TULSA, OKLAHOMA | REYNOLDS CENTER

TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE (21-6, 9-5 AMER.)

Head Coach: Eric Konkol (Wisconsin-Eau Claire, 2000)

Record at Tulsa: 55-66 (4th season) Career Record: 208-141 (11th season)

UTSA ROADRUNNERS (5-21, 1-13 AMER.)

Head Coach: Austin Clauch (Emory, 2012)

Record at UTSA: 17-40 (2nd season), Career Record: 107-101 (7th season)

STORY LINES

- The 2025-26 season is the 25th 20-win season in Tulsa history. The Golden Hurricane last won 20 games in 2019-20 when they went 21-10 and claimed a share of the American Conference regular season title.
- Tulsa's starting five of Barnstable, Behrend, Green, Popoola, and Riley leads the American Conference with a +/- of +143. That ranks them fourth in the country as a group per EvanMiya.com, trailing the starting units for Arizona, Houston, and Purdue. The next closest 5-man unit in the American Conference belongs to Wichita State's starting five at +83.
- Tulsa is closing in on the program record for threes in a single season. They have hit 280 threes so far, needing just nine to break the record of 288 set in 2000-01. The 2018-19 Houston squad holds the American Conference record with 337.
- Last time out Tulsa tied the program record with 18 threes in a game. Miles Barnstable led the way with six, finishing with 25 points, while Ade Popoola connected on five threes to finish with 18 points.
- Tulsa's nine conference wins are its most since finishing the 2019-20 season with 13.
- Tulsa is one of five programs to use the same starting five all season along with: Houston, Merrimack, Oklahoma, and Stephen F. Austin.
- Tulsa is only school in the country to not have a double figure rebounder this season but have seven players averaging more than three boards per game.
- Last Thursday, Miles Barnstable was named to the State Farm Dunk and Three-Point Championship Watch List. The 37th annual event is slated to take place April 3 in Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis and broadcast nationally on April 5 on ESPN at 12:30 p.m. CT. Barnstable leads the American from three, shooting .424 percent.
- Tulsa also looks to set the school free throw percentage record, this season they are shooting .782 which would break the current record of .753 in 2001-02. The .782 mark would be third best in American Conference history, just behind UTSA in 2024-25 (.792) and UConn in 2015-16 (.793).

SERIES HISTORY

- This is the 11th meeting between the programs; Tulsa leads the series 9-1.
- The Golden Hurricane swept the season series last season and are 8-0 all-time in Tulsa.
- Eric Konkol is 11-5 in his career against UTSA.

SEASON NOTABLES

- Head coach Eric Konkol reached 200 wins for his career in a 97-48 win over Rice.
- Tulsa won the Mayor's Cup despite Oral Roberts shooting .500 percent from the field and making 14 threes. Since the 2004-05 season per Stathead, it is Tulsa's first road win in which the opponent shot .500 percent or better from the field and made 10 or more threes. Last season, teams were 839-13 (.985) at home, shooting .500 percent or better from the field, and made more than 10 threes.
- The Golden Hurricane won their first in-season tournament, the Acrisure Holiday Invitational, since 2002 with a 63-60 victory over Northern Iowa.
- The Golden Hurricane have played three one-point games this season, with two in back-to-back games (Oral Roberts and Kansas State). It was the team's first back-to-back one-point finishes since 2011. The team is 2-1 in one-point games this season. It's the team's most one-point games since 2008-09.
- Tulsa's 117-point performance against UAPB set a new Reynolds Center facility record for points in a game. It was the ninth-most points in a game in school history and is the program's first game with 115-plus points since 2000.
- Tulsa received their highest ever NET ranking in the first batch of rankings, released on Dec. 1 at No. 27 in the country. The program's previous high was No. 52 back in 2020-21. Last season the Golden Hurricane finished ranked No. 271.
- Tulsa's 10-game winning streak was the program's longest since the 2014-15 season when they won 12 straight. It was the longest winning streak of head coach Eric Konkol's career.
- Tulsa went undefeated in the month of December. It was the team's first perfect month since January 2015 when the Golden Hurricane went 7-0 as part of that 12-game winning streak. The program last went undefeated in the month of December in 1983 when Nolan Richardson's squad went 7-0 before finishing the season 27-4.
- Tulsa's 97-48 win over Rice to open American Conference play was the team's largest ever margin of victory in an American Conference game and the second largest ever in a conference game in league history. Tulsa shot 13-of-19 (.684) from three-point range, the best mark in Reynolds Center history.
- Ade Popoola had it going at South Florida, Popoola hit eight threes for the Golden Hurricane matching Corey Henderson Jr. (vs. UConn, Jan. 3, 2018) and Jason Parker (vs. Wichita State, Dec. 4, 2002) for the second most threes in a game in school history. Only James Woodard hit more in a game with 10 vs. SMU on Mar. 8, 2015.
- Tulsa is 6-1 in coaches challenges this season.

