TIME & PLACE - - 11:01 a.m. (CDT), Saturday, Nov. 5th, Kinnick Stadium (70,585), Iowa City, Iowa.

TICKETS - - The game is sold out.

RADIO - - (Originating Network): Learfield Communications with a network of over 40 stations. Gary Dolphin and Ed Podolak will call the action, along with sideline reporter Rob Brooks. The game can also be heard on Sirius (113) and XM (194) satellite radio.

TELEVISION - - The game will be televised to a national audience by ESPN. The announcers are Dave Pasch, Chris Spielman and sideline reporter Quint Kessenich.

2011 RECORDS - - Iowa is 5-3 after victories over Tennessee Tech (34-7), Pittsburgh (31-27), Louisiana-Monroe (45-17), Northwestern (41-31) and Indiana (45-24), and losses at Iowa State (44-41, 3OT), at Penn State (13-3) and at Minnesota (22-21).

Michigan is 7-1 with wins over Western Michigan (34-10), Notre Dame (35-31), Eastern Michigan (31-3), San Diego State (28-7), Minnesota (58-0), Northwestern (42-24) and Purdue (36-14), and a loss at Michigan State (28-14).

THE SERIES - - This is the 57th meeting between the two schools in football. Michigan leads the all-time series by a 40-12-4 margin. Iowa has won the last two games in the series, including last year's 38-28 contest at Ann Arbor. Iowa has never won three straight in the series. Michigan's last win in the series came in 2006 (20-6) at Ann Arbor. The last Wolverine win at Iowa City came in 2005 (23-20), in overtime. That win by Michigan stopped a 22-game home winning streak by the Hawkeyes. Michigan leads the series (16-5-1) in games played at Iowa City.

COACHING RECORDS - - Kirk Ferentz is in his 16th year as a college head coach and his 13th year as Iowa's head coach. His career record is 106-84 and he is 94-63 at Iowa. He is 4-4 vs Michigan. Ferentz is 39-18 in non-conference games at Iowa.

Brady Hoke is in his first year at Michigan and ninth year as a collegiate head coach. He has a career record of 54-52 and is 7-1 with the Wolverines.

NEXT WEEK - - Michigan State at Iowa (TBA). Michigan at Illinois (TBA).

IOWA HOSTS MICHIGAN

Iowa (5-3, 2-2) hosts Michigan (7-1, 3-1) Saturday in the first of consecutive home games to close out the home season. Game time is 11:01 a.m. CT in Kinnick Stadium (70,585). The game is sold out. The Hawkeyes have defeated Tennessee Tech (34-7), Pittsburgh (31-27), Louisiana-Monroe (45-17), Northwestern (41-31) and Indiana (45-24), all in Kinnick Stadium. Iowa was defeated, 44-41 in three overtimes, at Iowa State, at Penn State 13-3 and at Minnesota, 22-21.

Michigan owns wins over Western Michigan (34-10), Notre Dame (35-31), Eastern Michigan (31-3), San Diego State (28-7), Minnesota (58-0), Northwestern (42-24) and Purdue (36-14). Michigan's only loss was a 28-14 decision at Michigan State.

ON THE TUBE

ESPN (HD) will televise the contest to a national cable audience. Dave Pasch, Chris Spielman and Quint Kessenich will call the action.

RADIO BROADCAST

Iowa games are broadcast on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Gary Dolphin handles the play-by-play, with color commentator Ed Podolak and sideline reporter Rob Brooks. The Hawkeye Radio Network includes more than 40 stations throughout the state.

The game can also be heard on Sirius channel 113 and XM channel 194.

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,150 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 592-519-39 (.532). That includes a 375-201-16 (.647) record in home games, a 217-318-23 (.409) record in games away from Iowa City, a 291-350-25 (.456) mark in Big Ten games and a 258-165-15 (.606) record in Kinnick Stadium.

IN THE RANKINGS

Michigan is ranked 13th in both the Associated Press and coaches poll. Iowa, this weekend, is playing its first game this season against a ranked opponent. The Hawkeyes have remaining games with ranked foes Michigan State and Nebraska.

Around the Big Ten, Nebraska is ranked 9/9 (AP/Coaches), Michigan State is 15/16, Penn State is 16/15 and Wisconsin is 19/17. Ohio State is listed among teams receiving votes in both polls.

In the third BCS rankings, Nebraska is 10th, followed by Michigan (15), Penn State (16), Michigan State 17th and Wisconsin (20).

COKER EARNS RUSHING HONOR

Sophomore RB Marcus Coker was named the national Running Back of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's 22-21 loss at Minnesota. Coker rushed 32 times for a career-best 252 yards against the Gophers, scoring on two one-yard runs. Coker's previous career best was 219 yards (33 carries) vs. Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl.

The 252 rushing yards ranks third best for a single game, behind Tavian Banks (29-314 vs. Tulsa, 1997) and Ed Podolak (17-286, Northwestern, 1968). Coker joins Banks (314 and 204), Sedrick Shaw (250 and 214) and Shonn Greene (217 and 211) as the only Iowa running backs to gain over 200 yards in more than one game.

Coker's efforts against Minnesota included a season-best 50-yard run in the first quarter. His season totals now include 182 attempts for 969 yards and 10 touchdowns. The 10 touchdowns tie as the seventh best season total in Iowa history. Shonn Greene in 2008 (307-1,850-20 TDs) is Iowa's most recent running back to gain over 1,000 yards in a season.

HAWKEYES EARN WEEKLY HONORS

- Several Iowa players have earned weekly honors this season:
- RB Marcus Coker was named national Running Back of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for his play at Minnesota. Coker rushed 32 times for 252 yards and two scores against the Gophers.
 - WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. was named Big Ten co-offensive Player of the Week for his play in Iowa's win over Indiana. McNutt, Jr. had six receptions for 184 yards and three touchdowns (80, 24 and 29 yards). He became Iowa's career leader in touchdown receptions (24) with the 80-yard reception.

HAWKEYE GAMEDAY LIVE

The UI Department of Athletics has a new-and-improved "Hawkeye Gameday Live" page each Saturday for Hawkeye fans in 2011. - QB James Vandenberg was named honorable mention Quarterback of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's win over Indiana. Vandenberg completed 12-16 passes for 253 yards and a career-high four touchdowns vs. the Hoosiers. Vandenberg has 16 touchdown passes in seven games.
- Sophomore DB Tanner Miller was named national Defensive Back of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's win over Northwestern. Miller collected the first interception of his career in the first quarter and returned the theft 98 yards for a touchdown. Miller recorded a career-high eight tackles in the game, including five solo stops. The 98-yard return ties Iowa's record for longest interception return. Miller was also nominated for the GEICO Play of the Year. Fans vote for the GEICO Play of the Year, with the winner being announced on GEICO Best of College Football 2011 (Nov. 25, 1:30 p.m. ET, CBS).
- Junior DB Micah Hyde earned honorable mention honors from the College Football Performance Award for his play at Penn State. Hyde had his third interception of the season in the second half, stopping a PSU drive inside the Iowa red zone. Hyde was also credited with eight tackles, including one tackle for loss, and two pass break-ups.
- Senior DL Tom Nardo was named Big Ten Conference defensive Player of the Week for his play in Iowa's 45-17 win over Louisiana-Monroe on Sept. 24. The Big Ten honor is the first for Nardo. Nardo recorded a career-high 12 tackles (six solo, six assists), including two tackles for loss and a shared QB sack.
- Junior QB James Vandenberg earned honorable mention honors from the College Football Performance Awards for his play vs. Louisiana-Monroe. Vandenberg completed 21-32 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns in Iowa's 45-17 win. His scoring strikes covered 13, 17 and 23 yards and he scored on a one-yard run.
- Senior P Eric Guthrie received honorable mention honors from the College Football Performance Awards for his play vs. Louisiana-Monroe. Guthrie averaged 48 yards on his two punts vs. ULM. He has at least one punt of 50 yards or more in three straight games.
- QB James Vandenberg was named Big Ten Conference offensive Player of the Week for his play in leading Iowa to a 31-27 win over Pittsburgh. The Big Ten honor is the first for Vandenberg. He led Iowa's second half rally against Pittsburgh, rushing for one touchdown and throwing three touchdown passes in the final 17 minutes. His totals against Pitt included 31-48 passes for 399 yards and three touchdowns, with one interception.
- QB James Vandenberg was one of eight quarterbacks named by the Manning Award as its "Stars of the Week" following Iowa's win over Pittsburgh. The award was established by the Allstate Sugar Bowl in 2004. Vandenberg has also been nominated for the Quarterback Performance of the Year honor, which is also based on fan voting.
- QB James Vandenberg earned honorable mention recognition for quarterbacks from the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's win over Pittsburgh.
- Junior DB Micah Hyde earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's 31-27 win over Pittsburgh. Hyde collected two interceptions, the second coming with 1:41 remaining in the game to end Pitt's final possession. Hyde also had 10 tackles, including nine solo stops.

- Sophomore PK Mike Meyer was named national Placekicker of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for his play in Iowa's 44-41 three-overtime loss at Iowa State. Meyer was also one of three kickers to earn "Stars of the Week" recognition from the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award. Meyer made all four field goal attempts, connecting from 42, 20, 50 and 34 yards. The 50-yard kick is a career best and the 34-yard effort came in the third overtime period.
- Sophomore LB Christian Kirksey earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his play at Iowa State. He had a career-high 13 tackles at Iowa State, including 11 solo stops, two tackles for loss and a QB sack. He also caused and recovered an Iowa State fumble while making a tackle and had one pass break-up.
- Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his play in wins over Tennessee Tech and Indiana. McNutt, Jr. had six receptions for 140 yards and two touchdowns in the opening win and added six catches for 184 yards and three scores in the win over Indiana.
- Senior DB Shaun Prater earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his play against Tennessee Tech. Prater had an 89-yard touchdown return in Iowa's win, the fifth longest on school history.

MCNUTT, JR. SETS SCORING RECORD

Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. set the Iowa record for career touchdown receptions with an 80-yard touchdown in the first quarter of Iowa's 45-24 win over Indiana (Oct. 22). He added two more scores against the Hoosiers and had one touchdown reception in a loss at Minnesota.

McNutt, Jr. has 25 career scoring receptions, breaking the previous mark of 21, held by Tim Dwight (1994-97) and Danan Hughes (1989-92). McNutt, Jr. had seven receptions for 101 yards at Minnesota, raising his career totals to 136 receptions for 2,404 yards. McNutt, Jr. ranks seventh in career receptions and second in career yards. He has at least 100 yards receiving in five of eight games in 2011 and is just 212 yards from becoming Iowa's career leader in yardage. He had 184 receiving yards (six catches) vs. Indiana, the eight best single-game total at Iowa.

For the season, McNutt, Jr. has 48 receptions for 858 yards (17.9 avg.) and nine scores. He is averaging 18.5 yards per reception and has 13 catches of 20 yards or more. His 858 yards ranks 11th best for a single season, just three yards shy of his 2010 total (53-861). McNutt, Jr. had eight receiving touchdowns in both 2009 and 2010. The Iowa record for touchdown receptions in a season is 11.

HAWKEYES EARN MIDSEASON RECOGNITION

Fourteen Hawkeye players were named to Phil Steele's College Football midseason all-Big Ten team. Senior DB Shaun Prater was the only Iowa player named to the first team. Those earning second team recognition included sophomore RB Marcus Coker and senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. on offense, senior DE Broderick Binns and sophomore LB James Morris on defense, and senior punter Eric Guthrie and sophomore PK Mike Meyer. Third team recognition was given to junior WR Keenan Davis, junior center James Ferentz, junior tackle Riley Reiff on offense and senior tackle Mike Daniels, sophomore linebacker Christian Kirksey, junior cornerback Micah Hyde and senior safety Jordan Bernstine on defense. Iowa and Wisconsin led all teams with 14 players named to the three teams.

