HEADLINES AND QUICK STORYLINES

- UTSA is looking to rebound from a 4-24 season in the third year under the current coaching staff, facing a San Jose State team that went 9-24 last season.
- UTSA is in its 46th season and 4th year as a member of the American Conference.
- The Roadrunners will be led by acting head coach Nick Bowman, making his 1st career head coach appearance against the Spartans after 7 seasons as lead assistant.
- UTSA's roster features 14 new players, including 10 transfers and 4 HS players.
- Only sophomore Dorian Hayes returns from last season, providing UTSA with just 13% of returning minutes, 10.9% of points, 4% of rebounds, 14.7% of assists and 11.1% of steals from last season's group.
- As a rookie, Hayes had the 2nd-most UTSA minutes at 785:33 largely due to team injuries; which he also missed 4 games to injury. Hayes posted averages of 8.8 ppg, 1.8 rpg, 1.9 apg, 0.9 spg and shot .338 FG%, .333 3FG%, .707 FT%.
- The SJSU series is split evenly at 2-2 and UTSA is 0-1 in San Jose from the lone non-conference meeting on the road in 2011. UTSA was set to play at The Event Center in 2013 in WAC play, but heavy rains caused multiple roof leaks 12 minutes before tip that rained out that meeting. UTSA won the last meeting, 67-49, at the 2013 WAC Tournament behind a 21-point, 10-rebound double-double from Jeromie Hill and 20 points from Kannon Burrage.
- UTSA's transfer class is highlighted by several successful mid- and high-major players, including JJ Kelly (Ohio, 8.6 ppg/3.8 rpg), Preston Turner (Eastern Ill., 7.7 ppg/1.7 rpg), Isaiah Watts (Maryland, 4.3 ppg, 1.8), KJ Tenner (Murray St., 6.0 ppg/2.1 apg), Isaiah Coleman (OK State, 6.4 ppg/3.8 rpg), Demari Williams (Houston Christian, 9.7 ppg/3.2 rpg) & Josiah LeGree (Morehead, 7.5 ppg/3.3 apg).
- Chinedum Okpukpara averaged a double-double of 14.3 ppg, 10.5 rpg for NJCAA All-Region First Team honors, 2nd in NJCAA rpg and No. 2 in blocks (86 blk, 2.9 bpg).
- PG Josiah LeGree is the older brother of Oregon State potential Pac-12 Freshman of the Year wide receiver Jesse LeGree, leading the entire FBS in receiving yards (1,110) and touchdowns (14) through 8 games.

Acting Head Coach

Nick Bowman

Eastern Kentucky • 2010
Third Season - First Game in Role
0-0 Career Record

Nick Bowman was named UTSA's acting head coach on Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2026.

In his third season at UTSA in 2026-27, Bowman was announced as an original member of Austin Claunch's inaugural UTSA staff in April 2024, joining the Roadrunners as an assistant coach after one season as the lead assistant and recruiting coordinator at the University of New Orleans.

Bowman spent five seasons on Claunch's staff at Nicholls, serving as an assistant for two seasons before his promotion to associate head basketball coach for the final three years. During his tenure at Nicholls, Bowman helped Claunch lead the Colonels to 90 wins and two Southland Conference regular season championships. He was instrumental in recruiting and coaching 11 all-conference student-athletes that helped propel the Colonels to a school record for most regular single-season wins and most regular-season victories over a five-year period. The Colonels also advanced to the 2022 NIT postseason tournament.

"It is an honor to have the opportunity to rejoin coach Austin Claunch at UTSA," Bowman said at the time of his hire. "It is an exciting time to be a part of UTSA Athletics. I will strive to help Coach Claunch elevate this basketball program back to a championship level."

Before Nicholls, Bowman spent three years at Clemson as the men's basketball director of recruiting. During his tenure, the Tigers advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the 2018 NCAA Tournament and to the NIT postseason Tournament in 2017. Bowman served as the lead offensive game planner for the Tigers in 2017-18, a squad that tied the school wins record with 25 victories. While with the Tigers, Bowman coached first team All-ACC players Jaron Blossomgame, Marcquise Reed and Gabe DeVoe. He recruited and signed Clemson's first men's basketball recruiting class to feature multiple four-star in 2017.

Prior to his stint in the ACC, Bowman was director of basketball operations at his alma mater, Eastern Kentucky, helping lead the EKU Colonels to an Ohio Valley Conference Eastern Division championship with a 21-12 final record. He also was a graduate assistant at EKU in 2012-13 before moving into a Director of Basketball Operations Assistant role at Tennessee in 2013-14. In his lone season with the Volunteers, they advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the 2014 NCAA Tournament. He began his coaching career at NAIA program University of Pikeville in Kentucky.

