CHARLES F. BAKER, President

B. A., Wheaton College

Th. M., Dallas Theological Seminary

I THESS. 5:21

Prove all things, hold fast that which is good.

Dear Students:

The Apostle Paul tells us that all of the contestants run in a race, "but one receiveth the prize." The knowledge of this fact should spur us on to heed his admonition: "So run, that ye may obtain."

Your endeavors at the College this past year have been in the nature of a race. The contest was not simply one of getting the highest grades, although those who made the Honor Roll are to be highly recommended. Your instructors graded you largely upon the quality of work you produced in the classroom and to some extent subjectively upon the ratio of your known abilities to your application. But in the eyes of our heavenly Referee the outcome of the race was doubtless somewhat different.

Those of you who are graduating this year have merely completed another lap in the race; you have not finished it. You are just having your commencement of a much more important phase of the contest. It is my sincere hope and prayer that you will continue to run the race with patience, and that you will so run as to obtain the prize.

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

Charles F. Baker, President