IOWA LEADERSHIP GROUP

Iowa's Leadership Group for the 2011 season includes four seniors, five juniors, four sophomores, one redshirt freshman and one true freshman. Permanent team captains are named at the conclusion of each season.

Head Coach Kirk Ferentz

Kirk Ferentz (pronounced FAIR-rintz, rhymes with parents) is in his 13th season as head football coach at the University of Iowa. His latest contract extension runs through the 2020 season.

Ferentz was named the 2009 Dave McClain Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year. He was one of 15 semi-finalists for the 2009 George Munger Award, presented by the Maxwell Football Club to the College Coach of the Year. He was the 2009 AFCA Region Three Coach of the Year and one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual national Coach of the Year.

Ferentz was honored as the 2002 Associated Press and Walter Camp National Coach of the Year and was the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2002 as well. He was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year in 2002, 2004 and 2009. Ferentz guided Iowa to Big Ten titles in 2002 and 2004.

Iowa has made two BCS bowl appearances, including a 24-14 win in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa has played in six January bowl games and has four January bowl victories (2004 Outback Bowl, 2005 Capital One Bowl, 2009 Outback Bowl and 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl). Iowa has posted a 90-44 (.672) overall mark and a 52-32 (.619) Big Ten record the last 10-plus seasons. Ferentz has guided Iowa to nine first division finishes, including a second-place finish in 2009. Iowa was bowl eligible in 2010 for the 10th straight season.

The Hawkeyes are 6-3 in bowl games under Ferentz. His six bowl wins tie as third most among all-time Big Ten coaches and he has led Iowa to three straight bowl victories.

At Iowa, Ferentz holds an overall record of 94-63 (.599) and a 55-45 (.550) mark in Big Ten games. In his 16th season as a college head coach, he holds a career mark of 106-84 (.558).

Sixty of Iowa's 157 games under Ferentz have been decided by seven points or less (27-33) and 46 were played against opponents who were ranked in the top 25 at the time (20-26).

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. He was part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) staff for six years.

Ferentz was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years. Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). He coordinated Iowa's running game during his first coaching stint at Iowa. Iowa appeared in eight bowl games while Ferentz was an Iowa assistant.

Ferentz was born in Royal Oak, Mich., and attended high school in Pittsburgh, Pa. He earned his bachelor's degree in English Education from Connecticut in 1978, where he was a football captain. Kirk received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Neag School of Education at the University of Connecticut in May, 2009. He was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002 and the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May, 2003.

IOWA IN NCAA STATS

As a team, Iowa is sixth nationally in fewest penalty yards per game (33.6), tied for 11th in fewest turnovers (nine) and fewest penalties per game (4.2), tied for 12th in net punting (43.0), 13th in punt return defense (4.2), tied for 16th in red zone defense (72%) and 27th in red zone offense (88%).

Individually, RB Marcus Coker is ninth in rushing yards per game (121.1), WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. is 12th in receiving yards per game (107.3), LB James Morris is 10th in tackles per game (10.9) and 17th in solo tackles (5.5), LB Christian Kirksey is tied for 15th in solo tackles (5.6) and 27th in tackles per game (9.5), QB James Vandenberg is 15th in pass efficiency (155.2), PK Mike Meyer is tied for 19th in field goals per game (1.5) and DB Micah Hyde is tied for 27th with three interceptions.

All Iowa team and individual statistical rankings, both in the Big Ten and the NCAA, can be found as a side bar within the weekly game notes.

FERENTZ SIXTH IN LONGEVITY

Now in his 13th season as Iowa's head football coach, Kirk Ferentz ranks sixth in longevity among FBS head coaches. Ferentz is second among Big Ten coaches and nationally ranks behind Penn State's Joe Paterno, Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech, Larry Blakeney of Troy, Pat Hill of Fresno State and Mack Brown of Texas.

IOWA STAFF HAS STAYED TOGETHER

The Iowa coaching staff (nine full-time assistants and head strength and conditioning coach) has 110 years of combined years of service under Coach Kirk Ferentz, which ranks fifth in the nation behind Joe Paterno (Penn State), Gary Pinkel (Toledo/Missouri), Frank Beamer (Murray State/Virginia Tech) and Jim Grobe (Elon/Wake Forest).

MICHIGAN COACH BRADY HOKE

Brady Hoke is in his first season as the Michigan head coach and his ninth year as a college head coach. Hoke holds a career mark of 54-51, including a 7-1 mark at Michigan. He most recently was the head coach at San Diego State, posting a 13-12 mark in two seasons. He was the head coach at Ball State for six years, posting a 34-38 record.

Hoke previously was a Michigan assistant (1995-02), helping the Wolverines win three Big Ten titles and the 1997 national title while posting a 76-23 mark during those years. He was named the 2010 Mountain West Coach of the Year after leading San Diego State to a 9-4 record. His final team at Ball State won a school-record 12 games while posting a perfect league record.

Prior to his stint as a Michigan assistant, Hoke served as an assistant coach at Grand Valley State, Western Michigan, Toledo and Oregon State.

NOTES AND CONNECTIONS

- Iowa and Michigan are tied for 27th in the nation in red zone offense (88%), with both teams scoring points on 29 of 33 red zone possessions.
- Michigan leads the nation in red zone defense (59%, 13-22), while Iowa is tied for 16th at 72% (26-36).

- Iowa RB Marcus Coker leads the Big Ten and ranks ninth in the nation in rushing yards per game (121.1), while Michigan QB Denard Robinson is fifth in the Big Ten and 17th in the nation.
- The last six Iowa-Michigan games were televised by ABC, including a primetime contest in 2009.
- Iowa's highest victory over a ranked opponent was against second-ranked Michigan (12-10) on Oct. 19, 1985 in Kinnick Stadium. Iowa was ranked No. 1 at that time. Last season marked the first time since 1985 that Iowa was ranked higher than Michigan when the teams met.
- Iowa has three players on its roster from the state of Michigan, including WR Kevonte Martin-Manley, DL Carl Davis and TE Jake Duzey. There are no Iowans on the Michigan roster.
- Two current Hawkeyes were born during the week of Oct. 30-Nov. 5, including FB Jacob Reisen (Nov. 1) and OL Brett Van Sloten (Nov. 2).
- Erik Campbell, in his fourth year as Iowa's wide receiver coach, is a Michigan graduate and a four-year letterman (1984-87). Campbell was on the Michigan coaching staff from 1995-07 after serving as a student assistant coach in 1988.
- Michigan assistant Greg Mattison is the father of former Iowa DL Bryan Mattison. He was also the defensive coordinator at Florida when the Gators defeated Iowa 31-24 in the 2006 Outback Bowl and previously served on the Michigan staff from 1993-97.
- Michigan Coach Brady Hoke was the head coach at Ball State when Iowa defeated the Cardinals 56-0 in the opening game of the 2005 season at Iowa City. Hoke was an assistant at Michigan for eight seasons (1995-02), helping the Wolverines post a 3-1 record against Iowa during that time. Hoke's first year on the Wolverine staff was also the first year for Erik Campbell on the Michigan Staff. Campbell is now Iowa's wide receivers coach.
- Michigan assistant Jerry Montgomery was a four-year letterman (1998-2001) as a defensive lineman at Iowa, playing his final three seasons under Coach Kirk Ferentz.
- Michigan assistants Jeff Hecklinski and Mark Smith were on the staff at Ball State in 2005 when Iowa defeated the Cardinals 56-0.
- Michigan assistant Al Borges was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana in 2002-03.
- Michigan assistant Curt Mallory is the son of former Indiana Coach Bill Mallory. Curt has also coached at Indiana and Illinois before returning to Michigan, his alma mater.

THE SERIES

Michigan holds a 40-12-4 advantage in the series that began with a 28-5 Iowa win in 1900. Iowa has won the last two meetings and four of the last seven, but the Hawkeyes have never won three straight over the Wolverines. Iowa won 38-28 last year in Ann Arbor and prevailed 31-28 in Kinnick Stadium in 2009.

The first meeting between the two teams was played in Detroit and the second in Chicago. Iowa and Michigan did not play in 2007 and 2008 and the Wolverines won three straight from 2004-06.

Michigan holds a 16-5-1 record in Iowa City. Iowa has won two of the last three meetings at Iowa City (2003 and 2009). The Wolverines won 23-20 in overtime at Kinnick Stadium in 2005, ending Iowa's school-record 22-game home winning streak. Here are the series results:

 24-14 over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech, Orange Bowl, 1/5/10

IOWA VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

Iowa posted a 4-3 record while facing seven ranked opponents in 2010, the most for a Kirk Ferentz coached Hawkeye team. Iowa played six ranked teams in 1999 and 2003. The four wins over ranked teams are the most for Iowa since posting a 4-2 record vs. six ranked opponents in 2003.

Three of Iowa's seven opponents were ranked in the top 10, while Missouri was 12th. Iowa lost to No. 10 Wisconsin (31-30), defeated No. 5 Michigan State (37-6) and lost to No. 7 Ohio State (20-17), all in Kinnick Stadium. In 2009, Iowa defeated No. 4 Penn State and No. 9 Georgia Tech, while losing at No. 8 Ohio State in overtime.

With the 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State (10/30/10), Iowa has recorded a victory over a top-five ranked team in each of the last three seasons. Iowa defeated fourth-ranked Penn State (21-10) on the road in 2009 and defeated the third-ranked Nittany Lions (24-23) in Kinnick Stadium in 2008.

Along with defeating Michigan State, Iowa defeated Missouri (#12), Penn State (#20) and Michigan (#24). Along with losses to Wisconsin and Ohio State, Iowa lost at No. 18 Arizona.

In Big Ten play, Iowa's eight opponents posted an overall record of 62-34 during the regular season. Iowa did not play Illinois and Purdue.

HAWKEYES WON IN ANN ARBOR

Iowa took advantage of Michigan turnovers in building a 28-7 advantage and held on during a wild fourth quarter to defeat the 24th-ranked Wolverines 38-28 in Ann Arbor, Oct. 16, 2010. Michigan drove 75 yards for a touchdown on its first possession to take a 7-0 advantage. Iowa answered later in the first period with a 14-yard scoring pass from QB Ricky Stanzi to WR Derrell Johnson-Koulianos to tie the score after one period.

Iowa took the lead for good early in the second period on a 31-yard scoring strike from Stanzi to Johnson-Koulianos. Iowa's scoring opportunity followed an interception and 36 yard return by DB Tyler Sash.

Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series

The Cy-Hawk Series is in its eighth season in 2011-12, being sponsored for the first time by Iowa Corn. Iowa State leads the 2011-12 series, 5-2, with wins in volleyball and football. Iowa won the women's soccer game, 4-1.

Iowa leads the overall series 4-3 in the in-state competition against Iowa State that began in 2004-05. Iowa captured the Cy-Hawk Series a year ago by a 15-11 margin.

Last season, Iowa captured victories in football, women's soccer, wrestling, women's basketball, women's swimming and diving and softball. ISU recorded wins in volleyball, men's and women's cross country and men's basketball. The women's gymnastics teams split.