One of the youngest and most exciting coaches in NCAA Division I basketball, Austin Claunch was introduced by UTSA Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Lisa Campos on Sunday, March 17, 2024, as the seventh head coach of the Roadrunners' men's basketball program. In 2026-27, Claunch enters his third season leading UTSA following one season as an assistant coach at then-nationally ranked Alabama and a highly successful head coaching run at Nicholls State that delivered back-to-back conference titles.

"I am extremely excited to welcome Austin Claunch as our next head men's basketball coach," Campos said during his introductory announcement. "He had great success as the head coach at Nicholls and has gained valuable experience at some of the top programs in the country. He has high energy, a relentless work ethic and a strong basketball IQ. What really stood out to me is that when we talked to people about Austin, what kept coming up time and again was his unique ability to connect with people from all backgrounds and build great relationships. He is completely aligned with my vision and our values as a department and an institution. He will be a terrific leader of our student-athletes, and I am confident he will elevate our program to new heights."

In two seasons leading the Roadrunners, Claunch holds a 16-44 record and starts the 2026-27 fresh while welcoming 14 newcomers to the roster after battling through a spate of injuries that challenged the Roadrunners across the conference slate.

Concluding his debut season at the helm in San Antonio, the Roadrunners finished with a 12-19 overall record and a 6-12 mark in American Conference play. But the progress under Claunch was undeniable, as the Roadrunners recorded the most overall and conference wins for the program since the 2020-21 season. In addition, 11 of UTSA's losses were decided by five points or less, including four contests by a single possession.

Claunch's 2024-25 Roadrunners squad embodied several hallmarks of Claunch's fiery coaching style. One of the most up-tempo teams in the nation, the Roadrunners ranked ninth nationally and third in the American with an average of 15.13 fast break points per game, listing at 56th in tempo and 61st in average possession length in the final KenPom rankings. UTSA was also lethal at the line, ranking seventh in NCAA Division I with a conference-leading 79.2 percent from the line and six players shooting over 83.5 percent individually. UTSA's third offensive weapon was its perimeter attack, where the Roadrunners led the American with an NCAA-25th-best 9.9 threes per game, notching the nation's 23rd-highest percentage of total points from three (39.1) – driven by three players who ranked among the American's top 10 three-point shooters.

In addition to the offense, Claunch's Roadrunners wreaked havoc on defense, locking up an NCAA-ninth-most 9.5 steals per game, 14th-most 15.16 turnovers created per game and 10th-best 4.2 turnover margin – all American Conference stat-leading numbers.

Claunch's first UTSA victory came in his opening game with the Roadrunners, downing Trinity, 103-77, on Nov. 4, 2024. On February 1, 2025, the Roadrunners defeated rival North Texas in Denton at the Super Pit, securing Claunch's 100th career win with a 54-50 road triumph.

Senior guard Primo Spears was a cornerstone of the Roadrunners' squad in Claunch's first season, earning American All-Conference Third Team honors – the first basketball honor for UTSA since joining the league in 2023-24. Spears spent multiple weeks in the national top 10 scorers and led the American across that stretch, ending the season at 25th in the NCAA with a team-high 19.8 ppg.

In the summer following his inaugural season at UTSA, Claunch was named to the Roots 66 list celebrating the most elite and impactful up-and-coming members of the basketball industry.

"This is genuinely a dream come true, being from Texas and growing up in this state," Claunch said at the time of his hire. "I take a lot of pride in being a Texan and knowing the passion of the community as a whole. The potential of the UTSA program really excites me. I think we can be really good for a long time, but I don't think it will take a long time to be really good. I want to thank Dr. Eighmy, Dr. Campos and the whole administration for this opportunity. I am ready to get to work."

Prior to touching down in the Alamo City, Claunch completed a single season as an assistant coach on Nate Oats' staff at Alabama. Orchestrating a historic run, the Crimson Tide battled all the way to the program's first-ever Final Four before falling to eventual champion UConn. Alabama finished with a 21-11 record and a No. 3 national ranking in the final Associated Press poll. Alabama ended the season at No. 9 in the final NCAA NET rankings.

Despite a delayed start, Claunch hit the ground running at UTSA and leaned heavily on the transfer portal to rebuild the ranks of a team that had just one returning player (1 percent of minutes continuity).

In five seasons as the head coach at Nicholls, Claunch won 90 games, recorded a pair of 20-win seasons and directed the Colonels to Southland Conference regular-season championships in 2021 and 2022. He was the 2020-21 Southland Conference Coach of the Year. Claunch served as the youngest head coach at the NCAA Division I level for three seasons (2018-21) and was named to ESPN's 40 under 40 list for collegiate men's basketball coaches in 2020.

