NEED TO KNOW

- ▶ Last Time Out: The Pirates played before the largest crowd in program history for a non-Education Day as 5,717 fans packed into Minges on Saturday. The Pirates would fall to No. 1 South Carolina, but acquitted themselves well, running with the powerhouse Gamecocks for stretches. MyMy Joyner was phenomenal in the first half of the ballgame before dealing with some cramping in the second half, even still she would go on to put up 10 points, six boards and a steal.
- ▶ Scouting UTSA: The Roadrunners enter the game with a .500 record after dropping their conference opener to Temple on the road Saturday. Kyra White led the team with 16 points in the game. White, along with Sidney Love and Elyssa Coleman are all scoring in double figures on the season. Coleman is also putting up 7.3 boards per game while White is snagging just over five for a very good rebounding squad.
- ▶ Series History: The Pirates and Roadrunners have met just once all-time, back in 2014. It was a 61-60 UTSA win that day in San Antonio. Jada Payne led the Pirates with 13 points and 10 rebounds in the game.

TEAM NOTES

East Carolina/ECU Please

Feel free to call us East Carolina or ECU. However, we respectfully ask that the erroneous designation of Eastern Carolina or flawed abbreviations such as E. Carolina, East Caro, ECaro, or EC never be used.

O Captain, My Captain

Perhaps not surprisingly, Micah Dennis, Synia Johnson and Danae McNeal will serve as Team Captains for the 2023-24 season. The veteran leaders account for a whole host of statistical accomplishments but more importantly serve as shining vocal, emotional and behavioral examples for the program.

It All Starts Now

The Pirates begin American Athletic Conference play against UTSA to officially begin their defense of their 2023 AAC Tournament title.

Record Watch

With a few milestones remaining on the horizon for the Pirates, one is a bit more imminent: MyMy Joyner is just two blocks from 10th in ECU history for career rejections. Gretta Savage holds that spot at 73 currently.

It Starts On Defense

Danae McNeal is at her best when she gets started on the defensive end and to that point, she ranks fifth in the NCAA (as of Dec. 28) with 3.55 steals per game and tied for 13th total with 39. The Swansea, S.C. native is also now just 16 steals away from the top 10 in career steals in ECU history.

Perhaps as a result of her defense, McNeal also ranks 52nd in the NCAA at 18.2 points per game. MyMy Joyner also joins McNeal in the rankings at 46th in the NCAA in blocks per game (1.82).

Ibid

The Pirates have also been solid as a team defensively, ranking first in the NCAA with 26.64 turnovers forced per game, third in turnover margin at +9.64 and third in steals per game at 13.8. The Pirates are also 31st in the NCAA in scoring defense at 54.5 points allowed per game.

Not superstitious, but a little stitious

ECU record by uniform color: Purple - 1-2, White - 3-2, Black - 2-0, Gold - 1-0

HEAD COACH KIM MCNEILL

2022-23 American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year

Kim McNeill heads into her fifth season at the helm after agreeing to contract terms to become head women's basketball coach at East Carolina University on March 28, 2019. On April 28, 2023, McNeill agreed to a contract extension securing her position through the 2026-27 season.

McNeill's fourth season was a breakout for the Pirates which saw the head coach named AAC Coach of the Year while leading the team to a 23-10 record and a third-place finish in the conference in the regular season. The team then made a run, winning three games in three days to claim the 2023 AAC Tournament Championship and the third NCAA Tournament bid in program history where the Pirates earned a 13-seed and traveled to Austin to play the No. 4-seed Texas Longhorns. In the AAC Championship Game, the Pirates trailed Houston by as many as 11 after scoring just two points in the first quarter before clawing back using their defense and timely transition offense to claim the 46-44 win.

Under McNeill's tutelage on the year, Danae McNeal was named AAC Defensive Player of the Year and Most Improved Player and Amiya Joyner was named Freshman of the Year while torching the program record books. Synia Johnson was named AAC Tournament Most Outstanding Player and Amiya Joyner was named to the All-Tournament Team. McNeill's group also played their classic signature defense, breaking program records for single season steals (428), turnovers forced (790) and scoring defense (56.7). The Pirates also finished nationally ranked in several categories, finishing third in steals per game, fifth in turnover margin, third in turnovers forced per game and 24th in scoring defense.

1,000-POINT WATCH

99 GO

Danae McNeal passed 1,000 career points last time out, including her time at Clemson. McNeal entered the season at 701 points scored in an East Carolina uniform in just two seasons. McNeal also scored 105 points while at Clemson.

NCAA WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Micah Dennis Carsten Parker

ON THE MIC

In addition to her work on the court and in the classroom, Micah Dennis is making a name for herself in the broadcasting world. Not only did she serve as an intern with Pirate Radio but she hopped on the mic as a sideline reporter for ECU Soccer on ESPN+.

ALL-AROUND GREATNESS

Along with ECU Soccer's Carsen Parker, Micah Dennis was announced as one of the Pirate's nominees for NCAA Woman of the Year on July 21.

WINNING TWINNING

Taliyah and Tatyana Wyche are a bit of a rarity in major college basketball. They are one of just 10 set of twins in Division I women's basketball.

NEW DRIP

For the uniform supersititious, the Pirates will be rocking a new look when they take the court in purple or black this season as they got a uniform update for those colors in the offseason.