Iowa captured the inaugural Cy-Hawk Series (13-8) in 2004-05 and won again in 2006-07 (13-8), 2008-09 (21-4) and 2010-11 (15-11). Iowa State won the competition in 2005-06 (13-8) and 2007-08 (18-9) and 2009-10 (16-11).

The 12-event series awards two points (except football, which is worth three) to the winning school in each head-to-head match-up between the two institutions. Additionally, two points are awarded to an institution if the graduation rate of its student-athletes is greater than the national average as reported each fall by the NCAA.

A commemorative Cy-Hawk Series Cup, which stands 31 inches tall and weighs 19 pounds, is displayed on the winning team's campus for an entire year after a victory. Replica cups are also presented as "traveling trophies" for individual victorious teams in the head-to-head competition.

This season's Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series schedule is listed below. All events are worth two points, except football, which is worth three points:

Academic Opportunities

Two points for an institution if the student-athlete graduation rate for all student-athletes is greater than the national average for all student-athletes, according to the annual graduation rate report issued each September/October by the NCAA.

Michigan seemed poised to cut into the Iowa advantage later in the second period, but a field goal attempt was blocked by DE Adrian Clayborn and Sash returned the kick to the Michigan 48. Iowa RB Adam Robinson would later score on a four-yard run to give Iowa a 21-7 advantage and that was the score at the break.

Michigan had the first scoring threat of the third period, driving inside the Iowa 20. DL Karl Klug forced a Michigan fumble and DE Lebron Daniel made the recovery. Iowa took advantage of the turnover, driving to the Michigan 11-yard line, where Robinson rushed for his second touchdown.

Michigan closed the gap to 28-14 early in the fourth period, but Iowa responded with a four play, 60-yard scoring drive to restore the 21-point advantage. The score came on a 19-yard pass from Stanzi to Johnson-Koulianos.

Michigan closed the gap again, scoring consecutive touchdowns in a four minute stretch to trail 35-28 with 6:55 remaining. Iowa took over and controlled the ball for just over four minutes, concluding the drive with a Mike Meyer 30-yard field goal.

Michigan's final possession ended with a pass interception by LB Troy Johnson, as Iowa claimed its fourth turnover of the day. DB Micah Hyde joined Sash and Johnson with an interception.

Stanzi had an efficient day in leading the Iowa offense, completing 17-24 passes for 248 yards and three scores, with no interceptions. Robinson added 143 rushing yards on 31 carries and added 61 yards on four receptions. Stanzi was named offensive Player of the Week in the Big Ten.

Johnson and LB Jeremiha Hunter led the Hawkeye defense with 13 tackles each. DB Shaun Prater added nine stops.

MINNESOTA RALLY TOPS IOWA

Minnesota scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to rally for a 22-21 win over Iowa in Minneapolis. The Gophers scored the winning points on a fourth down, three-yard run with 2:48 remaining in the game. Iowa's defense held Minnesota out of the end zone on the two-point conversion attempt, but the Hawkeyes were unable to move into field goal position on their last possession.

Iowa dominated much of the game, but the Hawkeyes were able to convert just three of six red zone possessions into points. The Hawkeyes missed two field goals in the first half before taking a 7-0 advantage on a 12-yard pass from QB James Vandenberg to WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. The play completed a 53-yard scoring drive following a fumble recovery by DB Jordan Bernstine. Minnesota answered with a touchdown with 1:13 left in the half, leaving the score tied at seven at the midway point.

Iowa drove 63 yards on its first possession of the second half, taking a 14-7 lead on a one-yard run by RB Marcus Coker. After the Iowa defense forced a second straight three-and-out, the Hawkeyes seemed poised for another score after reaching the Gopher 14. But a Vandenberg fumble was recovered by the Gophers and Minnesota drove to a 28-yard field goal.

Iowa increased its advantage on its following possession, covering 71 yards in just seven plays. Vandenberg completed a 12-yard pass to OL Woody Orne (tackle eligible) on third down before Coker scored his second touchdown from the one, and Iowa led 21-10 with 13:51 to play.

Minnesota closed the gap to 21-16 with 8:22 remaining, driving 80 yards in 11 plays. The two-point conversion failed, but Minnesota kept momentum by recovering an onside kick to maintain possession. The Gophers drove to fourth down at the three, where QB MarQueis Gray scored the winning points.

Iowa's offense dominated much of the first three quarters. Despite just seven offensive plays in the final quarter, Iowa gained 446 yards total offense and had just one punt. Minnesota gained 371 yards total offense, with 155 yards coming in the final period. In addition, 100 of Minnesota's 193 passing yards came on two long completions that led to 10 Gopher points.

Coker led the Iowa offense with 32 attempts for 252 yards and the two scores. The yardage ranks as the third best single-game total in school history. Vandenberg completed 16-24 passes for 177 yards and a touchdown, with no interceptions. McNutt, Jr. led Hawkeye receivers with seven receptions for 101 yards.

LB James Morris matched a career best with 13 tackles to lead the defense. DB Tanner Miller, LB Christian Kirksey and LB Tyler Nielsen each added six stops and DB Shaun Prater had his third caused fumble of the year.

EXTRA POINTS VS. MINNESOTA

- Sophomore RB Marcus Coker led the Iowa rushing attack with 32 carries for a career-high 252 yards. The 252 yards rank third best by an Iowa running back in a single game. The 32 rush attempts tie as the 10th most in a single game by a Hawkeye (Coker had 33 carries vs. Missouri at the 2010 Insight Bowl). Coker scored on two one-yard runs in the second half. He has scored two touchdowns in five games in his career, including the last three games, and has 10 this season.
- Coker surpassed 100 rushing yards for the fifth time this season and for the seventh time in his career. He had a season-best 50-yard run and had a 40-yarder as well while rushing 19 times for 187 yards in the first half. He surpassed 200 yards for the second time in his career, as he had a career-best 33 carries for 219 yards against Missouri at the 2010 Insight Bowl.
- Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. had his ninth touchdown reception of the season and fifth in three games, on a 12-yard catch in the second quarter. The score was his 25th career receiving touchdown. The nine scoring receptions in a season ranks fourth at Iowa. Maurice Brown had 11 scoring receptions in 2002 and Quinn Early (1987) and Derrell Johnson-Koulianos (2010) each had 10 in a season. McNutt, Jr. had eight scoring receptions in both 2009 and 2010.
- McNutt, Jr. had seven receptions for 101 yards against Minnesota and now has 136 career receptions for 2,404 yards. McNutt, Jr. now ranks seventh in career receptions and second in career yards. He has at least 100 yards receiving in five of eight games in 2011. For the season, McNutt, Jr. has 48 receptions for 858 yards (17.9 avg.) and nine scores.

- Iowa did not score on its opening possession for the fourth time in eight games. Iowa scored a touchdown on its opening drive vs. Iowa State, ULM and Indiana and a field goal vs. Northwestern.
- Minnesota did not score on its first possession. Iowa has allowed four opponents to score on their opening drive, including three field goals and a touchdown. Iowa has allowed 20 first-quarter points in eight games. Iowa has allowed 12 opponents to score on their opening drive in its last 47 games.
- Iowa's two missed field goals in the first half marked just the second and third times this season Iowa did not score after reaching the red zone. Iowa scored points on 26-27 trips inside the red zone in its first seven games.
- Senior DB Shaun Prater had his third forced fumble of the season in the second quarter, leading to an Iowa touchdown. Senior DB Jordan Bernstine recovered the fumble, the first of his career.
- Sophomore WR Jordan Cotton saw the first action of his career, and had a four-yard reception on Iowa's opening drive.
- Redshirt freshman WR Kevonte Martin-Manley started for the second time this season. Junior WR Keenan Davis, who had started Iowa's first seven games, did not play. Martin-Manley had five catches for 35 yards at Minnesota.
- Senior Tyler Nielsen returned to the starting line-up after missing last week. DL Steve Bigach started for the third straight week.
- LB James Morris equaled a personal best with 13 tackles, accomplishing the feat for the fourth time.
- Redshirt freshman OL Brandon Scherff started for the first time at left guard. He has seen action in seven of eight games this season.
- DL Tom Nardo missed his third straight game and LB Anthony Hitchens has now missed four straight games.
- Senior OL Woody Orne has been used as an eligible receiver/third tackle in recent games. He had the first reception of his career in the fourth quarter, a 12-yard reception to the one-yard line that led to Iowa's third touchdown.
- Minnesota's win marks just the second time in 105 meetings in this series that the Gophers have won by a single point. The Gophers beat the Hawkeyes 14-13 in 1964.
- Junior QB James Vandenberg completed 16-24 passes for 177 yards and one score. He has 17 touchdown passes this season, with 11 of the 17 covering 20 yards or more. He had four touchdown passes against Indiana and three in wins over Pittsburgh and Louisiana-Monroe.
- Instant replay was used in the second period. A Minnesota fumble was recovered by Iowa. The call on the field was upheld. In the third period, a Minnesota completion was challenged by Iowa, but the call on the field was upheld.

MICHIGAN STOPS PURDUE

Michigan allowed an early touchdown by Purdue, but took control soon after in rolling to a 36-14 win over the Boilermakers in Ann Arbor. The Wolverines tied the game midway through the first period on a two-yard run by QB Denard Robinson and took a 9-7 lead early in the second period when Mike Martin recorded a sack in the end zone for a safety. The Wolverines added two field goals and a two-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald Toussaint later in the period for a 22-7 halftime advantage.

Michigan added a 59-yard touchdown by Toussaint in the third period and a 37-yard run by Michael Shaw in the fourth to increase the margin to 36-7 before Purdue added a final score in the closing seconds.

The Wolverines gained 339 rushing yards as part of their 535 yards total offense. Toussaint led the rushing game with 170 yards on 20 carries. Robinson had 63 rushing yards while also completing 9-14 passes for 170 yards. Jeremy Gallon led Michigan's receivers with 79 yards on three receptions.

Michigan's defense held Purdue to just 311 yards total offense, including 89 net rushing yards. Desmond Morgan led Michigan with nine tackles, while Martin had seven tackles, including two QB sacks.

BRETT GREENWOOD FOUNDATION ESTABLISHED

Former Iowa DB Brett Greenwood (2007-10) collapsed during a routine workout in early September. His heart stopped due to an abnormal heart-rhythm, which resulted in injuries to his brain. Brett is recovering and working hard to regain his strength and mobility.

Many have expressed a desire to support Brett in a tangible way. As a result, the Brett Greenwood Foundation has been established to accept contributions that will be used to directly support Brett as he continues to recover.

Individuals who would like to contribute to the Brett Greenwood Foundation can make a donation at any of the 74 Wells Fargo banking stores in Iowa or the 6,300 locations across the nation. Donations also can be made online at www.brettgreenwoodfoundation.com or by mail at attn: Brett Greenwood Foundation, Wells Fargo, 2001 Spruce Hills Dr., Bettendorf, Iowa, 52722.

HIGH SCORING FOURTH QUARTER

Iowa's 24 points in the fourth quarter of the 41-31 win over Northwestern matched the highest scoring quarter of the season. Iowa scored 24 points in the second quarter in the 34-7 season-opening win over Tennessee Tech. Iowa has not scored more than 24 points in any quarter since the 2009 season, when it scored 28 points in the final quarter of a 42-24 win over Indiana. Iowa, twice, scored 21 points in a quarter during the 2010 season and added 21 points in the second quarter of the most recent win over Indiana.