In Claunch's second year as the Nicholls head coach, he took a team that was projected to finish 11th in the Southland Conference and secured 21 wins, marking just the fourth 20-win season in program history at the time. That season included a win against Atlantic Coast Conference foe Pittsburgh.

In 2020-21, Claunch led his team to the outright Southland Conference crown with a 14-2 league tally. He coached three All-Southland honorees that season, including first-team selection and Newcomer of the Year Ty Gordon. A year later, he directed his squad to its second consecutive Southland Conference regular-season title and the program's first-ever appearance in the National Invitation Tournament. Despite losing nearly 70 percent of the team's scoring from the year prior, Claunch's Colonels notched a 21-win season. In 2022, Gordon became just the second player in school history to be named Southland Conference Player of the Year.

Claunch Coaching Accolades/Core Milestones

- 2020-21 Southland Conference Coach of the Year
- Back-to-back Southland Regular Season Champions (2020-21, 2021-22)
- Led Colonels to 21-win season in 2019-20 after being voted to finish 11th in Southland preseason poll
- 2022 NIT Appearance with Nicholls
- Served as youngest head coach in Division I Men's Basketball for three seasons (2018-21)
- Named to ESPN 40 Under 40 in 2020
- Named to Roots 66 list in Summer 2025
- 1st win – Nov. 6, 2018 – Mississippi College (86-54)
- 1st Division I win – Nov. 13, 2018 – at Idaho (83-80)
- 50th career win – Feb. 27, 2021 – at New Orleans (105-101, OT)
- 1st UTSA win – Nov. 4, 2024 – vs. Trinity (103-77)

- 100th career win – Feb. 1, 2025 – at North Texas (54-50)

Prior to taking over the head coaching position at Nicholls, Claunch spent two years as an assistant coach for the Colonels under current South Alabama head coach Richie Riley. He worked closely with Riley on offensive and defensive schemes and game plans and coordinated all basketball camps. Claunch was part of a historic 2017-18 campaign that included the most wins (21) since 1995 and the best Southland Conference record (15-3) since 1998. Among the players he worked with daily were guards Roddy Peters (SLC Newcomer of the Year, First Team SLC), Jahvaughn Powell (All-SLC Defensive Team), Lafayette Rutledge (Single-season three-point record holder) and Tevon Saddler (All-SLC Second Team).

Claunch spent three seasons at Clemson, two as a graduate manager and one as an assistant coach, where he primarily coordinated video services for the Tigers. Prior to joining Clemson, he spent the 2012-13 season as Director of Player Development at George Mason.

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and raised in Houston, Texas, Claunch played high school basketball at Strake Jesuit College Preparatory as a three-year starter and a two-time team captain. Claunch was a two-time recipient of Strake's Kenneth McGregor Award, based on his leadership and dedication on and off the court.

He earned a bachelor's degree in political science with a minor in religion from Emory in 2012. Claunch later added a master's degree in human resource development from Clemson in August 2015.

Claunch was a four-year starter and two-time captain at NCAA Division III member Emory University from 2008-12. He remains the Emory program's all-time leader in career assists (580), assists per game (5.8) and minutes played (3,132). He was a three-time All-Conference First Team honoree at Emory and a member of the University Athletic Association's 25th Anniversary Team.

What's Been Said About Coach Austin Claunch

"Austin is one of the hardest working guys in the business. His work as a head coach at Nicholls was unbelievable with one of the lowest budgets in the country. He won two championships in his last three years in the Southland, and that is a credit to his hard work and energy."
Nate Oats, Alabama Head Coach

"People enjoy being around Austin. He's a fun guy. He's also very bright and knows how to get his message across if there's work to be done. He can handle his business, but he's also one of those guys that relates to people and enjoys people."
Brad Brownell, Clemson Head Coach

"He's a fantastic X's and O's coach on the court and very innovative with what he does. What makes him special to me is his ability to form relationships. He's the guy all the guys gravitate towards all the time. It doesn't matter where they come from or their backgrounds."
Richie Riley, South Alabama Head Coach

"Austin has the confidence and courage to be successful at any level of coaching. He's got great energy and he's very knowledgeable of the game. The only word I can use – he's kind of fearless. When he came to work for me at George Mason, he treated the players with respect, but they also respected him because he was a guy that didn't back down."
Paul Hewitt, Former George Mason/Georgia Tech Head Coach

"Austin had it in his mind to go into coaching before he came to Emory. He talked about coaching when he got out of school. Austin wanted to compete. He's a competitor."
Jason Zimmerman, Emory Head Coach

