THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference, which has established itself as a preeminent NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision conference, is poised to continue its remarkable ascension to national prominence under the leadership of Commissioner Tim Perneti, who began his tenure in May of 2024.

The American consists of 15 prestigious institutions: the University of Alabama at Birmingham, the United States Military Academy (in football only), the University of North Carolina Charlotte, East Carolina University, Florida Atlantic University, the University of Memphis, the United States Naval Academy (in football only), the University of North Texas, Rice University, the University of South Florida, Temple University, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

The American has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American stands as one of the elite Division I conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, its football and basketball postseason victories, its expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

With the addition of Army to the conference ranks in 2024, The American has an institutional presence in five of the top 10, eight of the top 25 and 13 of the top 51 Nielsen media markets.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, four New Year's Six bowl champions, two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 15 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl eight times in the league's first 11 football seasons, including the 2022 campaign, when Tulane capped the biggest one-year turnaround in major college football history with a thrilling win against USC in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Tulane went 12-2 and earned a top-10 final ranking in 2022. Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last nine years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, women's rowing, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country, men's track and field, and women's track and field.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes including Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds, who was fifth in 2015.

Michael Pratt led Tulane past USC in the 2022 Goodyear Cotton Bowl, giving The American its fourth New Year's Six bowl win

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win five Grand Slam championships in men's doubles and mixed doubles. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis and reached the fourth round of the US Open in 2019.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN+). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+.

The first nine American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Weekend. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension, including the 2024 game, which will air in Friday prime time on ABC.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The American's Academic Symposium annually features scholars and students engaged in collaborative research related to student-athlete well-being. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental health issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from its headquarters in Irving, Texas, less than 10 minutes from Dallas Fort Worth International Airport.

Tim Perneti Commissioner

The American Athletic Conference Board of Directors voted unanimously on April 2, 2024, to select Tim Perneti as the second commissioner in conference history. Commissioner Perneti replaces Mike Aresco, who has served as commissioner of the American Athletic Conference since the reconstitution of the conference in 2013.

Commissioner Perneti officially began his tenure with the American Athletic Conference on June 3, 2024.

Commissioner Perneti is a dynamic and veteran leader who brings over three decades of collegiate athletics, professional sports, business and media leadership to the American Athletic Conference.

Most recently he served as the president of IMG Academy, the world's leading sports education brand anchored by its 600-acre campus in Bradenton, Florida. IMG Academy provides intentional personal development opportunities for student-athletes through its boarding school, sport camps and college recruiting services. As President, Perneti played a key role in the sale of IMG Academy to BPEA-EQT for $1.25B in 2023. Under his leadership, IMG Academy has made sweeping changes to student-athlete and staff experiences including a $100M of campus capital expansion, integration into the launch of digital products such as IMG Academy+ and the acquisition of athlete recruiting company NCSA and the addition of the Academy's 15th sport, girls' volleyball. Perneti also served as chief operating officer for IMG Academy from 2022-2022, where he led a successful navigation of the Academy through the COVID-19 pandemic, keeping IMG Academy open and fully operational and closing the historic agreement to host the 2020 WNBA season on campus.

Prior to joining IMG Academy, Perneti served in multiple leadership roles at Endeavor (NYSE: EDR). From 2019-20, he was the executive vice president, overseeing Endeavor and IMG sports, event, and entertainment properties within the IMG Events & Media team in North America and globally. From 2015-2019, Perneti was the president of IMG College, leading dealmaking with university presidents, conference commissioners and athletic directors and successfully negotiating hundreds of commercial partnerships. Perneti led the IMG College business through its historic merger with Learfield in 2019.

From 2013-2015, Perneti was the chief business officer of the Major League Soccer (MLS) expansion club New York City FC (NYCFC), co-owned by Manchester City Football Club and the New York Yankees. He helped to build the club from the ground up and oversaw all business operations through its first games in March 2015. Under his leadership NYCFC broke records for fan engagement, partnerships and completed the most significant jersey sponsorship in league history, to this day.

