IOWA EARNS FOURTH STRAIGHT BIG TEN REGULAR SEASON TITLE

Iowa earned its fourth straight Big Ten regular season title Feb. 20 with a 19-12 win over Minnesota in Minneapolis. The Hawkeyes posted a 15-0-1 (8-0 Big Ten) dual record for 2010-11, marking the third straight season that Iowa has posted an undefeated record, and the fourth straight year that Iowa has gone 8-0 in Big Ten duals. The win over Minnesota extended Iowa's unbeaten dual-match streak to 77, which is a school record. The Hawkeyes have now posted 21 undefeated seasons in school history.

2010 BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIPS REVIEW - HAWKEYES WIN TITLE, CROWN TWO CHAMPS

University of Iowa seniors Jay Borschel (174) and Dan Erikson (Hwt.) wrestled their way to conference titles at the 2010 Big Ten Championships in Ann Arbor, Mich. The duo helped the top-ranked Hawkeyes win their third-straight Big Ten title and the school's 34th overall. Iowa scored 156.5 points en route to the team title, which is its highest point total since 1995 (185), and the Big Ten's highest since Minnesota scored 174 in 2002. Iowa also qualified its entire 10-man lineup for the 2010 NCAA Championships for the 18th time in school history and the first time since 2004.

Hawkeye Head Coach Tom Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight year. He became the first coach in conference history to earn the honor in three consecutive seasons. Iowa redshirt freshman Matt McDonough, who placed second at 125 pounds, was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He is the fifth Hawkeye in school history to earn the honor and the first since Steve Mocco in 2002.

Borschel, who was the tournament's top seed at 174, picked up his first Big Ten title with an 8-1 win over Minnesota's Scott Glasser in the finals. The Iowa senior controlled the match, scoring a takedown in each period, a second-period escape and a point for accumulating 2:59 of riding time. Borschel's won Iowa's first Big Ten title at 174 pounds.

Erikson became Iowa's 27th two-time conference champion with his 9-6 win over top-seeded Nate Everhart of Indiana in the finals. Erikson took Everhart to his back right off the opening whistle, scoring a takedown and three nearfall points to take a 5-0 lead. Everhart, who entered the bout with a 35-0 record, scored two escapes, but Erikson took a 6-2 lead when he was awarded a penalty point for Everhart fleeing the mat. Erikson started the third period with an escape, but Everhart rallied with two takedowns. Erikson held off the rally and added a point for 1:01 riding time.

McDonough, and seniors Daniel Dennis (133), Brent Metcalf (149) and Phillip Keddy (184) all earned second-place finishes for the Hawkeyes. Sophomore Montell Marion (141) placed third, while junior Jake Kerr (157) and senior Ryan Morningstar (165) placed fourth, and senior Chad Beatty (197) placed sixth.

McDonough, who was making his first Big Ten Championships appearance, lost a close 6-4 decision to three-time Big Ten champion Angel Escobedo of Indiana in the finals. Both wrestlers entered the bout with undefeated 32-0 records. After two periods full of scrambles, Escobedo led 1-0. McDonough escaped early in the third period to tie the score at 1-1, but Escobedo scored a quick takedown to take a 3-1 lead. McDonough escaped with 40 seconds left, but Escobedo scored another takedown to make the score 5-2. McDonough reversed the top-seeded senior with 13 seconds left to pull within one (5-4). He let Escobedo up, but ran out of time before he could score again.

Dennis, who was also wrestling in his first Big Ten finals, lost to two-time Big Ten champion Jayson Ness of Minnesota, 9-3, in the 133-pound finals. Ness, who was the top seed and undefeated at 25-0, scored a first period takedown to take a 2-0 lead. Dennis chose the neutral position to start the second period and neither wrestler scored. Ness chose the down position to start the third period, scoring an escape, takedown and two nearfall points to go up 7-0. Dennis escaped and scored a takedown of his own, but Ness escaped and added a riding time point for the 9-3 win.

