Iowa plays four home games this week. The Hawkeyes lost to Milwaukee Wednesday night (4-3) before hosting Penn State this weekend. This weekend's series against Penn State marks the final Big Ten home series for Iowa. The Hawkeyes are 5-11 at home. Last season, Iowa went 15-6 at home, including 8-4 in Big Ten contests. The Hawkeyes are 86-84 at home in the Jack Dahm era.

ALL-TIME SERIES:

The Hawkeyes are 24-33 all-time against Penn State. The Hawkeye are 13-13 against the Nittany Lions under head coach Jack Dahm.

SCOUTING PENN STATE:

Penn State is coached by Robbie Wine. Wine is in his seventh year at the helm of the program. The Nittany Lions are 25-16 overall and 7-8 in Big Ten play. Penn State is 12-9 at road sites this season. The Nittany Lions were swept at Michigan State last weekend.

2010 SERIES RECAP:

Iowa won two-of-three from Penn State a year ago in the regular season series. The Black and Gold fell in game one at Penn State, 6-2. The Hawkeyes claimed game two, 9-3, stopping the Nittany Lions' six-game conference winning streak. Iowa's one-five hitters accounted for 12 of its 15 hits en route to victory. Kurtis Muller, Mike McQuillan, Ryan Durant, Phil Keppler and Kurt Lee led the Hawkeyes offensively, collecting three hits, two RBI and scored a run. The junior was only a home run shy of a cycle, hitting a single, double and a triple. McQuillan had multiple hits for the second straight game, hitting three singles and also scored a run. Durant went 3-for-4, with two doubles, a run scored and a stolen base. Keppler went 2-for-3, with a sacrifice fly and a game-high three RBI, while Lee collected two hits, including a triple and an RBI. Starter Nick Brown earned the win for Iowa, throwing seven strong innings. Iowa tallied 18 hits en route to a 13-9 win over Penn State in the rubber match. The Hawkeyes plated runs in six innings and six players registered multiple hit games: Muller, Andrew Host, Chett Zeise, Ryan Durant, Tyson Blaser and McQuillan.

IOWA FALLS TO MILWAUKEE:

The Hawkeyes lost to Milwaukee Wednesday night at Duane Banks Field, 4-3. Tyson Blaser led the Iowa offense, going 2-for-3 with a double and a walk. He also stole two bases. Ricky Sandquist started and took the loss, going four and a third, allowing three runs on six hits. He struck out one. The game can be seen as a tape delay Friday at 1 p.m. on Big Ten Network (HD).

HIPPEN EARNS PITCHER OF THE WEEK:

Junior Jarred Hippen was named Big Ten Pitcher of the Week May 2. The weekly honor is the first of Hippen's career. The Rock Falls, Ill., native earned the weekly honor after falling one batter shy of a perfect game on Friday against Minnesota at Target Field in Minneapolis. The junior needed just 72 pitches, 76 percent of which were strikes, to get through eight innings, surrendering one hit in the 1-0 loss to the Gophers. The left hander struck out two in the process, recording Iowa's first one-hitter since Troy Wulf accomplished the feat in a 3-0 win over Southwest Missouri State in 1998. Hippen is the third Hawkeye to garner weekly honors this season and the second pitcher. Centerfielder Trevor Willis was named Big Ten Player of the Week March 7 and starting pitcher Nick Brown was selected as Big Ten Pitcher of the Week March 21.

MINNESOTA SERIES RECAP:

Last weekend, the Hawkeyes traveled to Minneapolis for a three-game set at Minnesota. Iowa dropped two-of-three to the Golden Gophers at Target Field, the home of the Minnesota Twins. The Hawkeyes lost the series opener Friday evening, 1-0, despite Hawkeye starter Jarred Hippen throwing a one-hit gem. It marked the first one-hitter thrown by a Hawkeye since Troy Wulf one-hit Southwest Missouri State in a 3-0 victory on March 14, 1998. Hippen took the hard-luck loss, despite allowing only one Minnesota base runner. The junior, who was named Big Ten Pitcher of the Week May 2, allowed one run on one hit while striking out two Gophers.

