Iowa is in the midst of a stretch where it plays seven of eight games at home. The Hawkeyes hosted Kansas April 12 and Indiana April 16 and 17 and will host Michigan this weekend. Iowa defeated Western Illinois at Modern Woodmen Park in Davenport Wednesday night, 14-8. The Hawkeyes are 4-8 at home. Last season, Iowa went 15-6 at home, including 8-4 in Big Ten contests. The Hawkeyes are 85-81 at home in the Jack Dahm era.

The Black and Gold offense pounded out 14 hits, 13 of which were singles. Five Hawkeyes collected multi-hit games against the Leathernecks. Junior Kasey Carling tallied three singles. Senior Trevor Willis went 2-for-5, with a triple and three RBI. Kurt Lee, Bryan Niedbalski and Keith Brand all recorded two singles. Brand also drove in two runs. Phil Keppler earned his first career victory. The junior pitched two and two-thirds, yielding three runs on four hits. He struck out four. Tim Fangman, Jeff Pacha and Davenport native Zach Kenyon silenced the Western Illinois bats, pitching four scoreless innings out of the Iowa bullpen.

INDIANA SERIES RECAP:

The Hawkeyes hosted Indiana in a three-game series last weekend. Iowa dropped two-of-three to the Hoosiers. The Black and Gold fell to Indiana, in a pitchers dual, last Saturday, 2-1. Both starting pitchers, Jarred Hippen of Iowa and Blake Monar of Indiana, went the distance. Hippen took the hard-luck loss for Iowa in his best outing of the season. The junior gave up two runs on eight hits and struck out a season-high seven. Last Sunday, the two teams split a doubleheader. The Hawkeyes won game one, 2-1, before falling in game two, 6-0. Matt Dermody led Iowa to the game one victory. The sophomore pitched the second complete game in as many games for the Hawkeyes.

NOBODY STOPPING DERMODY:

Matt Dermody led Iowa to the game one victory in Iowa's doubleheader against Indiana Sunday at Duane Banks Field. The sophomore pitched the second complete game in as many chances for the Hawkeyes. He won his fourth-straight start, giving up one run on eight hits in his first complete game. The Norwalk, Iowa, native struck out three Hoosiers. Dermody is 4-3 in 2011. As a freshman a year ago, Dermody went 3-2.

BLACK AND GOLD BATS HEATING UP:

The weather has started to heat up, and so have the Hawkeye bats. Iowa has averaged 7.2 runs per game over its last 10 games. The Hawkeyes averaged 4.2 runs over the first 24. Since coming back north over the last month, Iowa has played five games with temperatures over 60 degrees. The Hawkeyes are 3-2 in those games, averaging 10.4 runs over that span.

SCOUTING MICHIGAN:

Michigan, led by ninth-year head coach Rich Maloney, is 11-24 overall and 4-5 in Big Ten play. The Wolverines, who are 3-8 on the road, won two-of-three against Illinois last weekend at home.

ALL-TIME SERIES:

Iowa and Michigan have met 144 times. Michigan owns the all-time advantage, 100-44. The Black and Gold are 9-20 against the Wolverines under Head Coach Jack Dahm.

2010 SERIES RECAP:

The Hawkeyes (14-20, 3-6) entered last year's series with the same record as this season. Iowa took two-of-three from Michigan a year ago in the series. The Black and Gold downed the Maize and Blue in game one behind a stellar effort by starter Jarred Hippen, 5-2. Hippen tossed his second career complete game in the win. The Hawkeyes claimed game two, 5-3, behind a strong outing from starter Nick Brown. Michigan won the rubber match, 7-5, to avoid the sweep.

2010 BIG TEN TOURNAMENT:

The Hawkeyes and Wolverines met twice in the Big Ten Tournament a year ago. Michigan downed Iowa in the second round before the two teams met in the semifinals. The Hawkeyes rallied from a seven-run deficit to stun Michigan, 11-8, at Bill Davis Stadium. Kurt Lee went a perfect 5-for-5 as Iowa pounded out 15 hits to advance to the Big Ten Tournament Championship game.

