THIS WEEK

The University of Iowa field hockey team (13-4, 4-2) travels to Bloomington, IN, to compete in the 15th Big Ten Tournament. Iowa is the No. 2 seed in the tournament. The Hawkeyes will face seventh-seeded, and host school, Indiana Thursday at 9 a.m. (CT). The winner will advance to the semifinals to face the winner of third-seeded Michigan State or sixth-seeded Northwestern. That match will begin at 11:15 a.m. (CT) Friday.

IOWA VS. BIG TEN FOES

Iowa defeated Indiana 6-1 in Bloomington during the regular season. The Hawkeyes are 11-5 all-time against the Hoosiers and are 4-2 at neutral sites.

Iowa against Big Ten opponents:

Opponent	All-Time	Neutral
Northwestern	48-19-4	5-1
Michigan	38-12	8-1
Michigan State	43-9-1	12-0-1
Penn State	22-18-1	7-6
Ohio State	40-10	10-1

IOWA AT BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

The Hawkeyes have claimed three Big Ten Tournament titles in their history. Iowa claimed the title in each of the last two seasons and in 1994. Penn State and Michigan lead the conference, having each claimed the title four times.

At 18-11 overall, the Hawkeyes have the second best winning percentage all-time in the tournament. Iowa (.621) trails only the Nittany Lions (.630) in all-time winning percentage.

HAWKEYES GOING FOR THIRD STRAIGHT

Iowa will be looking to defend its back-to-back Big Ten Tournament championships this weekend. The Hawkeyes were crowned champions in 2006 and 2007 and have won six-straight games in the tournament.

Only one other team has ever captured three-straight tournament titles -- Penn State won four straight from 1995-98.

IN THE RANKINGS

The Hawkeyes are ranked eighth in the latest STX/NFHCA rankings. Iowa is ranked seventh in Women'sFieldHockey.com's latest poll.

Iowa has played nine of the STX/NFHCA top 20 this season. In addition, the Hawkeyes have played five of the teams receiving votes in the latest poll.

The Big Ten Conference currently has four teams ranked in the top 20. Joining the Hawkeyes is Penn State (No. 9), Michigan State (No. 10), and Ohio State (No. 17). Michigan and Indiana are receiving votes in the latest rankings.

The Hawkeyes have been ranked in the top 20 of the NFHCA Division I Coaches Poll for 21-straight weeks, dating back to 2006. In 2007 and 2008, the Hawkeyes have yet to fall out of the top 10.

MILESTONE REACHED

The Iowa Hawkeye field hockey program reached its 500th all-time victory with a win over American Friday, Sept. 5. With the 4-1 victory at Grant Field, Iowa reached the plateau with an all-time record of 500-177-25.

ON THE TUBE

The semifinal matchups on Friday (9 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.) will both be televised live by the Big Ten Network (HD). Leah Secondo, Karen Weaver and Kara Lentz will call the action.

In addition, the trio will call the championship game live at 11 a.m. (CT) Sunday.

HAWKEYES GARNER ANOTHER BIG TEN WEEKLY HONOR

The Big Ten Conference Monday named University of Iowa junior back Meghan Beamesderfer Defensive Player of the Week for her play in Iowa's victory over Michigan last Sunday. This is Beamesderfer's third career Big Ten weekly honor and second this season.

It marked the second-straight week a Hawkeye was honored and the seventh for the season. The seven weekly honors ties a school record set in 1996.

Sunday, the Lititz, PA, native led the Iowa defense as the Hawkeyes shutout Big Ten rival Michigan, 3-0. The Iowa defense allowed only two shots and two penalty corners throughout the entire match. In addition, Beamesderfer recorded an assist and played every minute in the contest.

"Meg played a solid game versus Michigan," said Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum. "She has been a very consistent player for the team this season. We ask her to be an integral part of our defensive stops and we also ask her to provide a lot of our attacking play as well. In order to do this, she has to be in outstanding physical condition. Meg is a true competitor and has been vital to our success."

IOWA DOMINATES BIG TEN WEEKLY HONORS

Iowa earned seven weekly honors this year, including a four-week stretch where a Hawkeye was honored each week. Iowa leads the Big Ten in weekly honors earned.

