ROADRUNNERS FEATURE

Right Where He Needs to Be

by Sean Cartell, UTSA Athletics Strategic Communications

Every young player who enters the UTSA football program hopes to make their mark early. Undoubtedly there have been very few who have made such an impact – literally and physically – as Brandon Brown.

At a spring 2021 practice, the Roadrunners were going through THUD drills, meaning that players were not to be taken to the ground on tackles. Brown, who had recently transferred from Tulane, had other ideas.

What he didn't realize is that he was matched up against Sincere McCormick, the reigning MVP of the Conference USA Championship Game, who now plays for the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders.

"I didn't really see it was him," Brown said. "I was running with the twos at the time and I thought that it was a different running back over there. They ended up running inside zone. I hit Sincere McCormick pretty hard and gator rolled him to the ground. I wasn't expecting to go to the ground. But in the midst of the moment and me not even thinking that this was Sincere back there when it happened, I was already in the mode to prove myself."

Jeff Traylor, entering his third season as UTSA's head coach, stopped practice, called the team together and called out Brown for his mistake.

"Since then, it's been a great relationship," Brown said. "He's called me THUD because I basically did something that I wasn't supposed to do in THUD mode. Ever since then, everybody kind of goes with it that I'm THUD."

Brown quickly earned the respect of McCormick, with whom he has maintained a friendship.

"He said he'd never been hit like that before in a practice," Brown said. "If it was a game, it would have been a clean hit. I was just happy that he wasn't injured. He got right back up. He told me that was what he needed even though Coach didn't really want anyone hitting him like that in a practice."

For Brown, who saw action in only one game his freshman season in New Orleans, the hit on McCormick was just the boost he needed to help propel his UTSA career.

"I thought 'maybe I actually could do something here,'" Brown said. "I was fresh off a transfer from Tulane and that just gave me confidence."

Brown, who graduated from Morton Ranch High School in Katy, Texas, grew up in New Orleans and the decision to attend Tulane was largely family based. But UTSA had always been on his radar and the move to become a Roadrunner came easily.

"All my people are in New Orleans and Tulane is two blocks away from where my mom stayed," Brown said. "All of that played a part in me going to Tulane first. When I made my decision to transfer, I probably only spent 15 hours in the transfer portal. It's the best move I ever made."

Rod Wright, now the defensive line coach for the Houston Texans, was co-defensive coordinator on UTSA's staff at the time and had already built a great relationship with Brown. It took less than a day for Brown to tell Wright he was all in.

Getting off to a strong start at UTSA was important for Brown. It was something he was committed to doing before he ever set foot in San Antonio.

"I knew I had to come here even stronger than I was before," he said. "It was the mindset for me. As soon as I got here, I knew what I had to do and I just handled business. The coaching staff, the team, the culture – you can't get the situation we have here at any other school. And you can ask any guy that's here."

What began as an auspicious start at a spring practice has turned into a highly successful career. Brown has started the last 28 games for the Roadrunners at nose guard and has earned All-Conference honors in each of the last three seasons. He's poised for even more accomplishments this season and was voted by his teammates to wear No. 2 as part of the coveted 2-1-0 single-digit uniform numbers.

"I'm extremely proud of myself," Brown said. "To accomplish conference championships and get the first bowl game win for the program, that has been amazing. I'm more of a humble and cerebral person. I don't want to be too high or too low. I just want to stay right where I need to be and everything will work itself out."

GAME CENTER

OPENING DRIVE

- UTSA will kick off its 14th season of play and fifth under head coach Jeff Traylor on Saturday afternoon against Kennesaw State at the Alamodome.
- The Roadrunners are on track to surpass the two-million mark for all-time home attendance on Saturday, the count sitting at 1,988,431 through 79 home games.
- This will mark the first meeting on the gridiron between UTSA and Kennesaw State, a first-year member of Conference USA.
- The Roadrunners are 9-4 all-time in season openers.
- UTSA is 8-5 in home openers, including 3-1 with Jeff Traylor at the helm.
- The Roadrunners are 23-3 (.885) at the Alamodome in the Jeff Traylor era, the third-most victories and seventh-best winning percentage among FBS teams for home games since 2020.
- Jeff Traylor is entering his fifth season at UTSA and boasts a 39-14 overall record, the most wins and best winning percentage (.736) in program history, a mark that currently ranks ninth among active FBS coaches.
- The Roadrunners registered their first bowl win in school history with a 35-17 victory over Marshall in the 2023 Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl to cap a 9-4 record that included a 7-1 mark in their American Athletic Conference debut campaign.
- UTSA has won nine or more games in each of the past three seasons.
- UTSA is receiving six votes in the AP Top 25 and three votes in the AFCA Coaches Poll.

SETTING THE SCENE

UTSA will kick off its 14th season of play and fifth under head coach Jeff Traylor on Saturday, Aug. 31, against Kennesaw State. Kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. at the Alamodome and the game will air live on ESPN+ and Sports Radio AM 760 The Ticket. This will mark the first meeting on the gridiron between the Roadrunners and the Owls, who are one of four opponents with that nickname on UTSA's schedule this season. UTSA welcomes back 49 lettermen — including 16 starters — from last year's 9-4 team that registered the first bowl win in school history with the 35-17 victory over Marshall in the 2023 Frisco Bowl. Much like UTSA, Kennesaw State started its football program from scratch in 2015 as an FCS program. The Owls are in their first season as an FBS member of Conference USA.

