POSTGAME REACTION: LINDSAY EDMONDS

"I'm just really proud. We always break the season into three different seasons: non-conference, conference, and then tournament play. So, when we started tournament season, we started breaking down huddles with our left hand because it was closest to our hearts. I just feel like we played with so much heart, we played with so much toughness, we played with so much togetherness. It was just really special. We hung our hats on defense. We shared the basketball. But I just can't get over how close this group is, on and off the floor, and that's what makes us be so special. And Malia said it, we might have been a 10 seed on paper, but we never believed that we were. So, I think that's why we had something to prove and we did it for four straight days, which is really, really hard to do. But they were relentless and they knew that they wanted it and they weren't going to let anybody take that from them."

Entering her fourth season as head coach in 2024-25, Lindsay Edmonds has elevated the Owls back to a championship-caliber program and continues to shatter coaching records, securing Rice Athletics' first-ever American Athletic Conference title in the team's debut season in the conference.

Through her first three seasons with the Owls, Edmonds has the most wins (56), became the first coach in program history to open their Rice career with back-to-back-to-back winning seasons and became the fastest coach to win a conference title in program history.

Her third season at the helm was a season for the ages, as the Owls entered the AAC Tournament as a 10 seed and proceeded to win four games in four days, knocking off the second and third-seeded teams en route to the AAC Championships. The Owls defeated East Carolina 61-41 in the championship game to secure the automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament, Rice's fourth trip to the big dance and first since 2019.

Malia Fisher was named AAC Tournament MVP, while Destiny Jackson and Sussy Ngulefac were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Rice became the lowest seed to ever win the AAC Tournament, with the previous lowest being a three seed.

The Owls saw two players surpass 1,000 career points, with Destiny Jackson and Malia Fisher becoming the 25th and 26th players in history to do so and the firsts under the Edmonds era. Edmonds also became the fastest coach to win 50 games with a 69-59 win at South Florida, surpassing the mark in just 81 games (10 games faster than the previous mark). Rice secured its first AAC win in the conference opener against Wichita State.

In just her second season as head coach, the 2022-23 Owls had a historic season finishing with a 23-9 (13-7 C-USA) record. Rice had the best start in program history at 9-0 featuring back-to-back wins over Power 5 opponents at Texas A&M and against TCU. The Owls also earned their first postseason appearance and win under Edmonds in the 2023 WNIT against BYU.

In total, Rice defeated four current/future Power 5 schools on the season (Texas A&M, TCU, Houston, BYU). Edmonds was named ESPN's Coach of the Week following her team's win against the Horned Frogs. Rice also had two postseason honorees with Malia Fisher and Ashlee Austin earning All-C-USA Second Team honors.

Her first season with the Owls in 2021-22 saw a short-handed Rice team go 14-13 (8-9 C-USA). Despite losing four of five starters from the previous year's team, Edmonds and the Owls closed the 2021-22 season with a ton of momentum by winning nine of their final 15 games and advancing to the quarterfinals of the C-USA Championship with a convincing 80-62 win over Marshall in the second round.

Injuries limited the Owls to an eight-man rotation for much of the season, but a young Rice team with three freshmen in the starting lineup went 8-4 over their final 12 C-USA contests. Rice had three players ean All-C-USA postseason honors, with sophomore forward Ashlee Austin earning a spot on the Second Team. Malia Fisher was named to the All-Freshman Team while also earning

All-Conference Honorable Mention accolades while Destiny Jackson also earned Honorable Mention honors in her first full season as the team's starting point guard.

Edmonds was named the sixth head coach in program history on April 23, 2021, coming to Rice after eight successful seasons with the Wolfpack. She served as an assistant coach from 2013-18, adding Recruiting Coordinator duties in 2018, before being elevated to associate head coach prior to the start of the 2019-20 campaign.

During her tenure in Raleigh, N.C., Edmonds and head coach Wes Moore led the Wolfpack to an overall record of 190-65, including an 89-39 mark in the ACC, along with five NCAA Tournament appearances and three NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 berths (2018, 2019, 2021).