IOWA EFFICIENT IN FOURTH

Iowa's offense was efficient in the fourth quarter of a 41-31 win over Northwestern on Oct. 15. The Hawkeyes scored points on four straight drives after the score was tied at 17 and ended the game at the Wildcat 15-yard line. Iowa drove 64 yards in 11 plays to take a 24-17 lead and later moved 71 yards in just three plays for a 14-point advantage. The Hawkeyes added a field goal after a Northwestern fumble and added their final points on a 24-yard drive after recovering an on-side kick.

EFFICIENCY CONTINUED...

Iowa scored touchdowns on all five first half possessions in the win over Indiana and added a field goal on its first drive of the third quarter. Dating back to the Northwestern game the previous week, Iowa scored on 10 of 11 possessions in the two games, with the only non-scoring drive coming at the conclusion of the Northwestern game when Iowa reached the Wildcat 15-yard line as time expired in the 41-31 win.

Against Indiana, Iowa's opening drive took over seven minutes and covered 69 yards. The Hawkeyes ended the second period with a 53-yard drive that took just four plays and 44 seconds.

IOWA COMEBACKS

Iowa's rally for a 31-27 win over Pittsburgh (Sept. 17) is believed to be the largest comeback for a win in Hawkeye history, as the Hawkeyes trailed by 21 points (24-3) with 3:11 remaining in the third quarter. Following is a list of previous Iowa rallies that are believed to be the largest in school history:

- Iowa rallied from an 18-point deficit in a 34-31 win over Oregon in 1949 in Iowa City. Iowa trailed 24-6 with 2:30 left in the third quarter against the Ducks.
- Iowa rallied from a 17-0 first half deficit for a 30-27 win at Minnesota in 1986, winning on a 37-yard field goal with one second remaining.
- Iowa rallied from a 17-0 first half deficit for a 37-30 home win over Michigan State in 1996. Iowa rallied to tie the game at 23 and 30 before scoring the winning touchdown early in the fourth period.
- Iowa rallied from a 14-point deficit for a 42-24 win over Indiana in 2009 at Kinnick Stadium. The Hawkeyes trailed 21-7 in the third period when an 86-yard interception return sparked Iowa's rally.
- Iowa's rally ties as the second largest this season among FBS teams. Houston rallied from a 27-point deficit to take a win over Louisiana Tech, while Nebraska rallied from 21 points down to defeat Ohio State.

TEN IS BIGGEST LOSS

Iowa's 13-3 loss at Penn State marked the first Iowa loss by more than nine points in 48 games, dating back to a 31-6 loss at Purdue on Oct. 20, 2007. Iowa had not lost a game by more than a touchdown in 43 games, dating back to a 28-19 loss to Western Michigan on Nov. 17, 2007. Both streaks ranked as the longest in the nation. In the loss at Penn State, Iowa failed to score a touchdown for the first time since that 2007 loss at Purdue.

Hawkeyes Excel in the Classroom

HAWKEYES RANK HIGH IN GRADUATION RATES

The Iowa Hawkeyes ranked among the nation's leaders in academic success for the 70 college football teams that competed in bowl games following the 2010 season.

Iowa's 79% ranked 12th in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for its football student-athletes, according to data collected by the NCAA, among the 70 college football teams that participated in the 35 college football bowl games.

Iowa's GSR of 79%, released in October, 2010, ranked third among teams ranked in the BCS top 25 at the time and is 12 percentage points higher than the national average.

In 2009, Iowa's GSR of 74% ranked second among the 10 teams that competed in 2010 BCS bowl games.

The graduation rate for Iowa's 2009 nationally ranked football program was 67 percent for the second consecutive year. The national average was 55 percent.

Iowa's graduation rate ranked third among teams that appeared in the 2008 final top 25 rankings.

In the most recent release on academic standings (October, 2011), Iowa's football team compiled a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 83, best in the programs history and 14 points above the national average.

THREE HAWKEYES EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

In 2008 and again in 2010, three Iowa players were named to the ESPN/CoSIDA District Seven first all-academic team.

Under Kirk Ferentz in the last 12 years, 17 Hawkeye players have combined to earn academic all-America honors on 32 occasions. Five players, DL Aaron Kampman, OL Andy Lightfoot, LB Mike Klinkenborg, DB Adam Shada and OL Julian Vandervelde, were three-time honorees.

Iowa, in 2006, was the only Division I program in the nation to have three players earn first team academic all-America recognition. In addition, Iowa players have been honored 159 times over the past 12 seasons with academic all-Big Ten recognition.

VANDEMBERG STEPS IN AT QB

Junior James Vandenberg has stepped into the starting role as Iowa's quarterback, leading Iowa to a comeback win over Pittsburgh and impressive wins over Tennessee Tech, Louisiana-Monroe, Northwestern and Indiana. He completed 31-48 passes for 399 yards and three touchdowns against Pitt, with the three scoring passes coming in the fourth period. He was named Big Ten Conference offensive Player of the Week after reaching career high marks in completions, attempts, passing yards and touchdowns. He also scored on a one-yard run and completed 17 of his last 20 passes in the second half.

In Iowa's win over ULM, Vandenberg completed 21-32 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns, while also rushing for one score. He completed 17-34 passes for 169 yards in the loss at Penn State, with no touchdowns and two interceptions.

Vandenberg was efficient in the win over Northwestern, completing 14-22 attempts for 224 yards. He had scoring strikes of 47 and 35 yards. He increased his efficiency in a win over Indiana, completing 12-16 passes for 253 yards and a career-best four touchdowns.

Vandenberg completed 16-24 passes for 177 yards at Minnesota, with one touchdown and no interceptions. Ten of his 17 touchdown passes this season have covered over 20 yards.

In eight games, Vandenberg has completed 140-225 (.622) passes for 1,918 yards and 17 touchdowns, with four interceptions. He is second in the Big Ten in passing yards (239.8) and third in pass efficiency (155.21). Vandenberg was 16-28 for 207 yards at Iowa State, with two touchdowns. He led a fourth-quarter touchdown drive and added the two-point conversion to give Iowa a 24-17 lead late in the game. He then led the Hawkeyes to 17 points in the three overtime periods.

Vandenberg is 6-4 as Iowa's starting quarterback, with two of the losses in overtime (at Iowa State, 2011 and at Ohio State, 2009). All six wins have come at home.

MEYER GETTING HIS KICKS

Sophomore PK Mike Meyer has made 12-16 field goal attempts and is a perfect 31-31 in PAT kicks. Two of his four misses, both from beyond 40 yards, have hit the upright. He is tied for 19th nationally in field goals per game (1.5). Meyer is tied for second in the Big Ten in field goals per game, second in kick scoring (8.4), fifth in field goal percentage (75%) and fourth in total scoring. He made a 22-yard field goal in the win over Pitt before missing from 40 and 50 yards and made his only attempt vs. ULM and Penn State (both from 23 yards). He was perfect against Northwestern, with field goals of 27 and 40 yards while converting five PATs. His only field goal attempt in the win over Indiana was good from 47 yards and he added 6-6 PATs. One of his two misses at Minnesota hit the upright.

Meyer had a career-best 50-yard field goal at Iowa State, while also connecting from 42, 20 and 34 yards. Meyer made four field goals in a game for the second time in his career, as he made 4-5 in an 18-13 win at Indiana in 2010. Meyer leads Iowa in scoring with 67 points and has made 26-33 (.788) career field goal attempts. He ranks 17th in career scoring with 140 points.

MORRIS LEADS IN TACKLES

Sophomore LB James Morris returned to the starting line-up in Iowa's win over Indiana after missing the Northwestern game due to injury. He matched his career best with 13 tackles at Minnesota, with 10 solo tackles and a tackle for loss.

Morris leads Iowa and the Big Ten with 10.9 tackles per game, ranking 10th in the nation. He is also tied for 17th nationally in solo tackles per game (5.5). He has 39 solo stops and 37 assists, along with one pass interception, in seven games. Morris collected five solo stops and eight assists in Iowa's loss at Penn State to again equal his career high of 13 tackles. He collected 10 tackles in wins over ULM and Indiana. Morris also had 13 tackles in the win over Pittsburgh.

KIRKSEY STEADY ON DEFENSE

Sophomore LB Christian Kirksey has recorded 76 tackles (45 solo) in eight games to share the team lead. Kirksey ranks sixth in the Big Ten in tackles. He is tied for 15th nationally in solo tackles and is 27th in total tackles per game. He also has three tackles for loss, one QB sack, two pass break-ups, two caused fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Kirksey led the Hawkeyes with 11 solo tackles and two assists at Iowa State, while also causing and recovering an Iowa State fumble on the same play. He recorded 10 tackles (six solo stops) against Tennessee Tech and Penn State and had eight stops in the win over Pittsburgh. He added his second forced fumble of the season at Penn State. He had nine tackles in a win over Northwestern and led the Iowa defense with 12 tackles in the win over Indiana.

TOP HAWKEYE PERFORMERS

- Senior Eric Guthrie has taken over the punting duties in 2011 and is averaging 42.0 yards on 24 punts. Guthrie has nine punts inside the 20, with just one touchback, and opponents are averaging just 4.9 yards on seven returns. He had a career-long 59-yard punt at Iowa State, where he averaged 46.8 yards on four punts. He had at least one punt of 50 yards or more in three straight games before having two punts of 49 yards at Penn State.

He had scoring catches of 25 and 22 yards in the win over Pittsburgh, scoring Iowa's last two touchdowns in the fourth quarter rally. He also had a touchdown at Iowa State. He added six receptions for 82 yards in the win over ULM and had three receptions for 21 yards at Penn State. He returned to the starting lineup at Minnesota and had five receptions for 35 yards. For the season, he has 23 receptions for 243 yards.

COLLECTING INTERCEPTIONS

Iowa's defense has ranked among national leaders in causing turnovers in recent seasons. Over the last three-plus seasons Iowa has collected 69 interceptions, a total that ranks second in the nation over that span (Florida, 72). Iowa has six interceptions this season, with two of those being returned for touchdowns (89 yards by DB Shaun Prater and 98 yards by DB Tanner Miller). LB James Morris also has a 52 yard return that led to a field goal.

The Hawkeyes have had an interception return for a touchdown in each of the last four years, including four last season. Iowa has had an interception return for a score in nine of the last 11 seasons and 9 of 13 seasons under Kirk Ferentz. In addition, in each of the last four seasons, Iowa has had more interceptions than touchdown passes allowed.

IOWAN CALLING THE SIGNALS

Junior QB James Vandenberg has started at quarterback in Iowa's eight games. Vandenberg is a native of Keokuk and the first native Iowan to open the season as Iowa's starting quarterback since 2001. The most recent Iowa native to hold that position was Kyle McCann of Creston. McCann led Iowa to victory in the 2001 Alamo Bowl, the first bowl win for Coach Kirk Ferentz.

Two native Iowans have led the Hawkeyes to Rose Bowl wins, including Kenny Ploen (Clinton) during the 1956 season and Randy Duncan (Des Moines) during the 1958 season. Both were first team All-Americans.

St. Ansgar native Matt Sherman led Iowa to a pair of bowl wins (1996 Alamo and 1997 Sun Bowl), while Iowa City native Paul Burmeister was Iowa's quarterback in the 1993 Alamo Bowl.

Additional Iowa natives who passed for over 1,500 yards, but never led Iowa in a bowl game, include Gary Snook (Iowa City, 1963-65), Ed Podolak (Atlantic, 1966-68, who ended his Iowa career as a prolific running back), Phil Suess (Des Moines, 1977-80), Randy Reiners (Ft. Dodge, 1996-99), Tom McLaughlin (Dubuque, 1975-77), Al DeMarco (Mason City, 1947-48) and Glen Drahn (Elkader, 1948-50).

