A Hurricane in Tulsa?

In 2022, Tulsa celebrated the 100th anniversary of adopting the school's nickname of Golden Hurricane.

In 1922, first-year coach Howard Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names ranging from the "Presbyterians" to the "Orange and Black", to the "Kendallites".

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Tulsa football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes, would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. A few days before the team left for a game against Texas A&M, Archer asked the squad to vote on the name, and thus "Golden Hurricane" was born.
