Tulane vs. UTSA
The Green Wave and Roadrunners have met twice, with each school winning at home.

In 2013, UTSA won a 10-7 game on a Sean Ianno 34-yard field goal with 14 seconds left. Orleans Darkwa supplied the lone offense for Tulane with a nine-yard scoring run with a minute to go in the first half.

In 2023, Chris Brazzell II caught a pair of touchdowns from quarterback Michael Pratt and Makhi Hughes ran for 166 yards and another score. The Green Wave's defense also turned over the Roadrunners five times.

With a Win...
A win at UTSA will give Tulane 39 wins in its last 50 games, a feat it hasn't accomplished since 1935.

Prior to 2024, Tulane had not won more than 31 of 50 games since 1953 and 33 of 50 since 1939.

Its most wins in a 50-game span is 41.

The Green Wave is 7-10 all time in 17 bowl appearances. Prior to the last eight seasons, Tulane had never even made consecutive bowl appearances. The game-by-game results are as follows:

Home Sweet Home
The 24-17 win over Army improved the program to 4-0 at home for the first time since 2019.

Notes vs. Army
The win improved Tulane to 14-10-1 all-time against Army in a series that dates back to 1953. The victory was Tulane's fifth in the last six matchups against the Black Knights. Tulane is now 8-3-1 in home games against Army, including a mark of 3-0 at Yulman Stadium.

The Green Wave is 3-0 in conference play for the fourth straight year, fifth time since 2013 and the 10th time overall (2025, 2024, 2023, 2022, 2013, 1998, 1997, 1949, 1939, and 1934).

With the win, Tulane has now won 20 of the team's last 21 regular season conference games (3-0 in 2025, 7-1 in 2024, 8-0 in 2023 and last two conference games in 2022).

The win makes the Green Wave 6-1 to start the season. It is the third time that Tulane has been 6-1 or better to start the year since 2022, fourth time since 1998 and the 15th time overall (2025, 2023, 2022, 1998, 1973, 1948, 1939, 1934, 1931, 1930, 1929, 1925, 1924, 1919, and 1908).

With the win, Coach Sumrall is 6-1 for the first time in his four-year head coaching career.

Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Tulane has only had three games where it has been forced to punt more than six times (8 vs. Tulsa on Sept. 27, 2025, 9 on Dec. 2, 2023 vs. SMU and 7 on Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Kansas State).

Jake Retzlaff became the first FBS quarterback to throw game-tying and game-winning touchdown passes inside a game's final two minutes since Colorado State's Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi (vs. Boise State) on October 14, 2023.

Six Straight/400+
The Green Wave has won six consecutive games decided by eight points or less. Its last loss was a 34-27 defeat on September 7, 2024. That contest was also the last time Tulane lost a game where it amassed at least 400 yards of total offense. It has won 11 in a row since.

Durkin Among the Nation's Elite
Patrick Durkin has made all 14 of his field goal attempts in 2025. Only Hawaii's Kansei Matsuzawa (20) has more successful attempts this season without a miss.

38-11
Tulane is 38-11 in its last 49 games over the last three-plus seasons. The 38 victories since the start of the 2022 season ranks (tied for) seventh nationally.

Sumrall Among the Elite
Tulane head coach Jon Sumrall (.792, 38-10) has the fourth-highest winning percentage among current FBS head coaches. Only Ohio State's Ryan Day (.885, 77-10), Oregon's Dan Lanning (.857, 42-7) and Georgia's Kirby Smart (.847, 111-20) currently have a higher percentage. Curt Cignetti of Indiana is fifth (.789, 138-37).

Coach Sumrall is now 13-2 all-time against American Conference programs. He has now defeated 11 of the 13 other current teams in the American in his career. Additionally, he has now defeated 27 different schools in his head coaching career between his time at Troy and Tulane.

He is 21-3 at home during his three-plus seasons as a head coach.

Sumrall is 25-3 in games played in October, November and December during his coaching career.