AMONG CAREER LEADERS

Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., has set the Iowa record for career touchdown receptions (25), is second in receiving yards, seventh in career catches (129-2,303) and tied for 14th in career scoring (150 points).

Senior DB Shaun Prater has 173 career interception return yards and junior DB Micah Hyde has 142 yards. Prater ranks seventh among Iowa's career interception leaders in return yards and Hyde is 11th. They both have seven career thefts (tie for 25th) and each have two touchdown returns. Among Iowa's career leaders, only Tom Knight (three) and Plez Atkins (two) have more than one touchdown return.

Sophomore PK Mike Meyer is 17th in career scoring with 140 points, junior QB James Vandenberg is 16th in career passing yards (2,226) and sophomore RB Marcus Coker is 19th in career rushing (1,591).

BIG PLAY HAWKEYES

Iowa had four pass plays and two running play against Minnesota that covered at least 20 yards. In eight games, Iowa has 34 pass plays and seven rushing plays, along with three interception returns, 17 KO returns, one punt return and 12 field goals, of at least 20 yards.

Iowa's opponents have 22 passing plays, five rushing plays, one punt return, one interception return, one fumble return and 24 KO returns of 20 yards or more.

IOWA BY QUARTERS

Iowa has outscored its opponents in the first (48-23), second (82-34) and fourth (70-57) quarters, but has been outscored in the third quarter (51-44). Iowa was outscored in three overtime periods (20-17) at Iowa State.

ON THE AVERAGE

Iowa averaged 5.9 yards on 29 first down plays, 9.6 yards on 23 second down plays, 1.3 yards on 11 third down plays and 5.3 yards on three fourth down plays at Minnesota, converting one of three fourth down attempts.

In eight games, Iowa is averaging 6.2 yards on 240 first down plays, 7.2 yards on 175 second down plays, 4.2 yards on 91 third down plays and 6.0 yards on 10 fourth down plays. Iowa is 5-10 on fourth down conversions.

AVERAGE SCORING DRIVES

Iowa's three scoring drives against Minnesota averaged 8.3 plays, 62.3 yards and 4:07 in elapsed time. In eight games, Iowa's 39 scoring drives have averaged 7.6 plays, 58 yards and 3:25 in elapsed time. Iowa has six scoring drives that have covered 80 yards or more.

Iowa's opponents have 29 scoring drives, averaging 9.9 plays, 63.3 yards and 4:14 in elapsed time.

The above scoring drive figures do not include overtime.

IOWA IN THE RED ZONE

Iowa was 3-6 inside the red zone vs. Minnesota, scoring two short rushing touchdowns and a passing touchdown. Iowa missed two field goal attempts and lost a fumble. In eight games, Iowa is 29-33 (96.3%) in the red zone, with 13 rushing touchdowns, seven passing touchdowns and nine field goals.

Iowa has scored on 135 of the last 149 (.906) red zone possessions (90 TDs and 45 FGs), dating back to the Michigan State game in 2008. Iowa is 116-130 (.892) combined inside the red zone its last 37 games.

Minnesota was 4-5 in the red zone, scoring two rushing touchdowns, one passing touchdown and a field goal.

Iowa opponents are 26-36 (72.2%) in the red zone. Iowa has allowed 10 rushing touchdowns, nine passing touchdowns and seven field goals.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Iowa has scored 37 points following 12 opponent turnovers (six fumbles, six interceptions).

The Hawkeye defense has collected at least one takeaway in 62 of its last 70 games, dating back to 2006.

Iowa opponents have scored 17 points following nine Iowa turnovers, as Minnesota collected a field goal after recovering Iowa's only fumble.

Iowa had just 11 turnovers (five fumbles, six interceptions) in 13 games last season, allowing 28 points following those turnovers.

HAWKEYE INJURY UPDATE

Sophomore LB Shane DiBona and sophomore LB Dakota Getz will miss the remainder of the 2011 season.

DiBona suffered an achilles injury during preseason practice. He underwent successful surgery at the UI Hospitals and Clinics following the injury and is expected to make a full recovery. After a redshirt season in 2009, the Duxbury, Mass. native saw action in all 13 games a year ago, with two starts. He recorded six solo tackles and seven assists.

Getz, who missed Iowa's opening win due to injury, suffered a major knee injury on the opening kick of the Iowa State game and is expected to miss the rest of the season.

In addition, true freshman RB Mika'il McCall has been out of action since the first game of the season. McCall suffered a broken bone in his right leg in Iowa's opening win over Tennessee Tech. He had rushed for 61 yards on nine carries before suffering the injury. He could return to action this season.

LB Anthony Hitchens has missed Iowa's four conference games and DL Tom Nardo has missed the last three games, both due to injuries. In addition, LB James Morris, LB Tyler Nielsen and WR Keenan Davis have all missed one game due to injury.

NEW PREP FOR COACHING STAFF

Along with the addition of Nebraska to the schedule, Iowa will face four additional Big Ten teams that the Hawkeyes have not played under the current coaching staff. That list included Indiana and Minnesota the past two games, along with this week vs. Michigan, as all three have new head coaches. Iowa is also playing Purdue for the first time since Danny Hope took over as the Boilermaker head coach.

HAWKEYES ON THE TUBE

All Iowa football games this season will be televised on either ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, FSN or the BTN. The last Iowa contest not televised was vs. Minnesota on Nov. 17, 2001. Iowa has appeared on television in its last 124 games.

NEW FACES ON THE FIELD

Iowa has played 10 true freshmen in 2011, including five on offense and five on defense. The list includes RB Mika'il McCall, RB Damon Bullock, WR Marcus Grant, TE Ray Hamilton, LB John Lowdermilk, DB Nico Law, DB Jordan Lomax, LB Marcus Collins RB Jordan Canzeri and LB Quinton Alston.

Iowa played nine true freshmen in 2010, but just three true freshmen in 2009. The Hawkeyes played seven true freshmen in 2000, 2003 and 2008. The high mark for true freshman under Coach Kirk Ferentz is 11 in 2007.

Hawkeyes who have seen the first action of their career this season, in addition to the 10 true freshmen, include QB/LB A.J. Derby, FB Matt Meyers, WR Kevonte Martin-Manley, RB De'Andre Johnson, LB Terrance Pryor, OL Andrew Donnal, OL Tommy Gaul, WR Steven Staggs, DL Mike Hardy, DL Carl Davis, DL Louis Trinca-Pasat and WR Jordan Cotton.

Seventeen Hawkeyes have started for the first time in 2011, including TE Zach Derby, FB Jonathan Gimm, OL Matt Tobin, TE Brad Herman, FB Matt Meyers, WR Keenan Davis, DL Lebron Daniel, DL Tom Nardo, DL Dominic Alvis, LB Christian Kirksey, DB Jordan Bernstine, DB Collin Sleeper, DB Tanner Miller, WR Kevonte Martin-Manley, OLB Tom Donatell, DL Steve Bigach and OL Brandon Scherff.

DEPTH CHART INCLUDES 10 WALK-ONS

Iowa's depth chart includes 10 players who originally joined the program as a walk-on. That includes four on offense (OL Matt Tobin, RB Jason White, WR Steven Staggs, TE Zach Derby), three on defense (DL Thomas Nardo, OLB Tom Donatell, DB Collin Sleeper), and three specialists (P Eric Guthrie, PK Mike Meyer and LS Casey Kreiter).

RETURNING STAT LEADERS

Iowa returns just two players who led the team in statistical categories in 2010. PK Mike Meyer led the team in scoring with 73 points, hitting 14-17 field goal attempts and 31-33 PAT attempts. WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. led the Hawkeyes in receptions (53), receiving yards (861) and touchdown receptions (8).

IOWA LIKES STARTING ON OFFENSE

Iowa has started on offense in 131 of its last 151 games, including seven of eight games this season (all but Iowa State). Iowa is 13-7 in those games it has started on defense.

Iowa has started the game on offense in 134-of-157 games under Kirk Ferentz, including 12 of 13 games in 2010 and 11 of 13 games in 2009.

PRESTIGIOUS HONORS FOR HAYDEN FRY

Former University of Iowa Football Coach Hayden Fry has been named recipient of two distinguished national awards.

Fry, along with three others, was inducted into the United States Marine Corps Hall of Fame in late August.

Fry has also been named recipient of the 2012 Paul "Bear" Bryant Lifetime Achievement Award, given by the American Heart Association. The Award recognizes the career accomplishments of some of college's finest football coaches. It's the only award of its kind in the college football arena. The award highlights the outstanding achievements and extraordinary contributions which have reflected honor and sportsmanship to the game of football throughout the coach's career. He'll receive the award at a banquet Jan. 12th in Houston, Tex.

Fry was Iowa's head football coach for 20 years, posting a 143-89-6 record (96-61-5 in the Big Ten). When he retired he was the dean of Big Ten coaches and was just the sixth football coach in Big Ten history to coach 20 seasons. His career record was 232-178-10.

In 2003, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. He has also been honored with the prestigious Amos Alonzo Stagg Lifetime Achievement Award. Since that time he has also been inducted into Iowa's Athletic Hall of Fame, the Baylor Wall of Fame, The Peach and Holiday Bowl Halls of Fame, the Rose Bowl and Sun Bowl Halls of Fame, and the North Texas State University Hall of Fame (formerly NTSU).

FERENTZ JOINS CHALLENGE

Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz and Iowa State Coach Paul Rhoads have joined forces with the Iowa Mentoring Partnership for the 2011 Coaches' Challenge. The Coaches' Challenge runs from Aug. 1-Nov. 21 and is a competition between Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas to see which state can recruit the most mentors.

For three years, Kansas and Nebraska have competed in a "Coaches Mentoring Challenge", with Bo Pelini (Nebraska), Bill Snyder (Kansas State) and Turner Gill (Kansas) taking part in the competition. Ferentz and Rhoads have joined the competition this season.

According to The National Mentoring Partnership, there are 15 million children in the nation in need of caring and quality mentors. In Iowa, it is estimated that nearly 5,000 young people are currently in need of a mentor. Many of these children and youth are young men who would strongly benefit from a positive male role model. The Iowa Mentoring Partnership, an initiative of the Iowa Commission on Volunteer Service, upholds the commission's mission to "improve lives, strengthen communities and foster civic engagement through service and volunteering" by supporting quality mentoring services and by working to close the mentoring gap in our state.

The Iowa Mentoring Partnership currently supports a network of more than 80 local, certified mentoring programs.

Any new mentor application received between Aug. 1-Nov. 21 will count towards the score of the respective state, with cumulative totals updated each month.

To find out more information or join the Coaches' Challenge, visit www.iowamentoring.org or call 1-800-308-5987.

SCHEDULE NOTES

- Iowa played three of its first four games in Kinnick Stadium, closing the non-conference schedule Sept. 24 by defeating Louisiana-Monroe.
- Iowa is one of two Big Ten Conference teams (Ohio State) to play two non-conference games against teams from BCS conferences. Iowa lost at Iowa State in three overtimes (44-41) and defeated Pittsburgh (31-27) at Iowa City.
- The Hawkeyes opened Big Ten play at Penn State before hosting Northwestern and Indiana. This marked the 10th time in Kirk Ferentz' 13 years at Iowa that the Hawkeyes opened the conference season on the road.
- The second half of Iowa's conference slate has Iowa hosting Michigan and Michigan State before traveling to Purdue and Nebraska. Six of Iowa's 2011 opponents competed in bowl games last season and three of Iowa's November opponents are nationally ranked.
- The Hawkeyes do not face Big Ten opponents Illinois, Ohio State and Wisconsin in 2011 and 2012.

