For a second straight year, Launching Fore Charity, a company with a patented golf ball cannon, is teaming with Iowa baseball during the 2018 Iowa Baseball Spring Golf Tournament. Players have the option to shoot their own golf ball upwards of 400-500 yards and use it as their shot. The experience was a hit last season, and we're excited to have the company returning in 2018. Launching Fore Charity owner Matt Augustine is a former player for Rick Heller at Upper Iowa and he's excited to return to Iowa City this spring to support the program and give the players a unique golfing experience.
