THIS WEEK -- The University of Iowa men's golf team will travel to Wilmington, NC, to compete in the Landfall Tradition this weekend. The tournament will be held on the Nicklaus Course at the Country Club of Landfall. Competition consists of 54 holes, beginning Friday. Teams will play 18 holes each day, with play concluding Sunday.

COUNTRY CLUB OF LANDFALL -- The Nicklaus Course consists of 27 holes. The original 18 holes were completed in 1990 while the final nine holes were finished in 2001. Each nine, Pines, Ocean and Marsh, is named due to its terrain.

THE COMPETITION -- Teams competing along with Iowa are UNC-Wilmington, Georgia Southern, Kansas, Ohio State, Purdue, Tulsa, Virginia, Virginia Commonwealth, Virginia Tech, William & Mary and Xavier.

THIS WEEK'S LINEUP --

Name	Yr.	Hometown (High School)

LAST MEET -- The Hawkeyes finished 12th at the Duke/Coca Cola Classic. Iowa finished the tournament with a 54-hole score of 882 (+18). Freshman Vince India, junior Cole Peevler and senior Scot Glasford tied for 51st place, with 54-hole scores of 222. Senior Todd Larson finished one shot behind with a 223. Larson tied for 60th. In addition, senior Dan Holterhaus tied for 65th with a 224.

HEAD COACH MARK HANKINS -- Hankins is in his first year as Iowa's head men's golf coach. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, at Michigan State, in 2005 and 2007 after leading the Spartans to Big Ten Championships. Hankins also led the Spartans to five NCAA tournament appearances in his seven years as head coach. He is a native of Mt. Pleasant, IA, and a graduate of Iowa State University.

QUOTING COACH HANKINS -- "The Landfall Tradition is a great event and we look forward to competing in a tournament we have never played in before. It is a great field and we look forward to the competition. We had a decent showing at the Duke/Coca Cola Classic and we will look to build on our performance."
