First of Two against Roadrunners on the Docket for LU

Coming off a tough loss at SMU, where Lamar University (1-1) kept it close right down to the final horn before falling, the Cardinals now turn their attention to a former league foe in UTSA. The Roadrunners are 1-0 after a thrilling season-opener. UTSA defeated Western Illinois, 76-68 in overtime Monday evening. The Roadrunners travel Minneapolis, Minn. Friday to take on the University of Minnesota before returning to the Lone Star State to face LU. Tuesday's game is slated to tip off at 7 p.m. from the Neches Federal Credit Union Arena at the Montagne Center. It will be broadcast live on Newstalk 560 KLVI and streamed live on ESPN+. The Cardinals will then hit the road for the West Coast Saturday, Nov. 18th when they travel to Stockton, Calif., to face the University of the Pacific. The Tigers opened the year with a 64-57 setback to Sam Houston, but will have road games at California and Nevada before returning home to host the Red and White. Saturday's game will tip off at 2 p.m. (4 p.m. Central time) from the Alex G. Spanos Center. It will be streamed live on ESPN+.

LU vs. the Roadrunners

Former Southland Conference foes, Lamar and UTSA have met on the court 36 times in series history - a history which began during the 1981-82 season. The Cardinals hold a slim 19-17 (.528) advantage in the series, which includes a 9-5 (.643) record in Beaumont. UTSA has won each of the past three meetings, all three of which have been played in San Antonio. Tuesday's meeting will be the first game played in Beaumont since the 2016-17 campaign.

LU vs. the Tigers

When the Cardinals and Tigers step on the court it will be just the fourth meeting in series history, but the second consecutive season. The Tigers have won all three previous meetings including a nine-point decision in Beaumont last season. Saturday's game will mark the second time the two teams have met in Stockton (2002-03). All three previous meetings have been decided by single digits.

Defending the Nest

Lamar University has made the Montagne Center one of the toughest venues for opponents to play over the course of its 30-plus year history. The Cards are 360-185 (.661) all-time in the Montagne Center. LU recorded a program-best 15 home wins in the 1987-88 season, and is 1-0 at home this season.

LU in November

The Cardinals have played nearly .500 basketball all-time in the season's opening month throughout program history. LU is 94-98 (.490) all-time in the month – including a 64-14 (.821) mark at home.

First Impressions

Tulsa transfer B.B. Knight is off to a strong start for the Cardinals. The Tulsa transfer led the Cardinals with 19 points in the season opener and he is averaging 13.5 points per game through two games.

Not the Usual Suspects

The Cardinals have proven, at least early on, that you can't key on just one player. After having four players strike four double-digits in the season opener, LU had two other players lead the team in scoring at SMU. Sophomore Cody Pennebaker led the Cards with 13 points while junior Chris Pryor added 10 against the Mustangs.

Balanced Attack

The Cardinals have had a balanced offensive attack in their first two games of the 2023-24 season. In the season opener, Big Red had four players in double-figures and a total of seven players who scored at least eight points in the game. After taking a step up in competition Thursday at SMU, Big Red finished the game with two players in double figures and a total of six players who scored at least eight points in the game.

The Cardinal Rule

Lamar University has been one of the Southland Conference's more dominant teams. LU has won 52 percent of the league games and has more NCAA tournament appearances than any of the current SLC schools (6), and their five NIT berths are also tops in the league. LU had 82 players earn All-SLC honors, including 32 first-team selections. Six players were named league newcomer of the year, five SLC tournament MVPs, four SLC Players of the Year, two freshmen of the year and a defensive player of the year.

LU Men's Basketball Game Notes

Alvin Brooks

Head Coach

12-40/Second Season at LU

66-134/Seventh Season Overall

One of the all-time great players in Lamar University Cardinal basketball history, Alvin Brooks was named the program's 12th head coach on April 1, 2021. Brooks returns to the program that he led to the 1980 NCAA Sweet 16 as a player, and where his coaching career began.