Metcalf was going for his third-straight 149-pound Big Ten title, but Ohio State's Lance Palmer spoiled the effort with a 9-3 victory in the finals. Metcalf led 3-1 after the first two periods, but Palmer had 1:33 in riding time going into the third. Palmer chose down to start the third period, and was awarded a penalty point after Metcalf was called for locked hands during a scramble. Metcalf held on to get the riding time under one minute, but Palmer escaped to tie the score at 3-3. The pair scrambled after an offensive flurry and Palmer came out on top, scoring a takedown and three nearfall points when he caught Metcalf on his back. Palmer held on to get the riding time point back and win his first Big Ten title. The Buckeye handed Metcalf (31-1) his first season loss while scoring his first win over Metcalf in five attempts.

Keddy placed second for the second-straight year, losing a 5-2 decision to top seed John Dergo of Illinois in the 184-pound finals. The Hawkeye senior put the first points on the board with an escape to start the second period. Dergo followed with a takedown, but Keddy quickly escaped to tie the score at 2-2. Dergo started the third period in the down position and escaped to grab a 3-2 lead. Keddy had several offensive attempts, and Dergo capitalized on the last one, scoring a takedown for the win.

The Hawkeyes had some key matches early in Sunday's consolation round to ensure 10 national qualifiers. The NCAA only allocated four automatic qualifiers at 141 and 157 pounds, which meant that Marion and Kerr needed to win their first round matches to earn a trip to the NCAA meet. Morningstar's 165-pound class allowed for five qualifiers, meaning that he needed to win at least one match to make the national trip, and the 197-pound class took seven qualifiers so Beatty was guaranteed to go regardless of his finish.

Marion was the only Hawkeye to win two matches on the day, posting an 11-6 decision over Wisconsin's Cole Schmitt in the consolation semifinals and a 5-2 win over Purdue's Juan Archuleta in the third-place match. Against Schmitt, Marion led 4-2 at the start of the third period, but the Badger escaped and scored a takedown to take a 5-4 lead. Marion reversed Schmitt to take a 6-5 lead with 42 seconds remaining. Schmitt escaped to tie the score at 6-6 and had 1:06 of riding time banked, but Marion's takedown with 12 seconds left and three additional nearfall points as time expired gave him the 11-6 win.

Kerr scored a 5-3 decision over Michigan's David Johnson in the consolation semifinals, but lost a 6-4 decision in overtime to Michigan State's Anthony Jones to place fourth. Morningstar held off a late charge from Indiana's Paul Young to post a 4-3 win in the consolation semifinals. He was tied 2-2 with Penn State's Dan Vallimont in the third-place bout, but was injured going out of bounds and was forced to default the match and take fourth place. Beatty, who was wrestling in his first competition since December due to injury, posted medical forfeits in each of his matches to place sixth.

BIG TEN RECORDS

Iowa holds records in five of seven Big Ten Championship categories. The Hawkeyes hold records for most individual champions in one tournament (9 in 1983), most consecutive team titles (25 from 1974-98), most falls by a team in one tournament (12 in 1979), largest victory margin (118.5 points in 1983) and fastest fall in all matches (Bart Chelesvig's 23-second pin over Illinois' Keith Bolman in 1992).

The Hawkeyes have won the most Big Ten team titles (34) and crowned the most individual champions (186). Seven of the Big Ten's 10 four-time conference champions were Hawkeyes, and Iowa has had 18 of the conference's 51 three-time champions.

HAWKEYES LEAD NATION IN ATTENDANCE

Iowa led the nation in average dual attendance for the fifth straight season, averaging 8,209 fans in six home duals in 2010-11. That figure breaks the previous national average record of 8,125, which Iowa set in 2009-10. The Hawkeyes also posted the largest dual crowd of the 2010-11 season when they drew 11,895 against Iowa State on Dec. 3. Over the past three seasons, Iowa has averaged over 8,000 fans per dual.

When calculating national attendance averages, team must host a minimum of four duals to qualify and only single or double duals are counted toward the average, which disqualifies Iowa's season-opening Iowa City Duals.

Following are is the list of the top 10 national average dual attendance figures for 2010-11, including each school's total attendance figure and its top crowd.

BIG TEN WRESTLERS OF THE WEEK

Senior Luke Lofthouse (197) and sophomore Matt McDonough (125) earned Big Ten Wrestler of the Week honors during the 2010-11 season. It was the first time that either wrestler earned the weekly conference honor during their Iowa careers.