ABOUT THE UTSA ROADRUNNERS

- Led into Monday's season opener by acting head coach Nick Bowman in his first head coaching appearance, the Roadrunners are looking to bounce back from a 4-25 finish a year ago during the second year under the coaching staff. Building around returning sophomore Dorian Hayes, UTSA adds 14 new players to the roster - with 9 NCAA DI transfers, 1 JUCO transfer and 5 true freshmen from the high school ranks. After not having the shooters to commit to it last year, UTSA looks to return to the heavy perimeter shooting and fast break look that generated great success for Austin Claunch and Bowman at Nicholls State.
- In 2024-25 during the first year with this staff, the Roadrunners went 12-19 and 6-12 in conference, both the best win totals for the program since the 2020-21 season. Pacing the winning effort despite a rapid roster construction was UTSA's ability to let it fly and to move in transition. The 2024-25 Roadrunners led the American and ranked 25th in three-point shooting at 9.9 per game, hitting an NCAA-67th 36.1% from beyond the arc. In transition, UTSA led the American and ranked 9th with a 15.1 fast break ppg average. In addition, the Roadrunners were entrenched as one of the best free throw shooting teams in the country, going 79.2% at the line for No. 1 in the American and 7th in the NCAA - mirroring Claunch-built teams at Nicholls.

ABOUT THE SAN JOSE STATE SPARTANS

- Coming off their own challenging 9-25 season into the 6th season under Tim Miles, the Spartans are looking to turn a corner of their own while kicking off the 2026-27 season. Their roster construction looks a lot like UTSA's, with 6 new players from the transfer portal, 5 freshmen and former player Robert Vaihola, transferring back after last season at Minnesota. SJSU also retains guards Pasha Goodarzi (8.2 ppg/1.9 rpg) and JaVaughn Hannah.
- Bringing experience to the squad, Vaihola played on successful SJSU teams, and averaged 7.5 ppg, 7.5 rpg, 2.0 apg in his last season with the Spartans. SJSU took in players from San Francisco (Mookie Cook; 7.6 ppg, 4.2 rpg, 1.5 apg), Simon Fraser (Luke Howard; 16.7 ppg, 6.1 rpg, .417 3FG), Wake Forest (Mekhi Mason; 7.4 ppg, 46 threes), Tulsa (KJ Martin Jr.; 1.9 ppg, 1.5 rpg), Arkansas State (Joey Chammaa, 9.9 ppg, 2.2 rpg) and Columbia (Zine Eddine Bedri, 12.6 ppg).
- Last season, SJSU averaged 72.0 ppg while shooting 43.7% FG, 35.8% 3FG, struggling on the boards with a near NCAA-last 29.7 rpg. The Spartans limited turnovers but allowed 78.5 ppg on 49.4% FG, 35.7% 3FG.

SERIES HISTORY

- This is the 5th meeting in the series, dating back to 2010 and 2011 as non-conference foes, ahead of UTSA joining the WAC for the 2012-13 season - the series is split at 2-2 with SJSU going 1-0 in San Jose.
- UTSA dropped its only outing on the road in San Jose, 66-72 (11/30/12), and also the last game in San Antonio (67-80, 12/31/12) - However, UTSA earned the WAC Tournament victory in Paradise Nevada in 2013, going up 67-49 on a 21 pt/10 reb double-double from Jeromie Hill and 20 points from Kannon Burrage.
- The 2nd regular-season WAC meeting between these teams in 2013 was canceled in a "rain out" due to multiple leaks in the roof of The Event Center after heavy rains blanketed the area and leaks began 12 minutes before tipoff

GAME 1 AT SAN JOSE STATE // NOVEMBER 2 //

UTSA IN SEASON OPENERS/MOUNTAIN WEST

- UTSA will open the season on the road for the first time since 2020-21.
- Since beginning play in 1981-82 (46th season), UTSA has compiled a 28-17 (.622) record in regular-season openers, including a 2-9 (.182) mark when opening on the road. The Roadrunners last won a season opener away from home on Nov. 11, 2011, with a 73-64 victory at UTEP.
- UTSA is playing its 1st Mountain West opponent since 2022-23, which saw a 96-74 loss in The Pit at New Mexico on Dec. 10, 2022.

A WHOLE NEW CROWD

- With only sophomore Dorian Hayes returning to the roster from the 2025-26 team, the Roadrunners will replace 14 players, including both walk-ons heading into the 2026-27 season.
- Who's new - the Roadrunners have 9 portal transfers, 1 junior college transfer and 4 true freshmen:
  -KJ Tenner (Murray State) -Josiah LeGree (Morehead State) -JJ Kelly (Ohio) -Preston Turner (Eastern Illinois) -Isaiah Watts (Maryland) -Isaiah Coleman (Oklahoma State)
  -Demari Williams (Houston Christian) -Shey Eberwein (South Dakota) -Ashton Smith (South Dakota) -Chinedum Okpukpara (Highland Community College [Ill.])
  -Naz Price (Seven Lakes HS) -Mike Broxton, Jr. (Gibbs HS) -Jayson Peterson (St. Andrew's Episcopal School) -Kanyon Taylor (Valley HS)

