HAWKEYES LOOK TO 2007

The 2006 season began with Iowa winning five of its first six games and becoming a fixture in the nation's top 20. The second half of the season was just the opposite as injuries took their toll and the Hawkeyes dropped five of their final six regular season games.

But, the Hawkeyes did well enough to get invited to their sixth straight bowl game and came excruciatingly close to an upset of the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the Alamo Bowl, before succumbing (26-24). The game was played before the biggest sports crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the Alamodome. The game was also the most watched ESPN bowl game in the network's history.

Despite finishing the campaign with a 6-7 record, Iowa has been able to sandwich a pair of Alamo Bowl visits (2001 and 2006) with four straight January bowl games. Iowa was just one of four teams in the nation to have played in four straight January bowl games. Only Southern California made it to a fifth as the Hawkeyes, Georgia and Florida State played in December.

Offensive lineman Mike Jones was named to the coaches first all-Big Ten team. Offensive lineman Marshal Yanda, linebacker Mike Klinkenborg, tight end Scott Chandler and defensive back Marcus Paschal were second team choices.

Iowa was the only team in the country to have three players represented on the first academic all-America team. They were offensive lineman Mike Elgin, defensive back Adam Shada and Klinkenborg. It was Elgin's second straight year on the elite team.

The 2006 season didn't follow the storyline most expected. A great effort by the Hawkeyes against Texas gave Iowa fans a good preview of what's in store for next season as 14 starters return (eight on defense and six on offense).

The fact the Hawkeyes made it to the prestigious Alamo Bowl with a 6-6 record says much about the Iowa program built by Kirk Ferentz. It also says much about the Iowa fans who have shown their loyalty at every Hawkeye game, home and away.

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,091 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 553-499-39 (.525). That includes a 349-195-16 (.638) record in home games, a 205-304-23 (.407) record in games away from Iowa City, a 272-336-25 (.449) mark in Big Ten games and a 232-159-15 (.590) record in Kinnick Stadium.

FOUR HAWKEYES TO PLAY IN ALL-STAR GAMES

TE Scott Chandler and OL Marshal Yanda will represent Iowa in the Senior Bowl played Jan. 27 in Mobile, AL. OL Mike Elgin will make the trip to Hawaii to play in the Hula Bowl Jan. 14 in Honolulu. QB Drew Tate will play in the East-West Shrine Game in Houston, TX on Jan. 20.

IOWA IN BOWL GAMES

Iowa is 11-10-1 (.523) in bowl games. Iowa, Penn State (25-12-2, .667) and Wisconsin (10-8, .556) are the only Big Ten teams who have a winning percentage in bowl games. The Hawkeyes have played in six straight bowl games. The Hawkeyes have competed in the Rose (five times), Alamo (four), Holiday (three), Peach (two), Sun (two), Outback (two) and the Orange, Capital One, Gator and Freedom Bowls once.

Iowa ranks third in Big Ten bowl appearances. Ohio State and Michigan have received a conference-best 38 bowl bids each, while the Hawkeyes have received 22 invitations. Wisconsin ranks fourth with 18.

Ohio State has the most conference victories the last five years with 33. Michigan ranks second (32) and Iowa (27) ranks third during that time span. Michigan (26) has won the most league contests the last four years, followed by Ohio State (25) and Iowa (19).

HAWKEYES EARN BIG TEN ACCOLADES

Five Hawkeyes earned first or second team all-Big Ten honors. OL Mike Jones earned first team laurels by the coaches and second team honors by the media. OL Marshal Yanda was recognized on the coaches' second team. TE Scott Chandler was named to the coaches' second team. DB Marcus Paschal earned second team accolades by the coaches. LB Mike Klinkenborg earned second team all-league recognition by the media. Earning honorable mention honors were: OL Mike Elgin (coaches and media), PK Kyle Schlicher (coaches and media), DE Bryan Mattison (coaches and media), LB Mike Klinkenborg (coaches), OL Marshal Yanda (media), DB Marcus Paschal (media), DB Adam Shada (media), DB Miguel Merrick (media) and P Andy Fenstermaker (coaches).

THREE HAWKEYES NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA

For the first time in school history, the Iowa football team placed three players on the first Academic All-America Team. No other school in the nation had three first-team selections. The team is voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Named to the elite first team were OL Mike Elgin, LB Mike Klinkenborg and DB Adam Shada. Elgin is a repeat member of the first unit. Shada and Klinkenborg were members of the district all-America team in 2005.