A former football student-athlete at Rutgers University from 1989-93, Perneti returned to his alma mater in 2009 as the youngest director of intercollegiate athletics in college sports. He oversaw 24 sports, all business functions and relationships with the NCAA, Big East/Big Ten Conference, donors, alumni, and constituents. As athletic director from 2009-2013, Perneti most notably designed the vision and strategy that resulted in his pitch, negotiation and successful agreement and entry into the Big Ten Conference for Rutgers University.

Perneti began his career in television, dealmaking, and programming. From 1995-2009 he held numerous executive positions in media. He served as the director of programming at ABC Sports where he oversaw all college sports, PGA Tour Golf, and other programming relationships. He was one of the first employees for startup CSTV (College Sports Television) in 2003. In 2009 he served as the executive vice president of content overseeing all relationships, dealmaking, programming, and talent. CSTV was sold to CBS Sports for $325M and is now known as the CBS Sports Network.

Dedicated to community service, he served as a Board Member of the Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation for Spinal Cord Research (2013-2019) and continues to serve on the Board of Advisors for Team LeGrand (foundation of former Rutgers football student-athlete Eric LeGrand), and on the Board of Directors for Reed Academy, a school in his hometown of Oakland, NJ for children and adults on the autistic spectrum.

Perneti also serves on the Board of Directors for MYOS, a biotechnology company in New Jersey that develops natural products and supplements to improve the longevity and muscle growth in canines and other animals.

Perneti earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Rutgers University, where he was a four-year letter-winner on the Scarlet Knight football team. He was a 2008 recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 award and was a finalist for that publication's Athletic Director of the Year award in 2013.

He and his wife, Danielle have three children, Conor (24), a graduate of the University of South Carolina, Max (22), a former basketball student-athlete at Gettysburg College, and Natalie (17), a rising senior lacrosse student-athlete at IMG Academy.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The Bracket

The format of the College Football Playoff is built on a 12-team bracket. The 12 participating teams are the five conference champions ranked highest by the CFP selection committee, plus the next seven highest-ranked teams. The four highest-ranked conference champions will be seeded 1-4 and will receive first-round byes. The remaining teams, including the fifth conference champion, will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking.

- The 12 participating teams will be the five conference champions ranked highest by the CFP selection committee, plus the next seven highest-ranked teams.
- The ranking of the teams will continue to be done by a selection committee.
- The four highest-ranked conference champions will be seeded one through four and will receive a first-round bye. The fifth conference champion will be seeded where it was ranked or at No. 12 if it is outside the top 12 rankings. Non-conference champions ranked in the top four will be seeded beginning at No. 5. Because of this, the seeding, 1 through 12, could look different than the final rankings.
- The eight teams seeded No. 5-12 will play in a first round with the higher seeds hosting the lower seeds either on campus or at other sites designated by the higher-seeded institution (No. 12 at No. 5, No. 11 at No. 6, No. 10 at No. 7 and No. 9 at No. 8.).
- The selection committee will assign the four highest-ranked conference champions to Playoff Quarterfinals hosted by bowls. This will be done in consideration of historic bowl relationships, then in consideration of rankings. For example, if the Sugar Bowl hosts a Playoff Quarterfinal and the SEC champion is ranked No. 1 and the Big 12 champion is ranked No. 3, the SEC champion would be assigned to the Sugar Bowl and the Big 12 champion would be assigned elsewhere.
- With the four highest-ranked conference champions assigned to bowls, their four Playoff Quarterfinal opponents will be dictated by the bracket (i.e., No. 1 vs. No. 8/9 winner, No. 4 vs. No. 5/12 winner, No. 2 vs. 7/10 winner; No. 3 vs. 6/11 winner.).
- The College Football Playoff bracket will follow the selection committee's rankings, with no modifications made to avoid rematches between teams that may have played during the regular season or are from the same conference.
- The bracket will remain in effect throughout the playoff (i.e., no re-seeding).
- The highest seed will receive preferential placement for the Playoff Semifinal bowl assignment.
- All 11 games will be under the CFP umbrella with the administrative policies determined by the CFP.