IOWA TO MEET NEBRASKA ON FRIDAY

Iowa's regular season finale will be played on Friday, Nov. 25 at Nebraska, the day after Thanksgiving. That contest will be televised by ABC (11 a.m. CT) to a national audience.

Iowa and Nebraska will also meet in Kinnick Stadium on the Friday following Thanksgiving to end the 2012 regular season.

IOWA ADDS TROPHY GAME WITH NEBRASKA

When Iowa and Nebraska resume their series in November, the two teams will be playing "The Heroes Game", with the winner claiming the Heroes Trophy. The trophy game between the Hawkeyes and Cornhuskers is the latest trophy game for the Hawkeyes, who also play trophy games with Iowa State (Cy-Hawk Trophy), Minnesota (Floyd of Rosedale) and Wisconsin (Heartland Trophy).

HEROES CAN BE NOMINATED

One hero from both Iowa and Nebraska will be honored when Iowa and Nebraska play the inaugural Heroes Game presented by Hy-Vee, on Friday, Nov. 25 in Lincoln, Neb.

A nominee must be at least 18 years of age and live, work or go to school in either Iowa or Nebraska. However, the act of heroism or good deed need not have occurred in either state.

One person from both Iowa and Nebraska will be selected to represent each state at the Heroes Game. They will receive four tickets to the football game, participate in an on-field presentation, and have their name and hometown inscribed on the Heroes Game trophy.

Nominations will be accepted from Sept. 23 to Oct. 31. Nomination forms, rules, and further information can be found online at www.Hy-Vee.com or may be picked up at Hy-Vee store locations in Iowa and Nebraska.

Nominations may also be mailed to the American Red Cross Des Moines office, 2116 Grand Ave., Des Moines, IA 50312, or faxed to (515) 244-8012 by midnight on October 31, 2011. Nominations not recognized at the Heroes Game will be considered for recognition at the American Red Cross Heroes of the Heartland events in selected Iowa and Nebraska cities and towns in March 2012.

TICKET UPDATE

Iowa has sold virtually all tickets for its seven home games. Iowa issued over 59,000 season tickets, which includes more than 10,000 student tickets. The Iowa record for average home attendance is 70,585, set in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2010. Iowa has sold out Kinnick Stadium 53 of the last 55 games.

DIVISION CHAMPS TO MEET IN TITLE GAME

The Big Ten Conference will stage its first conference football championship game Dec. 3 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The prime time contest will be televised by FOX to a national audience.

The Big Ten's Legends Division includes Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska and Northwestern. The Leaders Division includes Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin.

IOWA FOOTBALL AND THE NFL

- For the second straight year, Iowa had six players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, and for the second straight year that list included a first round selection (DE Adrian Clayborn).
- Iowa was one of eight schools to have as many as six players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft. A total of 12 former Hawkeyes were rookies in 2011 NFL training camps.
- Iowa was the only program to have three defensive linemen selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, and all three are on NFL rosters.
- Only two schools, USC (16) and Florida (13), have had more players selected in the past two seasons.
- The Iowa football program was represented by 35 players on opening day NFL rosters. As many as eight additional former Hawkeyes with NFL experience are listed as free agents, on injured reserve or on practice squads.
- Iowa ranks eighth nationally (second among Big Ten teams) in number former players currently active in the NFL, behind Miami (FL), USC, Texas, Tennessee, Ohio State, Georgia and LSU.
- All 11 members of Iowa's starting defensive unit in 2008 were either drafted in the last three NFL drafts or signed to NFL free agent contracts following the drafts.
- Over the past 10 years, 90 of 100 (90%) of Iowa's senior starters have been drafted in the NFL or signed NFL free agent contracts.
- At least one Iowa Hawkeye has been selected in every NFL Draft since 1978.
- Iowa has had the most offensive linemen (11) drafted in the NFL since the 2003 NFL Draft.
- Iowa has placed 20 defensive linemen in the NFL under Kirk Ferentz. Every senior starter (seven) under defensive line Coach Rick Kaczinski has gone on to the NFL.
- Defensive secondary Coach Phil Parker has coached 14 Iowa defensive backs to the NFL and Iowa defensive backs have earned all-Big Ten honors 25 times.

IOWA VS. BOWL TEAMS

Eight of Iowa's 13 opponents in 2010 earned bowl invitations. Iowa's 13 opponents posted a 92-71 (.564) overall record. Wisconsin (Rose) and Ohio State (Sugar) earned BCS bowl bids, while Arizona, Michigan State, Penn State, Michigan, Northwestern and Missouri played in the post-season.

HAWKEYE NOTES FROM 2010

- Iowa ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (17.0), sixth in rushing defense (101.5), 25th in total defense (332.1) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (115.1). The Iowa defense was the last unit in the nation to allow a rushing touchdown last season, that coming in Iowa's sixth game.
- The Hawkeyes ranked seventh in the nation in turnover margin (+1.0) and tied for 11th with 19 pass interceptions. Iowa had four interception returns for touchdowns.
- Six Iowa opponents scored one touchdown or less, including two who scored no touchdowns. For the second straight season, eight of Iowa's 12 regular season opponents scored 17 points or less.
- For the third straight season, in 2010, Iowa allowed only one individual opponent to rush for over 100 yards.
- Iowa ranked 11th in the nation in pass efficiency (155.72) and the Hawkeyes were 50th in scoring offense (28.9). The Hawkeyes were 49th in passing offense (234.5), 57th in total offense (382.9) and 70th in rushing offense (148.4). Iowa scored 30 or more points in three consecutive Big Ten Conference games (Michigan, Wisconsin, Michigan State) for the first time since 2005. Iowa scored 30 or more points in six games overall, matching the second highest number of games under Kirk Ferentz. Iowa scored 30 or more points in nine games in 2002.
- Iowa had just 11 turnovers (five lost fumbles, six interceptions), which ranked second in the nation. Iowa lost just two fumbles in eight Big Ten games, both in the regular season finale at Minnesota.
- Iowa was 8-0 in 2010 when rushing for over 120 yards and 0-5 when the rushing total was less than 120 yards.
- Iowa ranked sixth in fewest penalty yards per game (37.4) and tied for 19th in fewest penalties per game (4.9).
- On special teams, Iowa ranked sixth in the nation in punt return defense (3.9 average on 21 returns) and 12th in KO returns (25.3).
- Iowa's opponents had 142 possessions, and just seven started in Iowa territory. Arizona and Minnesota had two possessions start in Iowa territory and Iowa State, Northwestern and Ohio State started one possession on Iowa's end of the field.
- Iowa's 100 first half points in 2010 led the Big Ten Conference.

HAWKEYE FOOTBALL NOTES

- Dating back to 2008, Iowa has won 10 of its last 16 games away from Iowa City, with two of the six losses coming at the hands of ranked teams and two of the six coming in overtime. A six-game streak was snapped in the overtime loss at eighth-ranked Ohio State in November, 2009. The road winning streak was the longest for Iowa since winning all five of its road games during the 2002 regular season. That streak was six straight games away from home, including the 2001 Alamo Bowl.

- Iowa's 2009 win at No. 4/5 ranked Penn State marked Iowa's first road win over a team ranked in the top five since 1990. That season the Hawkeyes scored a 54-28 win at fifth-ranked Illinois. Iowa concluded the 2009 season with a neutral site win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl. Iowa has defeated a team ranked in the top five in each of the last three seasons, including home wins over Penn State (2008) and Michigan State (2010).

IOWA PROGRAM NOTES

- Iowa was bowl eligible in 2010 for the 10th straight season. The Hawkeyes played in their ninth bowl game since 2001. Iowa played in the 2001 Alamo Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Outback Bowl, 2005 Capital One Bowl, 2006 Outback Bowl, 2006 Alamo Bowl, 2009 Outback Bowl, 2010 Orange Bowl and 2010 Insight Bowl.
- Iowa has posted a 6-3 bowl record under Kirk Ferentz. Ferentz is tied for third on the all-time list of Big Ten coaches with six bowl victories. Iowa's .667 (6-3) winning percentage in bowl games in the BCS era ranks as the best in the Big Ten Conference.
- Four of Iowa's six bowl wins under Kirk Ferentz have been in January. Under Ferentz, the Hawkeyes have bowl wins over teams from the Southeastern (three), Big 12 (two) and Atlantic Coast conferences.
- Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to win a bowl game at the conclusion of each of the last three seasons, with two of the three being January bowl wins. Among Big Ten teams, only Penn State (1993-96), Michigan (1997-2000) and Ohio State (2002-2005) have won four straight bowl games in as many seasons.
- Iowa has defeated a team ranked in the top five in the nation, in the Associated Press rankings, in each of the past three seasons (Penn State in 2008 and 2009, Michigan State in 2010).
- Iowa earned Big Ten Conference championships in 2002 and 2004 and placed second in 2009. Iowa (8-0, 2002) is one of two Big Ten teams to post a perfect mark in conference play since 1998 (BCS era).
- Iowa has ranked in the top 10 in the final Associated Press and CNN/USA Today coaches polls in four of the past nine seasons, including a ranking of seventh in both polls at the conclusion of the 2009 season. Iowa ranked eighth in 2002, 2003 and 2004 and the Hawkeyes were also 20th in 2008.
- Iowa established a school record with 11 wins in 2002 (11-2) and matched that record in 2009. In 2009, Iowa won 10 regular season games for just the fourth time in school history.
- Iowa won 10 or more games in three consecutive years (2002-04) for first time in school history.
- Iowa compiled an eight-year record of 78-36 (.684), 2002-10, third best in the Big Ten. The 78 victories rank as the 18th best total in the nation.
- Iowa posted a 46-26 Big Ten record from 2002-10, which ranks second among league teams over that span.
- Kirk Ferentz has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times (2002, 2004 & 2009) and he was named National Coach of the Year in 2002. Ferentz joins Michigan's Bo Schembechler (four), Iowa's Hayden Fry (three) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (three) as the only coaches to be honored in more than two seasons.

- Iowa has had national award winners in: Robert Gallery (2003 Outland, Top Lineman); Brad Banks (2002 Davey O'Brien, Top Quarterback; 2002 Associated Press National Player of the Year); Dallas Clark (2002 Mackey, Top Tight End); Nate Kaeding (2002 Groza, Top Kicker); Shonn Greene (2008 Doak Walker, Top Running Back). Iowa is one of three football programs (joining Oklahoma and Texas) to have five different individual players earn national Player of the Year honors at their position since 2002.

HAWKEYES THIRD IN BOWL APPEARANCES

Iowa ranks third in Big Ten bowl appearances. Ohio State has received a conference-best 42 bowl bids, followed by Michigan (40) and the Hawkeyes (25). Wisconsin ranks fourth with 22.

Iowa (14-10-1, .580), Penn State (27-14-2, .651) and Purdue (8-7, .533) are the only Big Ten teams with a winning percentage in bowl games.

Iowa was one of eight Big Ten Conference teams to participate in a bowl game following the 2010 season. The Big Ten had two teams compete in BCS games for the 10th time in 13 seasons. Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the Big Ten has qualified 23 teams for BCS bowls, more than any other conference. Seven different Big Ten programs have played in BCS bowl games. The Big Ten sent eight teams to bowl games for the third time (2003 & 2007). Big Ten Conference teams posted a 4-3 record in bowl games following the 2009 season and a 3-5 mark in 2010.

