Developing A Personal Quiet Time

Spending some quiet time with God can be the most important part of your day. This is your time for intimate fellowship with the Lord through reading His Word, worship, and prayer.

Here are three things you should focus on in your reading:

READ the passage and pray for eyes to see what God wants to tell you. Don't be afraid to go back over the section a few times for understanding (see Psalm 119:18).

REFLECT on what you've read, and pray for understanding. God might be using that day's Scripture to remind you of a truth, teach you something new, or reveal new insight (see Psalm 119:27).

RESPOND to what you have learned by putting it into action. Consider how you can apply what God has shown you during your day and look for ways to do it. Pray for eyes to see those opportunities and the resolve to follow through (see Psalm 119:59-60).

A daily devotion can be a great supplement to your Bible reading. To sign up for Pastor Greg Laurie's daily devotions, visit harvest.org.
