» Michigan's 26-9 record through the first 35 games is the team's best start since 1987, when the Wolverines won both the regular season and Big Ten Conference Tournament Titles to advance to an NCAA Regional. Led by historic figures like Jim Abbott and Mike Ignasiak, the 1987 squad finished the year with a 52-12 overall record.

» Michigan has gone 5-1 over the last week with victories over Toledo and Eastern Michigan and a three-game sweep of Nebraska. The sweep marked Michigan's fifth of the season and second in Big Ten play, and the Wolverines are currently on a five-game win streak.

» Despite an 11-5 loss at Michigan State last Tuesday, senior Cody Bruder led the Wolverine offense last week recording a .667 average with 9 RBI. He went 5-6 in Tuesday's 19-3 victory over Eastern Michigan and 4-4 in a 6-1 win over Nebraska on Sunday. The outfielder also slugged at a .905 clip for the week and scored a team-leading 10 runs with no strikeouts for the week.

» After going 4-1 last week, Michigan broke back into numerous top-25 polls. The Wolverines currently rank the highest in the Baseball America Poll at No. 18, while also earning a No. 21-ranking in the NCBWA Poll, a No. 22-ranking in the Perfect Game Poll, and a No. 25-ranking in the USA Today Coaches Poll. While Michigan did not earn a selection to the Collegiate Baseball News Top-30, the Wolverines were considered for selection to the prestigious D1Baseball Poll.

» With 6.0 IP and 2 Ks last weekend, junior LHP Brett Adcock has surpassed the 205 career-K mark and now ranks 8th all-time in Michigan history for strikeouts. Senior LHP Evan Hill also ranks 13th in Michigan's all-time history with 191 career strikeouts.

WOLVERINE SCOUTING REPORT

IOWA -- The Iowa Hawkeyes currently boast a 17-17 record for the 2016 season, owning a 6-6 conference record for an eighth-place standing in the Big Ten. The team has won two of four series against its Big Ten opponents, claiming 2-of-3 games against Maryland, and Illinois. Iowa finished the 2015 campaign with a 41-18 overall record, claiming a berth to the NCAA Springfield Regional and finishing second in the Big Ten Conference. As a team, the Hawkeyes are batting at a .266 clip for the season with an impressive .978 fielding percentage - good for second in the conference.

KEY RETURNER - Joel Booker, Sr. OF

MICHIGAN DEFEATS TOLEDO, 2-1

Backed by a rock-solid pitching staff and extra-base hits from freshman Ako Thomas and junior Harrison Wenson, the No. 18-ranked University of Michigan baseball team wrapped up a five-game home stretch with a 2-1 victory over Toledo on Wednesday (April 20) at the Wilpon Complex, home of Ray Fisher Stadium.

U-M SWEEPS NEBRASKA IN B1G PLAY

Senior Evan Hill tossed a seven-inning gem on Sunday (April 17) en route to a 6-1 victory and a series sweep of the visiting Nebraska Cornhuskers at the Wilpon Complex, home of Ray Fisher Stadium. The win pushes the then-No. 22-ranked University of Michigan baseball team to a 25-9 record on the season and a 6-2 record in Big Ten play.

OFFENSIVE THREATS -- Through 34 games this season senior Cody Bruder currently leads Michigan's offense with a .386 batting average on the year. The outfielder has 54 hits on the year with 31 RBI in addition to nine doubles and a triple. Junior Harrison Wenson is Michigan's go-to power hitter with a .566 slugging percentage and five homers on the season, including a game-winner on Tuesday (April 20) against Toledo. Junior Carmen Benedetti also ranks third in the Big Ten Conference with team-leading .481 on-base percentage, while Bruder, sophomore Jake Bivens (.374), Wenson (.359) and Benedetti (.317) are also all hitting over .300 for the year. In addition, freshman Ako Thomas is tied for first in the Big Ten Conference with seven sacrifice bunts.

