Seizing his opportunity

by Sean Cartell, UTSA Athletics Strategic Communications

Sitting on the team plane bound for San Antonio following last season's regular-season finale at Army, UTSA running back Robert Henry, Jr., was convinced he had played his final collegiate snap for the Roadrunners.

UTSA's leading rusher a year ago, averaging 64.2 yards per game and totaling 706 net rushing yards, Henry suffered several sprains to his ankle in what he thought was his Senior Day game against Temple on Nov. 22. He had hoped to play in the game at Army but quickly realized during warmups that it wasn't going to be possible.

Several weeks prior, he had joked with a former coach of his that, somehow, he would find an extra year of collegiate eligibility, not knowing that the NCAA was considering a blanket waiver that would allow former junior college players across the country an additional season of eligibility.

"We were on the plane when I saw the article pop up," Henry said. "It was crazy. I screenshotted it and sent it to him. I wanted to come back."

Henry has certainly made the most of his opportunities. Entering this weekend, he is the leading rusher in the Football Bowl Subdivision with 336 total rushing yards, an average of 168 per game. His 15.0 points scored per game rank third nationally.

Henry always had the confidence to believe that he could one day achieve his current level of success. He started playing football at the age of 4 – encouraged by his uncle Terry – and has long aspired to play in the National Football League.

His journey to this point, however, hasn't always been an easy one.

Henry's hometown is Lumberton, Mississippi (pop. 2,086), not far from Hattiesburg in the southern part of the state. He played Class 1A football, earning Mr. Football honors in that classification twice in his career and being named all-state each of the four seasons of his prep career. Henry finished his career with 99 career touchdowns but was often overlooked.

"I graduated with like 35 people," Henry said. "Coming out of high school, they didn't really look at our program because we were 1A. I was a player that had the stats. If I was a star player in 5A or 6A, it would have been different. But it definitely paid off. They eventually found me. I knew it was going to happen, but I knew it would take time because of where I came from."

With many junior college offers to consider, Henry decided to stay close to home, signing with Jones Junior College in Ellisville, approximately 50 miles from Lumberton. By the time his career at Jones was complete, Henry was the 2022 NJCAA Offensive Player of the Year, won the Walter Jones Trophy – awarded to the nation's top junior college player, and led the nation in rushing with 1,302 yards as a sophomore.

Having racked up a significant amount of hardware during his two seasons playing at the junior college level, Henry was a highly sought-after recruit. The family atmosphere he found at UTSA drew him to the Roadrunners.

"UTSA was one of the schools that showed me the most love," he said.

"The coaches really care about you. They make you love the game. I wake up every morning ready to come to football."

Henry's top priority this season is helping his team win and, as he looks ahead to the future, he remains focused on his ultimate goal of becoming an NFL player. His development during the offseason has prepared Henry to do both.

"I've been working on knowing the game better," he said. "I could have all the talent in the world, but if I don't know the game, I can't touch the field. As I've gotten older, I understand the game more and I'm comfortable in the meeting room. I've been looking at the D-line fronts and the coverages. I feel like that's really going to take me to the next level and keep me there."

Henry has earned the trust of his teammates who, for the second consecutive year, voted him into one of UTSA's coveted single-digit uniforms.

"It means a lot," Henry said. "They put all of your trust in you because they know you're a hard worker. I feel like when I first got here, I wasn't as locked in. I just love seeing my team win."

For Henry, football has been central to every phase of his life. In the midst of a standout final year with the Roadrunners, he knows that his experiences at UTSA and every stop along the way will prepare him for the game's highest level.

"Football is probably the greatest sport ever because it teaches you life lessons," he said. "You meet and bond with new people. It will grow you as a man, most definitely will grow you as a football player, and it gives you an opportunity to take care of your family in the long run. The love here is unconditional. UTSA is a great school. If you want to go to the NFL, you can definitely go to the NFL from UTSA."

