Women In Government Legislator Travel Scholarship Policy- National Legislative Conference, Seattle, WA

Women In Government is pleased to offer travel assistance for women state legislators to attend our national conferences. A Legislator Travel Scholarship of up to $900 for Women In Government's National Legislative Conference in Seattle, Washington June 6-8, 2024 is available on a first-come/first-served basis to confirmed registered women legislator attendees (i.e., those who have paid the $150 registration fee) to reimburse personal travel expenses. Reimbursable travel expenses include: airfare/train or mileage to the host city, ground transportation to the host hotel, and sleeping room accommodations (room + tax only) during conference nights only (6/6, 6/7 and 6/8). Food and beverage expenses (whether during travel or outside of meals that WIG provides as part of our conference agenda), cash tips to housekeeping or other staff or service providers are not reimbursable expenses under this Travel Scholarship Policy.

Legislator attendees are responsible for arranging all travel to and from the conference site including reserving a room at the host hotel or offsite. A unique link and/or phone number is provided as part of the registration process to make a reservation within Women In Government's room block at the host hotel prior to the room block deadline of Friday, May 10, 2023. If you need to cancel or change your flight or hotel reservation for any reason, you are responsible for notifying your airline and/or the hotel.

Participants are accountable to attend all sessions and conference events in order to receive the full Legislator Travel Scholarship. Late arrival or early departure without receiving prior approval from WIG's Executive Director will result in a reduction of the travel scholarship award. All attendees agree to abide by all health and safety rules of the conference venue/s and jurisdiction/s in addition to abiding by Women In Government's Code of Conduct Policy. Failure to comply with health and safety rules or WIG's Code of Conduct may result in reduction of the Legislator Travel Scholarship reimbursement award.

All reimbursements are issued post-conference. To receive reimbursement, legislator awardees must fill out a Legislator Travel Reimbursement Form (available approximately one week before the conference, as well as onsite) that includes a complete mailing address, signature acknowledging that the legislator attendee is not eligible for travel reimbursement from their state, and all accompanying receipts. This completed form and all receipts must be returned to Women In Government (by mail or email) no later than 45 days after the conclusion of the conference, by Monday, July 24, 2024.

Cancellation Policy:

If you need to cancel your registration, please notify Women In Government immediately so that we may award your scholarship to another legislator. Registration fee may be refunded as follows:

- 100% of the of registration fee is refunded for cancellation made by 5/10/2024
- $100 of the registration fee is refunded for cancellation received from 5/11-5/24/2024
- No registration fee is refunded after 5/25/2024, but the registration fee may be transferred to attend the November 2024 Leadership & Innovation Summit in Charlotte (please contact staff for details)
- Attendees cancelling event registration are responsible for cancelling all travel and accommodations with their carrier and the hotel

Please note that the travel scholarship is intended for reimbursement for expenses incurred to attend the Women In Government National Legislative Conference in Seattle, Washington. In the event of conference cancellation due to circumstances beyond the control of Women In Government, WIG will not be responsible for registrants' costs associated with the cancelled event.
