LOCKER ROOM QUOTES FROM IOWA COACH HAYDEN FRY:

I'm very proud of my football team. We overcame mistakes and executed very well on defense and offense.

Hudson had a great first half. He'll get better and better as the season goes on.

Vlasic: I'm very pleased with his effort today. His long TD pass to Mauro was a thing of beauty.

On beating ISU: We always want to win our first game of the year no matter who we are playing. I hope they win the rest of their games..

We have so many quality tight ends I thought we had to play them all in a three TE set-up. It's hard for a defense to adjust to that.

The secondary did a great job. They only allowed 11-31 passes to be completed. They are all very solid and we now have much more speed back there.

On becoming Iowa's all-time winningest coach: "I don't know Ronnie (DMR's Ron Maly) you haven't sent me any money yet." It's really a tribute to my staff, they are all the best.

POST GAME COMMENTS BY Iowa State Coach Jim Criner:

"This game obviously is a real disappointment to us because of the way we played. Their (Iowa's) defensive line dominated us and really controlled the game. We thought our offense would be able to do much better. I felt we had our receivers out in the open on many occasions. But Alex (Espinoza) was running for his life most of the afternoon. He really never had a chance to hit any of the open receivers."

"What the Cyclones have got to do now is learn from this game. It's important that, as much as we wanted to play well and win, we learn from it, put it behind us, and get ready for our next game."

"We lost to a very good football team here this afternoon."

"Did loss of (Jeff) Braswell hurt us today. Well, I can't say that was the reason Iowa scores 47 or 49 points or however many they did score against us this afternoon. But when you lose an emotional leader who is also a very good player, it can't help but hurt. "

"Probably the biggest single factor in the game today was their (Iowa's) pass rush.

"I was pleased that our defense came back today and hung in there. I also thought our kicking game was pretty good today."