Turnovers!
Tulane, who forced two turnovers against Tulsa, has won 31 of its last 37 games when forcing a turnover.

The Green Wave has also won 11 straight games when making fewer turnovers than the opposition (Last: 1 to SMU's 3 in the Mustangs' 26-14 win in the 2023 American Championship Game).

Coach Sumrall is 28-2 in his head coaching career when winning (or tied in) the turnover battle (22-1 winning, 6-1 when tied).

On offense, the Green Wave thrown just two interceptions, a figure that is tied for sixth in the country.

Jake Retzlaff threw his first interception of the season in the win over Army (and the first of his Tulane career) to end his streak of 180 pass attempts (179 at Tulane and 1 at BYU) without one.

Glorious Ground Game
Tulane's run defense has a strong recent history of stinginess toward opposing running backs.

On the team front, the Green Wave has outrushed the opposition in 33 of its last 47 games (including 27 of its last 37). In such contests, Tulane holds a 31-2 record (losses: 2022 vs. Southern Miss, 2023 vs. Ole Miss).

Coach Jon Sumrall is also now 29-0 in his coaching career when his team (Troy, then Tulane) outrushes the opposition. His teams are also 18-0 when holding the opposition under 100 yards rushing.

Fast Starts and Strong Finishes
Since the beginning of the 2016 season, Tulane is 56-7 (.889) when leading at the half and 56-9 (.862) when leading at the end of the third quarter. Since the beginning of the 2022 season, the Green Wave is 32-3 (.914) when scoring first.

Additionally, the program has won its last 31 consecutive games when leading at the end of the third quarter. Its last defeat came in the 2021 season finale at Memphis (33-28, 11/27/2021).

20 or Less
Tulane has won 23 consecutive games when allowing 20 or fewer points to the opposition (Last: Tulsa won 20-13 in overtime on November 13, 2021).

Breaking Down the Setbacks
Of the team's 10 losses since the start of the 2022 season, eight have come to teams who are currently in the Power 4 (UCF in 2022 – Big 12, Ole Miss in 2023 and 2025 – SEC, SMU in 2023 – ACC, Virginia Tech in 2023 – ACC, Kansas State in 2024 – Big 12, Oklahoma and Florida in 2024 – SEC).

Notes vs. ECU
Patrick Durkin's four field goals in the first half were the most in any half in school history. His four field goals were the most since Andrew DiRocco booted that many against Louisiana on September 24, 2016 and one off tying the school record of five (Cairo Santos, also against ECU on October 12, 2013). Durkin's four field goals were one off the high for any FBS player this season and two shy of the most of any FBS player since 1995.

Tulane saw 12 different receivers catch a pass in the game. The only other time in the last 30 years that the Green Wave has completed passes to that many receivers against an FBS opponent was against Syracuse during the 2011 season (10/8/11). The 12 different receivers with a reception from Retzlaff was the most by an FBS quarterback this season (bettering the 11 with a reception from ECU's Katin Houser against Campbell).

Jake Retzlaff's 347 yards passing was the 74th 300+ yard passing performance in school history. His 347 yards through the air ties him with Nickie Hall (vs. SMU - 10/4/80) and Patrick Ramsey (vs. SMU - 9/23/00) for 35th in school history. It was the first time Retzlaff has had better than 300+ yards passing at Tulane and the most yards passing in a game for Tulane quarterback since Michael Pratt threw for 394 against UCF during the 2022 American Championship Game (12/2/22). Retzlaff is just the third Tulane quarterback to throw for more than 345 yards in a game since 2018 following Pratt's performance against UCF and Justin McMillian throwing for 372 against ECU during the 2018 campaign (11/10/18). Retzlaff's 26 completions were also the most for Tulane since Pratt put up 27 in a 2022 home victory over the Pirates.

