2022-23 SLC Regular Season Champions

- The Islanders opened the season at home against St. Thomas for a 79-41 victory in front of their home crowd of over 1,100. It was the third meeting in a row with St. Thomas that A&M-Corpus Christi led by at least 30 points at half time. They led the half 44-13 last year and 45-15 in the 2021-22 season.

- It was A&M-Corpus Christi's first season opener to be played at home since the 2020-21 season. It was also the third time the Islanders' season opener will be at home against St. Thomas with the last being in 2019-20, the last time the Islanders won their season opener.

- The Islanders have shown their depth, as all 14 student-athletes have played in every game so far this year.

- The Islanders had a 73-50 road loss to Texas A&M between their home wins. A&M-Corpus Christi shot better than the Aggies from distance, shooting 21.4 percent while holding Texas A&M to just 19.0 percent beyond-the-arc.

- It was the first time the Islanders scored 50 points against a Power Five opponent since the 2021-22 season, when they scored 54 points against Texas A&M. The 23-point margin was also the lowest between the two teams since the 2004-05 season when the Aggies won just 65-59.

- Senior Mireia Aguado posted back-to-back 10+ scoring games for the first time in her career in the team's first two games of the season.

- Freshman Bruna Anguera matched her career-high of seven rounds against Texas A&M, first set at Southeastern Louisiana on Feb. 23, 2023. She was one assist shy of matching her career-best of four which came against Power Five Washington State last year on Dec. 19.

- Junior Nabaweeyah McGill led the team in the season opener with her 10th career double figure scoring game and first since the 2021-22 season with 13 points. She neared a double-double with nine rebounds.

- A&M-Corpus Christi began its 25th season on basketball after the program started in 1999-00.

2023-24 Women's Basketball

- Royce Chadwick begins his 12th year at the helm and 40th overall as a head coach. Chadwick became the winningest coach in SLC history in 2021-22 after securing his 211th career league win, surpassing James Smith's mark of 210 from 1987-04 at Northwestern State. He has continued his winning ways, leading the Islanders to two regular season titles in four years to sit at a 225-104 SLC record including 13 wins at Sam Houston, 111 at Stephen F. Austin and 101 at A&M-Corpus Christi.

- A&M-Corpus Christi was picked second in the SLC Preseason Poll, coming in behind Southeastern Louisiana (159) with 140 points. The Islanders received three first-place votes.

- Westbrook returns to play her final year. She was tabbed to the SLC Preseason All-Conference First-Team while senior Paige Allen was named to the Second-Team. Westbrook is now a three-time Preseason All-Conference selection.

- Westbrook is coming off a senior year campaign that had her become the first SLC Player of the Year in program history, as well as making history as the first Islander to repeat as the SLC Defensive Player of the Year. She was the only player in the league to average a double-double (12.5 ppg, 10.2 rpg).

- A&M-Corpus Christi returns four starters who were all in the team's top-five in scoring. Allen averaged 8.2 ppg and seconded the team with 4.7 rpg and 57 steals. The 57 steals helped her enter the program's top-10 career record with 159 (seventh all-time).

- Senior Violeta Verano also returns as a key starter, having led the team in assists both years she has been here. Last year she led with 95, nearly forty more than the next Islander. After last season, she entered the program's top-10 in career assists with 233 now, ranking seventh all-time.

- Jaeda Whitner returns as an weapon from beyond-the-arc after she seconded the Southland in 3FG percentage with a .398 mark (41-of-103). She made multiple three-pointers in a game 13 times last season, and made at least a trio of them seven times. Her three point shooting placed her seventh all-time in the program's single season record, the first Islander to be in the top-10 of that category since the 2015-16 season.

- In addition to its 10 returners, the roster features four newcomers including three freshmen and one transfer. Claudia Diez and Andrea Montesinos come to the Island from Valencia, Spain, as the roster now has seven international players.

- A&M-Corpus Christi finished last year nationally ranked 21st in scoring defense (56.4) and 40th in opponent field goal percentage (.370), which they led the Southland.

ROYCE CHADWICK

Head Coach · 12th Season · Winningest Coach in SLC History

Head Coach Royce Chadwick completed his 11th season at the helm of the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi women's basketball program and 39th overall year as a collegiate head coach.

The winningest coach in Southland Conference history, Chadwick topped the league's record book with 211 career conference wins following the regular season finale in 2021-22. He surpassed James Smith's mark of 210 from 1987-04 at Northwestern State. Chadwick's career SLC record is now up to 225-104 including 13 wins at Sam Houston, 111 at Stephen F. Austin and 101 at A&M-Corpus Christi.

Chadwick also reached the 700-win total in his career in 2021-22 and currently hoists a 727-280 record.

In 2022-23, Chadwick guided the Islanders to their second regular season championship in four years after posting a 14-4 SLC record. It led the team to its first postseason appearance since 2005 as the Islanders earned the league's automatic bid to the WNIT at Wyoming.