OPENING DRIVE

- UTSA and UIW will meet for the second time in the Hometown Showdown on Saturday at the Alamodome.
- The Roadrunners registered a 35-7 home victory in the only previous meeting with the Cardinals on Aug. 31, 2019.
- Ranked ninth in the FCS Coaches Poll this week, UIW will mark the second top-25 FCS opponent UTSA has faced in its history. The Roadrunners dropped a 22-7 road decision to No. 16 Sam Houston during their inaugural season in 2011 in the only other game versus a nationally ranked FCS team.
- Since the start of their transition to FBS status in 2012, UTSA is a perfect 9-0 versus FCS opponents, including 4-0 under sixth-year head coach Jeff Traylor.
- The Roadrunners are 29-4 (.879) at home in the Jeff Traylor era, and the 29 wins since 2020 are tied for the sixth most in the FBS over that stretch.
- UTSA has won 17 of its last 19 home games.
- The Roadrunners are 46-22 (.676) overall in the Jeff Traylor era (since 2020), the most wins among current American Conference members and tied with Texas for the most wins among FBS teams from the state of Texas during that span.
- UTSA is 37-25 versus teams from the state of Texas, including 17-9 with Jeff Traylor at the helm.
- UTSA senior RB Robert Henry Jr. is the leading rusher in the FBS with 336 yards through the first two games. He also shares the lead with five total touchdowns and 30 points, ranking second in rushing TDs (4) and third in average yards per rush (10.18).

SETTING THE SCENE

UTSA will look to bounce back from a heartbreaking loss in the home opener when it hosts UIW in the Hometown Showdown on Saturday, Sept. 13. Kickoff is set for 2:30 p.m. at the Alamodome for the second meeting on the gridiron between the Roadrunners (0-2) and Cardinals (1-1). UTSA scored a 35-7 home triumph in the only previous matchup on Aug. 31, 2019. Saturday will mark the official 15th Season Celebration and the annual Salute to Hometown Heroes game.

TUNING IN

Saturday's game will air on ESPN+ and via the ESPN app. Jack Benjamin (play-by-play) and Dave Steckel (analyst) will call the action. UTSA Sports Media Network will air the game live in the San Antonio area on Sports Radio AM 760 The Ticket, online at ticket760.com and via the free iHeartRadio app. Andy Everett (play-by-play), Jay Riley (analyst) and Ed Suarez (reporter) have the call. There will be a two-hour pregame show hosted by Pat Evans and a 45-minute postgame show.

CELEBRATING CAMPAIGN NO. 15

The Roadrunners are celebrating their 15th season of football in 2025 with this Saturday's UIW matchup serving as the official celebration. One of the newer FBS programs and now in its third year as a member of the American Conference, UTSA started its program from scratch and, following a practice year in 2010, played its first season as an FCS Independent in 2011 before joining the Western Athletic Conference for the 2012 campaign. UTSA moved into Conference USA in 2013 and became a full-fledged FBS member starting with the 2014 season. The Roadrunners set NCAA modern startup program records in 2011 by drawing 56,743 fans to their inaugural game against Northeastern State and by averaging 35,521 fans for their six home contests that season. UTSA made its first postseason appearance at the 2016 New Mexico Bowl in its sixth season of play and registered its first win against a team from the Big 12 Conference the following season with a 17-10 victory over Baylor. The Roadrunners made history in 2021, opening the fall with a road win against Illinois of the Big Ten Conference, capturing their first conference championship with a 49-42 decision against WKU and capping a 12-2 ledger with their third bowl game. They repeated as league champions with a 48-27 win over North Texas in 2022 and made their third straight bowl appearance, ending the year with an 11-3 mark. The Roadrunners notched their first bowl victory with a 35-17 decision over Marshall in the 2023 Frisco Bowl to cap a 9-4 ledger that include a 7-1 mark in their debut in the American. UTSA collected its second straight bowl win with a 44-15 triumph over Coastal Carolina in the Myrtle Beach Bowl to close out a seven-win campaign in 2024. UTSA now has posted at least six wins in nine of its 14 previous seasons, and it has reached the seven-win plateau seven times, including in each of the first five years of the Jeff Traylor era.