CIRCLING THE BASE PATHS:

Iowa tallied 19 runs April 3 in its win over Michigan State (19-7). The Hawkeyes recorded season highs in runs and hits (17). Iowa tallied 10 runs in the seventh inning, earning its first conference win of the year. The Hawkeyes' previous high in runs this season was 11 and in hits was 16. The 19 runs mark the most the Hawkeyes have scored since defeating Illinois State in last year's season opener, 19-11. It also marks the most runs Iowa has scored against a conference opponent since defeating Wisconsin in 1989, 22-3. The last time the Hawkeyes scored 10 or more runs in an inning was 1997. Iowa tallied 11 runs in the second inning of an 18-0 win over Truman State.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION:

The Hawkeyes scored 33 runs and pounded out 32 hits in their back-to-back wins over Michigan State (April 3) and Coe College (April 6). The 33 runs mark the most Iowa has scored over two games since the 2009 season when it tallied 35 runs in back-to-back wins over Tennessee-Martin (25-6) and Austin Peay (10-3).

Head Coach Jack Dahm

In seven years as Iowa's head baseball coach, Jack Dahm has established the Hawkeyes as Big Ten contenders and he is ready to lead the Iowa baseball program to new heights with his commitment to excellence.

Since taking over the Iowa baseball team in July of 2003, Dahm has sparked resurgence in the Hawkeye program, enjoying success Hawkeye fans hadn't seen in years.

In Dahm's 17 years as a head coach, he has produced 24 first team all-conference performers, eight freshmen All-Americans and two All-Americans. In his seven years at Iowa, Dahm has coached 27 all-Big Ten selections, including eight first teamers. Iowa had only four first team selections in the previous 14 years before his arrival in Iowa City.

Last season, Iowa finished with a bang, winning 11 of its final 14 contests and eventually finishing 30-28. Dahm coached the Hawkeyes to road series victories at Michigan and Penn State and home sets against Ohio State, Illinois and Purdue. Furthermore, Iowa ultimately won all five meetings against the Boilermakers in 2010, sweeping a three-game regular-season set and winning two in the league tournament.

The Hawkeyes finished third in the conference and ultimately placed second at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament. The tournament berth was the third under Dahm and only the eighth in school history. The Hawkeyes won three games at the tournament, which was the first time an Iowa team had won since 1990. The runner-up finish in the conference tournament tied the school's highest finish, which was accomplished once before (1983).

On the heels of last season's success, the Hawkeyes' 2011 recruiting class was once again rated the best in the Big Ten by Perfect Game USA. The class was ranked fourth-best in the Midwest and 48th-best nationally.

Ten Hawkeyes have been drafted by major league teams the last two years. Thirty-nine of Dahm's players have been selected in the MLB Draft, while four have gone on to play in the big leagues.

On March 21, 2009, in a 9-4 victory over Western Illinois at Duane Banks Field, Dahm surpassed Dick Schultz as the third-most victorious coach in Iowa history. Dahm picked up his 400th win as a Division I coach at North-ern Iowa April 23. He also picked up his 124th victory as Iowa's head coach against Ohio State May 16, which surpassed Scott Broghamer (1998-03) for fourth in Iowa coaching wins.

The 43-year old Dahm and his wife, Lynn, have been married for 16 years. The couple has three children - sons Casey and Tyler and daughter Lyndsey. He was born January 19, 1967 in Skokie, Ill.

THE ASSISTANT COACHES:

Head Coach Jack Dahm is assisted by coach Ryan Brownlee and coach Chris Maliszewski, along with volunteer coach Zach Dillon.