IOWA AMONG TOP 20 IN WINS, 2002-11

Iowa has posted 83 wins since the start of the 2002 season, which is the 17th highest total in Division I football. The list includes the following: Boise State (114); USC (105); Oklahoma (105); Ohio State (104); LSU (100); Texas (100); Virginia Tech (99); TCU (98); Georgia (94); Auburn (93); Florida (92); West Virginia (91); Wisconsin (87); Alabama (87); Utah (87); Texas Tech (84); IOWA (83); Boston College (82); Penn State (81) and Miami, FL (81).

BEST DECADE FOR IOWA FOOTBALL

Iowa's football record in the 2000 decade was 80-45 (.640), a record that ranks as the best decade in Iowa football history, based on total wins. Iowa posted a record of 77-40-4 (.652) during the 1980's and the Hawkeyes were 62-53-2 (.538) in the 1990's.

Part of the Hawkeye success is due to the stability in the program, as Iowa has had just two head coaches since 1979. Hayden Fry took over prior to the 1979 season and coached through the 1998 season, posting a record of 143-89-6. Current Coach Kirk Ferentz replaced Fry, leading the program for the last 12 seasons. Ferentz also served as Iowa's offensive line coach from 1981-89 under Fry.

WATCHING FROM ABOVE

Iowa's coaches in the press box are Norm Parker (defensive coordinator) and Lester Erb (running back and special teams), along with quality control Scott Southmayd and graduate assistant coaches David Raih and Charlie Bullen. That leaves Ken O'Keefe (offensive coordinator), Erik Campbell (wide receivers), Phil Parker (defensive backs), Reese Morgan (offensive line), Darrell Wilson (linebackers and special teams), Rick Kaczinski (defensive line) and Eric Johnson (tight ends) on the sidelines.

ROSE BOWL EXPERIENCE

Four members of the Iowa coaching staff have coached or played in the Rose Bowl. Kirk Ferentz coached in two Rose Bowl games while on the Iowa staff. Norm Parker and Phil Parker both coached in the Rose Bowl while on the staff at Michigan State. Erik Campbell played in one Rose Bowl during his Michigan career and coached in four others while on the Wolverine coaching staff.

HOME GROWN HAWKEYES

Iowa's roster of 110 players includes 42 players from Iowa. The roster includes 16 players from Illinois; 10 from Ohio; five from Maryland; four from Florida and Texas; three from Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey and Wisconsin; two from Minnesota, Nebraska and Pennsylvania; one from California, Connecticut, Georgia, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Montana, New York and South Dakota; and one from Australia and Canada.

MORE THAN ONE

Nine high schools have contributed more than one player to the current Iowa football roster. The leader is Iowa City High (Iowa) with four, while three players attended DeMatha Catholic in the Washington, D.C. area and Solon, Iowa HS. Those with two include Assumption HS in Davenport, Iowa; Cretin-Derham Hall HS in St. Paul, Minn., Hazelwood East HS in the St. Louis area; Humboldt, Iowa HS; and Mount Pleasant, Iowa HS.

BROTHER ACT

Iowa has three sets of brothers on the roster. That includes A.J. and Zach Derby from Iowa City, Nick and Tyler Nielsen from Humboldt and Broderick and Marcus Binns from St. Paul, Minnesota. A.J. and Zach's father, John, was an Iowa linebacker (1988-91).

DAD IN THE NFL

The fathers of DB Tom Donatell and DB Greg Castillo are coaches in the NFL. Ed Donatell is the defensive secondary coach for the San Francisco 49'ers and Juan Castillo is the defensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles.

THE NAME GAME

John, Jordan and Marcus are the most popular first name on the Iowa roster. That includes Jordan (Bernstine, Canzeri, Cotton, Lomax, Walsh); John (Chelf, Lowdermilk, Wienke), Jonathan (Gimm) and Jonny (Mullings); Marcus (Binns, Coker, Collins, Grant), Mark (Weisman) and Markus (Zusevics). There are three named James (Ferentz, Morris, Vandenberg) and a Jim (Poggi). There are three Joe's (Audlehelm, Forgy and Gaglione); three Mike's (Daniels, Hardy and Meyer); and Thomas (Nardo) Tom (Donatell) and Tommy (Gaul).

There are two named Adam (Cox and Gettis); Brad (Herman and Rogers); Brandon (Boerm and Scherff); Casey (Kreiter and McMillan); Jacob (Hillyer and Reisen); Jake (Duzey and Rudock); Kyle (Anderson and Steinbrecher); Matt (Meyers and Tobin); Riley (McMinn and Reiff); and Steve/Steven (Bigach and Staggs).

THE HAWKEYES, SIZE WISE

Freshman PK Marshall Koehn is the lightest Hawkeye player at 160 pounds. Redshirt freshmen DL Carl Davis and OL Brandon Scherff are the heaviest at 310 pounds. A total of six Hawkeye players are listed at 300 pounds or more.

The tallest players, at 6-7, are redshirt freshman OL Andrew Donnal, sophomore TE C.J. Fiedorowicz, freshman DE Riley McMinn and sophomore OL Brett Van Sloten. The shortest players, at 5-8, are redshirt freshman De' Andre Johnson and senior WR Joe Audlehelm.

The average Hawkeye player is 6-1 and weighs 229 pounds. That is one inch shorter and four pounds lighter than the average Iowa player in 2010.

IOWA STATS ON THE INTERNET

Statistics and play-by-play accounts of every Iowa football game are available live on the Internet. The statistical program allows viewers to read the play-by-play action just moments after it takes place, and to view all individual and team statistics while the game is in progress. The program can be accessed through hawkeyesports.com and then clicking on the GT link. This feature is available for all games during the 2011 campaign.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

Head Coach Kirk Ferentz holds his weekly press conferences every Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. at the Hayden Fry Football Complex. Selected player interviews take place immediately after Ferentz meets the media. A complete transcript is e-mailed to Iowa's football media email list 2-3 hours after the press conference.

IOWA TV SATELLITE SERVICE

Each Tuesday Iowa offers video highlights of Coach Kirk Ferentz's weekly news conference, plus player clips & highlights, via satellite, and the highlights are in HD. The time is normally 3:30-3:45 p.m. CT.

The satellite feed is available on Galaxy 19C-Tr 04 (U/L 6005 (V), D/L 3780 (H), 36 Mhz, C-Band Digital). Sym Rate 21.0, FEC 3/4, Data Rate 29.029, DVBS, QPSK, 4:2:0. The highlights are in HD.

IOWA FOOTBALL WITH KIRK FERENTZ

The weekly television replay show, featuring Iowa Football Coach Kirk Ferentz, is a 30-minute program, which includes Iowa football highlights and weekly features about the University of Iowa football program. Gary Dolphin, the radio play-by-play voice of the Iowa Hawkeyes, hosts the show. Consult local listings for day and time.

KIRK FERENTZ RADIO SHOW

Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz is featured on "Hawk Talk with Kirk Ferentz" each week. The 90-minute radio call-in show is hosted by Gary Dolphin, the play-by-play voice of the Iowa Hawkeyes. The show airs each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. from Carlos O'Kelly's in Iowa City.

AMERICA NEEDS FARMERS

The University of Iowa Athletics Department is working with the Iowa Farm Bureau on efforts to help consumers understand the challenges and opportunities today's farmers embrace, and to do so under the banner, "America Needs Farmers," the initiative undertaken by former UI football coach Hayden Fry during the Farm Crisis of the 1980s and embraced by the Hawkeyes' current head coach Kirk Ferentz. To learn more, visit AmericaNeedsFarmers.org.

AFTER THIS

Iowa plays its final home game Nov. 12, hosting nationally-ranked Michigan State (time and TV, TBA). Iowa's final two games are at Purdue (Nov. 19, TBA) and at Nebraska (Friday, Nov. 25, 11 a.m., ABC).

GAME RECAP

Iowa dominated the first half of play in defeating Tennessee Tech 34-7 to open the season with a win for the 11th straight season. The Hawkeyes led 27-0 at halftime before the game was delayed for 84 minutes in the third period due to lightning. Iowa built the lead to 34-0 before Tech scored its only points with five minutes remaining in the game.

Junior QB James Vandenberg completed 13-21 pass attempts for 219 yards and two touchdowns, with no interceptions. Vandenberg completed scoring strikes of 88 and 19 yards to senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. McNutt, Jr. led Iowa receivers with 140 yards on six receptions. Freshman RB Mika'il McCall rushed nine times for 61 yards in the first period before being injured. Seven Iowa receivers had at least one reception, but McNutt, Jr. was the only Hawkeye with more than two catches.

Iowa scored 10 points following two pass interceptions in the first half. Senior DB Shawn Prater had an 89-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the second period. Sophomore LB James Morris had a 52-yard interception return earlier in the period that led to an Iowa field goal. Morris and sophomore LB Christian Kirksey each had 10 tackles to lead Iowa's defense.

Sophomore PK Mike Meyer made his only two field goal attempts, from 39 and 20 yards, and was perfect on four PAT kicks. Senior punter Eric Guthrie averaged 39 yards on three punts, allowing no returns while dropping two punts inside the 20.

GAME RECAP

Iowa drove 80 yards for a go-ahead touchdown with 5:50 remaining, but could not get a defensive stop in the final minutes and eventually dropped a 44-41 contest in three overtimes at Iowa State. The loss snapped Iowa's three-game winning streak in the series.

Iowa drove 82 yards for a touchdown on its first drive of the game and added a 42-yard field goal from Mike Meyer in the second for a 10-0 advantage. A 12-yard Iowa State touchdown drive following an Iowa fumble and a 54-yard field goal late in the second period left the teams tied at 10-10 at the break.

Meyer connected on field goals of 20 and 50 yards in the third period to give Iowa a 16-10 advantage. The 50-yard field goal marked a career-best for Meyer. ISU answered with a five-play touchdown drive to take its first lead with two minutes remaining in the third period.

Following a missed field goal attempt by ISU in the final period, the Hawkeye drove 80 yards in 11 plays, taking the lead on a one-yard run by Marcus Coker. Quarterback James Vandenberg connected with WR Keenan Davis on the two-point conversion and Iowa led 24-17 with 5:50 remaining.

Iowa State tied the score with 1:17 to play on a four-yard touchdown pass as the Cyclones converted three times on third down and a fourth and one.

Coker scored on a four-yard run in the first overtime, but ISU answered. The Cyclones scored a touchdown in the second overtime, but Iowa answered with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Vandenberg to Davis. Iowa was held to a 34-yard Meyer field goal in the third extra period before ISU scored the winning points on a four-yard run.

Coker led Iowa's rushing attack with 140 yards and two scores on a career-best 35 attempts. Vandenberg completed 16-28 passes for 207 yards and two scores, with no interceptions. Davis led Iowa receivers with five receptions for 95 yards.

Sophomore LB Christian Kirksey led Iowa's defense, recording 13 tackles (11 solo), two tackles for loss, one QB sack, a pass break-up and a caused and recovered fumble.

GAME RECAP

Iowa rallied in the final 18 minutes for a 31-27 win over Pittsburgh, posting the largest comeback in school history. With Iowa trailing 24-3 with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, junior QB James Vandenberg and the Iowa offense took over the game. The Hawkeyes scored their first touchdown with 1:16 left in the period, cutting the deficit to 24-10. Following a Panther field goal, Iowa scored the final 21 points of the game on three touchdown passes.