HAWKEYE RECORDS AT TOURNEY

Iowa holds a number of Big Ten Tournament records. Anne-Marie Thomas and Vicki Sax are tied for the most goals (4) in one game. Thomas holds the record for most points (9) in one game.

As a team, the Hawkeyes hold the mark for most goals in a game (8, against Indiana in 2007) and most goals in a tournament (15, in 2007).

TWO HAWKEYES NAMED NFHCA ALL-STARS

Two members of the University of Iowa field hockey team have been named NFHCA Division I Senior All-Stars.

Senior back Lauren Pfeiffer has been named to the squad while senior goalkeeper Lissa Munley has been picked as an alternate.

Pfeiffer, a native of Mt. Laurel, NJ, was named a NFHCA second team all-American in 2007 and was named all-Big Ten last season. Pfeiffer has also been named academic all-Big Ten the last two seasons. She has 31 total points on the season (14 goals, 3 assists) and has scored three goals in a game twice this year.

Munley, a native of Mountain Top, PA, won the 2007 Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. She has been named academic all-Big Ten each of the last two seasons. The senior goalkeeper has recorded six shutouts this season.

"Lissa and Lauren have been phenomenal performers within the Iowa field hockey program," said Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum. "Their work ethic and consistency have helped the team be successful on so many fronts. They take their role as a student-athlete very seriously. It will be a huge honor to represent Iowa at the senior all-star game."

The 2008 NFHCA Division I Senior All-Star game will be played November, 22, at the University of Louisville. The game will begin at a 6:30 p.m. (CT).

GRIESBAUM WINS 100TH

Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum celebrated her 100th win at the University of Iowa with a 3-2 victory at Stanford Sept. 13. She has a record of 105-60 all-time at the helm of the Hawkeye program.

Griesbaum won her 100th game as a head coach last season.

Tracey Griesbaum

Head Coach

Ninth Year

West Chester Univ., 1989

In her ninth season as the Head Coach at the University of Iowa, Tracey Griesbaum led the defending Big Ten Tournament champions to an overall record of 13-4 in the regular season. Griesbaum takes a record of 110-62 at Iowa and a 123-83 overall into the tournament. She recorded her 100th career victory with a win at Fairfield in 2007 and captured her 100th career victory at Iowa with a win at Stanford this season.

Last season under Griesbaum, Iowa finished 17-4, and ranked fifth nationally. The Hawkeyes also captured their second consecutive Big Ten Tournament championship. Additionally, the Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 19th time in the program's history. The Hawkeyes began the season ranked 10th, and at one point, were ranked as high as third.

In the first year of the Griesbaum era, the Hawkeyes fielded an extremely young team that finished with a respectable 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

Year two, was better for the Hawkeyes. They finished with a record of 13-5, an appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game and ended the season ranked No. 12 by the NFCHA. On their way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship game, Griesbaum led the Hawkeyes past the co-Big Ten regular season champions, Michigan State 3-2 in overtime.

In the third year under Griesbaum, the Hawkeyes finished with a 9-8 record and ranked No. 20 by the NFCHA. The Hawkeyes opened the season with a great shutout victory over eventual National Champion Wake Forest, 1-0. They closed the season with a 2-1, double overtime loss to the eventual national runner-up Penn State. Six of the Iowa losses came by only one goal.

In 2003, the Hawkeyes finished 11-8 with a final ranking of 16th by STX/NFCHA. During the season, Iowa reached as high as No. 6 in the poll. Six of Iowa's eight losses came from team ranked in the top ten.

During Griesbaum's fifth year, she directed the Hawkeyes to a 13-8 record and their 13th regular season Big Ten Championship with a 5-1 conference record. The Hawkeyes' exceptional play earned them a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in school history. Griesbaum was named Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Division I Coach of the Year by WomensFieldHockey.com for her efforts.

In 2005, Iowa fielded a young team that resembled Griesbaum's first Hawkeye squad in 2000. As in 2000, the '05 team finished the year with a 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

In 2006, Griesbaum guided the Hawkeyes to a 12-9 record, Big Ten Tournament Championship, an appearance in the NCAA Tournament and a final ranking of 14th in the STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association Poll. Iowa had a preseason rank of 12, but a tough schedule with many close losses dropped the Hawkeyes' rank. Six of Iowa's nine losses came against teams ranked in the top five and only two of their losses were by more than one point.