GUESS THAT MAKES HIM UNC

- Sophomore Dorian Hayes is the only returning player on the roster after making 23 starts in 26 games as a rookie, missing only 4 games due to a late-season injury. He recorded 10 double-figure scoring games and a season-high 19 points at Tulsa (2/22).
- Hayes ranked 2nd in minutes (785:33) and 5th in scoring at 8.8 ppg, which ranked 2nd among American Conference freshmen. He averaged 9.9 ppg against conference opponents.
- Led American Conference freshmen and UTSA in threes with 55 on the season, shooting 33.3% from the perimeter, the 2nd-highest average among starters.
- Hayes ranked 4th on the team in free throws made (25-of-35, 71.4%), steals (0.85 spg, 22 total) and assists (1.85 apg, 48 total), while averaging 1.8 rpg from the guard spot.
- Hayes set the UTSA record for 3-point attempts against South Alabama with 20, snapping the previous mark of 18, set twice by Jhivvan Jackson against Marshall (3/7/20) and at Old Dominion (2/6/20).

WHERE HAVE WE SEEN YOU BEFORE

- At 6-10 and entering UTSA as a freshman from Gibbs High School, forward Mike Broxton Jr. already draws enough attention, but he came to San Antonio with some existing acclaim and national fame already built up.
- In 2025, Broxton Jr. became an overnight internet and high school football phenomenon primarily due to his staggering, unprecedented physical profile as a 6-foot-10 high school wide receiver.
- Tabbed the 'biggest wide receiver in high school football,' the St. Petersburg, Florida, native gained widespread attention across TikTok, X and Instagram as videos showed him towering over defensive backs and teammates. Dubbed a 'human cheat code' and a matchup nightmare, Broxton drew national attention as media outlets circulated clips of him casually mossing defenders and outleaping opponents in the red zone.
- For NFL perspective, the tallest player in league history was Richard Sligh, who stood 7-0 and weighed 300 pounds while playing 8 games for the Raiders in 1967. Other notably tall players included offensive linemen Matt O'Donnell (6-11) and Dan Skipper (6-10), along with tight end Morris Stroud (6-10).

BIG LEGACIES AND FAMILY TIES

- Several Roadrunners have notable athletic connections in their families, including Dorian Hayes, the son of former NBA center Chuck Hayes. The elder Hayes played 11 NBA seasons , including 7 with the Houston Rockets, followed by stops with the Sacramento Kings and Toronto Raptors. He went undrafted out of Kentucky in 2005 after earning SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors and went on to lead the 2003 Team USA Pan American Games team in rebounds (7.6 rpg). A "small-ball" post player in the NBA, the senior Hayes averaged 3.7 ppg and 5.0 rpg in his professional career, putting up 9.0 ppg (on 50.3% shooting), 6.9 rpg, 2.2 apg and 1.1 spg across his UK career.
- Transfer Isaiah Watts is the grandson of Slick Watts and son of Donald Watts. Slick Watts played guard for the Seattle SuperSonics from 1973-78 and helped Seattle reach the (1978) NBA Finals for the first time in the organization's history, averaging 8.9 ppg, 3.2 rpg, 6.1 apg, 2.2 spg during his 6 seasons in the NBA. He was the first player to lead the league in both assists and steals. Donald Watts led the Pac-10 in three-point shooting (1998-99) as a Washington standout guard, leading the Huskies to consecutive NCAA appearances, including the Sweet 16 in 1997-98.
- Transfer Ashton Smith is the grandson of Lucious "Luke" Jackson, who was the 4th overall pick in the 1964 NBA Draft and played 8 seasons with the Philadelphia 76ers, helping the franchise win the 1967 NBA championship and end Boston's run of 8 consecutive titles. Playing 8 NBA seasons after his collegiate career at Texas Southern and Texas Pan American, Jackson averaged 9.9 ppg, 8.8 rpg and 1.6 apg in the NBA. He also represented the United States at the 1964 Olympics, scoring 17 points in the gold medal game against the Soviet Union in Tokyo.
- True freshman Jayson Peterson is the son of former NFL linebacker Julian Peterson, a Michigan State record-setting First-Team All-American linebacker who was the 16th overall pick in the 2000 NFL Draft. Julian Peterson played 11 NFL seasons, including 6 in San Francisco, 3 in Seattle and 2 in Detroit, earning 5 Pro Bowl selections and First-Team All-Pro honors in 2003.
- Transfer Josiah LeGree is the older brother of Oregon State's freshman phenom wide receiver Jesse LeGree, who is the frontrunner for PAC 12 Freshman of the Year honors and has his name in the hat for Heisman consideration as well as the Biletnikoff Award and national freshman recognition. He leads the entirety of NCAA FBS in receiving yards (1,110) and touchdowns (14) through 8 games.

