CORRECTION ON FINAL TEAM STATS: Iowa had 45 rushes, not 14 as appears on sheet

COACHES COMMENTS:

Alex Agase of Purdue

"It's nice to win. This is a good football team and I'm ~~VERY~~ glad for them. We did have several players hurt out there today, I hope they're okay by next week."

"Our game plan for offense was to run the football. And that's just what we did. I don't know what the statistics show yet, but I think we did a pretty good job on the ground."

Asked about going for two points after the final touchdown late in the game, "That play came from the bench. I just wanted to go for two points."

"Yes, we substituted pretty early in the second half. But they (Iowa) got pretty fired up and we had to put in some of the regulars to put out the fire."

"That was a pass play all the way on the fake punt. Yes, we've used that before. Iowa used the on-sides kick and we used the fake punt to keep the ball away from them."

"Their (Iowa's) quarterback is really exciting. And he throws much better than I thought he could. He has quick feel, and we knew he could run. ^{But} on a couple of those passes, they were just perfect and there's no way to defense against a ball thrown that well."

About Northington: "If he doesn't make the Big Ten Players of the Week this week, I'll sure be pretty surprised. He's just some kind of player."

IOWA COACH FRANK LAUTERBUR

"The Big thing in this game was their momentum...they took it and kept it for most of the game. But I've got to be proud of our team the way they came back in the fourth quarter.

Butch Caldwell got better as the game progressed and did some of the things we know he's capable of doing. Mark Fetter also had an excellent day. He's our No. 1 tailback after today's game. He does everything well and is consistent.

Bobrowski and Northington both are excellent ball players. They sure made the difference today. We've just gotta play better defense.

I can't fault Alex for going for two on their final touchdown. We had the momentum and he was trying to take it away.

Dave Jackson did a fine job for us today. We gotta lift in that final quarter and I think it's going to carry over into next week's game with Wisconsin. We'll be ready to play next week.

Dan McCarney suffered a sprained ankle (the same one that hurt him earlier in the year.