Griesbaum has a long history with the United States Field Hockey program. She has served in many capacities within the USFHA, including a full-time assistant and head coach for the U.S. Under-21 Team. She led the Under-21 team to a second-place finish at the Pan American Junior Championships and a spot in the 2001 Junior World Cup, where she served as an assistant coach. Her work was good enough to earn her the 2000 United States Field Hockey Coach of the Year award.

Before leaving to accept her post with U.S.A. Field Hockey, Griesbaum was an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes for eight seasons. She helped Iowa win four Big Ten Championships, advancing to the NCAA Tournament six times and the Final Four four times.

While Griesbaum worked for the United States Team in a full-time capacity for only one year, she has served the organization for 16 years as a coach.

In 2006, Griesbaum was the head coach of the Midwest Region's EPTC Program team, which placed second at the national tournament. She also coached the Midwest in 2004 and attended the FIH Coaching Course held in conjunction with the Champions Challenge and coached at the Elite Team Trials.

Griesbaum was head coach of the 2000 Super Camp and B Camp, and an assistant coach for the 1999 Under-20 Junior National Team which toured Canada and Argentina.

During the summer of 1998, she worked with the USA Field Hockey program. She was the head coach for the USA Under-23 team that competed in the USFHA National Indoor Tournament, toured Holland playing various club teams and competed in Canada against the Canadian National and Under-23 squads.

Griesbaum has also coached at the USFHA A-camp since 1995. In 1998, she was one of 38 international coaches selected to attend the International Field Hockey coaching course, held in conjunction with the 1998 World Cup in Holland.

In the spring and summer of 1997, Griesbaum worked camps and coached the national teams throughout the country. She coached at the United States Field Hockey Association A-Camp and served as assistant coach for the United States Under-21 National Team that played in the Junior National World Cup Qualifying Tournament in January of 1997 (Santiago, Chile). Griesbaum participated in that same tournament as an assistant coach in Venezuela in the fall of 1992.

In 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2001-04 she was a selector at the National Futures Tournament in Maryland. Those same summers Griesbaum was a coach at the USFHA B-Camp. Following B-Camp she coached the Under-18 team in a mini-tournament held in Boston (1996).

During the summer of 1996, Griesbaum was the co-head coach of the U.S. Under-18 National Team which traveled to Montreal, Quebec to compete in the Montreal Cup.

As the head coach at LaSalle University in Philadelphia, PA, during the 1990 and 1991 seasons, Griesbaum led her team to a 13-21-3 overall record.

A 1989 graduate of West Chester University, Griesbaum earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts with a minor in health sciences and coaching. She was former Hawkeye coach Beth Beglin's first recruit at West Chester University in 1984 and was a three-time regional All-American and a two-time national All-American. In 1987 she was named the Pennsylvania Association Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (PAIAW) Field Hockey Player of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year.

Griesbaum, a 1987 Broderick Award Nominee, also has extensive international playing experience. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1989-91, 1993 and the U.S. National Reserve Team in 1988. Griesbaum played on the U.S. National team that competed in the 1993 Intercontinental Cup. She played in the 1991 Pan American Games, World University Games and Olympic Qualifying Tournament. In addition, she was a two-time U.S. Olympic Festival participant, winning the Gold Medal in 1989. In 2003, she played in the North American Premiere Indoor League for Philadelphia, and played three years in the USFHA Summer League.

Back-To-Back Big Ten Tournament Champions

2006 Big Ten Tournament

Ann Arbor, MI

First Round: Iowa 2, Michigan 1

Semifinals: Iowa 2, Ohio State 0

Finals: Iowa 2, Penn State 1

To add to their already storied tradition, the Hawkeyes were crowned Big Ten Tournament champions in back-to-back seasons in 2006 and 2007. Iowa has won nine regular season Big Ten championships and three tournament championships, with the other coming in 1994. In addition to its success within the Big Ten Conference, the Iowa field hockey program has enjoyed great success in the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have appeared 19 times, reaching 10 Final Fours (the most of any Big Ten program) and winning the 1986 National Championship.