Iowa's three academic all-Americans join eight others from the Big Ten. The 11 honorees from the Big Ten represent more than any other conference.

IOWA RANKS AMONG NATION'S BEST

Iowa has the ninth-best graduation rate for student-athletes among the 64 schools that were represented in the 32 bowl games. Iowa had a graduation rate of 72 percent for the group of student-athletes who enrolled in the University of Iowa in the fall semester of 1999, according to information the University of Iowa provided the NCAA. The Hawkeyes are the second-highest ranked Big Ten team behind third-ranked Penn State (83%). Boston College (92%) ranked first.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2007

Iowa will have 14 starters returning, six on offense and eight on defense, in 2007. Additionally, the Hawkeyes will have to replace place kicker Kyle Schlicher and punter Andy Fenstermaker.

The returning starters on offense include center Rafael Eubanks, tackle Seth Olsen, fullback Tom Busch, running back Albert Young and receivers Dominique Douglas and Andy Brodell. The defensive starters returning include ends Kenny Iwebema and Bryan Mattison, tackles Matt Kroul and Mitch King, linebackers Mike Klinkenborg and Mike Humpal and cornerbacks Adam Shada and Charles Godfrey.

FERENTZ MOVES PAST EVASHEVSKI

Head Coach Kirk Ferentz is the second all-time winningest coach in Iowa history. Ferentz has 55 overall wins and 34 conference victories. Ferentz, who completed his eighth season as head coach at Iowa, moved ahead of Forest Evashevski (1952-60) in both rankings in 2006. Evashevski collected 52 overall wins and 33 league victories. Hayden Fry (1979-98) is Iowa's all-time winningest coach with 143 overall wins and 96 Big Ten victories.

ALAMO BOWL SETS VIEWING RECORD

Not only was there a record-crowd of 65,875 fans inside the Alamodome watching Iowa play Texas in the 2006 Alamo Bowl, but the game was ESPN's most-watched bowl game ever. The contest earned a 6.0 rating, which translates into 5,521,200 households and 8.83 million viewers when considering a 1.6-viewers-per household factor.

COACH KIRK FERENTZ

The 2002 Associated Press, Walter Camp and AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, Kirk Ferentz (pronounced FAIR-rintz, rhymes with parents), completed his eighth season as Iowa's head football coach. Ferentz guided Iowa to Big Ten titles twice in the last five years (2002 and 2004) and four straight January bowl games, including back-to-back New Year's Day bowl victories (2004 Outback Bowl and 2005 Capital One Bowl). Iowa has posted a 44-19 (.698) overall mark and a 27-13 (.675) Big Ten record the last five seasons.

Ferentz, at Iowa, holds an overall record of 55-43 (.561) and a 34-30 (.531) mark in Big Ten games. In 11 seasons as a college head coach his career mark is 67-64 (.511).

Thirty-two of Iowa's 98 games under Ferentz have been decided by seven points or less (14-18) and 33 were played against opponents who were ranked in the top 25 at the time (12-21).

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) staff for six years.

Ferentz was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years. Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). He coordinated Iowa's running game during his first coaching stint with the Hawkeyes. Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant, posting a 4-4 record. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986 & 1987) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) and Freedom Bowls (1984) highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Ferentz was born in Royal Oak, MI, and attended high school in Pittsburgh, PA. Kirk earned his bachelor's degree in English Education from the University of Connecticut in 1978, where he was a football captain.

TEXAS 26, IOWA 24

Texas outscored Iowa 23-10 in the final three quarters en route to a 26-24 Alamo Bowl victory over the Hawkeyes in front of a bowl-record 65,875 fans in the Alamodome.

Iowa sprinted out of the gates, scoring touchdowns on its first two possessions. RB Albert Young scored on a one-yard run and WR Andy Brodell caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate. The 63-yard pass is the longest touchdown pass in Iowa bowl history.

After a Texas field goal, Iowa looked to stretch its lead to 21-3 on a nine-yard touchdown reception by TE Scott Chandler, but a flag negated the score. Texas intercepted a Tate pass in the end zone on the very next play. The Longhorns took advantage of Iowa's misfortune and turned the turnover in seven points. Iowa took a 14-10 lead into the half.

