakup and quarterback hurry in his UTSA debut, while Avery Morris, Ken Robinson and Rashad Wisdom contributed five stops apiece. The Roadrunners held the Cougars to 334 yards of offense, including only 101 on the ground.

Cephus' score brought UTSA within three points after trailing by 10. Houston converted a third-down-and-three with a 6-yard pass from Donovan Smith to Mike O'Laughlin. Faced with another third-and-three with the clock winding down to fewer than three minutes, Smith scrambled up the middle and initially was ruled short of the line to gain. However, replay review changed the spot of the ball and the Cougars were awarded a first down following a chain measurement to seal the win.

Houston got on the board first after Smith found Joseph Manjack open in the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown reception. The score was set up by 48-yard punt return by Malik Fleming down to the UTSA 22-yard line.

UTSA answered with an eight-play, 80-yard drive to knot the score at 7-7. Frank Harris completed passes of 16 yards to Chris Carpenter and 17 to Dan Dishman on back-to-back plays before a David Amador II jet sweep around the left end for 20 yards set up a 4-yard TD plunge by Barnes.

The two teams traded missed field goals early in the second quarter, but Jack Martin gave Houston a 10-7 halftime advantage when he split the uprights from 31 yards as time expired in the half.

Houston upped its lead to 10 points late in the third quarter when Matthew Golden hauled in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Smith at the 3:54 mark.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 9 UTSA 20, TEXAS STATE 13 SAN ANTONIO (ALAMODOME)

SAN ANTONIO — Trey Moore registered three sacks and Frank Harris passed for 214 yards to help lead UTSA to a 20-13 victory over Texas State in front of 49,342 fans on Saturday afternoon at the Alamodome.

With the win, the Roadrunners improved to 1-1 on the season and notched their first victory as a member of the American Athletic Conference in front of the second-largest home crowd in program history, trailing only the inaugural game attendance of 56,743.

Moore totaled five tackles and his three sacks are tied for the second most recorded by a Roadrunner in a game. The outside linebacker from Smithson Valley High School helped lead a defense that limited the Bobcats to 242 total yards, including just 31 rushing yards.

UTSA posted 10 total tackles for loss including six sacks, as Nick Booker-Brown, Avery Morris and Jimmori Robinson contributed one apiece.

The Roadrunners took a 10-0 lead in the first half only to see the Bobcats rally to tie things up by halftime.

UTSA grabbed the lead for good when Willie McCoy made a highlight-reel catch on the sideline for a 20-yard touchdown reception with 3:14 left to play in the third quarter. Chase Allen's extra point made it 17-10 in favor of the Roadrunners.

Texas State cut it to 17-13 on a 43-yard field goal from Mason Shipley with 10:37 left to play, but UTSA answered with a 43-yard field goal from Allen at the 5:47 mark of the fourth quarter.

The UTSA defense forced a punt on the Bobcats' next possession and the Roadrunners ran out the clock with a pair of first downs to seal the win.

TJ Finley completed 16 of 30 passes for 211 yards to lead Texas State's offense, while Brian Holloway paced all players with 16 tackles.

Allen put UTSA on the board first when he split the uprights from 46 yards at the 3:01 mark of the opening period.

Rocko Griffin helped the Roadrunners pad their lead with a 20-yard dash to paydirt early in the second stanza to cap a six-play, 57-yard drive.

Texas State pulled within 10-7 on Jahmyl Jeter's 3-yard plunge that ended an 11-play, 66-yard march.

A pair of UTSA starters went down with injuries on the ensuing possession, and the home team was forced to punt the ball back to the visitors with 1:28 left in the half. The Bobcats drove 64 yards in eight plays, the last a 42-yard field goal by Shipley that knotted the score with fewer than 20 seconds left in the half.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 15 ARMY 37, UTSA 29 SAN ANTONIO (ALAMODOME)

SAN ANTONIO — Eddie Lee Marburger passed for 239 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start and Martavius French posted a career-high 10 tackles, but Army West Point held off a second-half UTSA rally in a 37-29 decision on Friday night in front of 27,138 fans at the Alamodome.

The Black Knights (2-1) built an early 14-0 lead and kept the Roadrunners (1-2) at bay in winning for the third time in three visits to the Alamodome for the four-game series. Army used a 44:25-15:35 edge in time of possession and ran 83 offensive plays compared to 49 for UTSA, rushing for 254 yards on 65 attempts — the most by an opponent in school history.

Marburger completed 17 of 25 passes in starting under center for the first time in his career for the injured Frank Harris, who missed his first game and start since the 2020 season to snap a stretch of 36 consecutive starts. The redshirt sophomore signal caller from Sharyland Pioneer High School completed passes to seven different receivers, paced by Joshua Cephus' eight catches for 84 yards.

Facing a 20-7 deficit with time running out in the first half, Marburger and Tykee Ogle-Kellogg connected on a 46-yard, Hail Mary pass to make it a one-score contest at the break.

Army kicker Quinn Maretzki drilled his third field goal of the night from 36 yards to make it 23-14 with 9:13 on the clock.

UTSA answered when Cephus turned a short screen pass in the right flat into a 44-yard scoring play. Chase Allen's extra point pulled the home team within 23-21 with 7:04 left in the third.

