Subject: Additional two day academic sessions on Saturdays.

It has been observed that lots of academic sessions got delayed due to the extended internships and extracurricular programs at GSFC University including "Tarang-2019" festival. To mitigate academic target in time, it is decided by the GSFC University Management to continue the academic sessions for two full days on 23rd February 2019 (Saturday) and 9th March 2019 (Saturday) to cover up majority of the lost academic programs. All teaching staff and students are requested to take note of the same and to continue study on above two days.

Deans of respective discipline should arrange suitable academic sessions on these two days.