In her eight seasons with the Wolfpack, Edmonds has helped develop three WNBA Draft picks, including two first round selections in Kiara Leslie (R1-P10, 2019) and Markeisha Gatling (R1-P10, 2014).

The Wolfpack is coming off of a 2020-21 campaign in which Edmonds helped guide the team to their third consecutive Sweet 16 appearance and a 22-3 record. NC State won the ACC Tournament for a second straight year and finished the season ranked No. 7 in the WBCA Top 25 Coaches Poll.

Edmonds and the Wolfpack won the program's first conference tournament since 1991 in 2019-20, posting a 28-4 overall record as they compiled the most single-season conference wins in program history.

In 2018-19 the Wolfpack achieved the longest winning streak (21 games) in program history and recorded the best start in program history (21-0) as well, advancing to their second straight Sweet 16. That same year, Edmonds helped bring in the No. 7 ranked recruiting class in the nation according to ESPN.

The year prior (2017-18), NC State won 26 games and returned to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2007.

In her first season at NC State (2013-14), Edmonds helped lead the Pack to a 25-8 record and an NCAA Tournament appearance. After an 18-15 campaign in 2014-15 and a 20-11 season in 2015-16, Edmonds guided NC State to second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2016-17 with a 23-9 record. That season, she also helped author upsets of four top-15 teams: No. 2 Notre Dame, at No. 6 Florida State, No. 12 Duke and at No. 9 Louisville.

Prior to her move to NC State, Edmonds was an assistant coach at James Madison University from 2009-13. In her four seasons with the Dukes, the team won two Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) championships, played in two NCAA Tournaments and made two WNIT appearances.

Edmonds' first collegiate coaching stop came at her alma mater, Appalachian State, from 2007-09. Edmonds was recruiting coordinator and worked with the Mountaineer backcourt. In 2005-06, she served as assistant coach at Andrew High School in High Point, N.C., and also coached the AAU elite Team Phoenix.

Edmonds (then Lindsay Smith) was a four-year starter and 1,000 point scorer at Appalachian State. She holds the school record for career three-pointers (177) and was a team co-captain in her final two seasons. She led the Mountaineers in assists during her junior and senior years.

Edmonds is a native of Winston-Salem, N.C., and holds a bachelor's degree in health promotions and is also a graduate of the NCAA Women's Coaches Academy.

Edmonds is married to Ulrick Edmonds and the couple has three daughters – Nylah, Halyn and Ahlyna.

COACHING ENDOWMENT

Rice Athletics announced on May 11 enhancements to the endowed fund to support the women's basketball coaching staff, elevating the existing assistant coaching endowment to a head coaching endowment. It is the first women's head coaching endowment in the history of Rice Athletics.

The Shelley Pennington Assistant Women's Basketball Coach Endowment, the first endowment of a coaching position in women's athletics at Rice, was established last fall through a $1 million gift from the estate of Shelley Pennington. Spurred by the gift from Pennington's estate, $2 million in additional funds were raised through the generosity of multiple donors, including Lynn Laverty Elsenhans '78, Barbara and David Gibbs, Eyvette and Tom Hetherington '94, Walter E. Greenberg '78, Karen Ostrum George '77 and Larry George, and Vicki Whamond Bretthauer '79 & Neil Bretthauer. The combined funds will create the Shelley Pennington and Friends Head Women's Basketball Coach Endowment.

The endowment is the third for Rice Athletics head coaches. The Dunlevie Family Head Football Coach endowment was created in 2018 and the Bixby Family Head Baseball Coach endowment was announced in March of 2022.

Shelley Pennington '78 played basketball during the founding years of women's intercollegiate athletics at Rice. She was a three-year letter winner from 1976-78 and in 1977 was named the third winner of the Joyce Pounds Hardy Award which recognizes the Owls' most outstanding female student-athlete. Pennington was a member of Rice's Navy ROTC program and completed Naval flight training as part of the second class of women who were admitted to the program.