Iowa dropped a heart-breaker to Minnesota Saturday, falling in extras, 5-4. Starter Matt Dermody got a no-decision, allowing three runs (one earned), while scattering seven hits and striking out five in five and two thirds.

The visitors claimed the series finale Sunday, 7-1, behind stellar pitching and offensive performances. Iowa's offense recorded 12 hits against the conference rival. The first four Hawkeyes in the lineup each recorded multi-hit games, combining for nine hits. Iowa's leadoff hitter, Trevor Willis, went 2-for-5. Chett Zeise, batting in the No. 2 spot, went 2-for-5 with two RBI. Mike McQuillan went 3-for-4 with two RBI. The junior leads Iowa with 17 multi-hit games this season, including five three-hit contests. Blaser went 2-for-5 with a home run. In addition, freshman Taylor Zeutenhorst tallied two RBI. Patrick Lala started and recorded the win for the Hawkeyes. The junior pitched five and a third, allowing no runs on two hits. He struck out two. Tim Fangman pitched the final three and two-thirds, earning his third save. He allowed one run on two hits, while striking out three.

DERMODY STAYS SHARP:

Matt Dermody had another solid outing Saturday at Minnesota. The sophomore got a no-decision, allowing three runs (one earned), while scattering seven hits and striking out five in five and two thirds innings. Dermody has not allowed more than two earned runs over his last four starts. The Norwalk, Iowa, native has won four games in 2011 (4-4). As a freshman a year ago, Dermody went 3-2.

'Q':

Mike McQuillan, known as 'Q' by his teammates and coaches, leads Iowa with a .329 batting average. The junior leads the Hawkeyes with 17 multiple hit games, including 12 two-hit outings and five three-hit games. The Evergreen Park, Ill., native is tied with Trevor Willis in multiple RBI games with seven.

ZEUTENHORST FINDS HIS STRIDE:

Freshman Taylor Zeutenhorst collected four hits and five RBI last weekend at Minnesota. Zeutenhorst went 2-for-2 with three RBI in Saturday's 12-inning loss to the Golden Gophers. The rookie delivered two clutch RBI singles, both with two outs. The first was a pinch-hit two-RBI single to pull Iowa within one of the Big Ten rival (3-2), while the other gave the Hawkeyes a brief 4-3 advantage in the top of the 10th. He added a two-RBI single in Sunday's 7-1 win over the Gophers.

DURABILITY:

Starters Jarred Hippen and Matt Dermody have been providing the Iowa pitching staff with long, quality outings of late. The duo each threw complete games in Iowa's series with Indiana (April 16-17). In the doubleheader against Michigan on April 23, Hippen pitched six and two thirds in his outing and Dermody threw eight and two thirds. Last weekend at Minnesota, Hippen tossed a complete game one-hitter Friday and Dermody pitched five and two thirds Saturday. With fellow starter Nick Brown out indefinitely due to injury, this has been crucial for the Hawkeye pitching staff.

DOUBLES MACHINE:

Tyson Blaser went 2-for-3 with a double against Milwaukee Wednesday night. The catcher leads all Hawkeyes with 14 doubles this season. The total ranks fourth in the Big Ten.

SWING AWAY:

Iowa out-hit Minnesota Sunday, 12-4, in its 7-1 victory. The Hawkeyes have enjoyed success this season when notching more hits than their opponents. The Black and Gold are 11-4 when out-hitting their opponents.

Head Coach Jack Dahm

In seven years as Iowa's head baseball coach, Jack Dahm has established the Hawkeyes as Big Ten contenders and he is ready to lead the Iowa baseball program to new heights with his commitment to excellence.

Since taking over the Iowa baseball team in July of 2003, Dahm has sparked resurgence in the Hawkeye program, enjoying success Hawkeye fans hadn't seen in years.

In Dahm's 17 years as a head coach, he has produced 24 first team all-conference performers, eight freshmen All-Americans and two All-Americans. In his seven years at Iowa, Dahm has coached 27 all-Big Ten selections, including eight first teamers. Iowa had only four first team selections in the previous 14 years before his arrival in Iowa City.