RAMSAY NAMED B1G Co-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

-- During a perfect 4-0 week in which Michigan picked up wins over Central Michigan and Northwestern, junior outfielder Matt Ramsay finished the week batting .438 with an impressive 1.000 slugging percentage. His best game of the week came during the second contest of a Friday doubleheader at Northwestern, when he went 5-6 and blasted three homers to bat in seven of Michigan's 12 runs in the victory. Ramsay finished the week with eight runs on seven hits and a team-high five walks. He also recorded a team-high nine RBI for the week and was a perfect 2-2 in stolen bases.

ADCOCK EARNS B1G PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS

-- Junior LHP Adcock tossed seven complete innings with the career-high 12 strikeouts and allowing just one run on two hits in a no-decision outing against Hawaii (Mar. 11).

JASKIE EARNS SECOND B1G WEEKLY AWARD -- Sophomore LHP Oliver Jaskie

made his second start of the 2016 campaign on (Feb. 29), shutting out the No. 10-ranked California Golden Bears by a 5-0 score. He lefty threw 5.1 innings, allowing just three hits and striking out six in the outing. In his first outing of the season, Jaskie tossed six complete innings en route to a 9-3 victory over Canisius, allowing just three hits and striking out a career-high nine batters in the outing with just one walk.

Erik Bakich Head Coach

4th Season at Michigan - 120-90-1 (7th Season as a Head Coach)

Erik Bakich completed his third season as head coach of the University of Michigan baseball program in 2015. Bakich was announced as the 19th head coach in the history of Michigan baseball on June 27, 2012. The upward trend for Michigan baseball continued in 2015 as the Wolverines won the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the regionals for the first time since 2008.

Michigan won 39 games in 2015, highlighted by a four-game sweep of the Big Ten Tournament and a runner-up finish in the NCAA Louisville Regional. Bakich coached a first team All-American in Carmen Benedetti (NCBWA) and five All-Big Ten honorees, including first team selections in Benedetti and Jackson Glines. Michigan had four players named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team, including Freshman of the Year Jake Bivens. Three Wolverines (Jacob Cronenworth, Glines and Travis Maezes) were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft while Michigan now has eight Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans, the most in the nation in that three-year span.

The 2014 edition of the Michigan baseball team won 30 games and finished in a tie for fourth place in the Big Ten Conference. U-M also advanced to the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament, winning a pair of games in that tournament for the first time since 2008. Bakich coached a pair of All-Big Ten honorees (Jackson Glines - 2nd, Travis Maezes - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. Juniors James Bourque and Trent Szkutnik were both picked in the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft and freshman Brett Adcock and Carmen Benedetti were named to both the Big Ten All-Freshman and the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America teams.

In Bakich's first season in Ann Arbor, he guided the Maize and Blue to 29 wins and 14-10 record in the Big Ten, good for a tie for fifth place. That was a seven-game overall and a six-game conference improvement from 2012. Also, the Wolverines returned to the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2010. Bakich coached three All-Big Ten honorees (Michael O'Neill - 1st, Jacob Cronenworth - 2nd, Cole Martin - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. O'Neill also was an ABCA All-Mideast Region first team selection and a third round pick by the New York Yankees in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. A trio of freshmen (Cronenworth, Travis Maezes and Evan Hill) earned Big Ten All-Freshman team honors and were Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans.

Bakich (pronounced back-itch) comes to Ann Arbor after spending three years as the head coach at the University of Maryland. He led the Terrapins to a 32-24 record in 2012, which was a 15-win improvement from his first season in College Park. Maryland started the season by taking 2-of-3 games at UCLA, which went on to earn a No. 2 national seed and a berth in the College World Series. The Terps also enjoyed wins over Purdue, East Carolina and St. John's in the non-conference slate and North Carolina, Virginia, Miami, N.C. State and Florida State in Atlantic Coast Conference action. Maryland had a 3.21 team earned-run average, which was third in the ACC. Bakich also had four players drafted from the 2012 team in this year's MLB First-Year Player Draft, including Alfredo Rodriguez, who was picked in the 17th round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

Bakich, who is currently the youngest head baseball coach at a BCS school, had an initial recruiting class at Maryland in 2010 that was ranked in the top 25 by Baseball America. That marked the first time the Terps had a ranked recruiting class. Bakich followed it up with a 2011 class that received accolades from a number of publications and a 2012 class that was ranked in the top 25 by Perfect Game USA. In the last 11 years, he has coached 77 players that have been selected in the MLB Draft, including 25 in the first five rounds and nine first-round picks.