The win was the seventh in the last nine games of the series for Tulane and fourth straight home win (in the series). ECU has still never defeated Tulane at Yulman Stadium since the facility opened in 2014. The win was Tulane's third straight over ECU and improved to the team to 9-12 all-time against the Pirates.

The victory is the first time since 2019 that the program has won the first three home games of any season.

The Green Wave is 2-0 in conference play for the fourth straight year, sixth time since 2017 and the 12th time overall (2025, 2024, 2023, 2022, 2019, 2017, 2013, 1998, 1997, 1949, 1939, and 1934).

With the win, Tulane has now won 19 of the team's last 20 regular season conference games (2-0 in 2025, 7-1 in 2024, 8-0 in 2023 and last two conference games in 2022).

The win makes the Green Wave 5-1 to start the season. It is the fourth time that Tulane has been 5-1 or better to start the year since 2019, fifth time since 1998 and the 22nd time overall (2025, 2023, 2022, 2019, 1998, 1974, 1973, 1949, 1948, 1939, 1936, 1934, 1931, 1930, 1929, 1925, 1924, 1919, 1912, 1908, 1904, and 1901).

The win was the first for Coach Sumrall at Tulane in three situations: (1) when the team trails after three quarters, (2) when the Green Wave program is outrushed in a game and (3) when the program had been held below 30 minutes in time of possession.

With the win, Coach Sumrall is 5-1 for the first time in his four-year head coaching career.

Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Tulane has only had three games where it has been forced to punt more than six times (8 vs. Tulsa on Sept. 27, 2025, 9 on Dec. 2, 2023 vs. SMU and 7 on Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Kansas State).

Notes at Tulsa
Javin Gordon is the third Tulane freshman running back with three rushing touchdowns in a game along Matt Forte (November 13, 2004 vs. Army) and Orleans Darkwa (September 2, 2010 vs. Southeastern Louisiana).

In five games this season, Jake Retzlaff has now rushed for seven touchdowns, thrown for 820 passing yards and no interceptions. Since 1995, the only other quarterbacks to have these numbers through five games are Matt Corral (2021) of Ole Miss, Justin Fields (2019) of Ohio State, Caleb Evans (2017) of ULM, Marcus Mariota (2013) of Oregon and Robert Griffin III (2008) of Baylor.

The win was Tulane's third straight over Tulsa and improved to the team to 13-8 all-time against the Hurricane.

The Green Wave is 1-0 in conference play for the fourth straight year, seventh time since 2016 and the 23rd time overall (2025, 2024, 2023, 2022, 2019, 2018, 2017, 2013, 2005, 2002, 1998, 1997, 1996, 1949, 1948, 1947, 1944, 1941, 1939, 1936, 1935, 1934).

The win makes the Green Wave 4-1 to start the season. It is the third time that Tulane has been 4-1 or better to start the year since 2019, fourth time since 1998 and the 27th time overall (2025, 2022, 2019, 1998, 1979, 1974, 1973, 1966, 1956, 1949, 1948, 1939, 1936, 1934, 1931, 1929, 1925, 1922, 1919, 1917, 1912, 1911, 1909, 1908, 1904, 1901 and 1900)

With the win, head coach Jon Sumrall is 4-1 for the first time in his four-year head coaching career.

Head Coach Jon Sumrall has now has defeated 10 of the 13 other current teams in the American in his career. Additionally, he now defeated 26 different schools in his head coaching career between his time at Troy and Tulane.

Since the beginning of the 2022 season, Tulane has only had three games where it has been forced to punt more than six times (8 vs. Tulsa on Sept. 27, 2025, 9 on Dec. 2, 2023 vs. SMU and 7 on Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Kansas State).

Notes at Ole Miss
The Green Wave is 3-1 for the first time since 2023. Overall, the team has been 3-1 a total of 27 times in school history.

The 35-point loss was the largest defeat for Tulane since falling to the Rebels by a 61-21 score during the 2021 campaign (9/18/21).