Last season, Iowa finished with a bang, winning 11 of its final 14 contests and eventually finishing 30-28. Dahm coached the Hawkeyes to road series victories at Michigan and Penn State and home sets against Ohio State, Illinois and Purdue. Furthermore, Iowa ultimately won all five meetings against the Boilermakers in 2010, sweeping a three-game regular-season set and winning two in the league tournament.

The Hawkeyes finished third in the conference and ultimately placed second at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament. The tournament berth was the third under Dahm and only the eighth in school history. The Hawkeyes won three games at the tournament, which was the first time an Iowa team had won since 1990. The runner-up finish in the conference tournament tied the school's highest finish, which was accomplished once before (1983).

On the heels of last season's success, the Hawkeyes' 2011 recruiting class was once again rated the best in the Big Ten by Perfect Game USA. The class was ranked fourth-best in the Midwest and 48th-best nationally.

Ten Hawkeyes have been drafted by major league teams the last two years. Thirty-nine of Dahm's players have been selected in the MLB Draft, while four have gone on to play in the big leagues.

On March 21, 2009, in a 9-4 victory over Western Illinois at Duane Banks Field, Dahm surpassed Dick Schultz as the third-most victorious coach in Iowa history. Dahm picked up his 400th win as a Division I coach at North-ern Iowa April 23. He also picked up his 124th victory as Iowa's head coach against Ohio State May 16, which surpassed Scott Broghamer (1998-03) for fourth in Iowa coaching wins.

The 43-year old Dahm and his wife, Lynn, have been married for 16 years. The couple has three children - sons Casey and Tyler and daughter Lyndsey. He was born January 19, 1967 in Skokie, Ill.

Brown is Iowa's first pitcher to earn the conference weekly honor since Brock Alberts on March 3, 2008.

LUCK OF THE IRISH:

The Hawkeyes beat Notre Dame March 17, 4-3, in ten innings in the first game of the Irish Classic. The win marked the first time a team defeated Notre Dame on St. Patrick's Day in five years. The last team to top the Irish on St. Patrick's Day was the Hawkeyes in 2006, also in San Antonio.

The last time an Iowa player stole home was March 23, 2007. Jason White accomplished the feat in a 6-5 against North Dakota State.

WILLIS EARNS PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR:

Senior Trevor Willis was named Big Ten Player of the Week March 7 after recording three multi-hit games in four contests with Georgia State and Mississippi State. He also went 2-for-4 in the weekend finale, a 3-2 walk-off victory against the Panthers. The native of Lockport, Ill., scored six runs in four games, touching home twice in each of Iowa's last three games, and drove in a run. The center fielder slugged a triple and went 3-for-4 on the base paths, including two steals in Sunday's game and a swipe of home on Saturday. FIVE HAWKEYES DRAFTED:

Junior Kurtis Muller was selected in the Major League baseball 2010 First-Year Player Draft. Muller was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 22nd round (667th pick). Senior Zach Robertson was picked by the Florida Marlins in the 30th round (917th pick), incoming recruit Patrick Lala was selected in the 29th round (891) by the Philadelphia Phillies, senior Patrick Schatz was picked by the Chicago White Sox in the 49th round (1,478th pick) and incoming recruit Taylor Zeutenhorst was selected in the 41st round by the Phillies (1,251st pick).

Lala and Zeutenhorst did not sign professional contracts and are on Iowa's 2011 roster. However, Muller did sign a contract and will forgo his senior year of eligibility.

Under Jack Dahm, 22 Hawkeyes have been drafted. Sixteen players have been drafted in the past four years.

BIG TEN DIAMOND REPORT:

Big Ten Network television coverage of 2011 Big Ten baseball and softball begins on Sunday with a doubleheader of action and the premiere of Big Ten Diamond Report, the network's new weekly studio show. Big Ten Diamond Report will review the sports' top headlines, preview upcoming matchups and look at national storylines affecting the Big Ten. Mike Hall and Rick Pizzo host the show along with former Hawkeye pitcher and major league Cal Eldred and Tammy Williams. The show will air each Sunday during the spring through the end of the Big Ten baseball and softball seasons with expert analysis, player and coach interviews, features and exclusive access inside the diamond.

