II CORINTHIANS 4:7

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

Dear Students of M.B.C.:

One thing that characterizes this life is change. John says that the world passeth away and Paul says that the fashion of this world passeth away. The hymn has it, "Change and decay in all around I see."

But changes may be for better as well as for worse: things may grow and develop as well as decay and die. This year marks a big change for M.B.C. Our school is changing its location, its name, and, to some extent, its curriculum. All of these changes, we trust, will be for the betterment of the College and for the furtherance of the message of God's grace.

There is one thing that will not change: our reason for being in existence. Our school was raised up originally to prepare Christian workers to propagate God's message of grace for this dispensation—that message which the ascended Lord Jesus Christ committed to His church by revelation to the Apostle Paul, and from which the church has largely departed.

My wish for all of you, over and above the many temporal and spiritual blessings which I pray may be yours, is that you might be true to that trust which God has committed to us all, even the dispensation of His grace.

Cordially Yours,

Chas. F. Baker, president