HOME SWEET DOME

UTSA has been tough to beat at the Alamodome during the Jeff Traylor era, boasting a 29-4 (.879) record at the facility dating back to the 2020 season. The 29 wins are tied for the sixth most among FBS teams over that span. The Roadrunners saw their school record-tying 10-game home winning streak snapped in a heartbreaking loss to Texas State last Saturday, but they still have won 17 of their last 19 home contests. UTSA also reeled off a 10-game home win streak that started with a 27-26 victory over Louisiana Tech on Oct. 24, 2020, and ran through the 49-41 win against WKU in the 2021 Conference USA Championship Game before it was snapped in triple overtime against No. 24 Houston in the 2022 season opener. The Roadrunners have been victorious in 27 of their last 30 home contests and are 55-31 (.640) all-time in the Alamodome.

PACKING THE DOME

UTSA fans have packed the Alamodome over the past four seasons, as five of the program's nine-largest home crowds have been recorded during that span. The Roadrunners are aiming to break the program's home game attendance record of 56,743 fans when they host Texas State in the home opener this Saturday. The last time these two teams met in San Antonio, 49,342 fans watched UTSA beat Texas State in the 2023 home opener to mark the second-largest crowd in program history. Since the return from COVID-19 protocols for the 2021 season, 688,533 fans have filed into the Alamodome to watch the Roadrunners, an average of 26,482 per contest. In the 2024 season opener against Kennesaw State, the program eclipsed the two-million fan mark, and now 2,114,786 spectators have watched the Roadrunners at the Alamodome, an average of 24,880 over 85 home contests. UTSA set NCAA modern startup program records in its first season by drawing 56,743 fans to the inaugural game against Northeastern State on Sept. 3, 2011, and by averaging 35,521 fans for six home contests.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday will mark the second meeting on the gridiron between UTSA and UIW. The Roadrunners registered a 35-7 home triumph in the only previous matchup on Aug. 31, 2019.

SCOUTING UIW

After opening the season with a 20-6 road loss to Nicholls on Aug. 23, the Cardinals are coming off an idle week after picking up their first win of the season, a 31-21 home triumph over Eastern Washington on Aug. 30. UIW is averaging 18.5 points and 333.5 yards per game while allowing 20.5 points and 288.5 yards per contest. Richard Torres has completed 50 of 73 passes for 507 yards and a touchdown. Chedon James paces the team with 13 receptions for 115 yards, while Harlan Dixon has a team-high 75 rushing yards and two TDs. Defensively, Kendrick Stone has posted a team-best 18 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Head coach Clint Killough is 21-6 in his third season at the helm after leading UIW to an 11-3 record and the quarterfinal round of the FCS playoffs in 2024.

LAST TIME OUT

Robert Henry Jr. registered his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game, but Texas State used a 65-yard touchdown reception by Beau Sparks with 10 minutes remaining to outlast UTSA, 43-36, on Saturday afternoon in front of 45,778 fans at the Alamodome. Henry rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns, including a 75-yard sprint in the third quarter and a 30-yard dash in the fourth that pulled the Roadrunners within two. Owen McCown then completed a pass to Devin McCuin to knot the score at 36-all with 10:22 left to play. The Bobcats answered quickly on their next play from scrimmage, reclaiming the lead on a deep ball from Brad Jackson to Sparks, who finished the day with 155 receiving yards. Tyler Robles's extra point gave the visitors a 43-36 cushion. UTSA had three more possessions down the stretch but turned the ball over on downs twice, including with 1:28 left, allowing Texas State to run out the clock and snap the Roadrunners' 10-game home winning streak.

EVERYTHING IT TAKES TO STAY ON TOP OF THE GAME

As the Official Health Care Partner for UTSA Athletics, we are making lives better by offering advanced sports medicine and orthopaedic care for student athletes. We help them prevent injury, stay healthy and excel in training and performance safety.

Leading the team are UT Health San Antonio physicians Thomas DeBerardino, MD, UTSA's head orthopaedic surgeon and Ken O. Kenneth-Nwosa MD, head physician for UTSA Athletics. Both are board-certified experts in sports injuries.

To schedule an appointment with one of our sports medicine physicians, visit us at uthealthcare.org/sports-medicine
