LAST MEET -- The Hawkeyes finished 10th out of 12 teams at the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic. Iowa finished the tournament with a 54-hole score of 886 (+46). Freshman Vince India led the Hawkeyes with a score of 215 (+5) to earn eighth place. It was the first tournament of his career. Senior Todd Larson tied for 29th with a score of 220 (+10) and junior Cole Peevler tied for 40th overall with a score of 223 (+13).

HEAD COACH MARK HANKINS -- Hankins is in his first year as the head men's golf coach at Iowa. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year at Michigan State in 2005 and 2007 after leading the Spartans to Big Ten Championships in those years. Hankins also led the Spartans to five NCAA tournament appearances in his seven years as head coach. He is a native of Mt. Pleasant, IA and a graduate of Iowa State University.

QUOTING COACH HANKINS -- "I was very pleased with some of our individual performances. We are still learning how to compete as a team and playing in quality tournaments will help us improve in this area. Continuing to prepare for each round and use it going forward is our goal. If we do these things, we will be in contention for team championships."
