NEED TO KNOWS

- Sam Houston is entering its CUSA debut season. The Bearkats are coming out of two years with the WAC. The Kats went to the WAC tournament both years with a conference tournament record 1-1.

- CUSA is the third Division I conference the Kats have ever played in, having been a member of the Southland Conference for 34 years and Western Athletic Conference for 2 years.

- Sam Houston will have a new look this year with 3 returners who saw significant action and 3 more who will look to contribute more this season after seeing limited time in 2022-23.

- The top three returners are Senior Kaylee Jefferson at forward from Sulphur Springs, Junior Sydnee Kemp at guard from Kansas City, Mo., and Raanee Smith at guard/forward from Philadelphia, Pa. These three saw significant time in the 2022-2023 season.

Notes from a 66-62 win over Texas State

- Three Bearkats scored in double figures in the victory. Diana Rosenthal led the way with 19 points, and Sydnee Kemp had 17 points including four 3-pointers. Kaylee Jefferson added 11 points, and Raanee Smith lead the team with six blocks on the night. Sam Houston led for most of the game until the Bobcats rallied to go up 53-50 with five and a half minutes to go in the game. Kemp got the Kats right back on top when she knocked down a 3, and Rosenthal converted an old fashion three-point play to make it 55-53.

Notes from a 96-43 win over Schreiner

- The Bearkats shot 50 percent from the floor, forced 35 Mountaineer turnovers and out-rebounded Scheiner by 20 rebounds. The win puts the Kats (2-1) back on track after the loss earlier in the week at Houston.

Notes from a 67-65 win over HCU

- Three Bearkats scored in double figures in the victory. Sydnee Kemp's 14 points included 3-three pointers powered the Kats to the victory. Diana Rosenthal and Raanee Smith added 12 and 11 points respectively. The Kats took the ball away from the Huskies 18 times, with Rosenthal leading the way with six steals of her own.

SERIES HISTORY WITH UH

- Ravon is 2-0 when facing UTSA. The last matchup ending in a 71-47 victory on Decemebr 18, 2020.

ALL ABOUT JUSTICE

Few coaches have had an impact on a program the way that Ravon Justice has impacted the Bearkat Women's Basketball program in her time here in Huntsville.

In her time with the Kats, Justice has posted a 62-51 record, going 46-30 in both Southland and WAC conference play. That includes going 19-10 in the 2019-20 season and 14-6 against Southland competition. The 14 SLC victories and the 19 wins overall were both Division I records for the program. In addition to the team success, the Kats also received some individual accolades in her time. Highlighted by Amber Leggett finding her way onto both the all-SLC first team and the SLC All-Defensive team in both the 2019-20 season and the 2020-21 season. Faith Cook became the second straight Bearkat to be named the SLC Newcomer of the Year in the 2019-20 season. She was also selected as a All-WAC first team selection in the 2021-22 season.

SHSU had won just 40 games in the previous five seasons before Justice's arrival, and that quick turnaround did not go unnoticed as she wa named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year in 2019 following her first year with the program. She was named the program's 10th head coach in it's 48-year history in the spring of 2018, following a successful two-year stretch at Prairie View A&M. that year she led Kats to a 16-13 record in her first year, including going 11-7 in SLC play.

The 16 wins were nine more than the Kats had put together in the previous two seasons combined, and the 12-win improvement was the third best of any program in the nation in 2018-19, but the best of any that was under the direction of a first-year head coach.

Justice is the first coach in Bearkat history to achieve a winning record in her first year with the program and came up just two wins shy of tying the program record for single-season victories.

In addition to helping the Kats to a 10-win improvement in league play, Justice helped three Bearkats – Jaylonn Walker, Lydia Baxter and Jenniffer Oramas – all pick up all-conference honors, the first postseason honors for any Bearkat since the 2015-16 season. Walker was named the league's Newcomer of the Year, while Baxter was a third-team choice and Oramas getting an honorable mention nod.

Under Justice's guidance, the Kats saw their scoring average jump up more than 18 points per game, eclipsing 100 points a pair of times. They also played an exciting brand of defense, ranking third in the league by forcing 22.7 turnovers per game.

Prior to joining SHSU, she helped resurrect and refocus the once prominent women's basketball program at Prairie View A&M. In her first year, she had a school record five non-conference wins against teams from Conference USA, the Southland and the MEAC. Justice was able to lead the Panthers to an 11-2 home record in her first season along with coaching a second team all-SWAC selection and second team Box-To-Row All American selection in Alexus Parker, along with 2018 SWAC Newcomer of the Year Shala Dobbins and Freshman of the Year Jhyrah Cobb.

In 2017-18, the Panthers posted a 12-6 SWAC record, a five-game improvement from the season before, and missed earning a share of the league title by one game. She led the team to the SWAC semifinals for the first time in three seasons.

Prior to coaching at PV, Justice was an assistant coach at the University of Houston. In Justice's first year at Houston in 2010-11, the Cougars enjoyed one of their finest seasons in program history, posting a 26-6 overall record and returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2004-05 season.

With Justice's guidance, Houston point guard Porsche Landry earned Conference USA first team honors and became only the fourth player in Cougars' women's basketball history to tally more than 1,000 points and 300 assists during her career. Justice also made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail after taking over those duties following the 2010-11 season, as various recruiting services such as Dan Olson's Collegiate Girls Basketball Report (No. 22) and ESPN HoopGuriz (No. 39) ranked the early six-player class that signed in November of 2011 among the nation's top-40 recruiting hauls.

Justice joined the University of Houston staff after five seasons as an assistant at Houston Baptist. Before helping the Huskies' team transition from the NAIA to the NCAA's Division I classification, Justice was a part of the 2005-06 team that completed an undefeated run to the Red River Athletic Conference's regular season and tournament championships. HBU repeated as tournament champions the following season.

The Huskies also made two trips to the NAIA Division I tournament during Justice's tenure with the team, including a trip to the quarterfinals in 2007.

During her own collegiate playing career, Justice attended Nicholls for one year before transferring to Clarendon College. As a Lady Bulldog, she was named a junior college All-American in addition to receiving Western Junior College Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors.

Following her time at Clarendon, Justice played one season at Washington State before finishing her college career at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma in Chickasha.

As a senior at USAO, Justice averaged 19.3 points per game and captured All-Sooner Athletic Conference honors. She tallied the third-most points (521) in a single season in school history during the 2003-04 campaign, while setting school records in free throws (133) and free-throw attempts (214).

Justice earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from USAO in 2004 and received her master's degree in liberal arts from Houston Baptist in 2009
