

May 16, 2004

Rowing Contact: Amber Gartner

IOWA WOMEN'S ROWING
HAWKEYES FINISH TENTH AT LEXUS SPRINTS

OAK RIDGE, TN -- The University of Iowa women's rowing team completed the final day of competition in the 2004 Lexus Central/South Sprints. The Hawkeyes had three boats in the Petite Finals and one in the C Level Finals.

Iowa finished tenth overall, and seventh in the central region. Virginia won the Central/South sprints with 404 points. Ohio State won the central region with 391 points.

Iowa's First Varsity Four won the C Level finals with a time of 8:08.2. The First Novice Eight defeated Cincinnati to capture the win in the Petite Finals with a time of 8:24.5. Iowa's Second Varsity Eight crossed the finish line with a time of 7:09.1, putting them in sixth place. The First Varsity Eight finished fourth with a time of 6:54.4 in the Petite Finals.

Final Team Standings

1. Virginia – S	404
2. Ohio State – C	391
3. Wisconsin – C	363
4. Michigan – C	362
5. Michigan State – C	303
T6. Notre Dame – C	295
T6. Tennessee – S	295
8. Minnesota – C	264
9. Texas – S	252
10. IOWA – C	209

C – denotes Central Region Team

S – denotes South Region Team

Results (Winner Plus Iowa)

Petite Finals

First Novice Eight

1. IOWA	8:24.5
----------------	---------------

Second Varsity Eight

1. Duke	6:58.5
6. IOWA	7:09.1

First Varsity Eight

1. Michigan State	6:49.9
4. IOWA	6:54.4

C Level Finals

First Varsity Four

1. IOWA

8:08.2

