This appraisal is based on the composite on the above information and the value is determined by a comparison of said vehicle to similar vehicles currently being offered by recognized dealers, museums trade magazines, club periodicals, recent auctions results and appraisals.

The undersigned appraiser has no present or contemplated future interest in the subject vehicle or any other interest, which might tend to prevent his making a fair and unbiased appraisal.

Based on the above information, I estimate the 'fair market value' (actual cash value) of the above to be $ 45,000.00 Forty-five thousand dollars and no/100

COMMENTS: This is a unique example of a nicely restofied Great Dale Housecar