BOWL PARTNERSHIPS

The American Bowl Lineup

American Athletic Conference teams are guaranteed at least seven bowl appearances in 2024 as part of the conference's postseason lineup, which began in the 2020 season and is in place through 2025.

The American Athletic Conference champion would play in the College Football Playoff if it is ranked among the five highest-ranked conference champions by the CFP selection committee.

As part of the current bowl cycle, The American will annually send teams to the Go Bowling Military Bowl in Annapolis, Maryland, and the Wasabi Fenway Bowl in Boston, facing opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference in those matchups. In 2024, The American will send a team to the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

In the 2024 season, The American will additionally fill four spots from a group of eight bowls: the Birmingham Bowl, the StaffDNA Cure Bowl, the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl, the Boca Raton Bowl, the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl, the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl, the Isleta New Mexico Bowl and the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Aside from the eight primary bowl affiliations in place for the 2024, The American has secondary agreements with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and the Quick Lane Bowl.

Auld Lang Syne

The American Athletic Conference has sent its champion to a New Year's Six bowl game in eight of the conference's first 11 seasons.

Top 10

The American Athletic Conference has had a team finish in the top 10 of the national polls six times in the league's first 11 seasons, most recently in 2022, when Tulane finished at No. 9.

Top 11

The American Athletic Conference was one of six FBS conferences that had two 11-win teams last season (Big Ten, MAC, Pac-12, SEC, Sun Belt).

Top 12

The 2024 season will be the first to include a 12-team College Football Playoff. The top five conference champions will be included in the 12-team field, while seven spots will be filled with at-large teams as chosen by the CFP Selection Committee.

Top 25

American Athletic Conference teams will play a combined 10 nonconference games against teams ranked in the preseason top 25 polls in the 2024 season. That ledger includes games against three of the top six teams and four of the top 10.

Conference Call

In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), The American has a combined 98-54 record against non-autonomous FBS conferences (a .645 winning percentage).

Variety Show

Since The American began playing a championship game in the 2015 season, eight different teams have played in the game at least once, six schools have hosted the championship game, and seven schools have won the league title.

The New Guy

The American Athletic Conference has only one coach in his first year at his institution in 2024. Tulane's Jon Sumrall joined the Green Wave after spending the last two seasons at Troy, where he won back-to-back Sun Belt titles.

Reversal Of Fortune

South Florida's six-game improvement from 2022 (when the Bulls went 1-11) to 2023 (7-6) marked the second-best turnaround by an NCAA FBS team last season. Northwestern improved by seven wins last year.

Tigers' Tale

Memphis was bowl-eligible for the 10th consecutive season in 2023, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Iowa and Wisconsin as the only teams nationally to make 10 straight bowl appearances.

Twenty

Memphis has scored at least 20 points in 26 consecutive games, marking the longest active streak among FBS teams

One And Only

Memphis QB Seth Henigan is the only fourth-year player in FBS who will start at quarterback for the same school in all four years.

Within Reach

Memphis QB Seth Henigan enters the 2024 season needing 3,163 yards to tie The American's career passing yards record, set by East Carolina's Holton Ahlers from 2018-22. Henigan has 10,764 career passing yards, good for fourth on The American's career chart.

Career Passing Yards

1.	13,927	Holton Ahlers, East Carolina (2018-22)
2.	11,996	Clayton Tune, Houston (2019-22)
3.	10,782	Dane Evans, Tulsa (2014-16)
4.	10,764	Seth Henigan, Memphis (2021-)
5.	10,690	Brady White, Memphis (2018-20)

Career Total Offense

1.	15,373	Holton Ahlers, East Carolina (2018-22)
2.	13,247	Clayton Tune, Houston (2019-22)
3.	12,418	Desmond Ridder, Cincinnati (2018-21)
4.	11,802	Quinton Flowers, South Florida (2014-17)
5.	11,472	Seth Henigan, Memphis (2021-)

Good Company

South Florida QB Byrum Brown was one of two FBS players to finish with at least 3,000 passing yards and 800 rushing yards in 2023. The other was Heisman Trophy-winner Jayden Daniels of LSU.