OVER 80

- Tulsa started the season with six straight games with 80-plus points, they would also have a streak of seven straight games of over 80 points.
- It was the program's longest such streak(s) since the 2001-02 season, a streak of seven games. That team would score 80+ points 19 times.
- The program's single season record is 21 times, set back in 1983-84, under head coach Nolan Richardson. This season Tulsa has scored over 80 points 19 times.
- Tulsa has averaged 80 or more points in a season 14 times but not since 2001-02.
- Tulsa has three games scoring 100-plus points this season, their most 100-point performances in a year since 1995-96.
- Tulsa's top five scoring seasons by points per game with head coach and final record:
 - 1983-84 (Nolan Ricardson, 27-4) - 90.8
 - 2025-26 (Eric Konkol, 20-6) - 85.4*
 - 1972-73 (Ken Hayes, 18-8) - 85.3
 - 1970-71 (Ken Hayes, 17-9) - 84.2
 - 1993-94 (Tubby Smith, 23-8) - 83.4

EFFICIENT OFFENSE

- Tulsa is 21st in the country in points per game (85.4), 25th in scoring margin (12.4), 12th in three-point percentage (.387), 12th in free throw percentage (.782), and 23rd in free throws made (18.6).
- Miles Barnstable is fifth in the country at the free throw line, 85-for-91 (.924). The senior is also shooting 76-for-177 (.429) to lead the conference and rank 22nd in the nation in three-point shooting.
- Before this season the school record for free throw percentage is .753 (545-for-724) in 2001-02 by a team and .903 (121-for-134) by Rick Park in 1963-64. Those records are all in danger as the team is currently .782 (503-for-643) from the free throw line, while Miles Barnstable (.924), Myles Rigsby (.902), and Tylen Riley (.879) have a shot at the individual record.
- Barnstable's .924 percentage at the charity stripe would be the second highest in American Conference history by an individual with 2.5 FT attempts per game while Rigsby would be fifth all-time. Atin Wright of North Texas holds the record with a .945 percentage in 2024-25.
- Barnstable also currently ranks fourth in league history from beyond the arc at .429 among players with 2.5 attempts per game. Damyean Dotson of Houston holds the record of .443 in 2016-17.
- Tulsa leads the American Conference in point differential (12.3), field goal percentage (.482), three-point percentage (.387), threes per game (10.4), and free throw percentage (.784).
- All 10 regulars in the Golden Hurricane rotation have had at least one game with 10 or more points.

HEAD COACH ERIC KONKOL

The Golden Hurricane basketball turnaround continues in Eric Konkol's fourth season as head coach. In year three, the Hurricane won 13 games, including its first conference tournament win under Konkol, defeating Temple in the opening round.

Heading into his fourth campaign at Tulsa, Konkol has rebuilt the roster, with 11 newcomers joining four returners from last season's squad. College basketball analytics expert Evan Miyakawa has Tulsa's eight player transfer class as the second-best from the offseason among the American Athletic Conference teams. The website ranks Tulsa's overall transfer activity 37th in the NCAA.

In 2024-25, Tulsa posted a 13-20 overall record with six American Athletic Conference wins. Two of those league victories came against Wichita State, Tulsa's first regular season sweep of its oldest rival since the 1995-96 season. It was also the first win at Charles Koch arena for the Golden Hurricane since Dec. 8, 2001, snapping a streak of 12-straight losses on the road.

In year two, Tulsa saw an 11-win improvement from year one, posting a 16-15 overall record with seven American Athletic Conference wins in 2023-24. Among those league victories, Tulsa defeated regular-season champion South Florida and third-place finisher Charlotte.

During his tenure, Konkol has coached National Freshman of the Year and The American Freshman of the Year PJ Haggerty, as well as two all-conference selections, Haggerty and Dwon Odom, and four all-freshman honorees in Ian Smikle, Matt Reed, Tyshawn Archie and Haggerty.

Konkol was named at The University of Tulsa's 31st head basketball coach on March 21, 2022. He returned to where he began his start in collegiate coaching as a graduate assistant coach for Tulsa's 2001 NIT Championship team under Head Coach Buzz Peterson.

Konkol returned to Tulsa following seven seasons at Louisiana Tech, where he compiled a 153-75 record. He won 46 games in his first two seasons, the most for any previous LA Tech head coach, and his 153 career victories was the third-highest win total in school history. Konkol's teams produced six seasons with 20+ wins and finished among the top three teams in Conference USA standings five of his seven years.

Now, Konkol has a career head coaching record in 10 seasons of 187-135 for a .581 winning percentage. He has served 25 years as a collegiate coach and has been a part of 14 20-win seasons with 10 postseason tournament appearances.

After his first stop at Tulsa, Konkol continued his coaching career at Tennessee, George Mason and Miami (Fla.) as an assistant coach. He received his first head coaching position in 2015 as LA Tech picked Konkol to lead the Bulldog program.