The Longhorns scored the next 10 points on a 43-yard field goal and a 72-yard touchdown pass to grab a 20-14 advantage midway through the third period. Iowa quickly answered with a four-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 23-yard touchdown reception by Brodell.

Texas responded with a touchdown on the following possession to go up 26-21. Iowa added a PK Kyle Schlicher 38-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 26-24. The Longhorns became the first team to win the Alamo Bowl when trailing at the half.

Tate completed 15-25 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Brodell tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions and matched a career high with 159 receiving yards on six receptions. Furthermore, the 159 yards is an Alamo Bowl receiving record, besting Michigan's Amani Toomer's 135 yards set in 1995.

Texas QB Colt McCoy was named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player. McCoy completed 26-40 passes for 308 yards and two scores. Four different Longhorn receivers had receptions that totaled 46 yards or more.

Four Hawkeyes recorded seven tackles or more. DB Miguel Merrick had a team-high eight tackles. DB Charles Godfrey and LB Ed Miles each were credited with seven stops. LB Zach Gabelmann, who started in place of injured LB Mike Klinkenborg, also collected a career-high seven tackles.

Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series

Iowa currently leads the third annual Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series 11-4. Iowa was victorious in women's soccer (1-0, OT), football (27-17), wrestling (24-6) men's basketball (77-59) and women's swimming and diving (181.5-117.5), while Iowa State won volleyball (3-2) and women's basketball (80-74).

The University of Iowa captured the inaugural Cy-Hawk Series in 2005 registering a 13-8 margin of victory. Iowa State evened the competition with its own 13-8 triumph in 2006.

The nine-sport series awards two points (except football, which is worth three) to the winning school in each head-to-head match-up between the two institutions. Additionally, two points are awarded to an institution if the graduation rate of its student-athletes is greater than the national average as reported each fall by the NCAA. Iowa has earned the academic points in both 2005 and 2006, whereas Iowa State has failed to earn the extra points. Iowa garnered a 69 percent graduation rate in 2005, which was seven points higher than the national average of 62 percent.

For the first time in three years, volleyball was added to the competitive slate between the two schools. A new total of 21 points is up for grabs in 2006-07.

A commemorative Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series Cup, which stands 31 inches tall and weighs 19 pounds, is displayed on the winning team's campus for an entire year after a victory. Replica cups are also presented as "traveling trophies" for individual victorious teams in the head-to-head competition.

This season's Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series schedule is listed below:

Date	Event	Site/Result
8/26	Volleyball (2 points)	L, 3-2

CHRISTENSEN SHINES IN FIRST START

Redshirt freshman QB Jake Christensen started his first career game vs. Northern Illinois. The native of Lockport, IL, completed 19-30 passes for 256 yards and threw for two touchdowns. If Christensen starts at quarterback in 2007's season opener vs. Northern Illinois at Chicago, it is believed that he will become the first collegiate quarterback to start his first two games against the same team.

Iowa had three players get their first career starts vs. Purdue: RB Damian Sims, OLB A.J. Edds and DB Marcus Wilson. Edds replaced the injured Mike Humpal. He was the second true freshman to start for Iowa (WR Dominique Douglas) in 2006. Edds finished the game with six tackles. Wilson, who replaced the injured Marcus Paschal, registered six tackles and intercepted his first career pass. Sims replaced the injured Albert Young, who had started 16 straight games at tailback. Sims carried the ball 20 times for 155 yards and two scores.

Sophomore DL Ryan Bain received his first start at Indiana, replacing the injured Mitch King. Bain had six solo tackles in his first career start and also started at Michigan.

SYRACUSE RUNS INTO WEB

Syracuse had eight tries inside the Iowa five-yard line in double overtime, but the Hawkeye defense was like a brick wall and turned away the Orange to propel the Hawkeyes to victory. Four of the eight plays were stopped by DE Kenny Iwebema. The junior collected four of his nine solo stops on the goal line stand.

Hawkeye historians are calling it one of, if not the best, goal line stand in Iowa football history. The goal line stands earned Iowa ESPN's Pontiac Game Changing Performance of the Week. The victory netted the general scholarship fund at the University of Iowa $5,000. The UI was one of four teams remaining for the Pontiac Game Changing Performance of the Year.