He coached the 2022-23 SLC Player of the Year in Alecia Westbrook, who also repeated at the league's Defensive Player of the Year. It marked the first time in program history that an Islander was named Player of the Year, as well as the first time a player repeated a superlative. Westbrook and Makinna Serrata were both named to the All-Conference First-Team, marking the first time the Islanders had a player be named to the First-Team multiple times, let alone two.

The 2022-23 season also saw the Islanders extend its home winning streak to 18 games after the program posted its first undefeated home season in 2021-22 with a 14-0 mark. The streak got up to be the second longest home-winning streak in the nation.

Chadwick coached the 2021-22 SLC Student-Athlete of the Year in Makinna Serrata. She was one of two Islanders on the All-Conference First-Team along with SLC Defensive Player of the Year Alecia Westbrook, and it marked the first time in program history that the program landed two student-athletes on the First-Team. It was also the first time they had a pair on the SLC All-Defensive Team as Westbrook and Paige Allen made it on.

Chadwick coached two SLC Defensive Player of the Years in three seasons after Alexis Bryant won in 2019-20.

The 2019-20 season proved to be best in program history for A&M-Corpus Christi, as the Blue and Green finished the regular season with a 23-7 overall record and a program best 17-3 mark in SLC play. The Islanders claimed their first regular season conference title in program history and earned the No. 1 seed in the Southland Conference tournament in Katy, Texas. A&M-Corpus Christi did not get the opportunity to compete for an NCAA Tournament bid after the SLC Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19.

Chadwick was named the 2019-20 SLC Coach of the Year for the second time with the Islanders following his 2013-14 selection. Chadwick became the first coach in program history to win 100 games on the Island, as he collected his 100th win against UTRGV on Nov. 23, 2019.

After the Islanders won the 2020 regular season SLC Championship, Chadwick became the only women's basketball coach in conference history to win a regular season championship at two SLC different institutions.

On Nov. 18, 2015, Chadwick became the 44th coach in women's college basketball history to reach 600 career wins, topping Rice 60-55 at the Dugan Wellness Center. The Islanders wrapped up the remainder of the 2015-16 season with a 9-20 overall record.

In his first three seasons at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Chadwick output a 38-51 record, including an 18-win season in 2013-14. The Islander head coach picked up his second Southland Conference Coach of the Year honor (first came during tenure at Stephen F. Austin) and set the record for longest duration between awards.

Chadwick, was named the fourth head women's basketball coach in A&M-Corpus Christi history on April 11, 2012. The Floydada, Texas, native crafted a strong career record of 561-301 (.650) prior to accepting his current position with the Island University, making stops at Marshall, Stephen F. Austin, Sam Houston State, Oklahoma Panhandle State and Howard Junior College. In 29 years at the Division I level, Chadwick has made seven NCAA Tournament appearances.

Much of Chadwick's success came at Southland foe Stephen F. Austin, where he led the Ladyjacks for seven seasons. Throughout his tenure at SFA, the team went 173-44 (.797) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season. The 1996 team reached the Sweet Sixteen, and Chadwick was named the Southland Coach of the Year one season later in 1997.

2023-24 Women's Basketball

On his career, Chadwick owns a 4-7 NCAA Tournament mark with five of those losses coming to top-four seeds and all of them to programs seeded eighth or better. Throughout his time in Nacogdoches, Texas, he secured the Southland Conference Tournament title six times and compiled a sparkling 111-13 (.894) mark in league play. Further, Chadwick's teams won five Southland regular-season championships.

Chadwick led Marshall to seven winning seasons during his time in West Virginia, the most of any coach in program history. He compiled 161 victories for the Thundering Herd, including a 19-win season in 2004-05 that saw the team go 12-4 in Mid-American Conference play and win the MAC East for the first time in school history. From his third year at Marshall on, Chadwick managed 14 wins or more every season with the exception of one (when his team was decimated by injuries).

He also played a major role in the upswing of attendance at Marshall games. Chadwick saw a school-record 7,017 fans come through the turnstiles for a matchup with SEC foe Kentucky in 2004, marking the fourth consecutive season that the Herd had the highest-attended game in the conference. In his first season at Marshall, the team saw a 251 percent increase in attendance.

His first collegiate head coaching assignment came with Panhandle (Okla.) State, where he led his Aggie teams to 19 and 20 wins, respectively, across two seasons. At Sam Houston State, his next stop, Chadwick guided a school that had never posted a winning season to an 18-9 mark during the 1987-88 campaign, just one year removed from a 9-18 season.

In his five seasons at Howard Junior College, Chadwick compiled a record of 148-21, won four Western Conference titles, advanced to the NJCAA Tournament twice and was named National Coach of the Year in 1992. A multifaceted talent, Chadwick also served as Howard's athletic director. In 1983, Chadwick broke into the coaching ranks at Olton High School in Texas where he led the Mustangs to a 21-5 record and their first district championship in nine years.

Chadwick earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1980 before returning for his master's degree in business education two years later.

Chadwick is the proud father of two daughters, Kasi and Kelsi.