A college coaching veteran with 39 years' experience on the sidelines, Brooks is in his third season guiding the Cardinals' program. He has participated in 23 postseason tournaments as a coach or student-athlete – including most recently serving as an assistant on a Houston squad that advanced to the 2021 Final Four in Indianapolis. During his career, Brooks has helped coach teams to seven conference championships, including two with LU (1982-83 and 1983-84). The list of conference titles that Brooks has been a part of includes the 1983 and 1984 Southland Conference (LU), 1992 Southwestern Conference Co-Champions and SWC Classic Champions (Houston), 2004 WAC Co-Champions (UTEP) and the 2019 and 2020 American Athletic Conference titles (Houston).

Brooks' players have also reaped the benefits of his guidance as he coached 17 players who competed in the NBA with a dozen more playing professionally overseas. The list of players Brooks has guided to the NBA includes Greg Anderson, Randy Brown, Damyean Dotson, Rolando Ferreira, Anthony Goldwire, Carl Herrera, Damon Jones, Sam Mack, Bo Outlaw, Alvaro Teheran, Craig Upchuch, Rickie Winslow, Andre Emmett, Acie Law IV, Antoine Wright, Fili Rivera and Tom Sewall.

During his second season with Lamar, Brooks guided the Cardinals to a seven-win improvement from the season and produced the Southland Conference Freshman of the Year - Nate Calmese. He finished the year as the conference's third-leading scorer and was the nation's third-leading freshman scorer.

A former All-Southland Conference guard for the Cardinals in the early 1980s, Brooks returns to the Golden Triangle after spending the previous 11 seasons with the Cougars. During his time in Houston, Brooks has helped build the program back to national prominence.

The Cougars had finished either first or second in the American Athletic Conference standings in each of the last four seasons Brooks was on staff, and had won at least 20 games in each of the previous six seasons – including a 33-win campaign in 2018-19. The consecutive seasons of at least 20 wins was the most successful six-year stretch in program history. The 2020-21 season also marked the fourth consecutive season the Cougars have finished ranked among the top 25, which is also a program first.

The list of program firsts doesn't stop there. In 2018-19, Houston posted a school-record 33 wins and posted the program's first outright AAC regular-season championship. That season, the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 for the first time since 1984.

Before joining Kelvin Sampson's staff, Brooks spent five seasons as the Cougars' head coach from 1993 to 1998, becoming one of the nation's youngest head coaches at the time, and Houston's first African-American head coach.

Before rejoining the Cougars' program, Brooks spent two seasons as the director of operations at Kentucky (2007-09). Brooks' coaching career has also consisted of stops at Texas A&M, UTEP, North Texas, Texas Tech and LU.

Brooks' coaching career began at his alma mater in 1981 where he would serve as an assistant to Cardinal Hall of Honor head coach Pat Foster for the next five seasons. During that stretch, the Cardinals won 109 games, posted a .712 winning percentage (109-44), made four postseason NIT appearances, won two Southland Conference regular-season titles and advanced to the 1983 NCAA Championships where they go on to the second round of the tournament.

Fans of the Red and White will always remember Brooks for his time as the Cardinals' point guard from 1979 to 1981. A two-year letterwinner who played for legendary coaches Billy Tubbs and Foster, Brooks guided the Cardinals to 47 wins – including three NCAA tournament wins, consecutive SLC titles and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

A 1981 All-Southland selection, Brooks was a 10th-round selection of the San Antonio Spurs in the 1981 NBA draft. Selected by the Beaumont Enterprise as one of the five greatest players in LU history, Brooks was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Honor in 2019.

In just two short seasons with the Cardinals, Brooks became the school's all-time leader in assists with 432 – a mark which still ranks second in program history. Brooks averaged better than 10 points per game during his senior season and set the school single-season record with 249 assists.

A 1982 graduate of LU, Brooks and his wife, Richelle, have five children – daughter, Andree, and sons Casey, Julian, Vincent and Alvin III. Alvin has followed in his father's footsteps and is currently an assistant coach at Baylor.
