Shon Robinson scored seven points and hit the game winning shot, Sky Wicks had another 21-point game, and Josiah Hammons added 15.

It was a slow start for the Cardinals falling behind 8-0 early. UIW rallied and went on a 13-1 to retake the lead. The Cardinals clamped down on defense for the remainder of the half, they were able to force four steals and six blocks in the first 20 minutes. On the other end the Cardinals scored just about the same from behind the arch as they did in the paint, knocking down six 3-pointers in the half. UIW went into the break, up 38-24.

The Cardinals were outscored 42-29 in the second half. The Gamecocks were able to cut the UIW lead to single digits just under five minutes left in the game. With 52 seconds left in the game Kyky Tandy hit a 3-pointer to give Jax State their first lead of the half. The Gamecocks were able to extend their lead four and Shon Robinson went on to knock down three free-throws making the deficit one, 66-65.

In the last few seconds of the game UIW forced a turnover and got the ball back with 2.2 seconds on the clock. Shon Robinson caught the ball driving down the left side of the court and took the final shot. He converted giving the Cards the lead and the 67-66 win.

SAN ANTONIO – The University of the Incarnate Word men's basketball team took down the University of Arkansas – Pine Bluff last night, 100-81. This is the second consecutive game that the Cardinals have scored in the triple digits.

Josiah Hammons led the way, scoring 21 points, Sky Wicks added 20 and Shon Robinson scored 19.

UIW was able to jump out to a small lead early, grabbing six offensive rebounds and scoring 22 of their 24 points in the paint through 10 minutes of the game. Elijah Davis and Josiah Hammons were able to find their rhythm in the first half, both finishing with 11 points and helping UIW maintain a 50-41 lead heading into the break.

The second half was virtually the same as the first. The Cardinals scored 50 more points and the Golden Lions scored 40. UIW once again dominated on the boards out rebounding UAPB 20-8 in the half.