SETTLING INTO A NEW HOME

- After using the construction site as a recruiting tool for the past year, UTSA basketball saw its vision become reality with the grand opening of the new $35 million Basketball & Volleyball Training Center on Oct. 14, 2026.
- The 53,048-square-foot facility now serves as the home for daily operations of the university's men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs. It features two full-size NCAA practice courts, dedicated locker rooms and team lounges, a weight room, team meeting rooms and coaches' offices. Its athletic training space includes hydrotherapy and hyperbaric chambers, while enhanced training technology is available to nearly 400 UT San Antonio student-athletes across the athletics program.
- The first of many facilities under UTSA's Go Bold fundraising initiative, the Roadrunners moved into the RACE (Roadrunner Athletic Center of Excellence) building, a $45.4 million facility, in the August 2021. Now the central nervous system of UTSA Athletics, the building features among others, an academic center, football practice fields, centralized sports medicine and strength and conditioning centers, meeting rooms, student-athlete lounges and coaching/staff offices.
- As part of several major facilities projects planned for the future, the UT System Board of Regents approved the funding plan on Feb. 21, 2024. On Feb. 28, 2024, Dr. Campos announced a game plan to invest $57 million in UTSA Athletics facilities over the next 3-5 years.

FROM ONE ROADRUNNER GENERATION TO ANOTHER

- A familiar name around UTSA and the Convocation Center joined the Roadrunners' staff last offseason, as former Roadrunner David President became part of the program in the summer.
- President was a 4-year starter for the Roadrunners from 2001-05, scoring 597 points with 359 rebounds, 339 assists and 155 steals in 109 career games. He led UTSA in assists and steals in 3 of his 4 seasons and ranked 26th in career rebounds. A 2-year captain, President helped lead UTSA to the 2003-04 Southland regular-season title and an NCAA Tournament appearance against Stanford.
- After starting his coaching career at the collegiate level with a 2-year stint as assistant coach at Austin's St. Edward's University shortly after his playing career, President first went to Marble Falls High School (Texas) and then 2 seasons at Belton High School - also as the Athletic Director. In moving to Houston-area Shadow Creek High School, President became one of the most successful coaches in the metro with 8 seasons as head coach, earning District 22-6A Coach of the Year 7 times while accumulating a 220-39 record and an 84.9% win rate. Under his leadership, SCHS was a 7-time district champion and 3-time UIL 6A regional finalist. During his time in Pearland, he coached 9 NCAA Division I players and 13 more who reached the collegiate ranks at the NCAA Division II, Division III or NAIA levels.
- While coaching at the high school level, President helped develop several players who went on to NCAA Division I careers, including Houston Chronicle All-Greater Houston Player of the Year Ramon Walker Jr. (4 conference championships and a national championship game appearance at Houston), 2-time district MVP and Guy V. Lewis Award finalist PJ Henry (3 NCAA Tournament appearances between Hartford and Texas Southern), Guy V. Lewis Award finalists Cameron Amboree (Oral Roberts/Southern) and Bryce Jackson (Houston), and 2-time finalist and Shadow Creek's all-time leading scorer Michael Collins (Louisiana).

GAME 1 AT SAN JOSE STATE // NOVEMBER 2 //

LAST TIME ON THE FLOOR (2025-26 FINALE)

RICE 80, UTSA 71 // MARCH 8, 2026 // TUDOR FIELDHOUSE // HOUSTON, TEXAS //

HOUSTON – The UTSA men's basketball team (5-25, 1-17 AMER) closed out the 2025-26 season on Sunday at Tudor Fieldhouse, as a second-half rally at Rice (12-18, 6-11 AMER) came up short despite a boosted second-half offensive performance from the Roadrunners. Leading the charge, freshman Mathéo Coffi had a career-best double-double and junior Brent Moss scored 14 of his 16 points in the second half to spark the Roadrunners.

A slow start proved to be the biggest challenge for the Roadrunners against the Owls on Senior Day in Houston, as UTSA opened just 2-of-12 from the field and Rice rang up a an 11-0 scoring drive by the time grad LJ Brown got the Roadrunners back on track with a three-pointer with 12 minutes to go. After Rice made the most of offensive rebounds early with 10 points off just four offensive boards, the Roadrunners also started to even the battle on the glass. Coffi, Brown and Baboucarr Njie battled the game back with a 16-5 push that narrowed the deficit to 31-22 on Jamir Simpson's free throw with 8:06 on the clock – scoring on six of eight possessions coming out of the drought.