The 45 points surrendered was the most points given up by the program since giving up that many to USC in the 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl (W, 46-45 - 1/2/23).

The 45 points given up were the most the team has allowed in a loss since yielding 55 to SMU during the 2021 season (L, 55-26 - 10/21/21).

The 548 yards allowed to the Ole Miss offense was the most the Tulane defense has allowed since surrendering 594 to USC in the 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

With the loss, Tulane fell to 28-44* all-time against Ole Miss (after vacated wins) in the first game between the schools since 2023 and the first contest in Oxford since 2021. The loss was the program's 14th straight to the Rebels overall.

The loss dropped Tulane to 166-277-31 all-time against current schools in the SEC. The school has been playing against SEC opponents since a matchup against Alabama and Texas in 1894. The program's most victories against an SEC opponent is 29 against Vanderbilt. Tulane's last win over an SEC opponent was at Mississippi State during the 2006 season by a 32-29 score.

The loss was the fourth straight to a ranked opponent for Tulane and dropped the program to 22-128-2 all-time against ranked foes.

With the loss, Coach Sumrall is 3-1 for the first time in his four-year head coaching career as he had started each of his first three seasons, going 1-2.

Retzlaff Earns Honors from League, Davey O'Brien Award
Tulane quarterback Jake Retzlaff, by virtue of his 356 yards of total offense and four rushing touchdowns in the 34-27 win over Duke, captured the American Conference's Offensive Player of the Week Award. He also earned a spot on the Davey O'Brien Award's Week 3 Great 8 list.

Notes vs. Duke
The announced crowd of 30,000 is a sellout and the seventh time in school history at Yulman Stadium that Tulane has sold out a football game.

The last time Tulane won a home game without the benefit of a passing touchdown was September 12, 2020 against South Alabama (27-24).

Jake Retzlaff set a school record for single-game rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with four. He is also the first Tulane player to get four rushing touchdowns in a game since Tyjae Spears against USC in the 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl (1/2/23).

Retzlaff is the first quarterback to ever have 100+ yards passing, 50 + yards rushing and a 1+ rushing touchdown in each of his team's first three games in a season in the American Conference.

Retzlaff joined Will Levis as the only non-conference quarterback to rush for 100+, pass for 100+ and have 4+ rushing touchdowns vs. an ACC team in the regular season in the last 130 years.

Ten different Tulane players recorded receptions in the game, it was the first time since the 2020 season against Memphis (12/5/20) that the program had that many different players with a reception.

TJ Smith's blocked field goal was the first for the program since Patrick Jenkins did the same against ECU in 2022 (10/8/22).

With the win, Tulane improved to 3-3 all-time against Duke in the first game between the schools since 2015.

With the victory, Tulane is 70-118-2 all-time against current schools in the ACC. It was the program's first win over an ACC opponent (at the time of the game) since winning over Wake Forest in 1995 (9/9/95). That was also the last time that the Green Wave defeated an ACC team at home.

The win was the second of the season for Tulane over a major conference opponent (Duke – 9/13/25 & Northwestern – 8/30/25), which is the most since the 2022 season when the team defeated both Kansas State – 9/17/22 & USC – 1/2/23. The last regular season that Tulane won multiple games against major conference opponents was in 1988 when the program defeated Kansas State – 9/27/88, Ole Miss – 11/5/88 & Mississippi State – 11/19/88). That season was also the last time that Tulane defeated a pair of major conference opponents at home.

The Green Wave is unblemished after the first three games of the season for the first time since 2022 and only the fifth time since 1973. JON SUMRALL

HEAD COACH | 38-10 Overall, 15-6 at Tulane
2nd Season at Tulane (Fourth Overall) | Kentucky, 2005

Jon Sumrall was named Tulane's 42nd head coach in December of 2023.