In 1985, she resigned from active duty in the Navy but continued to serve in the Naval Reserve. After leaving active duty, Pennington flew commercial airliners for TWA for 10 years before she was recruited to join UPS where she rose to the position of Chief of Pilot Safety for 757 and 767 aircraft until her retirement in 2012. She remained active in athletics and became an avid distance runner, following in her father's footsteps and competing in multiple Boston Marathons.

In addition to her athletic career at Rice, Pennington served as President of Jones College. She battled ovarian cancer and passed away in June of 2021. Her friends from Rice created the Shelley Pennington Memorial Award, which is presented annually to a junior or senior at Jones College that demonstrates the qualities that she personified leadership, team play, and the ability to bring out the best in those around her.

While the bricks and mortar which have framed the home of Rice basketball for better than 50 years remain, the interior of the fabled arena was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility with the amenities fans have come to expect from new stadiums during a foundation-to-roof renovation which occurred between the spring of 2007 and the fall of 2008 leading up to the opening of the new Tudor Field house complex.

During the renovation process, Rice University's basketball teams were displaced and played their 2007-08 seasons at venues across the city of Houston. The Rice volleyball team played the 2007 and 2008 home schedules in Fox Gymnasium.

Among the new features of Tudor Field house are a club area located behind the upper north end zone seating. The club will also offer a panoramic view of the Rice University campus. A reconfigured seating arrangement includes new mechanized seating along the sidelines which can be retracted for more court space as well as new east end zone seating for Rice students.

Amenities also include a new sound system and game information scoreboard, new concession areas and rest rooms.

At the same time, a new student-athlete excellence center including the Robert E. and Elizabeth W. Bixby Academic Center has been built between Tudor Field house and Fox Gymnasium. The center is the new home for the athletic department offices as well as training and support facilities for the Rice athletic program.

A lead naming gift from Rice University trustee and alumnus Bobby Tudor and his wife, Phoebe, allowed Rice to move forward on the $30 million project.

The cozy dimensions and great sight lines that made Autry a feared game site in the past have been maximized in Tudor Field house. The enthusiasm of the Rice students, the "Autry Army" and band — the famous "MOB" — gives every visiting team an added obstacle when playing the Owls. In 1989, that reputation was enhanced when Dallas Morning News writer Steve Richardson dubbed Autry the "Jungle Gym" due to its lack of air conditioning. That deficiency was eliminated in 1991, however, when a central air conditioning system was added to the facility.

The air conditioning was of most benefit to the Rice student-body that uses the gym for its myriad recreation programs. The project was funded in part by a drive headed by Joyce Pounds Hardy-McDonald, a former member of the university's board of trustees and long-time booster of the Rice athletic program. In addition to the air-conditioning project, Autry Court underwent a number of additional renovations over the past 25 years, highlighted by a state-of-the-art low-impact wood court was installed in the spring of 2002.

Capacity for the original Autry Court was 5,000 on a permanent basis, but as many as 5,600 were wedged inside thanks to the installation of temporary bleachers on the south baseline. A record 5,680 watched the Owls' men's basketball team defeat Texas 103-97 on March 5, 1992.

The arena was originally designated "Autry Court" in memory of Mrs. James L. Autry. Her daughter, Mrs. Edward W. Kelley, made a generous donation to the gymnasium building fund in honor of her late mother, an ardent supporter of Rice.

WHAT IS THE NET RANKING?

The NET Rankings were introduced to college women's hoops at the start of the 2020-21 season, replacing the RPI. Men's college hoops were introduced to the NET Rankings at the start of the 2018-19 season.

How It Works

The women's basketball NET includes adjusted net efficiency and team value index. Adjusted net efficiency is a measure of a team's overall performance during the regular season, determined by the difference between offensive efficiency (points per possession) and defensive efficiency (opponents' points per possession). Adjusted net efficiency also accounts for strength of opponents (as measured by their adjusted net efficiency) and location (home/away/neutral) of the games (against Division I opponents only). Team value index is the results-oriented component of the NET, ranking more highly those teams that played and beat other good teams, factoring in opponent, location of the game and winner.