DUANE BANKS FIELD:

Every year the UI Athletics Department continues to upgrade Duane Banks Field. In 2010, the Hawkeyes added 500 chair back seats behind home plate. The chair backs allow Hawkeye fans to purchase season tickets.

This past fall, Duane Banks Field underwent a facelift, with a complete resurfacing of the field. New sod, dirt and drainage system were installed. Additionally, new batting cages were put in place down the right field line.

In 2009, the UI Recreation Building underwent a complete makeover. Improvements included: a new locker room, lounge, training room and weight room for the baseball program.

Iowa boasted a 15-6 home record at Duane Banks Field in 2010.

THE ASSISTANT COACHES:

Head Coach Jack Dahm is assisted by coach Ryan Brownlee and coach Chris Maliszewski, along with volunteer coach Zach Dillon.

Over the past 10 seasons, 25 players coached or recruited by Brownlee have been drafted; two more signed free agent contracts. In the past two years, Kurtis Muller, Patrick Schatz, Steve Turnbull, Kyle Heim, Mike Schurz and recruits Matt Dermody, Dan Sheppard, Patrick Lala and Taylor Zeutenhorst were drafted by major league teams. In six years of coaching summer collegiate leagues, he has seen 33 of his players sign pro contracts, including Khalil Green and Joe Thatcher of the Padres, Kevin Cash of the Yankees, Dan Meyer of the Marlins and Luke Scott of the Astros.

Last season, the hitting coach preached a 'pitch-by-pitch' approach at the plate that helped propel the Hawkeyes to 11 wins in their final 14 contests; the team eventually finished 30-28. Iowa finished third in the conference and ultimately placed second at the Big Ten Tournament. The tournament berth was the eighth in school history. The Hawkeyes won three games at the tournament, which was the first time an Iowa team had won any game since 1990. The runner up finish in the conference tournament tied the school's highest finish, which was accomplished once before (1983).

Maliszewski is in his third season as the Hawkeye pitching coach. In addition to his role as pitching coach, Maliszewski is also responsible for the team's travel arrangements and assists with the youth summer camps.

In 2010, Maliszewski and his pitching staff helped propel Iowa to a third place finish in the conference, as well as earning the school's eighth Big Ten Tournament appearance. The Hawkeyes finished as the runner-up in the tournament after winning three games -- the first tournament wins for Iowa since 1990.

Maliszewski mentored his young pitching staff to improved numbers in his second campaign. Under his tutelage, the Hawkeyes posted improved numbers in wins, ERA, saves, walks, wild pitches and opposing batting average. Iowa's talented arms helped the Hawkeyes to a late surge, winning 11 of their last 14 games. Individually, pitcher Jarred Hippen was named to the all-tournament team, as well as garnering second team all-league accolades. In addition to Hippen's accomplishments, closer Kevin Lee broke the school single-season record with 13 saves - nearly double the saves Iowa had as a team in 2009.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT TICKETS:

All-Tournament passes and group tickets to the 2011 Big Ten Baseball Tournament to be held May 25-28 at Huntington Park, home of the Triple-A Columbus Clippers, are on sale.

All-Tournament passes are available for $100 each. Group tickets (minimum 20) are available for $7 per ticket. All tickets are available at www.ColumbusSports.org, www.bigten.org and www.ticketmaster.com.

Last year at the Big Ten Tournament, the Hawkeyes bounced Purdue from the six-team tournament with two victories over the Boilermakers and rallied from a seven-run deficit to stun second-seeded Michigan in the semifinals. Iowa reached the championship game for the first time since 1983. Iowa ultimately fell to the well-rested and top-seeded Minnesota team in the title game.

HEADSHOTS AVAILABLE:

Up-to-date head shots of all Iowa players and coaches are available on the internet at pics.hawkeyebaseball.com. Contact the Iowa Sports Information office if you are in need of additional photos.

ON THE HORIZON:

Iowa continues Big Ten action next week when it travels to Ohio State. The Buckeyes and Hawkeyes will play a three-game set beginning Friday in Columbus, Ohio.
