THIS WEEK

The sixth-ranked University of Iowa field hockey team (14-3, 4-2) will travel to Columbus, OH, for the Big Ten Tournament and play sixth-seeded Indiana (8-9, 1-5) Thursday at 1 p.m. (CT). If the third-seeded Hawkeyes advance to the semifinals, they will be matched against the winner of the Michigan State/Northwestern game.

The semifinal games, on Friday are at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. (CT) and will be televised live by the Big Ten Network. The championship game Sunday will be televised by CSTV. It will be shown on tape-delay Tuesday, Nov. 6 at 5 p.m. (CT).

INDIANA (8-9, 1-5)

The Hoosiers opened the 2007 season with a fast start. After their first five games they found themselves with a record of 4-1. They played defending NCAA runner-up, Wake Forest, to a close game, but fell 2-1.

Indiana has played all six conference games close but have managed only one win. Their one win came against Northwestern, 2-1. The Hoosiers lost one goal game's to Ohio State, Iowa (in overtime) and Michigan. They were shutout by Penn State and Michigan State by a score of 2-0.

Sophomore Meg O'Connell leads the Hoosiers with six goals. Senior Meredith Brown leads the team with nine assists.

Last week, Indiana beat Stanford in overtime 2-1, lost to No. 13 Louisville in overtime 3-2 and beat Northwestern 2-1.

Notes And Numbers

LAST WEEK

The Hawkeyes defeated Northwestern (4-13, 0-6) 3-1, in a non-conference game on Grant Field. Sophomore Meghan Beamesderfer, junior Caroline Blaum and senior Adrienne Dybus each scored goals.

Iowa then closed the regular season with a 1-0 loss to No. 7 Michigan State. The Hawkeyes managed to hold a high-powered Spartan squad to a season-low six shots.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

Michigan earned the first seed, by going undefeated (6-0) in the conference. They will receive a first-round bye and will play the winner of fourth-seeded Ohio State and fifth-seeded Penn State.

Michigan State clinched the second seed by defeating the Hawkeyes, 1-0 on Grant Field. The Spartans will play seventh-seed Northwestern in the first round. And will play the winner of Iowa and Indiana.

The Hawkeyes earned the third seed in the Big Ten. They will play Indiana in the first round.

BIG TEN ROUND-UP

Michigan - The fifth-ranked Wolverines finish the season with an overall record of 14-5. They defeated the Hawkeyes in 3-2 in double overtime, in the conference opener. This is Michigan's first regular season conference championship since 2004, when it tied Iowa and Michigan State for first. The Wolverines are tied with Penn State for the most tournament titles (4).

Michigan State - The seventh-ranked Spartans finished the season with an overall record of 15-4. They defeated Iowa, 1-0, with their goal coming from a penalty stroke. Michigan State's last Big Ten Tournament title was in 2003.

Penn State - The ninth-ranked Nittany Lions finished the season with an overall record of 12-6. The Hawkeyes defeated Penn State in overtime, 2-1. Lauren Pfeiffer scored the winning goal on a penalty stroke. The Nittany Lions are tied with Michigan for the most Big Ten Tournament title's (4). Their last coming in 1998.

Ohio State - The Buckeyes finished the season with an overall record of 6-11. Iowa beat Ohio State, 2-1. Ohio State won its only Big Ten Tournament championship in 2001.

Northwestern - The Wildcats finished the season with an overall record of 4-13. Iowa defeated Northwestern twice this season, 5-1 and 3-1. The Wildcats have not won a Big Ten Tournament championship and have won only three tournament games.

2006 BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

The fifth-seeded Iowa Hawkeyes stormed through the field and claimed their second Big Ten Tournament Championship and an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

Lauren Pfeiffer carried the Hawkeyes past fourth-seeded Michigan, 2-1 in overtime, first-seeded Ohio State 2-0 and third-seeded Penn State, 2-1 in the championship game. Pfeiffer was named tournament Most Valuable Player. She recorded five goals during the tournament, equaling her regular season total.

TOURNAMENT REPEAT

Three out of the five Big Ten teams to win the league tournament have won in back-to-back years. Iowa and Ohio State are the schools that have not done so. Iowa's first Big Ten Tournament championship came in 1994 and the second in 2006. Ohio State's only title came in 2001.

Penn State won the tournament from 1995-1998, Michigan won in 1999-2000, 2004-2005 and Michigan State won in 2002-2003.

IOWA'S BIG TEN TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Hawkeyes won their second Big Ten Tournament championship in 2006. Their first tournament championship came in 1994.

Iowa has been apart of seven Big Ten Tournament title games.

Iowa has recorded the second-most tournament victories in the Big Ten with 15. Penn State leads with 16.

14 WIN SEASON

The Hawkeyes earned their 14th victory with a 3-1 win over Northwestern. This marks the most wins Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum has recorded. She currently has a record of 94-57 while at Iowa.

GRANT FIELD - A TOUGH PLACE TO PLAY

Iowa came close to an undefeated record on Grant Field this season. The team went 5-1 overall and 2-1 in the Big Ten at home, increasing the overall record on Grant Field to 116-28 and the conference record to 53-16.

Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum

Tracey Griesbaum

Head Coach

Eighth Year

West Chester Univ., 1989

Entering her eighth season as the head coach at the University of Iowa, Tracey Griesbaum is looking for a strong showing in 2007 from the reigning Big Ten Tournament Champions.

