THIS WEEK:

WINTER CUP CHALLENGE:

The 2013 Winter Cup Challenge will be held Feb. 7 and Feb. 9 at the Las Vegas Sports Center, with action beginning at 12:50 p.m. (CT) on Thursday and 7:05 p.m. (CT) on Saturday. The field of approximately 96 gymnasts will be divided into two preliminary sessions, with the top 42 athletes advancing to the finals. The top three gymnasts on each event based on the preliminary session scores (both sessions are combined) also advance to the finals. The all-around and individual event champions will be determined via a combined two-day score. The field for the Winter Cup includes current senior national team members and junior and senior qualifiers to the 2012 Visa Championships. Also invited are the top six in the all-around and the top two on each event based on the best scores from the following 2012 events: the finals at the Winter Cup Challenge; and the all-around or individual event finals at the USA Gymnastics Collegiate Championships, NCAA National Championships and the National Qualifier.

LAST TIME OUT:

No. 8 Iowa men's gymnastics team fell to fourth-rated Oklahoma, 436.55-420.200, on Feb. 2 in its home opener inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Senior Anton Gryshayev took the still rings title for the second time this season with a score of 15.400. Sophomore Lance Alberhasky placed second in the all-around (83.600), followed by senior Javier Balboa in third place (80.100). The Sooners' Alec Robin claimed the all-around title with an 85.400.

PARKING AT IOWA VS MINNESOTA MEET:

Parking for Friday's meet will be available in Hospital Ramp 3 and Newton Road Parking ramp. Both ramps are located near Carver-Hawkeye Arena and require an hourly fee. Fans should not park in reserved faculty/staff areas. Those that do so are likely to receive a ticket from the university parking office.

GRYSHAYEV RANKED NO. 1:

After winning rings at the Metroplex Challenge and Iowa's dual against Oklahoma, Senior Anton Gryshayev was named No. 1 in the nation on still rings, released Monday by GymInfo. Gryshayev owns the top five scores in school history on the rings, breaking his own school record at the Metroplex Challenge on Jan. 26 in Fort Worth, Texas. His score of 15.800 was the highest of any of the events in the competition.
