University of Iowa
Women's Gymnastics
Summer Camp '06

General Information

Costs and Cancellation: The fee per session is all inclusive; there are no extra charges. The full tuition is due no later than June 1, 2006. Your fee less the deposit will be refunded without questions if you cancel your enrollment prior to June 1, 2006. Campers who must leave during the week due to illness or injury will receive a prorated refund based on the number of days room and board were required.

Written requests must include the social security number of the person receiving the refund and should be sent to the Sports Camp office, 203 Field House, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242. Requests must be made prior to August 15, 2006. No refund will be given to campers who voluntarily leave camp or who are sent home for disciplinary reasons.

Deposit and Balance: Enroll now! Enrollment will be limited to the first 50 applicants, so send your application form and $50 non-refundable deposit today!

Check-In: The check-in time will be from 1:00 until 3:00pm on Sunday in the Quadrangle Courtyard.

Housing for Residents: Residents are participants who are living in one of the residence halls during camp. There are two campers per room. Room assignments will be made in advance. If you have a roommate preference, write the name of that person on your application form in the designated area. Bedding, which includes sheets, pillow, pillowcase and blanket, are provided. Meals are served in University dining facilities. Trainers and medical personnel are available 24 hours a day.

Commuter Plan: Commuters are participants who attend sessions during the day and stay off campus at night. Lunch is included in the commuter fee. Commuters are welcome to stay for dinner, which can be purchased by showing camp identification and paying for the meal.

Facilities: The North Gym of the Field House is a historic and well-equipped facility that includes the latest in AAI equipment, pit landings for all events, a competition trampoline, rod floor, tumble trak, trench bar, pit bar and spotting belts.

The Coaches

Head Coach:
Head Coach:
Larissa Libby
Larissa Libby

Larissa Libby enters her second season as Head Coach of the Gym-Hawks. With an Olympic berth, two world championship appearances and eight consecutive NCAA National championship appearances, Libby's experiences as a competitor and coach are invaluable. In 2003 Libby earned North Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year accolades from the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women.

Before Joining the Hawkeyes, Libby served four years as the assistant women's coach at Louisiana State University. While at LSU, she produced nine beam All-Americans, the top-ranked beam team in 1999 and helped LSU to four consecutive NCAA championship team appearances.

As a competitive gymnast, Libby was a member of the 1987 Canadian world championship team, where she led the team to its best-ever sixth place finish and achieved Canada's first world vault ranking. Along with world recognition, Libby was also a member of the Canadian Olympic team in 1988. She has earned more than 30 international individual and event medals and was honored as the Canadian Gymnast of the Year in 1989 and 1990.

Tayla Vexler joins the Hawk-eye staff after serving as interim assistant coach for the University of Maryland since November, 2004. She also served as a gymnastics coach and counselor at the University of Georgia gymnastics Camp each summer from 1999-2003 and was an assistant service manager and production supervisor for Cintas Corporation in Lawrenceville Georgia from 2003-2004.

Vexler competed for the University of Georgia (1999-2002), earning NCAA All-American honors in 2000 and 2002. Vexler earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vexler is a breast cancer survivor and helped raise $100,000 for the Athens Regional Breast Health Center.

Jeff Richards joins the Hawkeye staff after serving as the head women's gymnastics coach at Winona State University the past year. He was also the head women's gymnastics coach at the University of Wisconsin-Stout from 1998-2004. Richards led the Blue Devils to their first Nationals appearance in 15 years and earned WIAC

Coach of the year honors for the 1999-2000, and the 2000-20001 seasons, and NCGA Coach of the Year honors for the 1999-2000 Season.

Before making the move to the Midwest Richards was the Assistant coach for Southern Utah University from 1991-1998 where he also earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education.