Year Zero

UAB QB Jacob Zeno ranked second nationally and set the American Athletic Conference single-season record by completing 73.6% of his passes in 2023 (279 of 379). Zeno trailed only Oregon's Bo Nix nationally (77.4%).

A Lot To A Little

UTSA is a combined 31-9 in the last three seasons.

Blitz!

UTSA was second among FBS programs in sacks in 2023. The Roadrunners averaged 3.5 sacks per game, trailing only Penn State's 3.8 sacks per game.

Perfect Fit

Tulane has gone 23-4 in the last two seasons. New Green Wave head coach Jon Sumrall went 23-4 in two years at Troy.

Jersey Swap

If QB E.J. Warner starts for Rice this season, he would be the first player to start at quarterback for two American Athletic Conference schools in a career. Warner was a two-year starter at Temple before transferring to Rice.

Parliamentary Affairs

UTSA plays four of its 12 regular-season games against teams nicknamed 'Owls' (Florida Atlantic, Rice and Temple from The American and Kennesaw State in nonconference play). Army plays The American's three Owl-monikered teams in succession from Sept. 7 to Sept. 26.

Market Share

Under its reconfigured membership, American Athletic Conference schools are located in five of the nation's top 10 Nielsen media markets. The American has a presence in 12 of the top 50 markets, while all 14 football-playing schools are situated among the top 103 markets.

Black Friday

One late-season American Athletic Conference game will move to Friday, Nov. 29, for national television opportunities on either ABC or ESPN. The Black Friday selections will come from UAB-Charlotte, Navy-East Carolina, or South Florida-Rice. The selection will be made by Oct. 7

Championship Week

The 2024 American Athletic Conference Football Championship is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 6, and will be televised in prime time on ABC.

2024 MAJOR RULES CHANGES

Coach-To-Player Communications

Coach to player communications through the helmet is permissive in 2024 for the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) based on the following guidelines:

- Only one player may be on the field per team at a time with radio receiving capability and the player must be identified by an unbranded green dot on the back midline of the helmet.
- Coach-to-player communications will be cut off when the play clock reaches 15 seconds or at the snap, whichever comes first. When the play clock resets to 25/40, the communications will be turned back on.
- If more than one green dot helmet is detected on the field by the game officials, the result is a live ball 5-yard equipment violation penalty, and this penalty initiates a conference review.
- On free kick plays, the coach-to-player communications will not be in effect. There is no limitation to the number of green dot helmets for either team during free kick plays.
- A conference may develop a policy to provide guidance in handling situations dealing with communications failure.
- FCS teams playing an FBS team may utilize coach-to-player communications in that game.

Tablets For In-Game Video

Standard Tablets for in-game video only is permissive in 2024 for all football playing subdivisions and are subject to the following guidelines:

- Tablets shall be restricted to "in-game video" (current game) and may not include analytics, data or data-access capability or any other communications access. No other video is allowed (e.g., scouting video, practice video, etc.).
- Tablets may be used in the coach's box, sideline, and locker room and may not be interconnected to other devices to project larger/additional images.
- Video may include coach's sideline, coach's endzone, and a program feed per play from the current game only and may also display "game circumstances," including down/distance/time/quarter/play-number/score.
- A team may have up to 18 standard tablets active, and all team personnel may view the tablets.
- If any team personnel engages an official with a tablet to show or review video, an automatic Unsportsmanlike Conduct foul will result

Two-Minute Timeout

When the game clock is running and the ball is not live, the Referee shall stop the clock with exactly two minutes remaining in the second and fourth quarters for a Two-Minute Timeout. If the ball is live when the game clock reaches two minutes in the second and fourth quarters, the play will continue, and the Referee shall stop the clock when the ball is subsequently declared dead for a Two Minute Timeout.

The radio / TV broadcast partner will hold back at least one media timeout to coincide with the Two-Minute Timeout. If there is no media timeout partner in the game, the timeout shall be one minute plus the five-second referee notification and the 25-second play clock interval.

