Rachel Witiker's favorite memory of GBC: "My assistance in helping Aimee Johnson with her many devious pranks and then waiting and waiting to see the response and whether or not i would be discovered as a culprit!"

This Life is Yours

TAKE THE POWER
TO CHOOSE WHAT YOU WANT TO DO
AND DO IT WELL
TAKE THE POWER
TO LOVE WHAT YOU WANT IN LIFE
AND LOVE IT HONESTLY
TAKE THE POWER
TO WALK IN THE FOREST
AND BE A PART OF NATURE
TAKE THE POWER
TO CONTROL YOUR OWN LIFE
NO ONE ELSE CAN DO IT FOR YOU
NOTHING IS TOO GOOD FOR YOU
YOU DESERVE THE BEST
TAKE THE POWER TO MAKE YOUR LIFE
HEALTHY
EXCITING WORTHWHILE
AND VERY HAPPY
WHILE YOU REACH FOR YOUR DREAMS.

Lessons learned from GBC:

Don't Make Brian Sherstad mad
Take one day at a time and trust the Lord for his strength to accomplish everything each day requires

Dating policies?? "We should install blue and pink sidewalks. . ." -Thomas Thelen
"i like it, i found myself a good husband?" -Rachel Whitiker

Non-Graduating Seniors

After four years of college (or a certain amount of credit hours), endless hours of studying and writing papers, and numerous friends made through the years, these students are ready to graduate and move on with their lives, right? But, wait. Their names are not listed in the 2004 graduation ceremony program. Here is a tribute to those who may be considered seniors, but must continue their education in order to receive their degrees.

God placed each one of you here for a reason. And now God is taking you to a new phase in your life. When you reflect back on the years you spent at Grace, how are you going to remember your experience? Through these very memories, God has prepared you for this next step in your life. Some of you may go on to graduate school and others are going to enter the work force. Getting married and starting a family may also be on your list. Whatever the case, keep these memories as the stepping stone in your life. Good luck graduates and we will miss you!