Over the past 10 seasons, 25 players coached or recruited by Brownlee have been drafted; two more signed free agent contracts. In the past two years, Kurtis Muller, Patrick Schatz, Steve Turnbull, Kyle Heim, Mike Schurz and recruits Matt Dermody, Dan Sheppard, Patrick Lala and Taylor Zeutenhorst were drafted by major league teams. In six years of coaching summer collegiate leagues, he has seen 33 of his players sign pro contracts, including Khalil Green and Joe Thatcher of the Padres, Kevin Cash of the Yankees, Dan Meyer of the Marlins and Luke Scott of the Astros.

Last season, the hitting coach preached a 'pitch-by-pitch' approach at the plate that helped propel the Hawkeyes to 11 wins in their final 14 contests; the team eventually finished 30-28. Iowa finished third in the conference and ultimately placed second at the Big Ten Tournament. The tournament berth was the eighth in school history. The Hawkeyes won three games at the tournament, which was the first time an Iowa team had won any game since 1990. The runner up finish in the conference tournament tied the school's highest finish, which was accomplished once before (1983).

Maliszewski is in his third season as the Hawkeye pitching coach. In addition to his role as pitching coach, Maliszewski is also responsible for the team's travel arrangements and assists with the youth summer camps.

In 2010, Maliszewski and his pitching staff helped propel Iowa to a third place finish in the conference, as well as earning the school's eighth Big Ten Tournament appearance. The Hawkeyes finished as the runner-up in the tournament after winning three games -- the first tournament wins for Iowa since 1990.

Maliszewski mentored his young pitching staff to improved numbers in his second campaign. Under his tutelage, the Hawkeyes posted improved numbers in wins, ERA, saves, walks, wild pitches and opposing batting average. Iowa's talented arms helped the Hawkeyes to a late surge, winning 11 of their last 14 games. Individually, pitcher Jarred Hippen was named to the all-tournament team, as well as garnering second team all-league accolades. In addition to Hippen's accomplishments, closer Kevin Lee broke the school single-season record with 13 saves - nearly double the saves Iowa had as a team in 2009.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT TICKETS:

All-Tournament passes and group tickets to the 2011 Big Ten Baseball Tournament to be held May 25-28 at Huntington Park, home of the Triple-A Columbus Clippers, will go on sale to the general public on Friday, April 15, the Big Ten Conference and the Greater Columbus Sports Commission announced today.

All-Tournament passes are available for $100 each. Group tickets (minimum 20) are available for $7 per ticket. All tickets are available at www.ColumbusSports.org, www.bigten.org and www.ticketmaster.com. Information on individual game tickets will be announced in May.

The Big Ten Conference, the Greater Columbus Sports Commission and Huntington Park will host the tournament for the third straight year as a neutral-site event. The tournament was held at Huntington Park in 2009, marking the conference's first neutral-site baseball tournament since 1994 and returns after being held at Ohio State's Bill Davis Stadium in 2010. The 2009 tournament drew more than 12,000 fans, marking the tournament's largest total in at least the previous decade.

The tournament bracket is set to be announced on the evening of Saturday, May 21, which is the final scheduled day of regular-season competition. The Big Ten Baseball Tournament is a double-elimination event that awards byes to the top two teams. The Big Ten Champion is the team or teams that finish atop the regular-season standings, while the Big Ten Tournament Champion receives the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

Last year at the Big Ten Tournament, the Hawkeyes bounced Purdue from the six-team tournament with two victories over the Boilermakers and rallied from a seven-run deficit to stun second-seeded Michigan in the semifinals. Iowa reached the championship game for the first time since 1983. Iowa ultimately fell to the well-rested and top-seeded Minnesota team in the title game.

ON THE HORIZON:

Iowa will play one midweek game next week. The Hawkeyes will travel to Lincoln, Neb., to battle future Big Ten conference opponent Nebraska. First pitch is set for 6:05 p.m.

The Hawkeyes will then travel to Minneapolis, Minn., to play Minnesota in a three-game series at Target Field, the home of the Minnesota Twins.