Lofthouse earned the last weekly honor of the regular season with his Feb. 20 decision over Minnesota's Sonny Yohn. Lofthouse, who is ranked sixth in the nation by Intermat and seventh by Amateur Wrestling News and W.I.N. Magazine, closed out his collegiate dual career with a 7-4 victory over Yohn, helping the second-ranked Hawkeyes to their fourth-straight Big Ten regular season title. Iowa also extended its unbeaten dual streak to 77 with its 19-12 win over No. 5 Minnesota, ending the regular season with a 15-0-1 record. Iowa had a narrow 13-12 lead over the Golden Gophers, when Lofthouse, who entered the dual ranked eighth in the nation, took the mat against Yohn, who was ranked between fourth and seventh. Trailing Yohn, 3-2, at the start of the third period, the Hawkeye senior scored a quick escape to tie the score and added two takedowns in the final minute to give Iowa a 16-12 lead going into the final bout.

McDonough earned the honor Feb. 1, after recording two pins to help Iowa beat No. 18 Northwestern (31-9) Jan. 28 in Evanston and top-ranked Penn State (22-13) Jan. 30 in University Park. Iowa's wins over Northwestern and Penn State extended its streak of unbeaten duals to 73, and helped the Hawkeyes jump to No. 2 in the next week's NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll. McDonough entered the Northwestern dual against top-ranked and undefeated Wildcat Brandon Precin ranked second by Intermat and WIN, and third by AWN. Pre-cin handed McDonough his first season loss and second career loss at the 2010 Midlands Championships in December, taking over the top ranking. Precin took a 3-0 lead Friday night and had the riding time point locked up mid-way through the third period when McDonough took the Wildcat senior to his back and recorded a pin in 6:11 to hand Precin his first loss of the season. Against Penn State, McDonough got the Hawkeyes out to a strong 6-0 start and kept the sold-out Rec Hall crowd quiet when he pinned Penn State's Nate Morgan in 4:16 to open the dual. The Hawkeyes held Penn State to its lowest point total of the season, while handing the Nittany Lions their first loss.

IOWA WINNING STREAKS

Iowa is unbeaten in its last 77 dual matches, which is a school record. The current streak started with a win over Cornell (32-3) on Jan. 12, 2008, which was the first match after Iowa lost to Oklahoma State (19-14) on Jan. 5. The Hawkeyes are unbeaten in 47 consecutive road duals, which is also a school record. That streak started with a 20-13 win at Iowa State on Dec. 9, 2007.

Iowa's 15-15 tie with Oklahoma State on Jan. 16, 2011, broke the Hawkeyes' 69-match winning streak that started with a win over Cornell (32-3) on Jan. 12, 2008. That streak is an Iowa school record and ranks second-best in NCAA wrestling history behind an Oklahoma State streak. The Cowboys won 76 straight duals from 1937-51. Oklahoma State is tied with Iowa in second place, tallying two 69-match streaks (1921-32 and 1996-99).

Against Big Ten foes, the Hawkeyes have won their last 35 duals, including 16 at home and 19 on the road. All three rank second in school history. Iowa's school record for consecutive Big Ten wins is 98 (12/13/1975-1/28/1989), while the records for Big Ten home wins is 63 (1/17/1975-1/3/1998) and road wins is 54 (1/19/1974-1/28/1989).

Iowa has won its last 33 duals at home. That streak, which ranks fourth-best in school history, started with a 27-13 win over Penn State on Jan. 20, 2008, which was also the first home match after the loss to Oklahoma State. The school record for home wins is 55 (1/9/1977-12/18/1983).

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

The Hawkeye wrestling staff of Tom Brands, Terry Brands, Mike Zadick, Kurt Backes and Danny Song earned a total of one Olympic gold medal, one Olympic bronze medal, five NCAA titles, nine conference titles and 12 All-America honors.

IOWA CITY TO HOST 2012 U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM TRIALS

Iowa City has been selected to host the 2012 U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Wrestling. The event will be held at Carver-Hawkeye Arena on the campus of the University of Iowa from April 21-22, 2012.

Iowa City was one of three finalist cities to make final presentations on their bid to a selection committee on Jan. 12. The committee included USA Wrestling staff and athletes, as well as representatives from the U.S. Olympic Committee. The other cities to make finalist presentations were Columbus, OH, and Council Bluffs, IA.

