Game Notes

Montana at Iowa

September 2, 2006

Iowa improves to 85-31-2 (.729) in season-opening games and 87-29-1 (.748) in home openers. Iowa has averaged 44.2 points and a winning margin of 37.8 in its last six season openers. The Hawkeyes are 19-1 (.950) in their last 20 home games.

Today's win is Head Coach Kirk Ferentz's 50th triumph as Iowa's head coach. Ferentz is only two victories from matching Forest Evashevski for the second-most wins by a Hawkeye head coach.

QB Drew Tate completed 15-28 passes for 223 yards and three touchdowns. All three touchdowns were completed to different receivers (WR Dominique Douglas, RB Albert Young, TE Scott Chandler). Tate has thrown two touchdown passes or more in 18 career games, including 15 of his last 18 games dating back to 2004. He has tossed 46 career touchdowns and has claimed sole possession of second place in career touchdown passes. Chuck Long is Iowa's career leader with 74.

RB Albert Young rushed 19 times for 93 yards. He also scored two five-yard touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving. The junior has amassed 1,519 career yards on 295 attempts. He moved past Ryan Terry and Mike Saunders into 18th place on Iowa's career rushing chart. He also caught four passes for 55 yards. The four receptions equal a career high. Young had four games with four receptions in 2005.

Austin Signor handled the place kicking duties today due to starter Kyle Schlicher missing the game due to injury. Signor converted on all five PATs and both field goal attempts of 41 and 35 yards in his first collegiate action.

Three true freshmen played today: WR Dominique Douglas, WR Anthony Bowman and LB A.J. Edds. Douglas caught three passes for 43 yards and a touchdown and returned one punt for 25 yards, while Bowman and Edds did not record any statistics.

Four different players scored Iowa's five touchdowns (RB Albert Young – 2; TE Scott Chandler; WR Dominique Douglas; RB Dana Brown). Touchdowns scored by Douglas and Brown are the first of their careers.

Iowa's defense limited Montana to 10 rushing yards on 24 attempts. The 10 yards are the second-fewest by an Iowa opponent during Ferentz's Iowa head coaching tenure. The Hawkeyes also limited Montana to only 144 total yards, a total that ties for second-fewest by an Iowa opponent under Ferentz. The Grizzlies were also limited to just 11 first downs, which ties for third-fewest by a Hawkeye opponent under Ferentz.

Junior LB Mike Klinkenborg collected a team and career-high 11 tackles (2 solo). Junior DE Bryan Mattison recorded seven tackles (4 solo), including three for loss. Sophomore DL Mitch King also tallied seven tackles (2 solo), including two for loss.

Iowa's second touchdown drive covered nine plays, 89 yards, in 3:37. The drive culminated on a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate to true freshman WR Dominique Douglas. Fifty-two of the 89 yards on the scoring drive were the result of two passing plays to running backs. Albert Young caught a 35-yard pass, while Damian Sims had a 17-yard reception.

Iowa converted the only turnover it forced into three points. Junior LB Mike Humpal intercepted Montana QB Josh Swogger on the Montana 26-yard line in the second period, which led to a 41-yard field goal by redshirt freshman Austin Signor. Montana converted an Iowa RB Albert Young fumble into a touchdown in the third quarter.

Iowa, who ranked second nationally in red zone proficiency in 2005, scored on all six red zone possessions (5 touchdowns, 1 field goal).

Montana won the toss and deferred to the second half. Iowa has started on offense in 73 of its last 80 games. The Hawkeyes have started the game on offense in 75-of-86 games under Kirk Ferentz.

Iowa has won 35 of its last 44 regular season games. The Hawkeyes are also 34-3 when leading at the half and 38-2 when leading after three quarters the last five years.

Neither team scored on its first possession. In fact, both team's opening possession resulted in a three-and-out. The Hawkeye defense held the Grizzlies without a first down on their first three possessions. Furthermore, Montana was not able to advance past the Iowa 30-yard line until its first possession of the third quarter, in which the drive resulted in a touchdown.

Today's attendance of 70,585 is Iowa's 18th consecutive sell out, dating back to the 2003 season. All seven Hawkeye home games this season are sold out.

Iowa dominated the first quarter, posting 81 yards on 20 offensive plays, while Montana ran only nine offensive plays for negative one yard.

Iowa travels to Syracuse (2:30 p.m. CT, ABC) next weekend before hosting Iowa State (11:05 a.m., ESPN) on Sept. 16.

Coaches Quotes

Montana at Iowa, Sept. 2, 2006

Iowa Head Coach Kirk Ferentz

“Certainly there are some things we have to clean up, but the kids were prepared mentally and played hard. They (Montana) came in with the intent to stop the run, and they did very well with that.

On Dominique Douglas: He wasn't a super-duper blue chip recruit, but has really come along well. Sometimes those rating systems miss a few and I think we found someone with potential.

On the D-Line: Looking at it this time last year, it just seems like complete night and day.

On Bryan Mattison: He's not real flashy, but a guy that just digs and digs and digs; He really reminds me of an Aaron Kampman type.

On the DB's: We didn't give them anything real easy and that's nice to see, especially in an early ball game.”

Montana Head Coach Bobby Hauck

“We're 0-1, that's about as simple as it gets. It's a loss.

We came out in the second half and had it at 17-7 and we felt like we had a ballgame. They did a nice job of answering by going down the field. That's the sign of a good football team and a well-coached team.

Iowa's awfully good up-front on defense and we knew that going in. I like their defense, I think they are really solid. They've got good players.

We didn't have a lot of answers for Chandler. He made some really nice plays.

We couldn't generate first downs early in the game. Josh looked a little rusty and our defense was on the field a whole bunch and they played really hard. I think that had some residual effect there in the second half.”

Iowa Player Quotes
Montana vs. Iowa
September 2, 2006

RS Freshman Austin Signor

"Coach Ferentz stresses next man in, and I'm just trying to do the best I can."

"I was really nervous out there warming up, but came out with the stadium packed, and started feeling good."

Senior Marcus Paschal

"The first game, we came out and got a W, but we gotta get back at it tomorrow."

"The defensive line had a great day today, and took a lot of pressure off the secondary."

"Holding a team to 10 yards rushing is pretty good, and gives us somewhere to start."

"It felt good being in there. It's what you work for, to get out there and get a chance."

Senior Scott Chandler

"We had some plays that we left out there, but we made some plays too. We had some guys some step up."

"We hammered the run early, a lot and I think that opened up some stuff for us later in the game, and we were able to take advantage of it."

"You gotta give Montana credit. They came to play today and they are a good 1-AA team, and they fought hard today."

Junior Albert Young

"We all knew what [Dominique] Douglas can do. I could have told you that, going into camp, how good of a player he is."
