Women's Swimming SID: James Roe

IOWA WOMEN'S SWIMMING

IOWA FALLS TO NORTHWESTERN

EVANSTON, IL – The University of Iowa women's swimming and diving team fell to Northwestern 163-128 Saturday night in Evanston, IL at the Norris Aquatics Center.

Leading the way for the Hawkeyes were senior Christie Hooper, junior Jennifer Skolaski and sophomore Andrea Hemphill. Hooper swam strong in all three of her individual freestyle events. She took first in the 200 freestyle, a solid second in the 100 freestyle and fifth in the 500 freestyle. Skolaski finished first in the 100 and 200 backstroke. She also swam the opening leg of the 200 medley relay team that took first and came in second in the 200 individual medley. Hemphill finished second in the 100 and 200 butterfly. To go along with her strong performances in her individual butterfly events she also placed fifth in the 200 individual medley and swam the third leg of the 200 medley relay team that finished in third.

The Iowa women's swimming and diving team will compete next at the Big Ten Championships on February 18-21 in Minneapolis, MN.