The play clock will be set at 25 seconds and the clock will start on the snap.

POSTSEASON HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Pratt became the second consecutive Tulane player to be named as Offensive Player of the Year, following running back Tyjae Spears' win in 2022. Pratt went 10-0 as Tulane's starter in the regular season and went 21-3 in the last two years, leading the Green Wave to back-to-back appearances in The American Championship Game. Pratt led The American and ranked 10th nationally in pass efficiency (164.94) and entered the postseason with 2,168 passing yards and 21 touchdowns against only four interceptions - the fewest of any starting quarterback in The American. Pratt passed for 9,364 career yards and 89 touchdowns with 25 interceptions and added 27 career rushing touchdowns entering the postseason.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Trey Moore • So. • LB • UTSA

Moore was named Defensive Player of the Year in UTSA's first season as an American Athletic Conference member after he finished the regular season with an FBS-leading 14 sacks, leaving him a half-sack shy of The American's single-season record. SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

LaJohntay Wester • Jr. • WR/RS • Florida Atlantic

Wester was second in The American in all-purpose yards at 126.7 yards per game.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Hughes became the first Tulane player to win The American's Rookie of the Year award after he led the conference in rushing. Hughes finished the 2023 season with 1,378 yards on 258 carries to go with seen touchdowns, helping the Green Wave reach The American Championship Game for the second consecutive season.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Trey Moore, LB, UTSA

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

LaJohntay Wester, WR/RS, Florida Atlantic

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

COACH OF THE YEAR

Willie Fritz, Tulane

Student-athletes from Tulane, UTSA and Florida Atlantic claimed major individual awards as the American Athletic Conference announced its 2023 players of the year and all-conference selections as chosen by the league's 14 head coaches.

Tulane had three individual award winners as quarterback Michael Pratt was named as The American's Offensive Player of the Year, running back Makhi Hughes was chosen as Rookie of the Year and head coach Willie Fritz was tabbed as Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season.

UTSA linebacker Trey Moore was the choice of the head coaches as Defensive Player of the Year, while Florida Atlantic wide receiver and return specialist LaJohntay Wester was named as the Special Teams Player of the year.

In addition to the individual awards, Tulane and SMU - the two participants in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game, both had a conference-record 17 players chosen to The American's all-conference teams.

Pratt becomes the second consecutive Tulane player to be named as Offensive Player of the Year, following running back Tyjae Spears' win last season. Pratt has gone 10-0 as Tulane's starter this season and has gone 21-2 in the last two years, leading the Green Wave to back-to-back appearances in The American Championship Game. Pratt leads The American and ranks 10th nationally in pass efficiency (164.94) and enters the postseason with 2,168 passing yards and 21 touchdowns against only four interceptions - the fewest of any starting quarterback in The American.

A four-year starter, Pratt has passed for 9,364 career yards and 89 touchdowns with 25 interceptions and has 27 career rushing touchdowns.

Moore was named Defensive Player of the Year in UTSA's first season as an American Athletic Conference member after he finished the regular season with an FBS-leading 14 sacks, leaving him a half-sack shy of The American's single-season record. Moore is sixth nationally with 17.5 tackles for loss and has 45 total tackles to go with an interception, three pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

Wester becomes Florida Atlantic's first American Athletic Conference postseason honoree after he finished as the conference leader in punt return average at 19.9 yards per return. Wester had 14 returns for 278 yards and a touchdown and also finished as The American's leading receiver at 97.3 yards per game. Wester was second in The American in all-purpose yards at 126.7 yards per game.

Fritz becomes the third American Athletic Conference coach to repeat as Coach of the Year, joining Navy's Ken Niumatalolo (2015-16) and Cincinnati's Luke Fickell (2020-21). Fritz has led Tulane to its best two-year period in program history as the Green Wave has gone 23-3 since the start of the 2022 season, including a 15-1 mark in conference games. Fritz enters The American Championship Game ranked fifth among all FBS coaches with 208 career victories and led Tulane to its first 8-0 season in conference play since 1934.