After playing a pivotal role in building the early lead, Nick Anderson hit back-to-back threes to keep UTSA at arm's length, while the Roadrunners edged closer with opportunities at the free throw line. Both teams went ice cold for over two minutes until Jamir Simpson drained a three to make it 39-29 with 3:14 left. Njie closed the half with a bucket to send the teams to the locker room with Rice ahead 45-32.

It was a flurry of scoring to open the half as the margin remained at 13 but the score advanced to 58-45 after only five minutes of play in the new period. Stalling the Roadrunners again, Rice grew its advantage to as many as 19 with 8:40 to go, but the Roadrunners started to pick up steam. Following five consecutive points from freshman Dorian Hayes, Moss pulled up for three to move the line back to 13, but the Owls pushed back once again.

Coming down the stretch, UTSA made one final rally push, with Njie, Moss and Simpson leading a drive that just couldn't move fast enough, cutting the Owls' lead to nine on a Hayes three with 13 seconds to go – wrapping up the game and the season on an 80-71 setback.

Njie and Moss led all scorers with 16 points apiece, with Moss making it a double-double on 10 boards, while Njie had four. Coffi earned a career day with 12 points and a UTSA season-best 14 rebounds, shooting 5-of-7 with two assists and two blocks. The fourth Roadrunner in double figures, Simpson added 11 points and five rebounds.

After a sluggish 29.4 percent shooting in the first half, UTSA bounced back to 41.7 percent in the second half, also nearly balancing the rebounding effort with a 50-47 deficit.

LAST TIME THESE TEAMS MET (2012-13, GAME 28)

UTSA 67, SAN JOSE STATE 49 // MARCH 12, 2013 // ORLEANS ARENA // PARADISE, NEV. // OPENING ROUND OF WAC TOURNAMENT

LAS VEGAS – Jeromie Hill posted a double-double of 21 points and 10 rebounds, both of which were game highs, and Kannon Burrage added 20 points to lead No. 9 seed UTSA to a 67-49 victory against eighth-seeded San Jose State in the first round of the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Tournament late Tuesday night at Orleans Arena.

The Roadrunners (9-21), who shot 62.1 percent in the second half and 50 percent overall, earned their first conference tournament win since claiming the 2011 Southland Tournament title two years ago to the day.

Hill was 8-for-15 from the floor and a perfect 5-of-5 at the free-throw line and he cleared the defensive glass nine times en route to his fourth double-double of the year. The junior forward moved into eighth place (1,167) on UTSA's career scoring chart after topping 20 points for the third time this season, two of which came against the Spartans.

Meanwhile, Burrage made 8-of-14 from the field and 4-of-5 at the charity stripe in registering his eighth 20-point contest of the season and 12th of his two-year career.

Edrico McGregor came off the bench and hit all seven of his attempts from the floor for the Roadrunners en route to a season-high 14 points to go along with five rebounds while third-team All-WAC guard Michael Hale III pitched in 10 points, five boards, five assists and a steal.

LaVanne Pennington paced San Jose State (9-20), which dropped its 14th consecuitve game to finish the season, with 21 points, while Chris Cunningham added 12 and nine rebounds.

UTSA led from wire to wire in its sixth consecutive and 24th overall conference tournament appearance.

The Roadrunners made just 1-of-11 from behind the 3-point line but scored 44 points in the paint and held the Spartans to 32.1-percent shooting (18-of-56), including just 2-of-21 (9.5 percent) from downtown in evening the all-time series at two games apiece.

UTSA held San Jose State scoreless for a 7:49 stretch between baskets by Pennington at the 12:16 and 4:27 marks to help turn an early 12-8 lead into a 20-10 advantage following a thunderous slam dunk and free throw by Burrage.

Another dunk by McGregor and an acrobatic layup by Hale III in the final 2:11 of the half helped stake the Roadrunners to a 28-16 edge at intermission, matching the fewest points allowed in a half this season (16, Idaho in second half).

UTSA pushed the lead out to 38-19, its the largest of the night, after Hill converted layups on back-to-back possessions early in the second half.

San jose State missed its first 14 3-point attempts before Jaleel Williams knocked down one from the corner to make it 44-30. After a missed layup by the Roadrunners, Pennington converted a three-point play to pull San Jose State to within 11 with 8:39 left to play.

Cunningham dropped in a pair of free throws to make it a 10-point contest (54-44) with five minutes remaining, but that was as close as the Spartans got the rest of the way.

GAME 1 AT SAN JOSE STATE // NOVEMBER 2 //

LAST TIME THESE TEAMS MET IN SAN JOSE (2011-12, GAME 8)

SAN JOSE STATE 72, UTSA 66 // NOVEMBER 30, 2011 // THE EVENT CENTER // SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

SAN JOSE, Calif. – Junior Kannon Burrage led four Roadrunners in double figures with 17 points, but James Kinney and Keith Shamburger combined for 48 to help San Jose State rally from a 14-point deficit for a 72-66 victory against UTSA on Wednesday night at The Event Center.