Initially, seven cities bid to host the competition. Those cities which were not selected for finalist presentations were Greensboro, NC; Hampton, VA; Oklahoma City, OK; and Pontiac, MI.

"We are unbelievably pleased and humbled with the response we received from cities wishing to host our most valuable event property," said USA Wrestling Executive Director Rich Bender. "We would like to thank the leaders from all three finalist cities for their outstanding presentations. We hope that all of these cities continue to be involved with USA Wrestling and host wrestling events in years to come."

The initial bid proposal for the event also included the U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Weightlifting. Due to a scheduling conflict, USA Weightlifting could no longer hold Trials on the selected dates and stepped out of the bid process.

The event will feature competition in the three Olympic styles of the sport – men's freestyle, Greco-Roman and women's freestyle. The competition will determine the U.S. athletes who will qualify to represent the United States at the 2012 Olympic Games in London, England.

The local organizing committee is led by the University of Iowa Athletics and the Iowa City/Coralville Area CVB and includes leaders from the City of Iowa City, City of Coralville and City of North Liberty. Among those serving on the host committee are legendary collegiate and Olympic wrestlers Dan Gable, Tom Brands, Terry Brands, Lincoln McClravy and Cornell College coach Mike Duroe.

"I believe this is a good decision for the future of wrestling at all levels. This will help increase the visibility of our sport. I see more growth for wrestling as a result. It gets me very excited," said wrestling legend Dan Gable from the local organizing committee.

"The Iowa City local organizing committee was selected based upon their proven track record of hosting large and successful wrestling events, as well as a history of drawing strong fan support," said Bender. "We are committed to working tirelessly with the organizing committee and the entire community to host the most successful U.S. Olympic Team Trials in our history."

"This community is fired up to welcome our nation's best to Carver-Hawkeye Arena and will come together as they have so many times to produce a Trials that is remembered for years to come," said Joshua Schamberger, President of the Iowa City/

Coralville Area Convention & Visitors Bureau "Our entire community couldn't be more excited by this news. We look forward to creating an athlete and fan experience that will carry on through London."

Carver-Hawkeye Arena, which is located on the University of Iowa campus, serves as the home arena for Iowa's wrestling team, as well as Iowa's basketball and volleyball squads. The arena seats 15,000 for wrestling and is named after long-time wrestling supporter Roy J. Carver. The $47 million Carver-Hawkeye Arena – Addition and Renovation Project is underway to expand and upgrade facilities, and is scheduled for completion in time for the 2011-12 athletic year.

This is the first time that the U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Wrestling has been hosted in Iowa since USA Wrestling has served as National Governing Body in 1984. Carver-Hawkeye Arena hosted the NCAA Div. I Wrestling Championships four times (1986, 1991, 1995, 2001). The total attendance figures for the 1995 (80,389), 2001 (79,477) and 1991 (70,163) NCAA Championships rank ninth, 11th and 15th, respectively among NCAA Wrestling Championships. It also hosted the Big Ten Wrestling Championships three times (1983, 1994, 2005).

A preliminary U.S. Olympic Team Trials qualifying event for wrestling was held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 1984. Other major wrestling competitions held at Carver-Hawkeye Arena include two NWCA All-Star Classics (1993, 1996) and two Cliff Keen NWCA National Duals (1998, 1999).

The Field House at the University of Iowa hosted the first USA Wrestling Junior National Championships in 1971, and served as venue for the competition from 1971-1982. Iowa City also hosted USA Wrestling's Greco-Roman National Championships three times (1975, 1977, 1978). Iowa City also hosted the 1983 USA Wrestling Freestyle World Team Trials.

"We are thrilled and excited with this remarkable opportunity to stage an event that will have the full attention of wrestling community not only in the state of Iowa and the Heartland, but the United States and the world. We are also delighted with the opportunity to showcase the revitalized Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Rest assured, the University of Iowa, the UI Athletics Department, and our city partners are ready to stage an event that USA Wrestling will be very, very proud of," said Gary Barta, Athletics Director of the University of Iowa.

Tom Brands
Head Coach
University of Iowa, 1992

Three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, Tom Brands, is in his fifth season as head wrestling coach at the University of Iowa. A 1996 Olympic gold medalist and member of wrestling's Hall of Fame, Brands is only the eighth wrestling coach at the University of Iowa. The former Hawkeye wrestler was a four-time All-American and three-time national champion (1989-

92) at Iowa. He has an 97-6-1 overall and 37-3 Big Ten coaching record at Iowa, and a 114-26 career mark.

