The 2014 season was one for the books as the Roadrunners repeated as Conference USA regular season champions, splitting a share of the title with WKU. The team picked up the program's first-ever win over Texas A&M in a five-set thriller and then defeated Baylor in four sets three weeks later, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1990. The Baylor win also kick-started the Roadrunners' 15-match win streak, which was the second longest in program history. UTSA earned the No. 1 seed for the second straight year, but was bounced out of the conference tournament in a straight sets loss to Rice in the semifinals.