TUNING IN

Saturday's season opener is set for an ESPN+ broadcast and it also will be available via the ESPN mobile app. Jack Benjamin (play-by-play) and LaDarrin McLane (analyst) will call the action. UTSA Sports Media Network will air the game live in the San Antonio area on Sports Radio AM 760 The Ticket, online at ticket760.iheart.com and via the free iHeartRadio app. Andy Everett (play-by-play), Jay Riley (analyst) and Ed Suarez (reporter) have the call. There will be a two-hour pregame and 45-minute postgame show.

UTSA SET FOR SECOND SEASON IN THE AMERICAN

UTSA will enter its second season as a member of the American Athletic Conference in 2024. Under the direction of fifth-year head coach Jeff Traylor, the Roadrunners welcome back 49 lettermen — including 16 starters — for what will be the 14th season in program history. UTSA finished with a 9-4 record last year, including a 7-1 league mark in its debut campaign in The American. The Roadrunners capped the season with a 35-17 victory over Marshall in the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl for the school's first bowl win.

UTSA PEGGED SECOND IN AAC PRESEASON POLL

UTSA was picked to finish second in the American Athletic Conference Preseason Media Poll. The Roadrunners received 368 points and four first-place votes to check in at second behind Memphis, which had 409 points and 23 first-place votes.

BREAKING DOWN THE SCHEDULE

UTSA's 12-game regular season schedule in 2024 features four non-conference contests to kick off the campaign. The Roadrunners will host Kennesaw State on Saturday in the opener before they play back-to-back road tilts at Texas State (Sept. 7) and Texas (Sept. 14). UTSA will close out the non-league slate at home against Houston Christian on Sept. 21. American Athletic Conference play will get underway for UTSA on Sept. 28 with a road date at East Carolina. Following the first of two idle weeks, the Roadrunners will make the short drive over to Houston to face Rice on Oct. 12 and then host Florida Atlantic on Oct. 19. UTSA will wrap up the month of October at Tulsa on the following Saturday before opening up a three-game home stand on Nov. 2 against Memphis. After a second off week, the Roadrunners will welcome North Texas (Nov. 15) and Temple (Nov. 22) to the Alamodome for back-to-back Friday night matchups. The regular season finale is scheduled for Nov. 30 at Army in West Point, New York.

IT'S A HOOT

The Roadrunners will face all four FBS teams that use the Owls nickname during the 2024 season. UTSA will open the campaign this Saturday at the Alamodome against the Kennesaw State Owls, who are making their debut in Conference USA this year. The Roadrunners also will meet three American Athletic Conference teams who are the Owls: Rice (Oct. 12), Florida Atlantic (Oct. 19) and Temple (Nov. 22).

ROADRUNNERS ARE HOT IN AUGUST

UTSA is set to play a game in the month of August for just the fourth time and the first since 2019 when the Roadrunners beat UIW, 35-7, on Aug. 31 at the Alamodome. Undeclared in the month of August, the Roadrunners also defeated New Mexico, 21-13, on Aug. 31, 2013, in Albuquerque and they scored a 27-7 road triumph over Houston on Aug. 29, 2014, in what still stands as the earliest date that UTSA has played a game. Additionally, the Roadrunners were scheduled to play the 2012 season opener at South Alabama on Aug. 29, but that game was moved to Sept. 1 due to Hurricane Isaac's impacts on the Mobile area.

HOME SWEET DOME

UTSA has been tough to beat at the Alamodome during the Jeff Traylor era. The Roadrunners have won 21 of their last 23 home contests and are 23-3 (.885) at the facility since his arrival prior to the 2020 season. UTSA reeled off a school-record 10-game win streak at home that started with a 27-26 victory over Louisiana Tech on Oct. 24, 2020, and ran through the 49-41 win against WKU in the 2021 Conference USA Championship Game before it was snapped in triple overtime against No. 24 Houston in the 2022 season opener. The Roadrunners have won 11 of the last 12 at home and are 49-30 (.620) all-time in the Alamodome.

SEASON-OPENING SUCCESS

UTSA is 9-4 all-time in season openers and 3-1 in season openers that have occurred at the Alamodome. Saturday's lid-lifter against Kennesaw State will mark just the second time in the last five years and fifth time overall that the Roadrunners have opened a season at home.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday will mark the first meeting on the gridiron between UTSA and Kennesaw State, which is entering its first season as a member of Conference USA.

SIMILAR STARTUPS

UTSA and Kennesaw State are both modern startup programs. The Roadrunners played their first game in 2011 and are entering their 14th season, while the Owls competed for the first time in 2015 and are entering year 10.

SCOUTING KENNESAW STATE

The Owls are entering their 10th season of football and first as an FBS member, as they joined Conference USA this year. Kennesaw State returns 12 starters from last year's 3-6 squad that won two of its last three contests. The Owls have been one of the most successful startup programs in recent history under the direction of head coach Brian Bohannon, as they boast a 71-30 all-time record four FCS playoff appearances and three conference championships.