Konkol led his first two LA Tech teams to consecutive 23-10 seasons as well as third and second place C-USA finishes, respectively. After a 17-16 record in 2017-18, Konkol had his Bulldogs back at 20 wins in 2018-19 with a 20-13 mark.

In 2019-20, Konkol's team posted an overall mark of 22-8 in 2019-20 but the postseason was halted due to the public health threat of COVID-19. Konkol was named the 2020 LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year and the LABC Louisiana Major College Coach of the Year.

Awards

2021 - C-USA Coach of the Year

During the 2020-21 campaign, Konkol guided LA Tech to a 24-8 overall record, a Conference USA West Division title and a third-place finish in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) by defeating Ole Miss, Western Kentucky and No. 1 overall seed Colorado State in the championship consolation game. As a result, Konkol garnered numerous awards including Conference USA Coach of the Year, NABC District 11 Coach of the Year, LABC Louisiana Major College Coach of the Year and LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award.

LA Tech completed the 2021-22 season, his final year, with an overall 24-10 record and a 12-6 league mark. The Bulldogs finished the season with a 75.2 scoring average. Overall, Konkol's LA Tech teams averaged 74.2 points over his career while holding the opposition to 67.9 points in 228 contests.

Before his head coaching stint at LA Tech, Konkol spent four seasons (2011-15) on the Miami (Fla.) coaching staff under Jim Larranaga. Prior to that, he was with Larranaga for seven years (2002-05, 2007-11) at George Mason assisting in all aspects including recruiting, practices, individual player workouts and game preparation.

At Miami, Konkol was a part of three 20-win seasons and three postseason tournament appearances. Known as the team's offensive coordinator, he helped the 2014-15 Hurricanes post a 25-13 record, the second most wins in program history, and an appearance in the NIT Championship game.

Miami snapped two impressive winning streaks along the way, defeating eventual national champion Duke, 90-74, at Cameron Indoor Stadium, ending the Blue Devils' 41-game home winning streak which was the longest active streak in Division I at the time. The 'Canes also defeated then-No. 8/7 Florida in a non-conference battle which snapped the Gators' 33-game home winning streak, the third longest in the country.

In his third season, Miami returned no starters from the previous season, but the team still posted its seventh-straight winning season with a 17-16 overall record. The 'Canes ranked No. 2 in field goal defense and No. 3 in scoring defense in the ACC, good enough for No. 11 and No. 39 nationally.

The program saw several firsts in his second season, including ACC regular season and tournament championships, a No. 2 ranking in the national polls and 29 total victories with 15 league wins. Miami matched program bests in earning a No. 2 seed at the NCAA Tournament and playing in the Sweet 16.

Kokol helped lead the Hurricanes that season to four 20+ point wins over ACC opponents, including a 27-point rout of No. 1 Duke and a 26-point victory against North Carolina. Miami was the first team to beat Duke and UNC by 25+ points since the start of ACC play in 1953 and the 'Canes defeated three teams in the Top 20 for the first time since joining the ACC in 2004-05.

Kokol worked daily with ACC and Lute Olson National Player of the Year and All-American Shane Larkin, who left UM after his sophomore season to enter the 2013 NBA Draft. Larkin was a finalist for the Bob Cousy, Naismith and John R. Wooden awards and named the ACC tournament MVP. Konkol also improved the games of ACC Defensive Player of the Year Durand Scott and All-ACC performer Kenny Kadji, as well as ACC All-tournament players Julian Gamble and Trey McKinney Jones.

At George Mason, Konkol served under Larranaga from 2002-05 and again from 2007-11, helping the Patriots register 19.8 wins per year. In the interim, he spent two years coaching at national power Hopkins High School in Minnesota under Ken Novak, Jr.

He helped guide GMU to four postseason appearances, including NCAA berths in 2008 and 2011. In 2011, the team defeated Villanova to advance to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, earned a regular season Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) title and posted a school record-tying 27 wins.

Kokol was responsible for coordinating George Mason's schedule, which was pivotal to the Patriots earning just their second at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament in 2011. He served as Mason's scouting director from 2002-05 and helped recruit the top non-BCS recruiting class in 2009 according to ESPN.com. Konkol also monitored the academic progress of the men's basketball student-athletes, graduating 20 of 22 student-athletes who completed their eligibility. The program was recognized by the NCAA with an Academic Progress Rate in the nation's top 10 percent for both 2009 and 2010.

While working at Tennessee as a graduate assistant coach on Buzz Peterson's staff for the 2001-02 season he earned his master's degree in sport management.

A native of Amherst, Wis., Konkol earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in exercise management from Wisconsin Eau Claire. He played three seasons of basketball for the Division III program, advancing to the national championship game in 2000. Konkol received the team's Inspiration Award after his junior and senior seasons and was an honorary captain as a senior.

Kokol spent his first two years, including one redshirt season, at Wisconsin at Platteville playing for legendary Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan.

Kokol and his wife, Meagan, have two sons, Ethan and Ryan.