Last season, Griesbaum guided the Hawkeyes to a 12-9 record, a Big Ten Tournament Championship, an appearance in the NCAA Tournament and a ranking of 14th in the final STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association Poll. Iowa had a preseason rank of 12, but a tough schedule with many close losses dropped the Hawkeyes' rank. Six of Iowa's nine losses came against teams ranked in the top five and only two of their losses were by more than one goal.

In the first year of the Griesbaum era, the Hawkeyes fielded an extremely young team that finished with a respectable 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

Year two, was better for the Hawkeyes. They finished with a record of 13-5, an appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game and ended the season ranked No. 12 by the NFCHA. On their way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship game, Griesbaum led the Hawkeyes past the co-Big Ten regular season champions, Michigan State 3-2 in overtime.

In the third year under Griesbaum, the Hawkeyes finished with a 9-8 record and ranked No. 20 by the NFCHA. The Hawkeyes opened the season with a great shutout victory over eventual National Champion Wake Forest, 1-0. They closed the season with a 2-1, double overtime loss to the eventual national runner-up Penn State. Six of the Iowa losses came by only one goal.

In 2003, the Hawkeyes finished 11-8 with a final ranking of 16th by STX/NFCHA. During the season, Iowa reached as high as No. 6 in the poll. Six of Iowa's eight losses came from team ranked in the top ten.

During Griesbaum's fifth year, she directed the Hawkeyes to a 13-8 record and their 13th regular season Big Ten Championship with a 5-1 conference record. The Hawkeyes' exceptional play earned them a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in school history. Griesbaum was named Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Division I Coach of the Year by WomensFieldHockey.com for her efforts.

In 2005, Iowa fielded a young team that resembled Griesbaum's first Hawkeye squad in 2000. As in 2000, the '05 team finished the year with a 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

Griesbaum has a long history with the United States Field Hockey program. She has served in many capacities within the USFHA, including a full-time assistant and head coach for the U.S. Under-21 Team. She led the Under-21 team to a second-place finish at the Pan American Junior Championships and a spot in the 2001 Junior World Cup, where she served as an assistant coach. Her work was good enough to earn her the 2000 United States Field Hockey Coach of the Year award.

Before leaving to accept her post with U.S.A. Field Hockey, Griesbaum was an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes for eight seasons.

FIELD HOCKEY

Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum

She helped Iowa win four Big Ten Championships, advancing to the NCAA Tournament six times and the Final Four four times.

While Griesbaum worked for the United States Team in a full-time capacity for only one year, she has served the organization for 16 years as a coach.

In 2006, Griesbaum was the head coach of the Midwest Region's EPTC Program team, which placed third at the national tournament. She also coached the Midwest in 2004 and attended the FIH Coaching Course held in conjunction with the Champions Challenge and coached at the Elite Team Trials.

Griesbaum was head coach of the 2000 Super Camp and B Camp, and an assistant coach for the 1999 Under-20 Junior National Team which toured Canada and Argentina.

During the summer of 1998, she worked with the USA Field Hockey program. She was the head coach for the USA Under-23 team that competed in the USFHA National Indoor Tournament, toured Holland playing various club teams and competed in Canada against the Canadian National and Under-23 squads.

Griesbaum has also coached at the USFHA A-camp since 1995. In 1998, she was one of 38 international coaches selected to attend the International Field Hockey coaching course, held in conjunction with the 1998 World Cup in Holland.

In the spring and summer of 1997, Griesbaum worked camps and coached the national teams throughout the country. She coached at the United States Field Hockey Association A-Camp and served as assistant coach for the United States Under-21 National Team that played in the Junior National World Cup Qualifying Tournament in January of 1997 (Santiago, Chile). Griesbaum participated in that same tournament as an assistant coach in Venezuela in the fall of 1992.

In 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2001-04 she was a selector at the National Futures Tournament in Maryland. Those same summers Griesbaum was a coach at the USFHA B-Camp. Following B-Camp she coached the Under-18 team in a mini-tournament held in Boston (1996).

During the summer of 1996, Griesbaum was the co-head coach of the U.S. Under-18 National Team which traveled to Montreal, Quebec to compete in the Montreal Cup.

As the head coach at LaSalle University in Philadelphia, PA, during the 1990 and 1991 seasons, Griesbaum led her team to a 13-21-3 overall record.

A 1989 graduate of West Chester University, Griesbaum earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts with a minor in health sciences and coaching. She was former Hawkeye coach Beth Beglin's first recruit at West Chester University in 1984 and was a three-time regional All-American and a two-time national All-American. In 1987 she was named the Pennsylvania Association Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (PAIAW) Field Hockey Player of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year.

Griesbaum, a 1987 Broderick Award Nominee, also has extensive international playing experience. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1989-91, 1993 and the U.S. National Reserve Team in 1988. Griesbaum played on the U.S. National team that competed in the 1993 Intercontinental Cup. She played in the 1991 Pan American Games, World University Games and Olympic Qualifying. She was a two-time U.S. Olympic Festival participant, winning the Gold Medal in 1989. In 2003, she played in the North American Premiere League for Philadelphia, and played three years in the USFHA Summer League.