Vandenberg scored on a one-yard rush with 1:16 left in the third period, then connected with WR Keenan Davis on a 14-yard scoring pass with 9:55 remaining. Vandenberg connected with redshirt freshman WR Kevonte Martin-Manley for a 25-yard touchdown with 6:19 remaining and completed the rally with a 22-yard scoring strike to Martin-Manley with 2:51 to play. DB Micah Hyde secured the Iowa win with his second interception with 1:41 left in the game.

For the game, Vandenberg completed 31-48 passes for 399 yards and three touchdowns, with one interception. He completed 17 of his last 20 attempts. Davis led Iowa's receivers with 10 receptions for 129 yards. Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. added eight receptions for 112 yards and Martin-Manley added 76 yards on four receptions. RB Marcus Coker rushed 23 times for 86 yards and had five receptions for 15 yards.

The Hawkeye defense came to life in the second half as well. Pitt's last four possessions included just 15 plays for 60 yards and the Panthers did not have a third or fourth down conversion in the fourth quarter. LB James Morris led the Iowa defense with 13 tackles, while Hyde had 10 tackles to go with his two interceptions. DE Broderick Binns had a fumble recovery for the second straight game and DB Shaun Prater forced two fumbles. The Iowa defense recorded three turnovers, six tackles for loss and four QB sacks.

GAME RECAP

Iowa scored touchdowns on three of its first four possessions in taking control early and went on to a 45-17 win over Louisiana-Monroe. The Hawkeyes had scoring drives of 74 and 60 yards on its first two drives before taking advantage of a 30-yard punt return by Micah Hyde to drive just 29 yards for their third touchdown. An 80-yard scoring drive in the middle of the second period left Iowa with a 28-3 halftime advantage. The visitors drove for a field goal on their opening drive, but ran no more than six plays on their remaining drives of the first half.

Iowa's opening score came on a one-yard run by QB James Vandenberg, his third of the season. Vandenberg then connected with WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. for a 13-yard scoring strike and RB Marcus Coker added a four-yard touchdown run. McNutt, Jr. hauled in a 17-yard scoring pass from Vandenberg late in the second period, increasing his career total to 20 touchdown receptions, just one shy of the school record.

ULM responded with two touchdown drives in the third period, but Iowa also scored a touchdown on its opening drive of the second half and ULM was never closer than 17 points. Coker added a two-yard scoring run in the third period and Vandenberg connected with WR Keenan Davis for a 23-yard touchdown later in the period. The only points in the fourth quarter came on a Mike Meyer 23-yard field goal.

Vandenberg led the Iowa offense by completing 21-32 passes for 270 yards, as eight Hawkeyes had at least one reception. McNutt, Jr. led the way with seven receptions for 100 yards, reaching the 100-yard mark for the third time in four games. Davis had his third touchdown reception in as many games and Kevonte Martin-Manley had 82 yards on six receptions. Coker rushed 18 times for 113 yards, surpassing the century mark for the second time this season and fourth time in his career.

DT Tom Nardo led the Iowa defense with 12 tackles, earning Big Ten defensive Player of the Week honors. Nardo had six solo stops, including two tackles for loss and a shared QB sack. LB James Morris added 10 tackles and LB Christian Kirksey recorded eight.

GAME RECAP

Penn State took advantage of three Iowa turnovers in the fourth quarter in taking a 13-3 win at University Park. Iowa had won three straight meetings against Penn State and the last two games at PSU. The series is now even at 12 wins each.

Penn State drove to a field goal on its first drive, taking a 3-0 advantage after an opening drive that lasted over eight minutes. Iowa responded with its only scoring drive of the game, as Mike Meyer tied the game with a 23-yard field goal that completed a 12 play, 72-yard drive. Due to time consuming drives, each team had just two possessions in the first period. The Nittany Lions took the lead with 4:59 remaining in the second period when Anthony Fera booted his second 20-yard field goal of the half.

Iowa still trailed by just a field goal late in the third period when CB Micah Hyde came up with an interception in the end zone to stop a Penn State scoring threat. The theft was Hyde's third of the season.

Iowa moved across midfield after collecting the only PSU turnover of the game, but a QB sack by Penn State resulted in a Hawkeye fumble and the home team took over at the Iowa 49-yard line. Penn State drove for the only touchdown of the game from there, scoring on a two-yard pass on third down.

Iowa's next two possessions ended with PSU pass interceptions, the second coming on a tipped pass with just 3:42 remaining. The Nittany Lions held Iowa on downs on its last possession and ran out the clock to earn the win. The Hawkeye offense was held to just 114 yards total offense in the second half.

LB James Morris led the Iowa defense with 13 tackles and LB Christian Kirksey recorded 10 stops and a forced fumble. DL Mike Daniels recorded eight tackles, including a tackle for loss. Hyde added eight tackles and two pass break-ups to go with his interception and DB Jordan Bernstine added eight tackles and one pass break-up.

QB James Vandenberg completed 17-34 passes for 169 yards, but did not have a touchdown pass for the first time in five games. WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. led the Iowa receivers with four catches for 73 yards. RB Marcus Coker led the ground game with 18 attempts for 74 yards.

GAME RECAP

Iowa scored 24 points in the fourth quarter to pull away for a 41-31 win over Northwestern in Kinnick Stadium last Saturday night. Iowa built a 17-0 advantage in the first half, only to see the Wildcats rally to tie the score with 4:19 left in the third quarter. The Hawkeyes then scored points on four straight possessions to earn their fourth win of the season.

Iowa started fast, driving 52 yards on its first possession, which ended in a 27-yard Mike Meyer field goal. The Hawkeye defense then came up with a big play on Northwestern's second possession. DE Broderick Binns recorded a QB pressure to force a bad pass and DB Tanner Miller collected his first career interception and scored on a 98-yard return.

Iowa increased its advantage to 17-0 in the second period when QB James Vandenberg connected with WR Keenan Davis on a 47-yard scoring strike. Northwestern scored on a six-yard scoring pass late in the quarter and the half ended with Iowa on top 17-7.

Northwestern drove to a second touchdown on its opening possession of the second half. After a three-play Iowa possession the Wildcats tied the game on a 47-yard field goal. That's when the Iowa offense answered. The Hawkeyes drove 64 yards on their next possession, which culminated with a Marcus Coker one-yard touchdown. Northwestern missed a field goal on its following possession and Iowa answered with a 35-yard scoring strike from Vandenberg to WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. The scoring reception was the 21st career touchdown catch for McNutt, Jr., equaling Iowa's career record.

Binns forced a fumble on Northwestern's next possession and Meyer booted a 40-yard field goal, giving Iowa a 34-17 advantage. Coker scored on a second one-yard run later in the game for Iowa's final points.

Coker led Iowa's rushing game with 124 yards on 22 carries. Vandenberg completed 14-22 passes for 224 yards and McNutt, Jr. (6-87) and Davis (5-109) led Iowa's receivers.

Iowa's defense was forced to play without normal starters in LB James Morris and DT Tom Nardo. Senior Tyler Nielsen stepped in at middle linebacker and led the team with a career-high 12 tackles. DB Micah Hyde and LB Christian Kirksey each had nine tackles and Miller added a career-best eight stops to his interception return.

GAME RECAP

Senior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. stole the show as Iowa celebrated homecoming with a 45-24 win over Indiana. Iowa scored touchdowns on each of its five first-half possessions and added a field goal to cap its first drive of the third period.

McNutt, Jr. led the Iowa offense with six receptions for 184 yards and three touchdowns. He had an 80-yard scoring reception on Iowa's second possession to give the Hawkeyes a 14-7 lead. That play ties as the ninth-longest scoring pass in school history and gives McNutt, Jr. three of the 10 longest scoring receptions at Iowa (92, 88 and 80 yards). He added a 24-yard scoring catch on Iowa's next possession as Iowa took a 21-14 advantage and never looked back. McNutt, Jr. had his third score in the final minute of the first half, with his 29-yard reception giving Iowa a 35-14 advantage at the break. He now holds the Iowa record for career touchdown receptions (24).

The Hawkeyes drove 69 yards on their first possession, ending a seven-minute drive with a one-yard run by RB Marcus Coker. Coker added his second score, a two-yard run, to give Iowa a 28-14 lead with 1:38 remaining in the half. Coker led Iowa's ground game with 23 carries for 139 yards. Coker has rushed for over 100 yards in four of seven games in 2011.

Iowa's only scoring of the third period came on a 47-yard field goal by Mike Meyer. The Hawkeyes ended their scoring with 3:10 remaining in the game when TE Brad Herman grabbed a one-yard pass from QB James Vandenberg. Meyer made all six PAT attempts to remain perfect (28-28) on the season.

Vandenberg had the most efficient day of his career, completing 12-16 passes for 253 yards, with no interceptions. The four scoring passes are a career high. Iowa gained 456 yards total offense, with 203 rushing yards to go with Vandenberg's passing total.

Indiana scored touchdowns on its first two drives of the day, but from that point was held to just a field goal until adding a third touchdowns in the final minute of play.

Sophomore LB Christian Kirksey led the Hawkeye defense with 12 tackles, just one shy of his career best. DB Tanner Miller and LB James Morris each added 10 tackles, while DE Broderick Binns had two tackles for loss and DB B.J. Lowery had two pass break-ups.

GAME RECAP

Minnesota scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to rally for a 22-21 win over Iowa in Minneapolis. The Gophers scored the winning points on a fourth down, three-yard run with 2:48 remaining in the game. Iowa's defense held Minnesota out of the end zone on the two-point conversion attempt, but the Hawkeyes were unable to move into field goal position on their last possession.

Iowa dominated much of the game, but the Hawkeyes were able to convert just three of six red zone possessions into points. The Hawkeyes missed two field goals in the first half before taking a 7-0 advantage on a 12-yard pass from QB James Vandenberg to WR Marvin McNutt, Jr. The play completed a 53-yard scoring drive following a fumble recovery by DB Jordan Bernstine. Minnesota answered with a touchdown with 1:13 left in the half, leaving the score tied at seven at the midway point.

Iowa drove 63 yards on its first possession of the second half, taking a 14-7 lead on a one-yard run by RB Marcus Coker. After the Iowa defense forced a second straight three-and-out, the Hawkeyes seemed poised for another score after reaching the Gopher 14. But a Vandenberg fumble was recovered by the Gophers and Minnesota drove to a 28-yard field goal.

Iowa increased its advantage on its following possession, covering 71 yards in just seven plays. Vandenberg completed a 12-yard pass to OL Woody Orne (tackle eligible) on third down before Coker scored his second touchdown from the one, and Iowa led 21-10 with 13:51 to play.

Minnesota closed the gap to 21-16 with 8:22 remaining, driving 80 yards in 11 plays. The two-point conversion failed, but Minnesota kept momentum by recovering an onside kick to maintain possession. The Gophers drove to fourth down at the three, where QB MarQueis Gray scored the winning points.

Iowa's offense dominated much of the first three quarters. Despite just seven offensive plays in the final quarter, Iowa gained 446 yards total offense and had just one punt. Minnesota gained 371 yards total offense, with 155 yards coming in the final period. In addition, 100 of Minnesota's 193 passing yards came on two long completions that led to 10 Gopher points.

Coker led the Iowa offense with 32 attempts for 252 yards and the two scores. The yardage ranks as the third best single-game total in school history. Vandenberg completed 16-24 passes for 177 yards and a touchdown, with no interceptions. McNutt, Jr. led Hawkeye receivers with seven receptions for 101 yards.

LB James Morris matched a career best with 13 tackles to lead the defense. DB Tanner Miller, LB Christian Kirksey and LB Tyler Nielsen each added six stops and DB Shaun Prater had his third caused fumble of the year.