In his first season as the Green Wave's head coach, he got the program into its third consecutive American Conference Championship Game and bowl appearance, while finishing second in the league's regular season standings with a 7-1 mark. The team placed first or second in the league in 10 different categories, including leading the American in third down conversions (52.5), defensive touchdowns (6), completion percentage (65.6), scoring offense (37.2) and passing efficiency defense (111.65). The team was the national leader in defensive touchdowns with six. Tulane had a league-high 18 players earn all-conference honors at season's end.

The Huntsville, Alabama native came to Uptown as one of the most successful head coaches in the country over the previous two seasons. He guided Troy University to a 23-4 record, two Sun Belt Conference championships and a pair of double-digit winning streaks. He was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of Year and was twice named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honor. Sumrall returned to Tulane after serving as the Green Wave's Co-Defensive Coordinator for three years (2012-14). In 2013, he was a crucial part of Tulane's run to the New Orleans Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 2002 and third since 1988. Sumrall also was named a finalist for FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year.

Troy's 23 wins during Sumrall's two seasons as head coach are tied for the third most in the country (with Tulane), trailing only Georgia, Michigan and Washington. Additionally, Troy joined Michigan as the only two programs to win conference titles in 2022 and 2023.

The 2023 campaign marked the second straight season that Sumrall and the Trojans posted a 10-game winning streak – Troy ended 2022 with wins in its final 11 games – after defeating App State, 48-23, in the 2023 Sun Belt Championship Game. Troy's two victories in the Sun Belt Championship Game came by an average of 22.5 points; the other three SBC title games were decided by a combined 26 points.

During Sumrall's tenure, Troy was 12-0 against opponents on its side of the Sun Belt, and three of the Trojans' four losses came to teams either ranked in the Top 25 at the time or ended the season ranked.

His first season at Troy couldn't have been scripted any better as the Trojans won the only bowl matchup pitting two conference champions by defeating UTSA in the Cure Bowl. It was a season of firsts for the Trojans under Sumrall, as Troy finished the season ranked in a major poll for the first time in program history, checking in at No. 19 in the AP Top 25 and No. 20 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll. Additionally, Troy's appearance in the Coaches Poll and College Football Playoff Poll after its Sun Belt Championship Game victory were also firsts for the program. For his efforts, Sumrall was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year.

Sumrall was named Troy's football head coach on December 2, 2021, and returned to the Trojans after spending three seasons (2015-17) as the assistant head coach on Neal Brown's staff.

Promoted to co-defensive coordinator on Mark Stoops' staff at Kentucky (Sumrall's alma mater) prior to the 2021 season, Sumrall coached the Wildcats' inside linebackers for the squad that finished the season with a 10-3 record and ranked as high as No. 22 in the country. Kentucky finished with the nation's No. 25 defense in addition to ranking third in fourth-down defense, 20th in rushing defense and 13th in defensive touchdowns.

During his first stint at Troy, Sumrall helped lead the Trojans to a pair of bowl victories, the school's first since 2010, the 2017 Sun Belt Conference title, and a stunning victory at LSU. The Trojans won a (then) school-record 11 games in 2017, and the Troy defense ranked first in the nation in red zone defense (.614), second in tackles for loss per game (8.6), seventh in rushing defense (105.3), 11th in scoring defense and 24th in total defense per game (336.6).

Sumrall was a three-year letterwinner at middle linebacker at Kentucky from 2002-04. He started every game in 2004, leading the Wildcats with 72 tackles. He also excelled off the field as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was selected to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character. After earning his degree in finance in 2005, Sumrall served as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats during the 2005 and 2006 seasons under head coach Rich Brooks.

He left Kentucky in 2007 and spent five seasons under head coach Ron Caragher in various positions at San Diego, including defensive coordinator during his final two years.

Sumrall was a two-time all-Alabama performer and a four-year letter winner at Grissom High School. He was inducted into the Huntsville-Madison County Hall of Fame in April 2023.

Sumrall is married to the former Ginny Nixon, also of Huntsville, and the couple has four children, Sam, Sadie, Stella and Selah.