Bakich also had a hand in several improvements to facilities at Maryland. Included in these improvements are a 5,000-square-foot indoor hitting and pitching facility that was built next to Bob "Turtle" Smith Stadium, a new turf infield (added prior to the 2011 season) along with a brick backstop, a new outfield fence and warning track. A new scoreboard and upgrades to signage in the stadium and renovated locker rooms are other highlights of facility upgrades for Maryland's baseball program.

Bakich instituted the inaugural Maryland Baseball Leadoff Banquet in 2011, which featured keynote speaker Tommy Lasorda in its first season and Baltimore Orioles manager Buck Showalter in 2012.

Bakich was the assistant coach at Vanderbilt University from 2003-09, serving as the Commodores' recruiting coordinator as well as being the hitting coach and working with the outfielders. Under Bakich's assistance, Vanderbilt was 276-157 in his seven seasons in Nashville. That included a 54-win team in 2007 and two seasons of 40-plus wins (45 in 2004; 41 in 2008).

In his first year at Vandy, Bakich helped the Commodores reach the Southeastern Conference Tournament, something they had not done in eight years prior to his arrival. Vandy then advanced to a Super Regional in the 2004 season after winning the Charlottesville Regional.

While at Vanderbilt, Bakich recruited and coached David Price, who was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2007 draft and finished second in voting for the 2010 Cy Young Award as a member of the Tampa Bay Rays. Bakich also hauled in top-25 recruiting classes all seven years, including the top-ranked class in 2005 and the second-ranked class in 2008. From 2008-10, 22 Commodores that Bakich recruited were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Bakich began his college coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Clemson in 2002. There, he worked with the Tigers' outfielders and infielders as well as assisted in Clemson's recruiting efforts. In Bakich's one season at Clemson, the Tigers went 54-17 and advanced to the College World Series.

Bakich had a successful career as a player prior to his coaching career. After transferring from San Jose City College in California, Bakich was a standout for East Carolina in 1999 and 2000. While there, the Pirates won back-to-back Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) championships and earned number-one seeds at NCAA Regionals both years. Bakich was named to the All-Baton Rouge Regional team as a third baseman after earning unanimous all-tournament honors at the Bell South Hurricane Classic in Miami, Fla., earlier in the 1999 season.

He finished his playing career at ECU with a .315 batting average, 14 home runs and 85 RBI. Bakich graduated from East Carolina in 2000 with a degree in exercise and sports science. Upon graduation, Bakich played professionally in the Independent Professional Baseball League until 2001. At the conclusion of his playing career, Bakich returned to East Carolina, where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for one year.

Bakich and his wife, Jiffy, have two sons, Colt and Beau and a daughter, Tempie.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH BAKICH Vanderbilt Head Coach Tim Corbin

"Erik is a tremendous match for Michigan and its athletic department. The kids in that program will really enjoy being around him and feeding off of his personality and teaching ability....he is a winner. Erik understands the higher purpose of being a head coach at an elite academic institution and developing strong core values within that culture. He is also blessed to have a wife (Jiffy) that embraces the opportunities that her husband has and shares in the development of building a healthy collegiate athletic program. I know Erik is very grateful for this opportunity, but Michigan is very fortunate to have him."

Florida Head Coach Kevin O'Sullivan

"Erik is a perfect fit for the University of Michigan and will do great things for the Wolverines. He is a tireless worker and will be very successful leading the Michigan baseball program. Erik's work ethic and attitude will play a key role in developing Michigan's program. I wish him the best of luck in making the Wolverines a perennial contender in the Big Ten Conference."
