FINAL SCORE IOWA 21 IOWA STATE 7

Post game comments by Iowa State University Head Coach Jim Wladen:

"We played a good team. They played well and we didn't. They won. We didn't. So the streak goes continues. Our team played hard. I thought our defense played lights out!

"It will be tough recovering from this, because it's such an emotional game. Our seniors are feeling rotten."

"I feel better about this team than any other team I've had at Iowa State. I'm sorry we got beat. We got beat by a good team.

"We made some wrong decisions in our "reads." But that was a very strong, and a every well coached team we played against today."

"I think I've got as good a line backing corps as there is in the country. I felt real good about our defense. We just kept fightening 'em off and fighting 'em off. But our offense just couldn't get it going."

"About 35 percent of the plays we ran today we've never seen in live action before. I we did anything badly today it was that we deidn't use the 'bone enough. I think we should have used the wishbone on offense a great deal more."

Post game comments by Iowa coach Hayden Fry:

I'd like to congratulate Iowa State on a real fine effort. #40 made tackles all over the field, and Doubrava was outstanding."

"We didn't score as many points as we'd like to have -- I'm not critical that we didn't. But the thing I'm extremely proud of was that we held them to 7 points."

"I really think Iowa State will go on to have a fine season. Thay played hard, ran hard and hit hard."

"Some of the fumbles didn't appear to be fumbles, but what can you do about that?"

"The offensive line graded out better from a consistency standpoint."

"No word on Faley, but it didn't look good to me. We have 4-5 guys needing X-rays but Faley is probably worst of them all."

On their option offense...

"They got 7 points that's all I know. It wasn't any shortcomings from Iowa State, I just think our defense played extremely hard."