In 2009-10, the top-ranked Hawkeyes won their third straight NCAA, Big Ten tournament and Big Ten regular season titles, going undefeated (23-0) for the second straight year. Iowa crowned three NCAA champions in Matt McDonough (125), Brent Metcalf (149) and Jay Borschel (174), and had eight wrestlers earn All-America honors en route to its 23rd national team title. The Hawkeyes scored 156.5 points at the Big Ten Championships, which is its highest total since 1995 (185), and the Big Ten's highest since 2002. Iowa also qualified its entire 10-man lineup for the NCAA meet for the 18th time in school history and the first time since 2004. Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight year, becoming the first coach in conference history to earn the honor in three consecutive seasons. McDonough was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, becoming the fifth Hawkeye and the first since Steve Mocco (2002) to earn the honor. Senior Dan Erekson (Hwt.) won his second Big Ten title, while Borschel (174) won his first. During the season, Iowa set school records for longest dual winning streak (61), longest dual road winning streak (41), most Carver-Hawkeye Arena victories (11) and most dual shutouts (8). Borschel (105), Metcalf (123) and McDonough (104) all scored over 100 team points in dual competition, marking the first season since since 2000-01 that more than one wrestler has scored over 100 dual team points. Iowa also won the 2009 Midlands title and the Division I trophy at the 2010 NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals, where Borschel earned Division I Outstanding Wrestler honors.

Brands led Iowa to its second straight NCAA and Big Ten team titles in 2008-09, crowning five All-Americans and two Big Ten champions. The 2009 national title was the school's 22nd, and it was only the second time in school history Iowa won the NCAA title without an individual champion. Brands earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors for the second straight season after guiding Iowa to the school's 33rd conference team title. Metcalf and Erekson won Big Ten titles to lead the team's nine placewinners and NCAA automatic qualifiers. Metcalf was named Outstanding Wrestler of the Big Ten meet for the second straight season, becoming the first conference wrestler to earn the honor in consecutive seasons. Nine Hawkeyes earned academic all-Big Ten honors, besting the previous school record of seven.

The Hawkeyes ended the 2008-09 dual meet campaign with a perfect 24-0 record, going undefeated for the first time since 1999-2000. Iowa has posted 13 undefeated and untied seasons in school history with the 2009 season producing the most victories ever. The Hawkeyes clinched the 2009 Big Ten regular season title with a perfect 8-0 mark in conference competition, and won the 2008 Midlands and 2009 NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Division I team trophies. Iowa also made another entry in the record books, setting the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 15,955 when it hosted Iowa State Dec. 6, 2008, at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The previous record of 15,646 was set Feb. 1, 2002, when Minnesota hosted Iowa at the Target Center in Minneapolis. The Hawkeyes won the Iowa State dual, 20-15.

In his second season with the Hawkeyes, Brands guided the squad to NCAA and Big Ten titles, as well the 2008 Big Ten regular season title with an undefeated 8-0 mark. It was Iowa's first NCAA team title since 2000 and its first Big Ten title since 2004. Iowa also won the 2007 Midlands title and the Division I trophy at the NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals. The Hawkeyes posted a 21-1 dual mark, ending the season on a 14-match winning streak. Brand was named 2008 NWCA and Big Ten Coach of the Year for his accomplishments.

Metcalf led the way for Iowa in 2007-08, winning his first NCAA and Big Ten title along with a long list of national and conference honors. He was awarded the Dan Hodge Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate wrestler, as well as the Jesse Owens Big Ten Male Athlete of the Year award. Metcalf was also named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA and Big Ten tournaments, Big Ten Wrestler of the Year and Division I Outstanding Wrestler at the NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals. The 149-pounder is only the fourth Hawkeye to ever to earn both Big Ten honors in the same season. Brands (1989), his twin brother Terry (1992) and Mark Ironside (1997) are the other three. Mark Perry also concluded an outstanding Hawkeye career in 2008, winning his second consecutive NCAA title at 165 pounds and capturing his fourth All-America honor. He became Iowa's 14th