The Roadrunners (4-4) led by nine with just over seven minutes to play, but the Spartans (3-4) rallied behind the outside shooting of Kinney and Shamburger, who scored 32 of their points in the second half.

Kinney's sixth trey of the night made it a five-point game with just over six minutes remaining. Wil Carter was fouled underneath the basket and made both to pull San Jose State to within 64-61 one minute later.

Shamburger then came up with a steal after a UTSA rebound and was fouled on a layup. He missed the plus-one free throw, but a lane violation was called. He promptly made his second try to knot the score with 3:43 to play.

Hill was fouled and made both free throws (UTSA was a perfect 22-for-22 at that point), but Kinney found his range again, this time from the top of the key to give San Jose State its first lead of the night, 67-66. Shamburger found the bottom of the net from the free-throw line with 1:24 on the clock to give the Spartans a two-point cushion.

UTSA missed a baseline jumper and had to foul. Shamburger converted both to make it 71-66 with 21 ticks left. The Roadrunners could not convert at the other end and the Spartans held on for the six-point win that evened the series at one game apiece.

Kinney was 10-of-17 from the floor, including 7-of-12 from beyond the arc, en route to a game-high 30 points, while Shamburger posted 18 on 5-of-10 shooting, including three 3-pointers, and he dished out a game-leading 11 assists.

Senior Stephen Franklin (14) and juniors Michael Hale III (13) and Melvin Johnson III (12) joined Burrage in double figures. The Roadrunners equaled a school record by going 22-for-22 at the free-throw line, but they shot just 37.3 percent from the floor and 6-of-19 (31.6 percent) from downtown, including 5-of-19 and 2-for-8, respectively, in the second half.

UTSA stormed out to a 15-2 lead through the first five-and-a-half minutes, as Hale III and Franklin combined for 11 early points. Johnson III caught fire from the floor, as his second deep trey of the half gave UTSA a 34-21 advantage at the 3:28 mark.

The Spartans crept back to within single digits in the final 45 seconds of the half after a Kinney layup and 3-pointer at the buzzer made it 36-28.

Johnson III was 5-of-7 from the field for a dozen points in the half and UTSA turned nine San Jose State turnovers into 14 points.

Shamburger knocked down a trey to start the second half and pull San Jose State to within five, but UTSA responded by with a 12-3 run that was capped by Burrage layup that made it 48-34 with just under 15 minutes to play.

The Spartans quickly cut the deficit to less than 10, as Kinney connected from long distance and then drained a pair from the line to pull them within six (52-46) midway through the half.

ABOUT COLEMAN

Prior to UTSA (Summary)

Has accumulated 96 games of experience, playing 33 games with five starts as a wing last season at Oklahoma State. Helping the Cowboys to a 20-15 record and second-round National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearance, Coleman averaged 6.4 points and 3.8 rebounds in 19.1 minutes, shooting 49.4 percent from the field. Upon his transfer to OSU, Coleman was listed among the Lindy's Top 100 offseason transfers, coming to Stillwater following two seasons at Seton Hall – where he led the Pirates in scoring, rebounds and was among the steals and assists leaders as a sophomore. As a freshman, Coleman earned Big East All-Freshman honors and played a key role on Seton Hall's 25-12 NIT Championship team in 2023-24. Named to the All-Met First Team by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association following his sophomore campaign, Coleman registered 11 games scoring over 20 points out of 23 double-figure games and was 10th among Big East scorers in 2024-25. The Pirates' offensive centerpiece, he averaged 15.6 points on 38.9 percent shooting from the field and 76.1 percent at the free throw line through 29 starts in 30 games. Pacing the team with 33.6 minutes, Coleman topped the squad with 5.3 rebounds and averaged 1.7 assists and 1.5 steals per outing. His rookie season received the first Seton Hall All-Freshman nod since 2015 after scoring 5.4 points with 2.4 rebounds, shooting 47.5 percent from the field and 71.7 percent at the stripe while playing just 18.2 minutes per game. He scored the most points by a Seton Hall freshman in five years.

Personal and High School

Originally hailing from Fredericksburg, Virginia, Coleman earned a four-star recruit ranking from Rivals, ESPN and 247Sports, listing as the nation's 18th shooting guard prospect and No. 4 player in Maryland by 247Sports. He averaged 17 ppg as a senior at Alex Harris at Word of God Christian Academy in Fort Washington, Maryland, and played for Team Loaded (VA) and Team Melo (MD) on the AAU circuit.
