Post game commenets by Coach Denny Stolz:

"Yes, this win let us achieve our goal. It was (after the Ohio State game) to win four of our last five games. This we did."

About Butch Caldwell's TD run: "I never expected that quarterback to go as far as he did. You just don't expect anybody to break a run like that against ~~XX~~ our defense."

About the Iowa team: "I think they (Hawks) must have played one of their finest football games today. This is just what we expected, that they would come out here all fired up. And that's just what they (Hawks) did."

"Yes, I'm glad our season is over. We are hurting so badly, as far as injuries, I don't know if we could ~~XXXX~~ play another one. We were really hurting physically for this game."

About the Iowa fans: "They really are behind this team aren't they. We really couldn't hear out there. They sure get excited and noisy."

"I think our defense, except for that one bad play, was just excellent."

IOWA COACH FRANK LAUTERBUR

"We moved the ball well today, but just couldn't get it in there. We stayed consistent today by once again making errors when they hurt us the most.

"Michigan State has a fine defensive ball club. But I thought we played well defensively today. We made some fine tackles and blocked a kick.

"After the game Denny Stolz merely wished me good luck.

"That was a great run by Caldwell. We had called it just that way. It was a run all the way. Rollins and Lester Washington both had ankle injuries from the Ohio State game. Neither of the two could move very well, so we kept them out. Butch Caldwell hurt his knee on the last play of the game, but it was nothing serious.

What's going thru your mind now, Frank? "Probably the foremost thing on my mind is where I'll be working next year. I really don't have a preference to pro or college but I'm going to stay in coaching. My first concern, though, is to get my current staff situated. But I'll go wherever I fit in."

"I want to thank all of the news media for being great to me. You've all been great and I'll remember you all fond memories.