However, the Black Knights covered 80 yards in only two plays, a 55-yard pass from Markel Johnson to Isaiah Alston on a trick play followed by a 28-yard TD catch by Noah Short, to push the lead back out to nine less than one minute later.

Army increased its advantage to 16 when Bryson Daily scored on a 3-yard quarterback keeper with 6:45 left to play, only to have UTSA respond quickly on a 72-yard touchdown reception by true freshman Devin McCuin. Marburger then found McCuin open for a successful two-point conversion to make it 37-29 with just over six minutes to play.

UTSA's defense came through with a three-and-out on the next possession, forcing a punt. However, Army returned the favor with a sack on a third-down play to force a UTSA punt. The Black Knights then ran out the clock with a pair of first downs to secure the victory.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 23 TENNESSEE 45, UTSA 14 KNOXVILLE (NEYLAND STADIUM)

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — UTSA redshirt freshman quarterback Owen McCown completed 18 of 20 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns, all in the second half, but No. 20 Tennessee stormed out to an early lead and never looked back in a 45-14 decision on Saturday afternoon in front of 101,915 fans at Neyland Stadium.

The Volunteers (3-1) built a 14-point lead through the first five minutes and withstood a third-quarter push from the Roadrunners (1-3) in the first meeting between the two schools on the gridiron.

McCown came off the bench and completed his first 10 pass attempts to spark the UTSA offense and cut the deficit to 31-14 with a little more than five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Trailing by 31 points at the break, UTSA marched 75 yards in 15 plays on the opening possession of the second half to get on the board. McCown completed all eight pass attempts on the drive capped by a 3-yard touchdown to Joshua Cephus.

The UTSA defense then came up with a three-and-out to force a punt. McCown kept his completions streak alive with two more, including a 43-yard catch-and-run by Tykee Ogle-Kellogg, who played at nearby Alcoa High School, to help pull the visitors within 31-14.

The Vols pushed their lead back out to 24 early in the fourth quarter with Jabari Small's 1-yard plunge that put an end to a 12-play, 66-yard drive.

Dylan Sampson broke loose for a 41-yard touchdown dash later in the final frame to provide the final margin.

It did not take long for Tennessee to strike first, as Joe Milton scampered 81 yards on a quarterback keeper on the first play from scrimmage to put the home team up 7-0.

The Vols forced a three-and-out and a punt, then drove 62 yards in nine plays, the last a 10-yard TD rush up the middle by Sampson to push the lead to 14 at the 10:05 mark of the opening period.

UTSA had to settle for another punt on its next possession. Tennessee partially blocked the kick and then tried to pick up the loose ball for a return but fumbled, resulting in a recovery by Kelechi Nwachuku for the Roadrunners' first takeaway of the season. UTSA then marched to the Vols 19-yard line but a fourth-down pass attempt sailed incomplete to end the drive.

Tennessee tacked on a pair of touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter on an 18-yard reception by Kaleb Webb, a 48-yard grab by Ramel Keyton and a 29-yard field goal by Charles Campbell with 3:21 left in the half.

SATURDAY, OCT. 7 UTSA 49, TEMPLE 34 PHILADELPHIA (LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD)

PHILADELPHIA — Frank Harris returned to the lineup to throw for 338 yards and three touchdowns to help lead UTSA to a 49-34 victory over Temple in the Roadrunners' inaugural American Athletic Conference game on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

UTSA scored on back-to-back drives to take a 21-14 lead at the 10:17 mark of the second stanza. Harris found Cephus open in the end zone on a 17-yard pass to put an exclamation point on an 11-play, 65-yard march. The defense then forced a punt and UTSA drove 57 yards on seven snaps, the last a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Harris to give the Roadrunners their first lead of the afternoon.

The Owls tied things up again with a 31-yard touchdown pass on a flea-flicker from Warner to John Adams with 6:14 left until halftime.

The Roadrunners reclaimed the lead thanks to a second takeaway of the half when Jimmori Robinson's strip-sack led to a fumble recovery by Ronald Triplette at the Temple 6-yard line. On the next play, Robert Henry dashed six yards up the middle, while Chase Allen's extra point made it 28-21 with three minutes remaining until the break.

Temple threatened to trim the deficit just before halftime but Camden Price's 41-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

UTSA wasted little time extending the lead to start the second half, as Ogle-Kellogg hauled in a 40-yard touchdown pass from Harris over the middle to help make it 35-21 in favor of the visitors to cap a six-play, 92-yard drive to open the third quarter.

The Owls pulled within one score early in the fourth quarter when Warner found Peter Clarke open in the end zone on a fourth-and-goal play from the 2-yard line. Temple chose to go for two points and was stopped short of the goal line, leaving the score at 35-27 with 10:15 on the clock.

The Roadrunners responded on the next drive, as Henry broke loose for a 43-yard touchdown run to push the lead back to two scores, 42-27.

Temple scored again on a 13-yard touchdown reception by Smith with 6:29 left to play, but UTSA iced it with a 29-yard TD catch by McCuin followed by a defensive stop in the red zone in the final minutes.
